CHAPTER 2

4. Time and Place of Meeting :-

A meeting shall ordinarily be held at the head office of the Committee at least once a month on the date, time and place fixed by the Chairman. The Chairman may at his own discretion or shall on requisition in writing of not less than half of the members constituting the Committee call an emergent meeting. The Chairman may for administrative convenience on a matter urgent and important, which cannot be awaited till the next meeting, get the opinion of the Committee by circulation of papers amongst the members; the papers so circulated shall, however, be placed before the Committee for confirmation at its next meeting.

5. Manner of Convening a Meeting and of giving Notices Thereof :-

Notice of every meeting with agenda shall be issued by the Chairman or under instructions of the Chairman, by the Secretary of the Committee, at least ten days before the date of the meeting. Every such notice shall state the place, the date and the hour of such meeting. Every item of agenda shall be in the form of regular proposal complete in itself. A copy of notice shall also be sent to the Secretary of the Board or any other person authorised by him in this behalf, for information. Papers relating to any subject including the agenda of any meeting shall be open for inspection to every member at the office of the Committee during the usual office hours. An emergent meeting under by-law 4 may be convened at a shorter notice but not less than two days.

6. Quorum at Meeting :-

1. Five members shall constitute the quorum at a meeting of the Committee.
2. If quorum at a meeting of the Committee is not complete within half an hour of the scheduled time of the meeting or if it falls short while the meeting is continuing shall deem to have been adjourned.
3. No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Committee unless there is a quorum contemplated above.
4. If a meeting has adjourned for want of a quorum, no quorum shall be necessary for the next meeting for transaction of the business.
5. If any member fails to attend three consecutive meetings without leave of the Committee, it shall amount to a misconduct and negligence on his part and the Committee may proceed to take action against him under section 15 of the Act.

7. Conduct of Proceeding and Presidency of a Meeting :-

1. Any member wishing to bring any proposition before the Committee shall give a written intimation to the Chairman of his intention of doing so, with a draft of the proposition so as to reach the Chairman at least 15 days before the date of the meeting and every such proposition shall be included in the agenda of the meeting.

2. Any matter which is not included in the agenda shall not be brought forward for discussion at any meeting except with the permission of the Chairman of the meeting or by the vote of the members present.

3. Every proposition, other than the one brought officially by the Chairman, and every amendment shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another, and until so proposed and seconded and reduced to writing, under the direction of the Chairman of the meeting, no proposition or amendment shall be discussed.

4. Amendment to any proposition before the Committee shall be moved after the original proposition has been duly moved, seconded and recorded.

5. Every proposition and amendment so moved shall be recorded in the Minutes with the names of the proposers and seconders.

6. When a proposition or an amendment has been proposed, seconded and recorded, the members present shall be entitled to discuss the same.

7. The Chairman may allot time to different members desirous of speaking on any proposition or amendment.

8. When amendment has been brought to any proposition, the amendment shall be put to vote first and if it is carried, it shall become a substantive proposition and shall be put to vote as such. If it is not carried, the original proposition shall be put to vote. When there are more amendments than one they shall be put to vote in the order reverse to that in which they were proposed.

9. Every meeting of the Committee shall be presided over by its Chairman or in his absence by its Vice-Chairman but if both are absent, by anyone of the members elected by the members present to act as Chairman for the occasion and such Chairman shall have, for that meeting, all the powers of the Chairman and be designated as such

Provided that if the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman returns during the meeting, he shall resume his powers as Chairman from the temporary Chairman.

10. The Chairman shall be responsible for preserving order in the meeting and shall decide all points of order that may be raised therein. There shall be no discussion at the points of order unless the Chairman considers it necessary to seek the opinion or advice of any member present and Chairman's decision shall be final.

11. Any member may call attention of the Chairman to a point of order even when a member is speaking. On a point of order being raised, the member addressing the meeting shall resume his act until the question has been decided by the Chairman.

12. If any one or more members present at a meeting refuses/refuse to obey the ruling of the Chairman of the meeting on any matter, he may adjourn the meeting at once and when he has declared the meeting adjourned, the subsequent proceeding of the meeting, if any, shall be void and shall not appear in the minutes. In all such cases, the Chairman shall record in his own handwriting in the Minutes Book the reasons for such adjournment unless he is prevented by sufficient cause from doing so.

13. The Chairman may after calling the attention of the meeting to the conduct of the member who persists in irrelevant or in tedious repetition of his own arguments or of arguments used by other members, direct him to discontinue his speech.

14. The Chairman of the meeting may direct any member whose conduct, in his opinion, is disorderly to withdraw immediately from the meeting and any member so ordered to withdraw shall do so forthwith and shall unless recalled by the Chairman, absent himself during that meeting. The Chairman may cause to be summarily removed from the meeting any member who disobeys any order made under this by-law.

15. When a proposition or any amendment has been declared by the Chairman as duly carried, no further proposal for amending it shall be entertained at that meeting.

16. The Chairman may for sufficient reason, adjourn any meeting from time to time but no business other than that left over from the previous meeting shall be transacted at the adjourned meeting unless a separate notice and a separate agenda has been issued in accordance with by-law 5.

17. The Chairman may, for reasons to be recorded in the Minutes Book, postpone or cancel any meeting called under these by-laws. This information should reach the members before the date of the said meeting.

8. Manner of Voting :-

1. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, Rules or by-laws, all questions that may come up before a meeting of the Committee shall be decided by majority of votes of the members present and in case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have and may exercise a second or casting vote.

2. Voting shall be done by show of hands. Voting by proxy shall not be permissible and any member may decline to vote on any subject without designing any reasons thereafter.

9. Proceeding of the Meeting :-

1. Proceedings of the meeting of the Committee shall be recorded in Hindi by the Secretary of the Committee under the instruction and the supervision of the Chairman of the meeting and shall be signed by the Chairman.

2. Recorded proceedings of the meeting shall be read out in the next meeting of the Committee as the first item on the Agenda and the members who were present in the former meeting shall have the right to question the correctness of the recorded proceeding, which shall be corrected with such modifications as may be decided upon to bring those in conformity with facts. In case of any dispute about the correctness of the proceedings, the matter shall be decided in accordance with the majority of the votes of the members who had attended the former meeting and are present.

3. Proceedings of each meeting shall be recorded in the Minutes Book kept by the Committee for the purpose and shall be placed on the table of the Committee for reference by the members thereof and shall at all reasonable times and without any charge be open to their inspection. The Secretary of the Committee shall keep the Minutes Book in his custody.

4. A resume of every discussion with the number of votes for and against such motion or amendment shall be recorded by the Secretary under the instructions of the Chairman of the meeting. A complete and accurate record shall be kept in the Minutes Book to indicate whether a member did not cast vote or voted for or against a proposition on an amendment. If a resolution is based on a certain report, letter or document, substance of such report, letter or document shall be incorporated in the Minutes Book.

10. General :-

1. A member of the Committee may ask for information regarding anything done or purported to be done by the Market Committee or regarding the affairs of the Committee by written notice and shall be supplied with such information by the Chairman of the Committee. The requisition for such information shall reach at least four days before the meeting in the office of the Committee :

Provided that the Chairman may refuse to supply any information disclosure of which in the opinion of the Chairman would be against the interest of the Committee.

2. Except with the recorded consent of not less than half of the total members of the Committee, no subject once finally disposed of, shall be reconsidered within three months.
