SCHEDULE 1 :- Of places included in the Station of Howrah

HOWRAH OFFENCES ACT, 1857

[10th July, 1857]

An Act to make better provision for the order and good government of the station of Howrah. WHEREAS Acts have been passed for regulating the police and for the conservancy and improvement of the town of Calcutta and of the other presidency-towns; and whereas large portions of the station of Howrah are not less populous than parts of the said town, and it will conduce to the order and good government of the said station that some of the provisions of the said Acts, with certain necessary modifications, should be extended to the said station; It is enacted as follows:

1. Cases under this Act by whom to be tried :-

Whoever is charged with having committed any of the offences mentioned in this Act, within the limits of the said ¹ * * * * station, as described in the schedule hereunto annexed, may be tried for any such offence by the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence is alleged to have been committed; and, on conviction, may be sentenced by such Magistrate to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for the offence.

1. Words "suburbs, or" rep. by Act 16 of 1874.

2. Possession of stolen property by one who fails to account satisfactorily for the possession. Power to summon persons declared to have had possession of stolen property within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate. Penalty if such possession fraudulent :-

Clause 1. Whoever has in his possession, or conveys in any manner, anything which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall, if he fail to account satisfactorily how he came by the same, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Clause 2. If any person, charged with having or conveying anything stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent or servant to convey the same for some other person, the Magistrate may cause every such other person, and also, if necessary, every former or pretended purchaser or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed (provided that such other person shall be alleged to have had possession of the same within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate) to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses touching the same; and if it appear to such Magistrate that any person so brought before him had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

3. Apprehension and punishment of reputed thieves, etc. :-

Any person found, between sunset and sunrise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to commit any offence against the person or property of another; any reputed thief found, between sunset and sunrise, on board any vessel or boat, or lying or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare or other place, who shall not give a satisfactory account of himself; any person found, between sunset and sunrise, having his face covered or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any such offence as aforesaid; any person found, between sunset and sunrise, in any dwelling-house or other building whatsoever, without being able satisfactorily to account for his presence therein; and any person having in his possession, without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on such person), any implement of house-breaking, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months; and any such person may be taken into custody by any police-officer without a warrant.
