31. Statutes how made :-

(1) The first statutes of the University are those set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) The Executive Council may, from time to time, make new statutes or any statutes in addition to the first statutes referred to in sub-section (1) and may amend or repeal any statute including the first Statutes: Provided that the Executive Council shall not make, amend or repeal any statute affecting the status, power or constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion in writing on the proposed changes, and any opinion so expressed shall be considered by the Executive Council.

(3) Every new statute or addition to the statutes or any amendment or repeal of a statute shall require the approval of the Chancellor who may assent thereto or withhold assent therefrom or remit the same to the Executive Council for reconsideration.

(4) A new statute or a statute amending or repealing an existing statute shall have no validity unless it has been assented by the Chancellor.

32. Ordinances :-

(1) The first Ordinance shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor with the previous approval of the Government during the period of two years immediately after the commencement of this Act, and the Ordinances so made may be amended, repealed or added to at any time by the Executive Council in the manner prescribed by the Statutes.

33. Regulations :-

The authorities of the University may make regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances for the conduct of their own business and that of the Committees appointed by them and not provided for by this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances, in the manner prescribed by the Statutes.

34. Annual Report :-

The Executive Council shall prepare an annual report for the University on or before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes. A copy of the report with a copy of the resolution thereon shall be submitted to the Government for information.

35. Annual Accounts :-

The Finance Officer shall prepare during each financial year the annual accounts of the University of the preceding year and submit them to the Executive Council for the consideration with the recommendations of the Finance Committee and thereafter submit them to such audit as the Government may direct before the end of the financial year. The accounts when audited shall be published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette and copies thereof together with copies of audit report shall be submitted to the Executive Council not later than two years from the end of financial year to which the accounts pertain and to the Government.

36. Financial Estimates :-

(1) The Finance Officer shall prepare before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes the financial estimates for the ensuing financial year along with the annual accounts whether audited or not, of the preceding financial year and after they are considered by the Finance Committee submit them to the Executive Council for approval.

37. Power to incur unforeseen expenditure :-

The Executive Council may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, incur any expenditure for which no provision has been made in the budget or which is in excess of the amount provided in the budget.

CHAPTER 7

General

38. Filling of casual vacancies :-

All casual vacancies among the members other than ex-officio members of any authority or other body of the University shall be filled as soon as may be, by the person or body who or which nominated the member whose place has become vacant and the person nominated to a casual vacancy shall be member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member:

Provided further that no casual vacancy shall be filled if such vacancy occurs within six months before the date of the expiry of the term of the members of any authority or other body of the University.

39. Protection of action taken in good faith :-

No suit or other legal proceedings, shall lie against any officer or employee of the University for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes or Ordinances.

40. Proceedings of the University authorities and bodies not invalidated by vacancies :-

No act or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of any vacancy or of any defect or irregularity in the election, or appointment of a member of any authority or other body of the University or any defect or irregularity in such act or proceeding not affecting the merits of the case.

41. Disqualification for Membership :-

(2) In case of dispute or doubt as to whether a person is disqualified under sub-section (1), the Executive Council shall refer such case to the Chancellor, whose decision thereon shall be final.

42. Removal from membership of the University :-

(1) The Executive Council may remove by an order in writing made in this behalf any person from membership of any authority of the University by a resolution passed by a majority of the total membership of the Executive Council and by a majority of not less than two third of the members of the Executive Council present and voting at the meeting. If such person has been convicted by a criminal court for an offence which in the opinion of the Executive Council involves moral turpitude or if he has been guilty of gross misconduct and for the same reason, the Executive Council may withdraw any degree or diploma conferred on or granted to that person by the University.

(2) The Executive Council may also by an order in writing made in this behalf remove any person from the membership of any authority of the University if he becomes of unsound mind or deaf-mute or suffers from leprosy or has applied to be adjudicated or has been as an insolvent.

(3) No action under this section shall be taken against any person unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity to show-cause against the action proposed to be taken.

(4) A copy of every order passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall as soon as may be after it is so passed, be communicated to the person concerned in the manner prescribed.

43. Disputes as to constitution of University authorities and bodies :-

If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected or nominated as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority of the University or other body of a University the question shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

44. Constitution of Committees :-

All the authorities of the University shall have power to constitute or reconstitute Committees and delegate to them such of their powers as they deem fit. Such Committees shall, save as otherwise provided, consist of members of the authority concerned and of such other persons, if any, as the authority in each case may think fit.

45. Advisory Committees :-

Until the Authorities of the University are constituted under subsection (1) of Section 49, the Vice- Chancellor, shall, subject to the approval of the Chancellor, have power

(1) to appoint such advisory or selection committees as he may think fit;

(2) to appoint such members of the teaching staff as may be necessary; and

(3) to appoint such ministerial and lower grade staff as may be necessary.

46. Power to obtain information :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Government may by order in writing, call for any information from the University on any matter relating to the affairs of the University and the University shall, if such information is available with it, furnish the Government with such information within a reasonable period:

Provided that in the case of information which the University considers confidential, the University may place the same before the Chancellor.

47. Mode of proof of University record :-

Copy of any receipt, application, notice or proceeding, resolution of any authority or Committee of the University or other documents in possession of the University or any entry in any register duly maintained by the University, if certified by the Registrar shall be received as prima facie evidence of such receipt, application, notice, proceeding or resolution, document for the existence of entry in a register and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters and transactions, wherein the original thereof would, if produced, has been admissible in evidence.

48. Appointment of the first Vice-Chancellor, the first Registrar and the first Finance Officer :-

Notwithstanding anything in this Act, and the Statutes, the first Vice-Chancellor, the first Registrar and the first Finance Officer shall be appointed by the Chancellor on a salary to be fixed by him and each of the said officers shall hold office for a period to be fixed by him, but not exceeding three years.

49. Transitory powers of the first Vice-Chancellor :-

(1) It shall be the duty of the first Vice-Chancellor to make arrangements for constituting the Executive Council and such other authorities of the University within six months from the commencement of the Act or such longer period not exceeding one year as the Government may by notification, direct.

(2) The first Vice-Chancellor shall, in consultation with the Government, make such rules as may be necessary for the functioning of the University.

(3) The authorities constituted under sub-section (1) shall commence to exercise their functions on such date as the Government may, by notification specify in this behalf.

(4) It shall be the duty of the first Vice-Chancellor to draft such Statutes, as may be necessary and submit them to the Executive Council for their approval. Such Statutes when framed shall be published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, and the Statutes and until such time an authority is duly constituted, the first Vice-Chancellor may appoint any officer or constitute any committee temporarily to exercise and perform any of the powers and duties, of such authority under this Act and the Statutes.

50. Acceptance of benefaction by the University :-

No benefaction shall be accepted by the University, which in the opinion of the authorities of the University, involves conditions or obligations as to the religious belief in the admission or appointment of members, students, teachers or in any other connection whatsoever:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the University from accepting any such benefaction intended for the promotion of research in any branch of study.

51. Special mode of appointment :-

(1) The Executive Council may invite a person of high academic distinction and professional attainments to accept a post of Professor in the University on such terms and conditions as it deems fit, and on the person agreeing to do so, appoint him to the post.
