ALL INDIA SERVICES ACT, 1951*61 of 1951*[29th October, 1951]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS "Article 312 of the Constitution provides that Parliament may by law regulate the recruitment, and the conditions of service of persons appointed to the All India Services common to the Union and the States. At present there are two such All India Services, namely, the Indian Administrative Service and the Indian Police Service. In the absence of any proviso to Art.312 of the Constitution of India similar to that included in Art.309 of the Constitution of India, the Government of India is now compelled to deal with many of these matters by means of non-statutory executive orders. This is neither satisfactory nor quite justifiable. 2. Before the commencement of the Constitution, the Government of India issued the Indian Civil Administrative Cadre Rules and the Indian Police Service Cadre Rules. Although these Rules, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the Constitution, are continued in force by Art.313 of the Constitution of India of the Constitution, they authorise the regulation of only such items relating to the conditions of service as had already been settled. Emergency recruitment to these services to fill the gaps left by the departure of the British element in the I.C.S. and the Indian Police was still in progress at that time. Many matters relating to the conditions of service of such officers were only decided after the Constitution had come into force. Other very important matters such as the fixation of retirement benefits have yet to be settled. Arrangements have also been completed recently to extend the Indian Administrative Service and the Indian Police Service schemes to the Part B States. 3. It is necessary that Parliament should provide the requisite statutory authority to enable the Government of India to carry on the day-to-day management of the two All India Services and also to take and promulgate decisions on matters relating to the recruitment and the conditions of service from time to time- 4- The present Bill seeks to fill a constitutional lacuna without proceeding to incorporate an) detailed provisions- This course is necessitated, among other things, by the shortness of time available to Parliament this year- After the necessary transitional period is passed through, it will be possible to incorporate the major provisions in an Act of Parliament- The present Bill provides that recruitment and conditions of service of officers of the two All India Services shall be regulated by rules to be made by the Central Government in consultation with the Governments of the participating States- The Bill, however, provides that all the rules so made shall be laid before Parliament and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make". -Gaz- of Ind-, 1951, Part II -Section 2, page 748. Act 25 of 1958.- The Government of Jammu and Kashmir have agreed to participate in the scheme of All India Services and this has necessitated the constitution of the Indian Administrative Service and Indian Police Service Cadres in that State. Section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951, empowers the Central Government, in consultation with the States concerned, to make rules for the regulation of recruitment, etc., to an All India Service. The object of this Bill is to make it clear that the expression "State concerned" in that Act includes the State of Jammu and Kashmir. -S.O.R. Gaz. of Ind., 9-5-1958, Pt.II-S.2, Ext., p. 710. Act 27 of 1963.- Under Art.312(1) of the Constitution of India of the Constitution, the Rajya Sabha passed a resolution on 6th December, 1961, by the prescribed majority, declaring that it is necessary to provide, in the national interest, for the creation of the following All India Services, namely :- (1) the Indian Service of Engineers (Irrigation, Power, Buildings and Roads), (2) the Indian Forest Service, and (3) the Indian Medical and Health Service. The present Bill seeks to create the aforesaid services by amending the All India Services Act, 1951. Under Section 3 of the Act, the Central Government would be empowered to make rules for the regulation of recruitment, and conditions of service of persons appointed, to these services. - S.O.R. - Gaz. of Ind., 19-11-1962, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext., p. 1012. Act 23 of 1975.- In service matters occasions arise when it becomes an inescapable necessity to amend or make rules with retrospective effect. An instance in point is the implementation of the decisions of the Government on the recommendations of the Third Central Pay Commission. 2. Section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951 which empowers the Central Government to make rules for the regulation of recruitment and the conditions of service of persons appointed to an All India Service does not in terms permit the making of the rules with retrospective effect. In view of the opinion tendered by the Attorney-General in 1969 in connection with a point raised by the Public Accounts Committee regarding an exemption notification issued with retrospective effect under Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 and the subsequent decisions of the Supreme Court, particularly the decision in Hukum Chand v. Union of India [(1973) II S.C.W.R. 129], unless the section is suitably amended, it would not be permissible to make any rules thereunder with retrospective effect. It is, therefore, proposed to amend the section so as to empower the Central Government to make rules with retrospective effect subject to the safeguard that no rules shall be made retrospectively so as to prejudicially affect the interests of any person who may be governed by such rules. This safeguard is in accordance with the directions of the Committee on Subordinate Legislation, It is also proposed to validate the rules which have been made in the past with retrospective effect. 3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects. -S.O.R. Gaz. of Ind., 21-12-1974, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext., p. 1232.
