V, page 65. for Proceedings In Assembly, see Bombay Legislative Assembly Debates, 1947, Vol. X: and for Proceedings In Council See Bombay Legislative Council Debates, 1947, Vol. XII. An Act to consolidate and amend the law for the Relief of Agriculture Debtors in the Province of Bombay. Whereas it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law for the relief of agricultural debtors in the Province of Bombay and for certain other purposes specified herein; It is hereby enacted as follows:-

CHAPTER 1

Preliminary

1. Short title and extent :-

(1) This Act may be called the Bombay Agriculture Debtors Relief Act, 1947.

(2) It extends to the whole of the ¹ [Bombay area of the State of Gujarat].

1. Substituted by A.O. 1960(1-5-1960).

2. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-

(1) "award" means an award made under sub-section (4) of Section 8 or Section 9 , Section 32 or Section 33 or as confirmed or modified by the Court in appeal;

(2) "Co-operative society" means a society registered under the provisions of the Bombay Co-operative Societies Act, 1925; (Bom. VII of 1925).

(3) "Court" means the Court of the Civil Judge (Senior Division), having ordinary jurisdiction in the area where the debtor ordinarily resides and if there is no such Civil Judge, the court of Civil Judge (Junior Division), having such jurisdiction ¹[and includes any court to which an application may be referred to for disposal under Section 13A];

(4) "debt" means any liability in cash or kind, whether secured or unsecured due from a debtor whether payable under a decree or order of any civil court or otherwise ²and includes mortgage money the

(5) "debtor" means-

(a) an individual-

(i) who is indebted;

(ii) who holds land used for agricultural purposes or has held such land at any time not more than 30 years before the 30th January, 1940 which has been transferred whether under an instrument or not and which transfer is in the nature of a mortgage although not purporting to be so;

(iii) who has been cultivating land personally for the cultivating seasons in the two years immediately preceding the date of the coming into operation of this Act or of the establishment of the Board concerned under the repealed Act; and

(iv) whose annual income from sources other than agriculture and manual labour does not exceed 33 percent of his total annual income or does not exceed Rs. 500, whichever is greater;

(b) an undivided Hindu family-

(i) which is indebted;

(ii) which holds land used for agricultural purposes or has held such land at any time not more than 30 years before the 30th January, 1940, which land has been transferred whether under an instrument or not and which transfer is in the nature of a mortgage although not purporting to be so;

(iii) which has been cultivating land personally for the cultivating seasons in the two years immediately preceding the date of the coming into operation of this Act or of the establishment of the Board concerned under the repealed Act; and

(iv) the annual income of which from sources other than agricultural and manual labour does not exceed 40 per cent as its total annual income and the aggregate of such incomes of the members of which does not exceed Rs.1,500.

Explanation. ³[1] For the purposes of this clause 'agriculture' includes horticulture, the raising of crops or garden produce, dairy farming, poultry farming, stock breeding and grazing, but does not include leasing of land or cutting only of wood;

⁴[Explanation II .-In the case of-

(a) any person who dies leaving as his heir, a widow or a minor or a person who is subject to physical or mental disability, or

(b) an undivided Hindu family, in which there are no adult male co-partners capable of cultivating the land personally,

³(6) "financing of crops" means advancing of loans for the raising of crops during the ploughing season or later for ploughing, sowing, borrowing, weeding, harvesting, purchase of seeds, manure or for such other purposes as may be prescribed, such loans being repayable during the season when the crops for which the loans were advanced are harvested];

(7) "holder" means a holder as defined in clauses (II) of section 3 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bom. V of 1879) and includes a holder of land held for the performance of service useful to Government or village community which service is actually being performed but does not include a holder of any land held on behalf of a religious or charitable institution; and the expression "to hold land" shall be construed accordingly;

⁴ [(7a) "merged State bank" means a bank incorporated as such in merged territories and notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette for the purposes of this Act as a merged State bank;]

(8) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules;

(9) "repealed Act" means the Bombay Agricultural Debtors Relief Act, 1939 (Bom. XXVIII of 1939);

(10) "resource society" shall have the same meaning as it has in the Bombay Co-operative Societies Act, 1925 (Bom. VII of 1925);

(11) "rules" means rules made under Section 55 ;

(12) "Scheduled bank" means a bank included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, (II of 1934);

(13) "Seasonal finance" means advancing of loans for such purposes as may be prescribed such loans being repayable on or before the 15th May following;

(14) "to cultivate personally" means to cultivate by one's own labour or by the labour of any member of one's family or by servants or hired labour under one's personal supervision or the personal supervision of any member of one's family.

Explanation I.-If a person who was cultivating personally dies leaving as his heir a widow or a minor or a person who is subject to physical or mental disability, such heir shall be deemed to cultivate the land personally notwithstanding the fact that the land is cultivated on behalf of such help by servants or hired labour or by tenants.

Explanation II.-In the case of an undivided Hindu family, the land shall be deemed to have been cultivated personally if it is cultivated by any member of such family. If there are no adult male co-parceners in such family capable of cultivating the land personally, such family shall be deemed to be cultivating the land personally if land is cultivated on behalf of such family servants or hired labour or by tenants.

(15) Words and expressions used in this Act, but not defined, have the meaning assigned to them in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908) or the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bom.V of 1879)as the case may be.

1. The words were added by Bombay 70 of 1948, Sec. 2 (1).

CHAPTER 2

Procedure for adjustment of debts

4. Application for adjustment of debts :-

(1) Any debtor ordinarily residing in any local area for which a Board was established under Section 4 of the repealed Act on or after the 1st February 1947, or his creditor may make an application before the 1st August 1947 to the Court for the adjustment of his debts.

(2) Every application made under sub-section (1) shall be in writing in the prescribed form and shall be signed, verified and prescribed in the prescribed manner.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 3 an application made under this section shall contain the amounts and particulars of all debts specified in that section due by the debtor.

5. Every creditor and debtor to file a true and correct statement before Court :-

(1) Notwithstanding the fact that no application has been filed under Section 4 -

(a) every creditor, on being required to do so by notice in writing by any of his debtors, shall, within two months from the date of the receipt of such notice, file before the Court a true and correct statement of all his claims against such debtor and shall at the same time send a copy thereof to such debtor, and

(b) every debtor, on being required to do so by notice in writing by any of his creditors, shall, within two months from the date of the receipt of such notice, file before the Court a true and correct statement-

(i) of all the debts owned by such debtor;

(ii) whether he holds any land used for agricultural purposes and whether he has been cultivating land personally;

(iii) of his income from agriculture and from sources other than agriculture in the year preceding the date of the notice. The debtor shall at the same time send a copy of such statement to such creditor: Provided that the Court may, for sufficient cause, extend, from time to time, the period within which the creditor, as the case may be, may file such statement.

(2) Every debtor or creditor giving a notice under sub-section (1) shall at the same time send a copy thereof to the Court.

(3) In awarding the costs of any proceeding in respect of any application made under Section 4 the Court may on being statement required to be filed under sub-section (1) was, without sufficient cause, not filed within the time specified therein or within the period extended under the proviso to sub-section (1) or incorrectly filed, direct the party in default to bear the whole or any portion of the costs of such proceeding.

6. Application by debtor jointly and severally liable :-

(1) if the payment of a debt due by a debtor is guaranteed by a surety or if a debtor is otherwise jointly and severally liable for any debt along with any other person and if the surety or such other person is not a debtor, the debtor may make an application under Section 4 for relief in respect of such debt and the Court may after consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case proceed with the adjustment of debts under this Act in so far as such applicant is concerned.

(2) Whenever the debts due by a debtor which are guaranteed by a surety are adjusted under sub-section (1), the surety shall be discharged from liability in respect of the debts or portion of the debts of such debtor which are extinguished under sub-section (1) of Section 15 , sub-section (3) of Section 17 , sub-section (5) of Section 26 , Section 34 or sub-section (2) of Section 35 ; and the surety shall not be entitled to proceed against the debtor in respect of such debts or portion.

7. Assignees from non-debtor not entitled to benefit of this Act :-

No application shall lie under Section 4 for adjustment of any debt due from a debtor to whom such debt has been transferred or assigned after the 1st January, 1938 by any person who is not himself a debtor.

8. Application for recording settlement :-

(1) If any debtor and any or all of his creditors arrive at a settlement in respect of any debt due by the debtor to the creditor, the debtor or any of the creditors may, within thirty days from the date of such settlement, make an application to the Court for recording such settlement.

(2) Every such application shall be in the prescribed form and shall be signed and verified in the prescribed manner.

(3) On receipt of such application the Court shall, after giving notice to the creditor or the debtor, as the case may be, and after making such enquiry as it thinks fit, if it is satisfied that the settlement arrived at is bona fide and voluntary and is not made with intent to defeat or delay any of the creditors of the debtor, and is in the interest of the debtor, ¹ [x x x] record such settlement and certify the same. Every such settlement so recorded and certified shall be binding upon the parties thereto and shall not save as otherwise hereinafter provided, be re- opened.

(4) After the Court has recorded and certified a settlement under sub-section (3), the Court shall call upon the debtor to make a declaration whether there are any other debts due by the debtor which are not included in the settlement. If the debtor makes a declaration that there are no such debts, the Court shall make an award in terms of such settlement.

(5) If the Court is satisfied, after recording such settlement, that there are other debt due from the debtor which are not included in the settlement, the Court shall treat the application made under sub-section (1) as an application for adjustment of debts under Section 4 .

1. The words, brackets, letters, and figures "and that the debtors a person who fulfills the conditions referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (II of section 17" were deleted by Bombay 37 of 1955, S. 2.

9. Settlement during pendency of proceedings before Court :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in the proceedings before the Court or the Court in appeal, as the case may be a settlement is arrived at between a debtor and all his creditors and if such Court is satisfied that the settlement has been made by the debtor voluntarily and is for his benefit, such Court may make an award in terms of such settlement.

10. Certain settlements to be void :-

Every settlement of a debt due from a debtor to any creditor, which is not credited by the Court under Section 8 , or in terms of which no award has been made under section 2, shall be void and shall not be recognised by any Court for any purpose whatsoever.

11. Application under section 4 or section 8 to be made only in respect of debtor whose debts are not more than Rs. 15,000 :-

No application under Section 4 or Section 8 shall be entertained by the Court on behalf of or in respect of any debtor, unless the total amount of debts due from him on the date of the application is not more than Rs. 15,000.

12. Withdrawal of applications :-

An application for adjustment of debts under Section 4 or an application for recording a settlement under Section 8 shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the Court.

13. Consolidation of applications :-

Where two or more applications for adjustment of debts under Section 4 are presented by or against the same debtor, all such applications shall be consolidated. Where such separate applications are presented ¹ [by or] against joint debtors, all such applications shall be heard together.

1. These words were Inserted by Bombay 70 of 1948, s. 3.

13A. Power of Civil Judge to refer for disposal certain applications to Joint Civil Judge :-

A Civil Judge may refer for disposal any application filed under Section 4 or Section 8 to a Joint Civil Judge.]

14. Service of notice on debtors and creditors to submit statement of debts :-

On receipt of an application for adjustment of debts, the Court shall-

(a) give notice to the debtor (unless the debtor is himself an applicant) and to every creditor (other than the creditor who is himself an applicant) whose name and address are given in the application, and

(b) publish a general notice. requiring the debtor and all creditors to submit a statement in the prescribed form within one month from the date of the service of the notice or the publication of the general notice, whichever is later: Provided that if the Court is satisfied that the debtor or any creditor is for good and sufficient cause unable to comply with the notice within the time specified therein it may extend the period for the submission of the statement.

15. Debts in respect of which no application for adjustment or settlement is made to be void :-

(1) Every debt due from a debtor in respect of which no application has been made under Section 4 within the period specified in the said Section 4 or in respect of which no application for recording a settlement is made under Section 8 within the period specified in the said Section 8 or in respect of which an application made to the Court is withdrawn under Section 12 and no fresh application is made under Section 4 and every debt due from such debtor in respect of which a statement is not submitted to the Court by the creditor in compliance with the provisions of Section 14 shall be extinguished.

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply to any debt due from any person who has by his declaration, act or omission intentionally caused or permitted his creditor to believe that he is not a debtor for the purposes of this Act or that no application under Section 4 can be entertained in respect of any debt owned by such person to such creditor by reason of the provisions of Section 11 .

16. Duties of debtors and creditors :-

(1) Every debtor by or against whom an application is made under Section 4 or who is a party to an application made under Section 8 shall produce all books of accounts and shall give such inventories of his property and such lists of his creditors and debtors and of the debts due from and to him, submit to such examination in respect of his property or his creditors, attend at such time before the Court and generally do all such things as may be required by the Court or as may be prescribed.

(2) It shall be the duty of every creditor to produce such books of accounts, to submit to such examination and to supply such information in respect of the debt due to him by the debtor and the securities held by him, as may be required by the Court or as may be prescribed.

17. Preliminary issues :-

(1) On the date fixed for the hearing of an application made under Section 4 , the Court shall decide the following points as preliminary issue:-

(a) whether the person for the adjustment of whose debts the application has been made is a debtor;

(b) whether the total amount of debts due from such person on the date of the application exceeds Rs. 15,000.

(2) If the Court finds that such person is not a debtor or that the total amount of debts due from such person on the date of the application is more than Rs. 15,000 the Court shall dismiss the application forthwith: Provided that before the application is so dismissed the creditors or any of them may remit any specific portion of their claim so as to reduce the total amount of the debts of all the creditors due from such person on the date of the application to a sum not exceeding Rs. 15,000. In such case the Court shall not dismiss the application but shall proceed further with the same.

¹ [Explanation. -For the purposes of this section, the expression "the date of the application" shall mean the date of an application which has been made within the period prescribed under Section 4 and where there are two or more applications made for adjustment of debts of the same debtor, the date of the last of such applications.]

1. This Explanation was added by Bombay 70 of 1948, s.5..

18. 18 :-

19. Transfer of pending suits, appeals, applications and proceedings to the Court :-

(1) All suits, appeals, applications for execution and proceedings¹[including Revisional proceedings Pending before a District Judge under S.53 of the Dekkhan Agriculturists Relief Act, 1879²[x x x] exceeds Rs. 15,000, be transferred to the Court.

(2) When an application for adjustment of debts made to a Court under Section 4 or a statement submitted to a Court under Section 14 includes a debt in respect of which a suit, appeal, application for execution or proceeding³[liable to be transferred under sub-section (1)] is pending before a civil or revenue court, the Court shall give notice thereof to such other Court. On receipt o such notice, such other Court shall transfer the suit, appeal, application or proceeding as the case may be, to the Court.

(3) When any suit, appeal, application or proceeding is transferred to the Court under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the Court shall proceed as if an application under Section 4 had been made to it.

(4) If the Court, to which any suit, appeal, application or proceeding is transferred under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), decides the preliminary issue mentioned in. clause (a) of Section 17 in. the negative or that mentioned in clause (b) of the said sub-section (1) in the affirmative, it shall retransfer the suit appeal, application or proceeding to the court from which it had been transferred to itself after the 'disposal and subject to the result of the appeal where an appeal is filed, and after the expiry of the period prescribed for an appeal where no appeal is filed.

(5) When any suit, appeal, application or proceeding is retransferred to the court under sub-section (4), the said court shall proceed with the same.

⁴ [(6) When such suit, appeal, application or proceeding involves the determination of any issue entirely unconnected with the adjustment of debts, the transfer of such suit, appeal, application or proceeding under this section shall not empower the Court to determine the said issue and the determination of such issue shall be made as if the transfer of the suit, appeal, application or proceeding was not made under this section.

(7) When any question arises regarding the validity of the transfer or retransfer under this section of any suit appeal, application or proceeding or if any question arises whether any issue is or is not

3. These words, brackets and figure were substituted for the words "other than revisional", by The words, "on the date of the application" were deleted by Bombay 70 of 1948, s.7(1), s. 7(2).

4. Sub-sections (6) and (7) were added, These words, brackets and figure were substituted for the words "other than revisional", by The words, "on the date of the application" were deleted by Bombay 70 of 1948, s.7(1), s. 7(2), s. 7(3).

20. Taking of accounts :-

If the Court finds the person making an application under Section 4 or the person against whom an application is made under the said Section 4 to be a person-

(a) who is debtor, and

(b) the total amount of debts due from whom on the date of the application is not more than Rs. 15,000/-. the Court shall proceed to take accounts in the manner hereinafter provided.

21. Examination of creditor and debtor :-

In an application for the adjustment of debts if the amount of the creditor's claims is disputed, the Court shall, when taking accounts, examine both the creditor and the debtor as witnesses, unless for reasons to be recorded the Court deems it unnecessary so to do.

22. Mode of taking accounts :-

Notwithstanding any agreement between the parties or the persons (if any) through whom they claim, as to allowing compound interest or setting off the profits of mortgaged property without an account in lieu of interest, or otherwise determining the manner of taking the account, and notwithstanding any statement or settlement of account, or any contract purporting to close previous dealings and create a new obligation, the Court shall inquire into the history and merits of the case and the take account between the parties from the commencement of the transactions subsisting between the parties and the persons (if any) through whom they claim, out of such the claim has arisen and determine the amount due to each of the creditors at the date of the application made under Section 4 , according to the following rules, namely :-

(a) Separate accounts of principal and interest shall be taken;

(b) In the account of principal there shall be debited to the debtor only such money as may from time to time have been actually received by him or on his account from the creditor and the price of goods, if any, sold to him by the creditor;

(c) In the accounts of principal and interest there shall also be debited the amounts, if any, respectively due for principal (including costs) and interest under any decree or order passed by a competent court in respect of any debt;

(2) In the case of transactions which commenced before the 1st January, 1931 the Courts shall take the accounts up to the date of the institution of the application and in the account of interest there shall be debited to the debtor, simple interest on the balance of principal for the time being outstanding at the rate agreed upon between the parties or at the rate allowed under any decree passed between the parties, or at a rate not exceeding 12 percent, per annum, whichever is the lowest. The amount found due in respect of principal as well as in respect of interest shall, each separately, be reduced by 40 percent notwithstanding that a decree or order of a civil court was passed in respect of any such amount or portion thereof. The amounts so reduced shall be taken to represent the amounts due in respect of principal and interest on the date of the institution of the application.

(3) In the case of transactions which commenced on or after the 1st January 1931 but before the 1st January 1940 in the account of interest there shall be debited to the debtor, simple interest on the balance of principal for the time being outstanding at the rate agreed upon between the parties, or at the rate allowed under any decree passed between the parties, or a rate not exceeding 9 percent, per annum, whichever is the lowest. The amount found due on the date of the institution of the application in respect of principal as well as interest shall each separately be reduced by 30 percent, notwithstanding that a decree or order of a civil court was passed in respect of any such amount or portion thereof. The amounts so reduced shall be taken to represent the amounts due in respect of principal and interest on the date of the institution of the application.

(4) In the case of transactions which commenced on or after the 1st January 1943, in the account of interest there shall be debited to the debtor simple interest on the balance of principal for the time being outstanding at the rate agreed upon between the parties, or at the rate allowed under any decree passed between the parties, or at rate not exceeding 6 per cent per annum, whichever is the lowest.

(5) All money paid by or on account of the debtor to the creditor or on his account and all profits, service or other advantages of every description received by the creditor in the course of the transactions (estimated, if necessary, at such money-value as the Court in its discretion may determine) shall be credited first in the account of interest, and when any payment is more than sufficient to discharge the balance of interest due at the rate specified in rule (2), (3) or (4), as the case may be, the residue of such payment shall be credited so the debtor in the account of principal.

(6) The accounts of principal and interest shall be made up to the date of the institution of the application, and the aggregate of the balance if any, appearing due on both such accounts against that debtor on the date shall be deemed to be the amount due at that date, except when the balance appearing due on the interest-accounts exceeds that appearing due on the principal account; in which case, double the latter balance shall be deemed to be the amount then due: Provided that where the transactions between the parties have commenced more than 30 years before the 30th January 1940 any settlement of accounts which has been last arrived at between the parties before the said period of 30 years and which is in writing and bears the signature of the debtor or the person through whom the liability is driven shall be accepted as binding between the parties and no inquiry into the history and merits of the case shall be made prior to the date of such settlement.

23. In certain cases rent may be charged in lieu of profits :-
When any mortgaged property is in the possession of the mortgagee or his tenants other than the mortgagor and the Court is unable to determine what profits have actually been received, it may fix a fair rent for such property and charge to the mortgagee such rent as profits for the purpose of Section 22 : Provided that, if it be proved that in any year there was any suspension or remission of rent or land revenue of such land under Section 84A of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 an abatement of the whole or part of such amount may be allowed for the year.

24. Power of Court to declare transfer purporting to be sale to be in nature of mortgage :-

(1) Notwithstanding to the contrary contained in law, custom, or contract, whenever it is alleged during the course of the hearing of an application made under Section 4 that any transfer of land by a person whose debts are being adjusted under this Act or any other person through whom he inherited it was a transfer in the nature of mortgage, the Court shall declare the transfer to be a mortgage, if the Court is satisfied that the circumstances connected with that transfer showed it to be in the nature of a mortgage.

(2) Any agricultural labour may make an application before the 1st August, 1947 to the Court that any transfer of land by him or any other person through whom he inherited it was a transfer in the nature of mortgage. On hearing the application, the Court shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, custom, or contract, declare the transfer to be a mortgage, if it is satisfied that the circumstances connected with the transfer showed it to be in the nature of a mortgage. When the Court makes any such declaration, the applicant shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the definition of "debtor" in sub-section (5) of Section 2 , be deemed to be a debtor for the purposes of this Act and the Court shall proceed as if an application under Section 4 had been made to it.

25. Provision of section 24 not to apply to certain transfers and transferees :-

33. Court to prepare scheme for adjustment of debts through Provincial Land Mortgage Bank :-

(1) Where the amount of debts of the debtor as scaled down under Section 31 by it exceeds half the value of the debtor's immovable property as determined by it, the Court shall intimate to the creditors the amount of the said debts of the debtor and the said value of the debtor's immovable property and call upon them to state in writing within a specified period not exceeding one month whether they agree to the further scaling down of the said debts so as to reduce them to a sum not exceeding half the said value of the immovable property of the debtor. If ¹[a majority in number and three- fourth in value of all the creditors] agree to the further scaling down of the debts, the Court shall make an order directing the debtor to pay the amount of such debts so agreed upon within a period of one month from the date of the order.

²[(2) Unless the debtor pays the amount of such debts within a period of one month from the date of the order or such extended period not exceeding one month as the Court may allow and produces the creditor receipt therefor, the Court shall prepare a scheme embodying the terms of an award to be passed under this section for adjustment of the debts and shall send the scheme to the Primary Land Mortgage Bank situated in the local area and if there is no such Primary Land Mortgage Bank in that local area, to the Bombay Provincial Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank, for acceptance within a period of two months from the date of receipt by it of the scheme. If the Primary Land Mortgage Bank or the Bombay Provincial Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank, as the case may be, agrees to accept the scheme or does not inform the Court within the period of the said two months that it does not agree to accept the scheme, the Court shall make an award in the prescribed form directing that the Land Mortgage Bank concerned shall pay the creditors in cash the debt as finally scaled down or if the creditors so desire, in bonds issued by the Bombay Provincial Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank, such bonds being guaranteed by the State Government, for such amount in full satisfaction of all the debts due to them from the debtor. The Court shall further direct that such amount shall be charged on all the immovable property of the debtor.]

3[(2A)

(a) Where any award made under sub-section (1) of Section 55 of the repealed Act or under sub-section (2) of this section has either before or after the Bombay Agricultural Debtors' Relief (Amendment) Act, 1948 (Bom. LXX of 1948), has come into force been wrongly forwarded for payment to the creditors of the debt as finally scaled down to any Primary Land Mortgage Bank which under its bye laws was not competent to make payment to the creditors, it shall be lawful to the Court notwithstanding anything contained in this Act on application made by the creditor concerned and after holding such inquiry as it deems fit, to direct that the said award be forwarded to the Primary Land Mortgage Bank for the local area concerned competent to make the payment or to the Bombay Provincial Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank, as the case may be, for making payment in accordance with this section.

(b) The award directed to be forwarded under clause (a) shall not be deemed to have been wrongly forwarded only on the ground that it was originally forwarded to a Primary Land Mortgage Bank not competent to make the payment, and shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, be deemed to have been duly forwarded under

⁴(3) The Bank shall be entitled to recover the amount due to it from the debtor in such annual installments as may be fixed by the Court. The amount of principal shall carry and be recoverable together with interest at such rate not exceeding ⁵[7.13/16 per cent] per annum as the ⁶[State] Government may notify in this behalf in the Official Gazette, from time to time.]

(4) All sums due under an award made in favour of the bank under this section shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue: ⁷ [Provided that any application for the recovery of such sums shall be made to the Collector and shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Court.]

35. Debts not to be scaled down in case of collusion :-

If the Court making an award under Section 32 is at any stage of the proceeding satisfied.-

(1) that the debtor had in collusion with any creditor furnished in such proceeding incorrect information in respect of the debt due by him to such creditor with a view to defeat the lawful claims of any other creditor, the Court may refuse to scale down any of the debts of such debtor in the manner provided in Section 41 and may make an award for the full amount of the debts due from such debtor;

(2) that any claim by a creditor in such proceeding had been put forward in collusion between the debtor and such creditor with a view to defeat the lawful claims of any other creditor, the Court shall order that the debt due by the debtor to such creditor shall be extinguished and such debt shall not be recoverable.

36. Ex-parte proceedings if any party does not appear :-

(1) Notwithstanding that the person for the adjustment of whose debts an application has been made under Section 4 or any of his creditors does not appear on the date fixed for the hearing of the application or on any date to which it may be adjourned, the Court shall proceed ex-parte to

(2) When an application made under Section 4 is heard and disposed of ex-parte under sub-section (1) the decision on the preliminary issues or the award shall not, except for sufficient reasons, be re-opened merely on the ground that any of the parties thereto did not appear at the hearing.

37. Re-opening of award and re-adjustment of debts :-

If, after an award is made under Section 32 the Court finds on an application made to it by and party or otherwise, that the debtor has other property which was disclosed to the Court when the award was made, or that any property included in the award did not belong to the debtor, the Court may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act reopen the award and readjust the debts in accordance with the provisions of this Act: Provided that where the Court is satisfied that the non-disclosure of such property was in consequence of any fraud on the part of the debtor, the Court in revising the award shall not give the debtor the benefit of Section 31 .

38. Award to be registered how executed :-

(1) Every award made under this Act ²[if it is in respect of debts charged on the properties of the debtor] shall, on payment of the court-fee payable under Section 44 , be registered in the manner provided in Chapter II-A.]

(2) The court-fee on the award shall be paid by the party ordered by the Court to bear the cost: Provided that any creditor who is not ordered to bear the costs may pay such court-fee. Such creditor shall be entitled to recover the amount of court-fee paid by him from the debtor with the first installment payable to him under the award. Provided further that no court-fee shall be payable by a co-operative society.

(3) The award ³[x x x] shall be executed as follows:-

(i) If the debtor makes default in the payment of any installment due under the award to any creditor may apply in the prescribed form to the Court for execution of the award.

(ii) If the Court on receipt of such application is satisfied that the debtor has made default in the payment of the installment the Court shall transfer the award for execution to the Collector and thereupon the Collector shall recover the amount of the installment from the debtor as arrears of land revenue: Provided that nothing in ⁴[clauses (i) and (ii) shall affect the right of Government, a local authority or a co-operative society to have recourse to any mode of recovery allowable by any law for the time being in force.

⁵ [(iii) If the Court has passed an order for the delivery of possession of any property under clause (v) of sub-section (2) of Section 32 shall on the application be executed by the Court as if it were a decree passed by it.]
