WEST BENGAL LEGISLATURE (MEMBERS PENSION) ACT, 1986

18 of 1986

[18th July, 1986]

An Act to provide for the pension of the Members of the West Bengal Legislature. WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the pension of the Members of the West Bengal Legislature; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. Short title and commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the West Bengal Legislature (Members' Pension) Act, 1986.

(2) It shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1986.

2. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "Legislative Assembly" means the Legislative Assembly of the State of West Bengal;

(b) "Legislative Council" means the Legislative Council of the State of West Bengal existing immediately before the coming into force of the West Bengal Legislative Council (Abolition) Act, 1969.

3. Pension :-

(1) With effect from the date of commencement of this Act, there shall be paid a pension of 1[one thousand rupees] per mensem to every person who has served, after the 1st day of January, 1952, for a period of five years, whether continuous or not,-

(a) as a Member of the Legislative Assembly, or

(b) as a Member of the Legislative Council, or

(c) partly as a Member of the Legislative Assembly and partly as a Member of the Legislative Council: Provided that where any person has served as aforesaid for a period exceeding five years, there shall be paid to him an additional pension of ¹[one hundred rupees] per mensem for every year in excess of five, so, however, that in no case the pension payable to such person shall exceed ²[two thousand rupees] per mensem.

3(1 A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where a person has served, after the 1st day of January, 1952,

(a) as a Member of the Legislative Assembly for any part of the term thereof, or

(b) as a Member of the Legislative Council for any part of his term as such Member, he shall be deemed to have served for a period of five years as such Member and shall, subject to the proviso to sub-section (1), be paid a pension of

(i) four hundred rupees per mensem with effect from the 1st day of April, 1986 till the 26th day of August, 1990, ⁴* * * *

(ii) five hundred and fifty rupees per mensem with effect from the 27th day of August, ⁵[, 1990, and]

6(iii) Seven hundred and fifty rupees per mensem with effect from the 1st day of April, 1997.

(2) Where any person entitled to pension under sub-section (1) ⁷[or subsection (1A)]

(a) is elected to the office of the President or Vice-President or is appointed to the office of the Governor of any State or the Administrator of any Union Territory, or

(b) becomes a Member of the Council of States or the House of the people or any Legislative Assembly of a State or Union Territory or any Legislative Council of a State or the Metropolitan Council of Delhi constituted under section 3 of the Delhi Administration Act, 1966, or

(c) is employed on a salary under the Central Government or any State Government, or any corporation owned or controlled by the Central Government or any State Government, or any local authority or becomes otherwise entitled to any remuneration from such Government, corporation or local authority, such person shall not be entitled to any pension under sub-section (1) 8[or sub-section (1A)] for the period during which he continues to hold such office or as such Member, or is so employed, or continues to be entitled to such remuneration:

Provided that where the salary payable to such person for holding such office or being such Member or so employed, or where the remuneration referred to in clause (c) payable to such person, is, in either case, less than the pension payable to him under sub-section (1), 8[or sub-section (1A)], such person shall be entitled only to receive the balance as pension under that sub-section.

8(3) Any person, including a freedom-fighter, entitled to any pension from the Central Government or any State Government, or any corporation owned 9 * * # * # # #

(5) In computing the number of years, for the purposes of sub-section (1), [or sub-section (1A)], the period during which a person has served as a Chief Minister or Minister or Minister-of-State or Deputy Minister or Parliamentary Secretary of the Government of West Bengal or Speaker or Deputy Speaker of the Legislative Assembly or Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Legislative Council as defined in the West Bengal Salaries and Allowances Act, 1952, or as the Leader of the Opposition as referred to in the second proviso to section 3 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly (Members' Emoluments) Act, 1937, or has served in more than one such capacity by virtue of his membership in the Legislative Assembly or in the Legislative Council, shall also be taken into account.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that, for the purpose of pension under this Act,

(a) where a general election is held for the purpose of constituting a new Legislative Assembly on the expiration of the duration of the existing Legislative Assembly or on its dissolution, but no election of any Member from an Assembly constituency can be held simultaneously with such general election for any reasons whatsoever, and a Member is elected from such constituency at an election held after such general election, the period of five years in respect of such Member shall be deemed to have commenced from the date appointed for the first meeting of the Legislative Assembly after the general election;

(b) where the Legislative Assembly is dissolved before the expiration of the period of its duration referred to in clause (1) of article 172 of the Constitution of India, the period commencing from the date appointed for the first meeting of the Legislative Assembly after the general election held for the purpose of constituting a new Legislative Assembly and ending on the date of such dissolution shall be deemed to be the period of five years:

Provided that the provisions of this clause shall not apply for the purpose of additional pension under this Act;

(c) where the Legislative Assembly remains suspended under article 356 of the Constitution of India, the period during which the Legislative Assembly remains so suspended shall be taken into account.

10(d) where a Member of the Legislative Council would have continued as such Member but for the coming into force of the West Bengal Legislative Council (Abolition) Act, 1969, the period up to which the Member would have so continued in accordance with the provisions of clause (2) of article 172 of the Constitution of India shall be taken into account.

11(7) Where any person entitled to or drawing pension under this Act dies, the spouse of such person shall 14[, whether or not such spouse draws any pension from any other source,] be entitled to draw pension at the rate of fifty per cent of the pension admissible to such person on the date of his death 15[or five hundred rupees per mensem, whichever is higher]. 12 [(8) Where any person entitled to or drawing pension under this Act died in between the 1st day of April, 1977 and the 1st day of April, 1986, the spouse of such person shall be entitled to pension at the rate of fifty per cent of the pension that would have been admissible to such person on the 1st day of April, 1986 or five hundred rupees, whichever is higher.
