Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933

7 of 1933

[26 October 1933]

An Act to provide more effectual control of money-lending in Bengal. WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the control of money-lending and to give additional powers to Courts to deal with money-lending in Bengal; AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:--

1. Short Title, Extent And Commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1933. (2) It extends to the whole of West Bengal: Provided that nothing in this Act shall apply to any loan made within the limits of the Ordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court or under a contract made within those limits. (3) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context-- (1) "money-lender" means any person who grants a loan of money; and (2) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

3. Presumption In Case Of Certain Loans :-

Where any suit in respect of any money lent by a money-lender after the commencement of the Usurious Loans Act, 1918, (X of 1918) it is found that the interest charged exceeds the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum in the case of a secured loan or twenty-five per cent. per annum in the case of an unsecured loan or that there is a stipulation for rests at intervals of less than six months, the Court shall, until the contrary is proved, presume for the purpose of section 3 of the Usurious Loans Act, 1918, that the interest charged is excessive and that the transaction was harsh and unconscionable and was substantially unfair, but this provision shall be without prejudice to the powers of the Court under the said section where the Court is satisfied that the interest charged, though not exceeding fifteen per cent. per annum or twenty-five per cent. per annum, as the case may be, is excessive

4. Power To Limit Interest Recoverable In Certain Cases :-

Notwithstanding anything in any other Act, where in any suit in respect of any money lent by a money-lender before the commencement of this Act it is found that the arrears of interest amount to a sum greater than the principal of the loan, the Court, unless it is satisfied that the money-lender had reasonable grounds for not enforcing his claim earlier, shall limit the amount of such interest recoverable in the suit to an amount equal to the principal of the loan.

5. Maximum Rate Of Interest Recoverable Under A Contract Which Provides For The Payment Of Compound Interest :-

No money-lender shall recover by suit interest of any kind at a rate exceeding ten per cent. per annum in respect of any loan made after the commencement of this Act under a contract which provides for the payment of compound interest.
