Madras Temple Entry Authorisation Act, 19475 of 1947*[13th May, 1947]

An Act to authorize entry into Hindu temple in the Province of Madras and the offer of worship therein by certain classes of Hindus who by custom or usage are excluded from such entry and worship. Whereas it is the policy of the Provincial Government to remove the disabilities imposed by custom or usage on certain classes of Hindus against entry into Hindu temples in the Province which are open to the general Hindu public; And whereas the Provincial Government are satisfied from the rapidity with which, under pressure of Hindu public opinion, a number of temples have been thrown open to those classes of Hindus in recent months, under the provisions of the Madras Temple Entry Authorization and Indemnity Act, 1939, that the time has now arrived for throwing open to such classes of Hindus all temples in the Provinces which are open to the general Hindu public; And where as the Provincial Government consider that the provisions of the said Act are inadequate for the early and complete implementation of the policy of the Provincial Government aforesaid : It is hereby enacted as follows

1. Short title, extend and commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the Madras Temple Entry Authorisation Act, 1947.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Delhi.

(3) This Act shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context

(1) 'excluded class' means any caste or class of the Hindu community which, by reason of any establishment custom or usage, is excluded from entering the temple concerned or offering worship therein;

(2) 'temple' means a place, by whatever name known, which is dedicated to, or for the benefit of, or used as of right by, the Hindu community in general, as a place of public religious worship, and includes subsidiary shrines and mantapams attached to such place;

(3) 'worship' means such religious service as the bulk of the worshippers may offer, or participate in, in accordance with such rules and regulations, as may be made under this Act.

3. Right of excluded classes to enter and offer worship in temple :-

(1) Notwithstanding any law, custom or usage to the contrary, persons belonging to the excluded classes shall be entitled to enter any Hindu temple and offer worship therein in the same manner and to the same extent as Hindus in general; and no member of any excluded class shall, by reason only of such entry or worship, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have committed any actionable wrong or offence or be sued or prosecuted therefor.

(2) Without prejudice to the general of the foregoing provision, it is hereby declared that the right conferred by sub-section (1) shall include the following rights if, and to the extent to which, they are enjoyed by Hindu in general, not belonging to the excluded classes: •

(a) the right to bathe in, or use the waters of any sacred tank, well, spring or water-course appurtenant to the temple, whether situated within or outside the precincts thereof;

(b) the right of passage over any sacred place, including a hill or hillock or a road, street or pathway, which is requisite for obtaining access to the temple.

4. Power of trustees to make regulations for the maintenance of order and decorum and due performance of rites and ceremonies in temples :-

The trustee or other authority in charge of a temple shall have power, subject to the control of the State Government and to any rules which may be made by them, to make regulations for the maintenance of order and decorum in the temple and the due observance of the religious rites and ceremonies performed in the temple, but such regulations shall not discriminate in any way against the members of the excluded classes.

5. Sanction for institution or continuance of suits, prosecutions etc. :-

(1) No suit for damages, injunction or declaration or for any other relief, no prosecution for any offence, and no application or other proceeding under any law in force shall be instituted in respect of any entry into or worship in any temple, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, on the sole ground that such entry or worship is against the custom or usage which excludes certain classes of Hindus from such entry or worship.

(2) No suit, prosecution, application or proceeding of the nature aforesaid, instituted before the commencement of this Act, shall be continued thereafter, without the sanction of the State Government.

6. Power to decide disputes :-

If any question arises as to whether a place is or is not a temple as defined in this Act, the question shall be referred to the State Government and their decision shall be final subject however, to any decree passed by a competent civil court in a suit filed before it within six months of the date of the decision of the State Government.

7. Penalties :-

Whoever -

(i) prevents a person belonging to any excluded class from exercising any right conferred by this Act, or

(ii) molests or obstructs any such person in the exercise of any such right shall be punishable, in the case of a first offence, with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a second or subsequent offence, with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

8. Power to remove difficulties :-

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government, as occasion requires, may, by order, do anything which appears to them necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.
