4. Sub-section (4) was added by Gujarat 22 of 1966, Section 3(b).

14. Registration of Union. :-

On receipt of an application from a union for registration under section 13 and on payment of the fee prescribed, the Registrar, shall, if after holding such inquiry as he deems fit he comes to the conclusion that the conditions requisite for registration specified in the said section are satisfied and that the union is not otherwise disqualified for registration, enter the name of the union in the appropriate register maintained under section 12 and issue a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed:

Provided Firstly, that in any local area there shall not at any time be more than one registered union in respect of the same industry; Secondly, that in any local area the Registrar shall in respect of an industry register a union fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration as a Representative Union in preference to one not fulfilling the said conditions and failing such a union a union fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration as a Qualified Union in preference to one not fulfilling such condition:

(i) where two or more unions fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration apply in the same calendar month for registration in respect of the same industry in any local area, subject to the provisions of the second proviso, the union having the largest membership of employees employed in the industry during the whole of the period of three calendar months immediately preceding that in which the applications were made shall be registered and any application made in any subsequent calendar months shall not be considered by the Registrar until the applications made in the earlier calendar month are disposed of by him;

(ii) where a union fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration makes an application during any calendar months for registration in respect of an industry in any local area, any application in any subsequent calendar month by any other union for registration in respect of the same industry shall not be considered by the Registrar until the former application is disposed of by him;]

Fourthly, that the Registrar shall not register any union if he is satisfied that the application for its registration is not made bonafide in the interest of the employers but is made in the interest of the employers to the prejudice of the interest of the employees;

2 Fifthly, that the Registrar shall not register any union if at any time, six months immediately preceding the date of the application for registration or thereafter the union has instigated, aided or assisted the commencement or continuation of a strike or stoppage which has held or declared to be illegal;

Sixthly, that the Registrar shall not register any union, if the rules of the union relating to its members contain any provision debarring any employee in the industry concerned from being a member of such union on the ground that he is or not an employee in any particular undertaking in the said industry.)

1. This was substituted for the third proviso by Gujarat 8 1962 Section 4.

2. This portion was added by Bombay 74 of 1948, Section 3.

15. Cancellation of registration. :-

The Registrar shall cancel the registration of a union

(a) if the Industrial Court directs that the registration of such union shall be cancelled;

(b) if ¹[after giving notice to such union to show cause why its registration should not be cancelled and] after holding such inquiry, if any, as he deems fit, he is satisfied

(i) that it was registered under mistake, misrepresentation or fraud; or

(ii) that the membership, of the union has for a continuous period of three ²[Calendar] months fallen below the minimum required under section 13 of its registration:

Provided that where a strike or a closure not being an illegal strike or closure under this Act in an industry involving more than a third of the employees in the industry in the area has extended to a period exceeding fourteen days in any calendar month, such months shall be excluded in computing the said period of three months:

Provided further that the registration of a union shall not be cancelled under the provisions of this sub-clause unless its membership ³[or the calendar month in which show cause notice under this section was issued was] less than such minimum:or

(iii) that the registered union being a Primary Union has after registration failed to observe any of the conditions specified in section 23; or

(iv) that the registered union is not being conducted bonafide in the interests of employees but in the interests of employers to the prejudice of the interest of employees; or

(v) that it has instigated, aided or assisted the commencement or continuation of ⁴ [a strike or a stoppage which has been held or declared to be illegal];

(c) if its registration under the Indian Trade Unions act, 1926 (XVI of 1926), is cancelled.

CHAPTER 7

Standing Orders

35. Settlement of Standing Orders by Commissioner of Labour :-

(1) Within six weeks from the date of the application of this Act to an industry every employer therein shall submit for approval to the Commissioner of Labour in the prescribed manner draft standing orders regulating the relations between him and his employees with regard to the industrial matters mentioned in Schedule I:

Provided that where an undertaking in an industry is started after the application of this Act to such industry, the draft standing orders shall be submitted within six months of the starting of the undertaking.

(2) On receipt of the draft standing orders the Commissioner of Labour shall, after consulting in the prescribed manner the representative of employees and employers and such other interest concerned in the industry and making such inquiry as he deems fit, settle the said standing orders.

(3) The Commissioner of Labour shall forward a copy of the standing order so settled to the Registrar, who shall within fifteen days of their receipt record them in the register kept for the purpose.

(4) Standing orders so settled shall come into operation from the date of their record in the register under sub-section (3).

(5) Until standing orders in respect of an undertaking come into operation under the provisions of sub-section (4), model standing orders, if any, notified in the Official Gazette by the State Government in respect of the industry shall apply to such undertaking.

36. Appeal to Industrial Court. :-

(1) Any person aggrieved by any standing orders settled by the Commissioner of Labour under sub-section (2) of section 35 may within thirty days from the date of their coming into operation appeal to the Industrial Court:

Provided that the Industrial Court may for sufficient causes, admit any appeal after the expiry of the period of thirty days.

(2) On an appeal being filed, the Industrial Court may on the application of any party to such appeal and on such conditions as it may think fit stay the operation of all or any of such standing orders until the appeal is decided.

(3) The Industrial Court in appeal may confirm, modify, add to or rescind all or any of such standing orders.

(4) The Industrial Court shall fix the date on which all or any of the standing orders settled by it under sub-section (3) shall come into operation.

(5) A copy of the orders passed by the Industrial Court under sub-section (3) shall be sent to the Registrar who shall record them in the register referred to in sub-section (3) of section 35.

37. Review. :-

(1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Industrial Court under section 36 may within thirty days from the date of the decision apply to the Industrial Court for a review of the said decision:

1 [Provided that the Industrial Court may for sufficient cause admit any such application after the expiry of the said period of thirty days.]

(2) The Industrial Court shall not grant such application unless it is satisfied that there has been a discovery of new and important matter or evidence which after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of the party making the application or could not be produced by him at the time when its decision was made, or that there has been some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record or that there is any other sufficient reason for granting such application.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 36 shall, so far as may be, apply to proceedings under sub-section (1) in the same manner as they apply to an appeal against standing orders settled by the Commissioner of Labour under sub-section (2) of section 35.

1. The proviso added by Bombay 63 of 1953.

38. No alteration in Standing Orders for one year. :-

(1) No alternation shall be made for a period of one year from the date of its coming into operation in any standing order settled under any of the foregoing provisions of the Chapter except by the Industrial Court in appeal or review where such appeal or review lies.

(2) Any employer or employee may apply to the Commissioner of Labour for a change in

(a) any standing order settled under sub-section (2) of section 35, which has not been appealed against, or

(b) any standing order settled in appeal under sub-section (3) of section 36, in respect of which no application for review has been made, or

(c) any standing order settled in review under section 37, after the expiry of one year from the date of such standing order coming into operation.

39. Alteration in Standing Orders. :-

(1) On receipt of an application u/sub-s, (2) of Section 38 the Commissioner of Labour shall, after giving the other party an opportunity of being heard and after consulting such other interests in the industry as in his opinion are affected, pass such order as he deems fit, and, if the order effect an alteration in any standing order, forward a copy of the standing order as so altered to the Registrar who shall, within fifteen days of its receipt record it in the register referred to in sub-section (3) of section 35. The standing order as so altered shall come into operation from the date of its record in the register

(2) The provisions of section 36, 37 and 38 shall, so far as may be, apply to an order passed by the Commissioner of Labour under sub-section (1) in the same manner as they to standing orders settled under sub-section (2) of section 35.

40. Standing Orders to be determinative. :-

(1) Standing orders in respect of an employer and his employees settled under this Chapter and in operation, or where there are no such standing orders, model standing orders, if any, applicable under the provisions of sub-section (5) of section 35 shall be determinative of the relations between the employer and his employees in regard to all industrial matters specified in Schedule I.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the State Government may refer, or an employee ¹ [or a representative union] may apply in respect of any dispute of the nature referred to in clause (a) of paragraph A of section 78, to a Labour Court.

1. These words were Inserted by Bom., 63 of 1953, Section 11.

41. Act XX of 1946 not to apply to certain Industries. :-

The provisions of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (XX of 1946) shall not apply to any industry to which the provisions of this Chapter are applied.

CHAPTER 8 Changes

42. Notice of change. :-

(1) Any employer intending to effect any change in respect of an industrial matter specified in Schedule II shall give notice of such intention in the prescribed form to the representative of employees. He shall send a copy of such notice to the Chief Conciliator, the Conciliator for the industry concerned for the local area, the Registrar, the Labour Officer and such other person as may be prescribed. He shall also affix a copy of such notice at a conspicuous place on the premises where the employees affected by the change are employed for work and at such other place as may be directed by the Chief Conciliator in any particular case.

(2) An employee desiring a change in respect of an industrial matter not specified in Schedule I or III shall give notice in the prescribed form to the employer through the representative of employees, who shall forward a copy of the notice to the Chief Conciliator, the Conciliator for the industry concerned for the local area, the Registrar, the Labour Officer and such other person as may be prescribed.

(3) When no settlement is arrived at in any conciliation proceeding in regard to any industrial dispute which has arisen in consequence of a notice relating to any change given under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), no fresh notice with regard to the same change or a change similar in all material particulars shall be given before the expiry of two months from the date of the completion of the proceeding within the meaning of section 63. If, at any time after the expiry of the said period of two months, any employer or employee again desires the same change or a change similar in all material particulars, he shall give fresh notice in the manner provided in sub-section (1) or (2), as the case may be.

(4) Any employee ¹(or a representative union] desiring a change in respect of (i) an order passed by ²[the] employer under standing orders, or (ii) any industrial matter arising out of the application or interpretation of standing orders; or (ii) an industrial matter specified in Schedule III, shall make an application to the Labour Court:

Provided that no such application shall lie unless the employee ³[or a representative union] has in the prescribed ⁴ [the] employer with a request for the change and no agreement has been arrived at in respect of the change within the prescribed period.

(3) The Council shall be entrusted by the employer with such administrative functions, appearing to be connected with or relevant to, the discharge by the Council of its duties under this section, as may be prescribed.

(4) It shall be the duty of the employer to furnish to the Council necessary information relating to such matters as may be prescribed for the purpose of enabling it to discharge its duties under this Act.

(5) The Council shall follow such procedure in the discharge of its duties as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER 10

Conciliation Proceedings

54. Report of dispute to be sent to Registrar Chief Conciliator and Conciliator. :-

(1) If any proposed change in respect of which notice is given under section 42, or an intimation or special notice is given under section 43 is objected to by the employer or the employee, as the case may be, the party who gave such notice, intimation or special notice shall, if he shall still desires that the change should be effected, forward to the Registrar, the Chief Conciliator and the Conciliator for the local area for the industry concerned a full statement of the case in prescribed form within fifteen days from the date of service of such notice, intimation or special notice, on the other party or within one week of the expiry of the period fixed by both the parties under sub-section (1) of sec. 44 for arriving at an agreement.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this sub-section a change shall be deemed to be objected to by the employer or employee, as the case may be, if within seven days from the date of service of such notice, intimation or special notice or within the period fixed by the both the parties under sub-section (1) of section 34 for arriving at an agreement a memorandum of agreement has not been forwarded to the Registrar under the said sub- section.

(2) When a notification is issued under sub-section (5) of section 43 in respect of such change, any employer or employee in the industry may within seven days from the date of publication of such notification forward such statement to the said officers.

55. Commencement of conciliation proceeding. :-

On receipt of the statement of the case under section 54, the Conciliator shall except in a case in which by reason of the provisions of section 64 a conciliation proceeding cannot be commenced, ¹[within a week] enter the industrial dispute in the register kept for the purpose and thereupon the conciliation proceeding shall be deemed to have commenced from ² [the date of such entry in the register, which date shall be communicated by him to the parties concerned].

1. These words were substituted for the word "forthwith" by Bombay 63 of 1953.

2. These words were substituted for the words "the date of such receipt", by Bombay 63 of 1953.

56. Conciliation proceeding. :-

(1) The Conciliator shall hold the conciliation proceeding in the prescribed manner.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Conciliator to endeavour to bring about the settlement of the industrial dispute and for this purpose the Conciliator shall enquire into the dispute and all matters affecting the merits thereof and may do all such thing as he thinks fit for the purpose of inducing the parties to come to a fair and amicable settlement of the dispute and may adjourn the conciliation proceeding for any period sufficient in his opinion to allow the parties to arrive at a settlement or for any other reason.

57. Power of Chief Conciliator to intervene. :-

(1) It shall be lawful for the Chief Conciliator to intervene or to direct any Conciliator to intervene at any stage in any conciliation proceeding held by another Conciliator and thereafter the Chief Conciliator or the Conciliator so directed shall hold the conciliation proceeding with or without the assistance of the Conciliator.

(2) The Chief Conciliator may from time to time issue such directions as he deems fit to any Conciliator at any stage of a conciliation proceeding.

58. Settlement and report. :-

(1) If a settlement of an industrial dispute is arrived at in a conciliation proceeding, a

(2) If no such settlement is arrived at, the Conciliator shall, as soon as possible after the close of the proceeding before him, send a full report to the Chief Conciliator stating the steps taken by him for ascertaining the facts and circumstances relating to the dispute and the reasons on account of which, in his opinion, settlement could not be arrived at:

Provided that where such Conciliator is the Chief Conciliator such report shall be forwarded by him to the State Government.

(3) The Chief Conciliator shall forward the report submitted to him under sub-section (2) to the State Government with such remarks as he deems fit.

(4) The State Government shall publish the report of the Conciliator or Chief Conciliator forwarded to it under the proviso to sub-section (2) or under sub-section (3) except in cases in which the dispute is referred to a Board, or the parties to the dispute enter into a submission in respect of it.

1 [(4A) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section where an industrial dispute is settled in regard to some of the industrial matters included therein and has not been settled in regard to other and the parties agree in writing that the settlement shall take place in regard to the industrial matters so settled, the settlement of the said industrial matter shall be registered and a report of the industrial matters not settled shall be sent in accordance with the provisions of this section.]

(5) Before the close of the proceeding before him the Conciliator shall ascertain from the parties whether they are willing

(6) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, if at any stage of a conciliation proceeding the parties agree in writing to submit the dispute to arbitration, the agreement shall be deemed to be a submission within the meaning of section 66.

(b) Where the agreement provides for arbitration either by a Labour Court or by the Industrial Court, the Conciliator shall forthwith refer the dispute to the Labour Court or the Industrial Court, as the case may be.

1. This sub-section was inserted by Bombay 74 of 1948, Section 11.

59. Reference to Board. :-

(1) The State Government may at any time and where either prior to the commencement of a proceeding before the Conciliator or after his failure to bring about a settlement, the parties agree, shall refer the dispute to a Board and thereupon conciliation proceedings before the Board shall be deemed to have commenced from the date of such reference.

(2) On such reference being made, the Board shall give notice in the prescribed manner to the parties to the dispute to appear before it at such time and place as may be specified in the notice. A copy of such notice shall be sent to the Labour Officer.

(3) On the date specified in the notice or on such other date as may be fixed by the Board, the Board shall hold the conciliation proceeding. It shall be the duty of the Board to endeavour to bring about a settlement of the industrial dispute and the provisions of section 55, 56 and 58 shall, so far as may be, apply to the proceeding before the Board.

60. Procedure and powers of Conciliator and Board. :-

(1) A Conciliator or a Board, as the case may be, shall subject to the provisions of this Act, follow in a conciliation proceeding such procedure as may be prescribed.

(2) The proceedings before a Conciliator shall be held in camera as the Board may decide.

(3) If a party to an industrial dispute or a witness or any other person giving any information or producing any document in a conciliation proceeding makes a request in writing to the Conciliator or the board, as the case may be, that such information or the contents of such document be treated as confidential, the Conciliator or the Board shall direct that such information or document be treated as confidential:

Provided that the Conciliator or Board may permit the information or the contents of the document to be disclosed to the other party.

(4) Save as provided in sub-section (3) a Conciliator or any member of a Board or any person present at or concerned in the conciliation proceeding shall not disclose any information or the contents of any document in respect of which a request has been made under sub-section (3) without the consent in writing of the party making the request under the said sub-section .

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to the disclosure of any information or the contents of any document for the purpose of a prosecution under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.

61. Reference to Industrial Court by Conciliator or Board. :-

A Conciliator or a Board may refer any question of law arising before him or it in any conciliation proceeding, to the Industrial Court for decision. Any order passed by the Conciliator or the board in such proceeding shall be in accordance with such decision.

62. Time limit for stages of conciliation proceeding :-

The State Government shall by general or special order notified in the Official Gazette fix a time limit for the completion of each stage of the conciliation provided for under this Chapter:

Provided that the total period fixed for the completion of all stages of a conciliation proceeding shall not exceed one month from the date on which the dispute is entered by the Conciliator in the register under section 55 or is referred to a Board under section 59:

Provided further that the State Government may extend the said period of one month by a fortnight at a time but not exceeding in any case two months in the aggregate.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the parties to any industrial dispute may in any case agree to extend the period fixed for the completion of any stage of a conciliation proceeding by any further period and such further period shall be excluded in computing the period of time limit referred to in the said sub-section:

1[Provided that the total period for the completion of a conciliation proceeding including the period of extension mutually agreed to by the parties shall not exceed one year:

Provided further that the State Government may extend the said period of one year by a further period of a month at a time but not exceeding in any case two months in the aggregate.]

2 [(3) Where a Conciliator or a Board refers under section 61 a question of law to the Industrial Court for its decision, the period commencing from the date of such reference to the date of Communication of the decision of the Industrial Court to the Conciliator or the Board, as the case may be, shall be excluded in computing the time limit referred to in sub-section (1).]

5. These words, figures and letters were inserted by Gujarat 8 of 1962. Section 13 (ii).

65. Conciliation proceeding discontinued deemed to be completed. :-

A conciliation proceeding which is discontinued under clause (b) of section 64 shall be deemed to have been completed on the date referred to in the said clause, and the provisions of section 58 with regard to the submission, forwarding and publication of reports shall apply to such conciliation proceeding.

CHAPTER 11

Arbitration

66. Submission. :-

(1) Any employer and a Representative Union or any other registered union which is a representative of employees may, by a written agreement, agree to submit any present or future industrial dispute or class of such disputes to the arbitration of any person whether such arbitrator is named in such agreement or not. Such agreement shall be called a submission.

(2) Such submission may provide that the dispute shall be referred to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court:

1 [Provided that no such submission shall provide for reference of any such dispute to the arbitration of the Industrial Court where under any provision of this Act is required to be referred to the labour Court for its decision].

(3) A copy of every such submission shall be sent to the Registrar who shall register it in register to be maintained for the purpose and shall publish it in such manner as may be prescribed.

1. Section 68 was substituted for the original by Gujarat 22 of 1966. Section 8.

67. Submission when revocable. :-

Every submission shall in the absence of any provision to the contrary contained therein be irrevocable:

Provided that a submission to refer future disputes to arbitration may at any time be revoked by any of the parties to such submission by giving the other party six month' notice in writing:

Provided further that before the expiry of the said period of six months the parties may agree to continue the submission for such further period as may be agreed upon between them.

1. Section 68 was substituted for the original by Gujarat 22 of 1966. Section 8.

68. Non-application of Arbitration Act, 1940. :-

Nothing in the Arbitration Act, 1940 (X of 1940) shall apply to arbitrations under this Chapter.]

69. Special case to be stated to Industrial Court. :-

The arbitrator may refer any question of law arising before him in any proceeding under this Act to the Industrial court for its decision. Any award made by the arbitrator shall be in accordance with such decision.

70. Award by arbitrator. :-

The arbitrator shall, after hearing the parties concerned, make an award which shall be signed by him.

71. Dispute to be referred to Labour Court or Industrial Court if no arbitrator appointed. :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, if no provision has been made in any submission for the appointment of an arbitrator or where by reason of any circumstances no arbitrator is appointed, such dispute shall be referred to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court, as the State Government may determine.

72. Disputes between employees may be referred to by State Government to arbitration of Labour Court or Industrial Court. :-

Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained the State Government may, at any time on the report of the Labour Officer or on its own motion, refer any industrial dispute between employees and employees to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court.

(2) The provisions of this Chapter with such modifications as may be prescribed shall apply to such arbitration.

(3) The employers of such employees shall in the prescribed manner be made parties to such arbitration.

73. State Government may refer industrial dispute to Industrial Court for arbitration :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the State Government may, at any time, refer an industrial dispute to the arbitration of the Industrial Court, if on a report made by the Labour Officer or otherwise it is satisfied that

(1) by reason of the continuance of the dispute

(a) a serious outbreak of disorder or a breach of the public peace is likely to occur; or

(b) serious or prolonged hardship to a large section of the community is likely to be caused; or

(c) the industry concerned is likely to be seriously affected or the prospects and scope for employment therein -curtailed; or

(2) the dispute is not likely to be settled by other means; or

(3) it is necessary in the public interest to do so.

73AA. Power of State Government to include other undertakings in references to Labour or Industrial Court :-

Where an industrial dispute concerning any undertaking in an industry or section thereof has been or is to be referred to a Labour Court or Industrial Court under section 72 or 73, and the State Government is of opinion, whether on application made to it in this behalf or otherwise, that the dispute is such a nature that any other undertaking, group or class of undertakings of a similar nature in that industry or any section thereof is likely to be interested in or affected by such dispute, the State Government may, at the time of making such reference or at any time thereafter, but before the submission of the award, include in that reference such undertaking, group or class of undertakings or any section thereof, whether or not at the time of such inclusion any dispute exists or is apprehended in that establishment, group or class of undertakings or section thereof.]

73A. Reference to arbitration by unions. :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a registered union which is a representative of employees and which is also an approved union may refer any industrial dispute for arbitration to the Industrial Court:

Provided that no such dispute shall be referred to the Industrial Court, (i) after two months from the date of the completion of the proceedings before the Conciliator: (ii) where the employer has offered in writing before the Conciliator to submit the dispute to arbitration under this Act and the union has not agreed to do so: (iii) unless the dispute is first submitted to the Conciliator and the conciliation proceeding are completed or the Conciliator certifies that the dispute is not capable of being settled by conciliation:

Provided further that no such dispute shall be referred to the Industrial Court where under any provision of this Act is required to be referred to the Labour Court for its decision].
