East Punjab Opium Smoking Act, 1948

25 of 1943

An Act to provide for the control of the practice of opium smoking and to secure ultimate prohibition of opium smoking in the East Punjab. It is hereby enacted as follows -

1. Short title, extent and commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the East Punjab Opium Smoking Act, 1948

2. It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Delhi

3. It shall, with the exception of Section 7, come into force at once; and Section 7 shall come into force after four months from the coming into force of the remainder of the Act

2. Repeal :-

The Punjab Opium Smoking Act, 1923, is hereby repealed

3. Definitions :-

In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,

(a) "Opium" has the same meaning as in the Opium Act, 1878, and includes prepared opium;

(b) "place" includes a building, house, shop, pool, chhapar enclosure, tent vessel, raft and vehicle and any part thereof;

(c) "prepared opium" means any product or admixture of opium obtained by any series of operations designed to transform opium into an extract suitable for smoking, and the dross or other residue remaining after opium is smoked;

(d) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(e) "register" means the register opened under sub-section (i) of Section 4 of this Act

(f) "registered medical practitioner" means any person registered under the provisions of the Punjab Medical Registration Act, 1916; and

(g) "registered smoker" means any person registered under Section 5 of this Act

4. Opening and maintenance of the register :-

(1) The Chief Commissioner shall cause to be opened a register to be called the Delhi Opium Smokers Register, which shall be prepared and maintained by such authority and in such manner and shall contain such particulars and shall be in such form as may be prescribed

(2) The register shall be a public document within the meaning of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872

(3) The register shall be closed one year after this Act comes into force and no entry shall be made therein after such period

5. Persons who may be registered :-

Any person who produces a certificate in the prescribed form from a registered medical practitioner to the effect that he is in the habit of opium smoking and that he cannot give up opium smoking without detriment to his health may apply in the prescribed form to have his name entered in the register, and, if he satisfies the prescribed authority that he is not under the age of twenty five years, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of Section 4 be entitled to be registered, and the prescribed authority shall thereupon enter his name in the register

6. Consequences of registration :-

(1) A registered smoker shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be entitled to manufacture, prepare opium not exceeding six mashas and to keep it in his possession for personal use only

(2) Any registered smoker who has in his possession prepared opium in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction before a competent criminal court, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with both

7. Punishment for manufacture, possession smoking or use of prepared opium by a person other than a registered smoker :-

Any person other than a registered smoker who -

(a) manufactures prepared opium; or

(b) has in his possession any prepared opium; or

(c) has in his possession any pipes or other utensils or apparatus used in connection' with the manufacture or smoking of prepared opium; or

(d) smokes or otherwise uses prepared opium; shall on conviction

before a competent criminal court be punished with imprisonment which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both

8. Punishment for allowing places to be used for the commission of an offence or for selling or dealing in prepared opium :-

Whoever -

(a) being the owner or occupier or having the use of any place, knowingly permits it to be used by any person other than a registered smoker for manufacturing or smoking prepared opium; or

(b) sells or otherwise deals in prepared opium, shall, on conviction by a competent criminal court, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both

9. Power to issue warrants :-

Any District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate who, upon information received and after such enquiry (if any) as he considers necessary, has reason to believe that any place is being or is likely to be used for the commission of an offence punishable under Section 7 or 8 may issue a warrant to an officer of the Excise Department, not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector, empowering him -

(a) to enter such place by day or night with any persons whose assistance such officer may consider necessary

(b) to search all parts of such place in which such officer has reason to believe that any opium or appliance for the preparation of opium or for opium smoking is concealed and all or any persons whom he may find in such place;

(c) to arrest all persons whom such officer may find in such place, whether they are actually engaged in smoking opium or not;

(d) to seize all opium and appliances for opium smoking or for the manufacture of opium which may be found in such place

10. Power of entry, search, seizure, arrest without warrant :-

(1) Any officer of the Excise Department, not below the rank of Sub-Inspector, who has reason to believe from personal knowledge or upon information given by any person and taken down in writing that an offence punishable under Section 7 or Section 8 has been, is being, or is likely to be committed, or that an article liable to confiscation under this Act is kept or concealed, in any place, may between sunrise and sunset -

(a) enter into any such place;

(b) in case of resistance, break open any door and remove any such obstacle to such entry;
