Notwithstanding anything contained in S. 3, the State Government may by notification in the official Gazette apply all or any of the provision of this Act to any class of persons or establishments mentioned in that section other than those mentioned in Cl. (c) of sub-S. (1) and modify or cancel any such notification.

5. Exemptions :-

The State Government may, if they are satisfied that public interest so requires or that the circumstances of the case are such that it would be just and proper to do so having regard to the nature and capacity of the establishments by notification in the official Gazette exempt either permanently or for any specified period, any establishment or classes of establishments in any area or persons or classes of persons to which or to whom this Act applies, from all or any of its provisions subject to such restrictions and conditions as the State Government may deem fit.

CHAPTER 2

Hours of work

6. Daily and weekly hours :-

No employee in any establishment shall be required or allowed to work for more than eight hours in any day and forty eight hours in any week:

Provided that the total number of hours of work including overtime, shall not exceed ten hours in any day except on days of stock taking and preparation of accounts and the total number of hours of overtime shall not exceed fifty for any quarter.

7. Extra wages for overtime :-

Where an employee works in any establishment for more than eight hours in any day or for more than forty-eight hours in any week, he shall in respect of such overtime work, be entitled to wages at the rate of twice the ordinary rate of wages.

Explanation. For the purpose of this section "ordinary rate of wages" means the basic wages plus such allowances, including the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the supply of meals and the concessional sale to employees of food grains and other articles as the employee is for the time being entitled to, but does not include bonus.

8. Interval for rest :-

The period of work of an employee in an establishment each day shall be so fixed that no period shall exceed four hours and that no such person shall work for more than four hours before he has had an interval for rest of at least one hour.

9. Spread over :-

The periods of work of an employee in an establishment shall be so fixed that inclusive of his interval for rest, they shall not spread over more than ten and half hours in any day.

10. Opening and closing hours :-

(1) No establishment shall on any day be opened earlier than and closed later than such hour as may be fixed by a general or special order of the State Government made under sub-S. (2) :

Provided that any customer who was being served or was waiting to be served in any establishment at the hour fixed for its closing may be served during the quarter of an hour immediately following such hour.

(2) The State Government may, by general or special order, fix the time at which any establishment or class of establishments shall be opened or closed in any local area.

11. Closing of shops and grants of weekly holidays for religious purposes :-

(1) Every shop shall remain entirely closed for one day in each week.

(2) The State Government may, by notification, require that in addition to one day referred to in sub-S. (1), every shop or any specified class of shops shall remain closed between such hours in the afternoon of such days in each week, as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that, when there are conducted in a shop two or more trades or business any of which is of such character that, if it was the sole trade or business therein conducted, the provisions of this Act would not apply to that shop, such shop shall so far as the conduct of the trade or business is concerned, be exempt from the operation of sub- S.(1);

Provided further that, when in any establishment for which the provisions of this Act applies two or more trades or business are conducted, one or more of which are usually conducted in a shop while the others are usually conducted in a commercial establishment, the provisions of this section shall not apply to the establishments so far as the conduct of the trades or business usually conducted in a commercial establishment are concerned.

(3) No deduction on account of any closure of a shop under the provisions of sub-S. (1) or sub-S. (2) shall be made from the wages of any employee of such shop.

(4) The day on which shop shall be closed in each week under the provisions of sub-S. (1) shall be such day as may be specified by the employer in a notice, which shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in the shop :

Provided that no employer shall, more often than once in every three months, alter the day so specified ;

Provided further that the Inspector may, by a written order, require the shops in a particular area within their respective jurisdiction, to be kept closed on a particular day as specified in the order.

(5) Every person employed in a commercial establishment shall be allowed as holidays at least one and a half day in each week :

Provided that, when there are conducted in a commercial establishment two or more trades or business, any of which is of such a character that, if it was the sole trade or business therein conducted, the provisions of this Act would not apply to that commercial establishment, such commercial establishment shall, so far as the conduct of trade or business is concerned be exempt from the operation of this sub-section.

(6) No deduction on account of any holiday allowed under the provisions of sub-S. (5) shall be made from the wages of any person employed in such commercial establishment;

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Weekly Holidays Act, 1942 (Act XVIII of 1942), every person employed in an establishment for public entertainment or amusement shall be allowed as holidays at least one and a half day in each week :

Provided that, when there are conducted in an establishment for public entertainment or amusement two or more trade or business any of which is of such a character that, if it was the sole trade or business therein conducted, the provisions of this Act would not apply to that establishment, such establishment shall so far as the conduct of that trade or business is concerned, be exempt from the operation of this sub-section.

(8) No deduction on account of any holiday allowed under the provisions of sub- S. (7) shall be made from the wages of any person employed in such establishment for public establishment or amusement.

(9) Every person employed in a shop, commercial establishment for public establishment or amusement shall be entitled to leave of absence for any days he may select not exceeding three in number in any one year for the purpose of attending ceremonies or performing functions or duties connected with or enjoined by his religion.

(10) Every person employed in an establishment shall be granted a paid holiday on each of the following occasions and on such other day or days as may be notified by the State Government from time to time : (a) 26th January, (b) First May, (c) 15th August, (d) 2nd October.

CHAPTER 3

Leave

12. Application of Chapter :-

The provisions of this Chapter shall not operate to the prejudice of any right to which an employee be entitled under any other law or under the term of any award, agreement or contract of service :

Provided that where such award, agreement or contract of service provides for a longer leave with wages or weekly holidays than provided in this Chapter, the employee shall be entitled to such longer leave or weekly holidays as the case may be.

Explanation. For the purpose of this Chapter, leave shall not, except as provided in S. 13, include weekly holidays or holidays for festivals or other similar occasions.

13. Annual leave with wages :-

(1) Every employee in an establishment shall be entitled after twelve months' continuous service in that establishment, to privilege leave with wages for a period of 16 days in the subsequent period of twelve months ; provided that such privilege leave with wages may be accumulated up to maximum period of 30 days.

(2) Every employee in an establishment shall also be entitled during every twelve months of continuous service to medical leave with wages for a period not exceeding twelve days on the ground of any sickness incurred or accident sustained by him and to casual leave with wages for a period not exceeding twelve days on any reasonable ground.

(3) If an employee entitled to any leave under sub-S. (1) is discharged by his employer before he has been allowed the leave, or if having applied for and been refused the leave, he quits his employment before he has been allowed the leave, the employer shall pay him the amount payable under this Act in respect of the leave.

(4) If an employee entitled to any leave under sub-S. (2) is discharged by his employer when he is sick or suffering from the result of an accident, the employer shall pay him the amount payable under this Act in respect of the period of the leave to which he is entitled at the time of his discharge, in addition to the amount, if any, payable to him under sub-S. (3).

(5) An employee shall be deemed to have completed a period of twelve months' continuous service within the meaning of this section, notwithstanding any interruption in service during those twelve months brought about (a) by sickness, accident, or authorised leave (including authorised holidays and weekly holidays), not exceeding ninety days in the aggregate for all three ; or (b) by a lock-out; or (c) by a strike which is not an illegal strike ; or (d) by intermittent periods of involuntary unemployment not exceeding thirty days in the aggregate, and authorised leave shall be deemed not to include any weekly holiday allowed under this Act which occurs at the beginning or end of an interruption brought about by the leave.

14. Wages during leave period :-

For the leave allowed to him under S. 13, an employee shall be paid at the rate equal to the daily average of his total full time earning exclusive of any overtime earning and bonus, but inclusive of dearness allowance and the cash equivalent of any advantage accruing by the supply of meals and by the sale by the employer of food grains and other articles at concessional rates, for the days on which he worked during the month immediately preceding his leave.

15. Power of Inspectors to act for employees :-

Any Inspector may institute proceedings on behalf of any employee to recover any sum required to be paid by an employer under this Chapter which the employer has not paid.

16. Power to exempt establishment :-

Where the Government are satisfied that the leave rules applicable to employees in an establishment provide benefits which in its opinion are not less favourable than those for which this Chapter makes provisions it may, by written order, exempt the establishment from all or any of the provisions of this Chapter subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order.

CHAPTER 4

Wages

17. Application and amendment of the Payment of Wages Act :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act 4 of 1936) referred to as the said Act, the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, subject to the provisions of sub-S. (2), the said Act or any of the provisions thereof or of the rules made thereunder shall apply to all or any class of employees in establishments to which this Act applies.

(2) On the application of the provisions of the said Act to any establishment under sub-S. (1), the Inspector appointed under this Act shall be deemed to be the Inspector for the purpose of the enforcement of the provisions of the said Act within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

18. Notice of dismissal :-

(1) No employer shall dispense with the service of an employee employed continuously for a period of not less than six months, except for a reasonable cause and without giving such employee at least one month's notice or wages in lieu of such notice ; provided however that such notice shall not be necessary where the services of such employee are dispensed with on a charge of misconduct supported by satisfactory evidence recorded at an inquiry held for the purpose.

(2) Any employee whose services are dispensed with may appeal to such authority and within such time as may be prescribed either on the ground that there was no reasonable cause for dispensing with his services or on the ground that he had not been guilty of misconduct as held by the employer.

(3) The appellate authority may, after giving notice in the prescribed manner to the employer and the employee, dismiss the appeal or direct the reinstatement of the employee with or without wages for the period he was kept out of employment or direct payment of compensation without reinstatement or grant such other relief as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case.

(4) In directing the reinstatement of an employee the appellate authority shall also direct the payment of such amount of compensation as may be specified by him in case the employer fails to reinstate the employee in accordance with the directions.

(5) The decisions of the appellate authority shall be final and binding on both the parties, not be liable to be questioned in any Court of law, and be given effect to within such time as may be specified in the order of the appellate authority.

(6) Any compensation required to be paid by the employer under sub-Ss. (3) and (4) but not paid by him shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act, 1890 (Act 1 of 1890) for the time being in force.

CHAPTER 5

Employment of children and women

19. Prohibition of employment of children :-

No child shall be required or allowed to work in any establishment except as an apprentice in such employment as may be specified by the State Government.

20. Prohibition of employment of women and persons below seventeen years , during night :-

No woman or any person who has not attained the age of seventeen shall be required or allowed to work whether as an employee or otherwise in any establishment before 6 a.m. or after 7 p.m.

CHAPTER 6

Health and safety

21. Cleanliness, ventilation and lighting :-

(1) The premises of every establishment shall be kept clean and free from effluvia arising from any drain or privy or other nuisance and shall be cleaned at such times and by such methods as may be prescribed and these methods may include lime washing, colour washing, painting, varnishing, disinfection and deodorising.

(2) The premises of every establishment shall be ventilated and sufficiently lighted during all working hours, with such standards and by such methods as may be prescribed.

(3) If it appears to an Inspector that the premises of any establishment within his jurisdiction are not sufficiently kept clean or lighted or ventilated, he may serve on the employer an order in writing specifying the measures which in his opinion should be adopted and requiring him to be carried out before a specified date.

22. Precaution against fire :-

Every employer shall take proper precaution against fire in such manner as may be prescribed.

23. Appeals :-

Against any order of the Inspector under this Chapter, an appeal shall lie to such authority and within such time as may be prescribed.

24. Apportionment of expenses under preceding sections :-

If any person, being either the owner or the occupier of an establishment who has incurred or about to incur any expenses for the purpose of securing that the requirements of S. 21 or S. 22 are complied with respect to the establishment, alleges that the whole or any part of the expense ought to be borne by any other person having an interest in the premises, he may apply to the Court of Munsiff having jurisdiction over the area in which the establishment is situated and that Court shall make such order concerning the expenses or their apportionment as it appears to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the terms of any contract between the parties, to be just and equitable, and any order made under this section may direct that any such contract as aforesaid shall cease to have effect in so far as it is inconsistent with the terms of the order.

CHAPTER 7

Enforcement and inspection

25. Appointment of Inspectors :-

(1) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint such officer or such persons or class of persons as they think fit to be Inspectors for the purposes of this Act within such local limits as they may assign to them respectively.

(2) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint for the State a duly qualified person to be the Chief Inspector for the purposes of this Act.

26. Powers and duties of Inspectors :-

Subject to any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, an Inspector may within the local limits for which he is appointed

(a) enter, at all reasonable times and with such assistants, if any, being persons in the service of the Government or any local authority as he thinks fit, any place which is or which he has reason to believe is an establishment;

(b) make such inspection of the premises and of any prescribed registers/records and notice and take on the spot or otherwise evidence of any person as he may deem necessary, for carrying out the purposes of this Act; and

(c) exercise such other powers as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act:

Provided that no one shall be required under this section to answer any question or give any evidence tending to incriminate himself ;

27. Inspector to be public servant :-

Every Inspector appointed under sub-S. (1) of S. 25 shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of S. 12 of the Indian Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860).

28. Employer to produce registers, records etc :-

for inspection. Every employer shall on demand produce for inspection of an Inspector all registers, records and notice required to be kept under and for the purposes of this Act.

CHAPTER 8

Offences, penalties and procedure

29. Penalties :-

(1) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any rules made thereunder shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees :

Provided that for any second or subsequent offence, the employer shall be punishable with imprisonment only for a term which shall not be less than two months but may extend to six months.

(2) No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act or any rule or order made thereunder unless the complaint is made

(a) by the employee of an establishment either by himself or through the union of which he is a member within three months from the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed ; or

(b) by the Inspector within six months from the date on which the alleged offence comes to his knowledge.

(3) No Court inferior to that of Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under this Act or any rules or orders made thereunder.

CHAPTER 9

Miscellaneous

30. Maintenance of registers and records and display of notices :-

Subject to the general or special orders of the State Government, an employer shall maintain such registers and records and display on the premises of his establishment such notices as may be prescribed. All such registers and records shall be kept in the premises of the establishment to which they relate.

31. Saving of certain rights and privileges :-

Nothing in this Act shall affect any right or privilege which an employee in any establishment is entitled to on the date this Act comes into force, under any other law, contract, customs or usage applicable to such establishment or any award, settlement or agreement binding on the employer and the employee in such establishment, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

32. Indemnity :-

(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.S. 34, subject to such restrictions and conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification.

(2) The exercise of the powers delegated under sub-S. (1) shall be subject to control and revision by the State Government or by such persons, as may be empowered by them in that behalf. The State Government shall also have power to control and revise the acts or proceedings of any person so empowered.

33. Power to make rules :-

(1) The State Government may, subject to the condition of previous publication by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matter, namely :

(a) health, safety, welfare of employees, holiday for occasions;

(b) the form and the date for application of registration or renewal of certificate and fees payable for such registration or renewal ;

(c) the particulars with respect to certificate of registrations or renewal thereof ;

(d) the manner of taking precaution against fire ;

(e) the setting up of an appellate authority, the limitation for filing appeal and manner of giving notice ;

(f) any other matter which has to be, or may be prescribed.

(3) All rulestaade under this section shall be laid as soon as may be, after they are made before the Assam Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if before the expiry of that session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Assam Legislative Assembly agree in making any modification in the rules or the Assam Legislative Assembly agree that no rules should be made, the rules shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be ; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the rules.

34. Power of Government to suspend provisions of the Act during fairs and festivals :-

The State Government may, by notifications on account of such holiday or other occasion as may be prescribed, suspend the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act in respect of any shop or commercial establishment or establishment for public entertainment or amusement or for any class of shops or establishments as aforesaid for such period and subject to such conditions as it may think fit.

35. Registration of establishments :-

(1) Every employer shall have his establishment registered under this Act. The registration shall be valid for a calendar year and thereafter shall be renewed for every calendar year.

(2) The application for registration or for renewal of registration shall be made to the Chief Inspector or to such other officer as the Chief Inspector may authorise in this behalf in such forms and within such date and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The fees payable for registration or for renewal of registration shall be such as may be prescribed by the State Government.

(4) Where an establishment is registered under this Act or when the registration of any establishment is renewed there shall be issued to the employer, a certificate of registration or a renewal certificate of registration, as the case may be, containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) The certificate or the renewal certificate, as the case may be, shall be kept prominently displayed at some conspicuous place of the establishment.

36. Repeal and saving :-

(1) The Assam Shops and Establishments Act, 1948 (Assam Act XIII of 1948) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Assam Shops and Establishments Act, 1948 (Assam Act XIII of 1948) any order made, any notification issued or any action taken under the Act so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act and shall continue to be in operation until cancelled or suspended by order made or notification issued under the corresponding provisions of this Act.
