Assam Land (Requisition And Acquisition) Act, 1964

15 of 1964

An Act to amend and consolidate the law for requisition and speedy acquisition of premises and land for certain public purposes
Whereas it is expedient to amend and consolidate the law for requisition and speedy acquisition of premises and land for certain public purposes; It is hereby enacted in the Fifteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

1. Short Title, Extent And Commencement :-

- (1) This Act may be called the Assam Land (Requisition and Acquisition) act, 1964.

(2) It extends to the State of Assam.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context-

(a) "Collector", "land" and "person interested" have the same meaning as in the Land Acquisition Act, 1884 (Act 1 of 1894);
Explanation: Land for the purpose of this Act includes trees, buildings and standing crops on it, and easement.

(b) "court" means a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction, and includes the court of any Additional Judge, Subordinate Judge or Munsif whom the State Government may appoint, by name or by virtue of his office, to perform, concurrently with any such principal Civil Court, all or any of the functions of the Court under this Act within any specified local limits and, in the case of Munsif up to the limits of the pecuniary jurisdiction with which he is vested under S. 19 of the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act, 1887 (Act XII of 1887);

(c) "displaced person" means-

(i) any person who, on account of this setting up to the two Dominions of India and Pakistan or on account of civil disturbances or the fear of such disturbances in area now forming part of Pakistan has been compelled to leave his place of residence in such area after the 1st day of March, 1947 and who has subsequently been residing in India and is in distress, or

(ii) a person who has been displaced due to various acquisition proceedings relating to land in Assam since 1943.

(d) "owner" means proprietor or patta holder and his co- sharer; and

(e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

3. Power To Requisition :-

(1) If in the opinion of the State Government or any person authorised in this behalf by the State Government it is necessary so to do, for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of community or for providing proper facilities for accommodation, transport, communication, irrigation, flood control and anti erosion measures including embankment and drainage or for providing land individually or in groups to landless, flood affected or displaced persons, or to a society registered under the Assam Co-operative Societies Act, 1949 (Assam Act I of 1956), or a company incorporated under the companies Act, 1956 (Act I of 1956), formed for the benefit and rehabilitation of landless, flood affected or displaced persons or to provide land for the purpose of construction of border fencing and allied works, including border roads and check posts connected therewith, along Bangladesh border, the State Government or the person so authorised, as the case may, may, by order in writing, requisition any land and may make such further orders as appear to it or to him be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisitioning. Provided that no land used for the purpose of religious worship shall be requisitioned under this section. Provided further that where it is necessary to provide the land to less or displaced persons such land shall not be requisitioned unless the person interested in the land has been given an opportunity of making representation against it within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(2) An order under sub-S. (1) shall be served in the prescribed manner on the owner of the land and where the order relates to land in occupation of a tenant, also on such tenant.

(3) When the order for requisition is made by any authority other than the State Government, any person interested in the land, within 30 days from the date of service of the order, may appeal to the state Government and the decision of the State Government in such appeal shall be final.

4. Power To Take Possession Of Requisitioned Land :-

(1) Where any land has been requisitioned under S.3 the State Government or the person authorised in this behalf by the State Government may, by order in writing, direct the owner, the tenant, or any other person who may be in possession of the land whether at the time of the requisition or at any time thereafter before the land is released from the requisition under S.8 to surrender or deliver possession thereof to the Collector or any other person duly authorised by him in this behalf within such days of the service of the order as may be specified therein.

(2) If any persons refuses or fails to comply with an order made under sub-S.

(1), the State Government or the person authorised in this behalf, in addition to any other provisions in this Act, may take possession of the land and may, for that purpose, use such force as may be necessary.

(3) An order under sub-s. (1) shall be served in the prescribed manner of the owner of the land and where the order relates to land in occupation of a tenant or any other person also on such tenant or occupant.

(4) If after service of the notice on the owner, tenant or the occupant, or any person other than the person on whom the notice is served, enters into possession of the land, nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as requiring fresh notice on such person and such person shall deliver possession to the Collector or any other person duly authorised by him in this behalf on the date previously notified, notwithstanding that no fresh notice has been served on him.

(5) If it is found that the person entering into unauthorised possession of the land under sub-S. (4) has raised any crop or erected any building or other constructions on the land the Collector or any other persons duly authorised by him in this behalf shall have the power to confiscate or destroy the crop so raised or the building or other construction so erected by such persons and such person shall not be entitled to any compensation for any loss or damage so done.

5. Repairs To Buildings :-

Where any land with building standing thereon is requisitioned under S.3, the Government or the person authorised in this behalf by the State Government may order the owner to execute such repairs as may be necessary and are usually made by the landlords of that locality and as may specified in the notice issued in this behalf within such reasonable time as may be mentioned therein and if the owner fails to execute any repairs of pursuance of such order, the State Government or the person authorised in this behalf by the State Government may cause repairs specified in the order to be executed at the expense of the owner and the cost thereof may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be deducted from the compensation payable to the owner in such proportion and over such period as may be prescribed. Provided that where an order is made by an authority other than the State Government to carry out repairs at the expense of the owner, the owners or any other person interested in the land, within 30 days from the date of service of the order, may appeal to the State Government, and the decision of the State Government on such appeals shall be final.

6. Acquisition Of Land :-

(1) Where any land, has been requisitioned under S.3, the State Government may use or deal with it in such manner as may appear to it to be expedient and may acquire such land publishing in the official Gazette, a notice to the effect that the State Government has decided to acquire such land on pursuance of this Section .

(2) Where a notice as aforesaid is published in the official Gazette, the requisitioned land and promises shall, on and from the beginning of the day on which the notice is so published, vest absolutely in the State Government free from all encumbrances and the period of requisition of such land shall end.

(3) subject to the provisions of this Act on such vesting, the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Act I of 1894), with the rules framed there under shall, so far as may be, apply to such land.

7. Notice To Person Interested :-

(1) After the publication of a notice under sub-S. (1) of S.6, the Collector shall cause public notice to be given at convenient places on or near the land to be taken stating that the State Government has acquired the land, and that claims to compensation for all interests in such land may be made to him.

(2) Such notices shall state the particulars of the land so acquired, and shall require all persons interested in the land to appear personally or by duly authorised agent before the Collector at a time and place therein mentioned (such time not being earlier than fifteen days after the date of publication of the notice), and to state the nature of their respective interest in the land and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for such interests. The Collector may in any case require such statement to be made in writing and signed by the party or his agent.

8. Release From Requisition :-

(1) where any land requisitioned under S.3 is not acquired and is to be released from requisition, it will revert to the owner and the Collector will deliver possession of the land to such owner or person interested who was recognised under sub-S. (4) of S. 11 in as good a condition as the land was when possession thereof was taken subject only to the changes caused by reasonable wear and tear and irresistible force.

(2) The delivery of possession of such land to the person specified in the order made under sub-S. (1) shall be a full discharge of any liability of the State Government to deliver possession to such person as may have rightful claim to possession thereof but shall not prejudice any right in respect of such land, which any other person may be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the ;and is so delivered.

(3) where the person to whom the possession of any land requisitioned under S.3 is to be delivered cannot be found or is not readily traceable or has no agent or other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf, the State Government shall publish in the official Gazette a notice declaring that such land is released from requisition and shall cause a copy thereof to be affixed on some conspicuous part of such land.

(4) When a notice referred to in sub-S. (3) is published in the official Gazette, the land specified in such notice shall cease to be subject to requisition on and from the date of such publication and shall be deemed to have been delivered to the person entitled to the possession thereof, and the State Government shall not be liable for any compensation or other claims in respect of such land for any period after the said date.
