PUNJAB FISHERIES ACT, 1914

2 of 1914

An Act to extend the Law relating of Fisheries in Punjab, Whereas it is expedient to extend the law relating to Fisheries in Punjab; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. Title and extent :-

- (1) This Act may be called the Punjab Fisheries Act, 1914.
- (2) It extends to the whole of the Union territory of Delhi.

2. Meaning of terms :-

In this Act and the Rules thereunder unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the expressions "fish" and "private water" shall have the meanings assigned to them in section 3 of the Indian Fisheries Act, 1897.

2A. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context

(1) "Fishery Officer" means any person whom the Chief Commissioner or any officer empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf may from time to time appoint by name, or as holding an office, to carry out all or any of the purposes of this Act or to do anything required by this Act or any rule made thereunder to be done by a Fishery Officer:

Provided that no police officer below the rank of Sub-Inspector shall be so empowered.

(2) "Fishing offence" means an offence punishable under this Act or under any rule made thereunder.

3. Prohibition and licensing of fishing in selected waters by rules of Chief Commissioner :-

(1) The Chief Commissioner may make rules for the purposes hereinafter in this section mentioned and shall in such rules declare the waters, not being private waters, to which all or any of them shall apply.

(2) The Chief Commissioner may by notification apply such rules or any of them to any private water with the consent in writing of the owner thereof and of all persons having for the time being any exclusive right of fishery therein.

(3) Such rules may

(a) prohibit fishing except under licence and regulate the granting of such licences, the fees payable therefor, and the conditions to be inserted therein;

(b) prescribe seasons in which the killing of any fish of any prescribed species shall be prohibited; and

(c) prescribe a minimum size or weight below which no fish of any prescribed species shall be killed.

(4) In making any rule under this section the Chief Commissioner may provide for

(a) the seizure, forfeiture and removal of any apparatus erected or used for fishing in contravention of the rule, and

(b) the forfeiture of any fish taken by means of any such apparatus.

(5) The power to make rules under this section is subject to the condition that they shall be made after previous publication.

4. Power to prohibit sale offish :-

The Chief Commissioner may by notification prohibit in any specified areas the offering or exposing for sale or barter of any fish killed in contravention of any rule made under section 3(3)(b) and (c) of this Act.

5. Penalty :-

The breach of any rule made under section 3 or of any prohibition notified under section 4 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and when the breach is a continuing breach, with a further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the breach is proved to have been persisted in,

6. Arrest without warrant for offences under the act :-

(1) Any police officer or other person specially empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, may without a warrant arrest any person committing in his view a breach of any rule made under section 3 or of any prohibition notified under section 4

(a) if the name and address of the person are unknown to him, and

(b) if the person declines to give his name and address, or if there is reason to doubt the accuracy of the name and address, if given.

(2) A person arrested under this section may be detained until his name and address have been correctly ascertained:

Provided that no person so arrested shall be detained longer than may be necessary for bringing him before a Magistrate, except under the order of a Magistrate for his detention.

7. Saving of powers under Indian Fisheries Act :-

Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to limit the powers of the Chief Commissioner to make rules under section 6 of the Indian Fisheries Act, 1867.

8. Power to compound certain offences :-

(1) The Chief Commissioner may by notification empower a fishery officer by name or as holding an office

(a) to accept front any person concerning whom evidence exists

which if unrebutted would prove that he has committed any fishing offence as described in the first column of the Schedule a sum of money by way of compensation for the offence with regard to which such evidence exists and on the payment of such sum to such officer, such person if in custody shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him;

(b) when any property has been seized as liable to confiscation, to release the same without further payment, or on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer, and on the payment of such value such property shall be released and no further proceedings shall be taken in respect thereof.

(2) The sum of money acceptable as compensation under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall in no case exceed the amount mentioned in the second column of the Schedule as the amount acceptable as compensation for the particular offence described in the first column of the Schedule.
