[January 19, 1948]

An Act to amend and consolidate the law relating to the control of rent and repairs of certain premises of rates of hotels and lodging houses and of evictions. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to the control of rents and repairs of certain premises of rates of hotels and lodging houses and of evictions; It is hereby enacted as follows

PART 1

Preliminary

1. Short title :-

This Act may be called the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947.

2. Extent :-

(1) Parts I and IV of this Act shall extend to [the whole of the State of Gujarat.]

(2) ¹[part II shall extend to the areas specified in Schedule I] to this Act and shall continue to extend to any such area notwithstanding that the area ceases to be of the description therein specified.

[(2A) Part II shall extend also to those areas of the Saurashtra area of the State of Gujarat to which Part II of the Saurashtra Rent Control Act, 1951, (Sau. Act XXII of 1951), extended immediately before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963, (Guj. LVII of 1963).

(2B) Parts II and III shall extend to those areas of the Kutch area of the State of Gujarat to which Parts II and III of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947, as applied to the said Kutch area extended immediately before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963, (Guj. LVII of 1963).

(3) The ²[State] Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, extend to any other area any or all of the provisions of Part II or Part III or of both.

(4) The ³ [State] Government may, at any time by like notification direct that any or all the provisions of Part II or Part III or of both, as the case may be, shall cease to extend to such area and on such date as may be specified in the notification; and on that date the said provision shall cease to be in force in such area.

1. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. This proviso was added by Gujarat 57 of 1963, Section 4(1).

3. These words, figures and letters were substituted for the words, figures and letters "31st day of March, 1976" by Gujarat 16 of 1976, Section 2.

2A. Act to apply to Saurashtra and Kutch areas with certain modifications :-

¹ In its application to the Saurashtra area and the Kutch area of the State of Gujarat this Act shall be amended in the manner as set forth in Parts I and II respectively of Schedule IA.]

1. Section 2A was inserted by Gujarat 57 of 1963, Section 3.

3. Commencement and duration :-

(1) This Act shall come into operation on such date as the ¹[State] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf:

²[Provided that in the areas to which this Act is extended by the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963 (Guj. LVII of 1963) this Act shall come into force on the date on which the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963 (Guj. LVII of 1963) comes into force.]

(2) It shall remain in force upto and inclusive of ³[⁴[31st day of March 1991].

5* *****

(3) Section 7 of the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. 1 of 1904.) shall apply upon the expiry of this Act or upon this Act as any provision thereof ceasing to be in force in any area, as if it had then been repealed by a ⁶ [Gujarat Act].

1. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. This proviso was added by Gujarat 57 of 1963, Section 4(1).

Explanation. For the purposes of sub-section (1), the expression "premises" shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it in sub-clause (b) of clause (8) of section 5.]

10CC. Increase in rent of premises used for cinema in Saurashtra area and Kutch areas and former Baroda State territories :-

(1) In the Saurashtra area and the Kutch area of the State and in the areas of the merged territories of the former Baroda State, in the case of premises let on or before the specified date and used for the purposes of a cinema, a landlord shall also be entitled to make an increase in the rent of such premises by an addition to the rent at a rate not exceeding fifty per cent, of the standard rent.

(2) Any increase under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purposes of section 7.

Explanation. For the purposes of this section, the expression "premises" shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it in sub-clause (b) of clause (8) of section 5.]

10D. Increase in rent on account of repairs excepted :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (5) and notwithstanding anything contained in Section 9 , a landlord shall further be entitled to make an increase in the rent of premises by an addition to the rent in the manner prescribed, of an amount not exceeding five per cent, per annum of the expenses incurred on account of special or heavy repairs or special additions to premises or special alterations made therein or additional amenities provided for the premises or on account of improvements or structural alterations made under Section 9 :

Provided that the increases permitted by this sub-section shall not, in respect of improvements or structural alterations, be in addition to the increase already made under Section 9 and shall after the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Second Amendment) Act, 1953, (Bom. LXI of 1953.) be in substitution of the reasonable increase permitted under that section, notwithstanding anything contained therein.

(2) Before making any increase under sub-section (1), the landlord shall obtain a certificate from the local authority that he was required by it to make or to provide such repairs, additions, alterations, improvements or amenities and has completed them in conformity with its requirements or shall obtain the consent in writing of the tenant or of majority of tenants occupying the premises in the building.

(3) Any increase under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purposes of Section 7 .

(4) If a landlord, when required by a local authority to execute the work of any such repairs, additions, improvements, alterations, or amenities, fails to do so the tenant or the tenants interested in such work may seek the approval of the local authority for executing such work. The local authority shall grant the approval unless other measures are taken by it to execute the said work. While granting the approval, the local authority shall specify the nature of the work and the estimated cost thereof which shall for all purposes be binding on the landlord. Upon such

Provided that where such work is jointly executed by the tenants the amount to be deducted or recovered by each tenant shall bear the same proportion as the rent payable by him in respect of his premises bears to the total amount of the expenses incurred for such work :

Provided further that the total amount so deducted or recoverable shall not exceed the estimated cost specified by the local authority.

(5) In respect of any work executed by the tenants under sub-section (4) the landlord shall not be entitled to make the increase permitted under sub-section (I).

Explanation. For the purposes of this section, the expression local authority" shall include the Municipal Commissioner.]

10E. Increase in rent on account of payment of increased groundrent etc. :-

(1) Where a landlord is liable to pay in respect of any premises, any levy of, or increase in the ground-rent, non-agricultural assessment or any other tax on land imposed by the State Government, he shall be entitled to make an increase in the rent of the premises by an amount not exceeding the increase paid by him by way of such ground-rent, non-agricultural assessment or tax, as the case may be. The amount of such increase in rent to be recovered from tenant shall bear the same proportion as the rent payable by him in respect of his premises bears to the total amount of the rent recoverable for the whole of the premises if let.

(2) Any increase under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purposes of section 7.]

11. Court may fix standard rent and permitted increase in certain cases :-

(1) In any of the following cases the Court may, upon an application made to it for that purpose, or in any suit or proceeding, fix the standard rent at such amount, as, having regard to the provisions of this Act and the circumstances of the case, the Court deems just

(a) where any premises are first let after the ¹[specified date] and the rent at which, they are so let is in the opinion of the Court excessive; or

(b) where the Court is satisfied that there is no sufficient evidence to ascertain the rent at which the premises were let in any one of the cases mentioned in sub-clauses (i) to (iii) of clause (b) of sub-section (10) of section 5; or

(c) where by reason of the premises having been let at one time as a whole or in parts and at another time in parts or as a whole, or for any other reasons, any difficulty arises in giving effect to this part; or

(d) where any premises have been or are let rent-free or at a nominal rent or for some consideration in addition to rent; or

(e) where there is any dispute between the landlord and the tenant regarding the amount of standard rent.

(2) If there is any dispute between the landlord and the tenant regarding the amount of permitted increase the Courts may determine such amount.

² [(3) If any application for fixing the standard rent or for determining the permitted increase is made by a tenant who has received a notice from his landlord under sub-section (2) of section 12, the Court shall make an order directing the tenant to deposit in Court forthwith, and thereafter monthly or periodically, such amount of rent or permitted increases as the Court considers to be reasonably due to the landlord pending the final decision of the application, and a copy of such order shall be served upon the landlord. Out of the amount so deposited, the Court may make order for the payment of such reasonable sum to the landlord towards payment of rent or increase due to him, as it thinks fit. If the tenant fails to deposit such amount, his application shall be dismissed.

(4) Where at any stage of a suit for recovery of rent, whether with or without a claim for possession of the premises, the Court is satisfied that the tenant is withholding the rent on the ground that the rent is excessive and standard rent should be fixed, the Court shall, and in any other case if it appears to the Court that it is just and proper to make such an order the Court may, make an order directing the tenant to deposit in Court forthwith such amount of rent as the Court considers to be reasonably due to the landlord. The Court may further make an order directing the tenant to deposit in Court, monthly, or periodically, such amount as it considers proper as interim standard rent during the pendency of the suit. The Court may also direct that if the tenant fails to comply with any such order within such time as may be allowed by it, he shall not be entitled to appear in or defend the suit except with leave of the Court which leave may be granted subject to such terms and conditions as the Court may specify.

(5) No appeal shall lie from any order of the Court made under sub-section (3) or (4).

(6) An application under this section may be made jointly by all or any of the tenants interested in respect of the premises situated in the same building.]

11A. Right of tenant in new building in disturbed areas :-

Where by reason of any riot or violence of a mob any material part of the premises in a disturbed area is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit for the purpose for which it was let,

(a) the landlord shall erect the new building at the original site, subject to the provisions of any rules, by-laws or regulations, made by a local authority, not later than fifteen months from the commencement of this Act; and

(b) the tenant shall have the right to occupy a tenement in the new building erected at the original site by the landlord ; and the provisions of sections 17B and 17C shall, so far as may be apply.

Explanation. In this section and in sub-section (1A) of section 12, the expression 'disturbed area" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in the Gujarat Prohibition of Transfer of Immovable Property and Provision for Protection of Tenants from Eviction from Premises in Disturbed Areas Act, 1986, (Guj. 30 of 1986).

12. No ejectment ordinarily to be made if tenant pays or is ready and willing to pay standard rent and permitted increases :-

(1) A landlord shall not be entitled to the recovery of possession of any premises so long as the tenant pays, or is ready and willing to pay, the amount of the standard rent and permitted increases, if any, and observes and performs the other conditions of the tenancy, in so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act.

[(1A) Where by reason of riot or violence of a mob any material part of the premises in a disturbed arsa is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit for the purpose for which it was let, the landlord shall not be entitled to,

- (a) the standard rent and permitted increases due for the premises,
- (b) recover possession of such premises merely on the ground of non-payment of standard rent and permitted increases due, during the period in which such premises remain so destroyed, or unfit.]

(2) No suit for recovery of possession shall be instituted by a landlord against a tenant on the ground of non payment of the standard rent or permitted increases due, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing of the demand of the standard rent or permitted increases has been served upon the tenant in the manner provided in section 106 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882).

(a) Where the rent is payable by the month and there is no dispute regarding the amount of standard rent or permitted increases, if such rent or increases are in arrears for a period of six months or more and the tenant neglects to make payment thereof until the expiration of the period of one month after notice referred to in sub-section (2), the Court may pass a decree for eviction in any such suit for recovery of possession.

(b) In any other case, no decree for eviction shall be passed in any such suit if, on the first day of hearing of the suit or on or before such other date as the Court may fix, the tenant pays or tenders in Court the standard rent and permitted increases then due ²[and thereafter,

(i) continues to pay or tender in Court such rent and permitted increases till the suit is finally decided; and

(ii) pays costs of the suit, as directed by the Court.]

³ [(4) Pending the disposal of any such suit, the Court may out of any amount paid or tendered by the tenant pay to the landlord such amount towards payment of rent or permitted increases due to him as the court thinks fit.]

Explanation. In any case where there is a dispute as to the amount of standard rent or permitted increases recoverable under this Act the tenant shall be deemed to be ready and willing to pay such amount if, before the expiry of the period of one month after notice referred to in sub-section (2), he makes an application to the Court under sub-section (3) of section 11 and thereafter pays or tenders the amount of rent or permitted increases specified in the order made by the Court.

3. Sub-section (4) was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, Section 8(2).

13. When landlord may recover possession :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act ¹[but subject to the provisions of section 15], a landlord shall be entitled to recover possession of any premises if the Court is satisfied.

(a) that, the tenant has committed any act contrary to the provisions of clause (o) of section 108 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882; (IV of 1882) or

(b) ²[that, save as otherwise provided in section 23A, the tenant] has, without the landlord's consent given in writing, erected on the premises any permanent structure; or

(c) that the tenant or any person residing with the tenant has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or annoyance to the adjoining or neighbouring occupiers, or has been convicted of using the premises or allowing the premises to be used for immoral or illegal purposes; or

(d) that the tenant has given notice to quit and in consequence of that notice the landlord has contracted to sell or let the premises or has taken any other steps, as a result of which he would, in the opinion of the Court, be seriously prejudiced if he could not obtain possession of the premises; or

(e) that the tenant has, since the coming into operation of this Act ³[unlawfully sub-let] the whole or part of the premises or assigned or transferred in any other manner his interest therein; or

the whole or any part of the premises on licence for monetary consideration to any person, without the previous permission of the landlord; or]

(f) that the premises were let to the tenant for use as a

(g) that the premises are reasonably and bonafide required by the landlord for occupation by himself or by any person for whose benefit the premises are held ⁵[or where the landlord is a trustee of a public charitable trust that the premises are required for occupation for the purpose of the trust]; or

(h) that the premises are reasonably and bonafide required by the landlord for carrying out repairs which cannot be carried out without the premises being vacated; or

⁶[(hh) that the premises consist of not more than two floors and are reasonably and bonafide required by the landlord for the immediate purpose of demolishing them and such demolition is to be made for the purpose of erecting new building on the premises sought to be demolished; or]

⁷[(hhh) that the premises are required for the immediate purpose of demolition ordered by any local authority or other competent authority; or]

(i) that where the premises are land, such land is reasonably and bonafide required by the landlord for the erection of new ⁸* * building; or

⁹[(ii) that where the premises are land in the nature of garden or grounds appurtenant to a building or part of a building, such land is required by the landlord for the erection of a new residential building which a local authority has approved or permitted him to build thereon;]

(j) that the rent charged by the tenant for the premises or any part thereof which are sub-let ¹⁰[before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959] (Bom. Ord. No. III of 1959.) is in excess of the standard rent and permitted increases in respect of such premises or part or that the tenant has received any fine, premium, other like sum or consideration in respect of such premises or part: or

(k) that the premises have not been used without reasonable cause for the purpose for which they were let for a continuous period of six months immediately preceding the date of the suit; or

(l) that the tenant after the coming into operation of this Act has built, acquired vacant possession of or been allotted a suitable residence.

11[Explanation. For the purposes of clause (b), no permanent

(2) No decree for eviction shall be passed on the ground specified in clause (g) of sub-section (1) if the Court is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the question whether other reasonable accommodation is available for the landlord or the tenant greater hardship would be caused by passing the decree than by refusing to pass it. Where the Court is satisfied that no hardship would be caused either to the tenant or to the landlord by passing the decree in respect of a part of the premises, the Court shall pass the decree in respect of such part only.

[Explanation. For the purposes of clause (g) of sub-section (1)

(a) a person shall not be deemed to be a landlord unless he has acquired his interest in the premises at a date prior to the beginning of the tenancy or the first day of January, 1964, whichever is later, or if the interest has devolved on him by inheritance or succession, his predecessor in title had acquired the interest at a date prior to the beginning of the tenancy or the first day of January 1964, whichever is later;

(b) the expression "landlord" shall not include a rent-farmer or rent-Collector.]

(3) The Court may pass the decree on the ground specified in clause (h) or (i) of sub-section (1) only in respect of a part of the premises which in its opinion it is necessary to vacate for carrying out the work of repairs or erection.

12[(3A) No decree for eviction shall be passed on the ground specified in clause (hh) of sub-section (1), unless landlord produces at the time of the institution of the suit a certificate granted by the Tribunal under sub-section (3B) and gives an undertaking

(a) that the new building to be erected by him shall 13[subject to the provisions of any rule, bye-laws or regulations, made by a local authority,] contain not less than ¹⁴[two] times the number of residential tenements, and not less than ¹⁴[two] times the floor area, contained in the premises sought to be demolished :

(b) that the work of demolishing the premises shall be commenced by him not later than one month, and shall be completed not later than three months, from the date he recovers possession of the entire premises; and

(c) that the work of erection of the new building shall be completed by him not later than fifteen months from the said date:

13AA. Right of members of Armed Forces of Union and their widows and heirs to recover possession of premises required for their occupation :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or in any contract,

(a) a specified landlord shall be entitled to recover from his tenant the possession of any premises owned by him or by any members of his family, on the ground that such premises are bonafide required by him for occupation by himself or by any member of his family and on receipt of an application made by the specified landlord for the purpose of recovery of possession of the premises, the competent authority shall make an order of eviction on that ground if the specified landlord produces a certificate granted by the authorised officer to the effect that,

(i) he is a member of the Armed Forces of the Union, or that he was such a member and has retired as such, and

(ii) he does not possess any other premises suitable for residence in the local area where the premises are situated;

(b) a successor-in-interest who becomes the landlord of the premises owned by such member of the armed forces of the Union, as a result of death of such member while in service or within five years of his retirement, shall be entitled to recover possession of such premises on the ground that the premises are bonafide required for occupation by the

(i) the successor-in-interest is a widow or any other member of the family of the deceased member of the armed forces of the Union; and

(ii) such successor-in-interest, does not possess any other premises suitable for residence in the local area where such premises are situated.

(2) Any certificate granted under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub section (1) shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein.

(a) No order for eviction shall be made under this section if the competent authority is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the question whether other reasonable accommodation is available for the specified landlord or, as the case may be, the successor-in-interest or the tenant, greater hardship would be caused by making the order than by refusing to make it.

(b) Where the competent authority is satisfied that no hardship would be caused either to the tenant or to the specified landlord or, as the case may be, the successor-in-interest by making the order in respect of a part of the premises, the competent authority shall make the order in respect of such part only.

Explanation. For the purpose of this section,

(1) "authorised officer", in relation to a member of the armed forces of the Union, means his commanding officer or head of service including

(i) in the case of an officer retired from Army, the Area Commander,

(ii) in the case of an officer retired from the Navy, the Flag Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Naval Command, and

(iii) in the case of an officer retired from the Air force, the Station

Commander:

(3) "member of the family" in relation to a member of the armed forces of the Union, means any of the following members of his family who is ordinarily residing with him and who is dependent on him and where such member has retired or died, any member of his family who is so resident or dependent at the time of his retirement, or as the case may be, death, namely: spouse, father, mother, son, daughter, grand-son, grand-daughter, son's wife, grandson's wife, widow of a predeceased son or grand-son;

(4) "specified landlord" means a person who is a member of the armed forces of the Union or who was such member and has duly retired prematurely or otherwise and who or a member of whose family owns any premises;

(5) "successor-in-interest" in relation to a deceased member of the armed forces of the Union means,

(i) if the deceased member has a spouse living at the time of his death, such spouse, and

(ii) in any other case, any other member of his family.]

13A. Permission to construct additional structure :-

Where the landlord proposes to make any improvement in, or construct any additional structure on, any building which (or part of which) has been let to a tenant, and the tenant refuses to allow the landlord to make the improvement or construct such additional structure, if the Court, on an application made to it in this behalf by the landlord, is satisfied that such work will not cause undue hardship to the tenant, the Court may permit the landlord to do such work, and may make such other order as it thinks fit in the circumstances of the case.]

14. Sub-tenant to become tenant on determination of tenancy :-

Where the interest of a tenant of any premises is determined for any reason, any sub-tenant to whom the premises or any part thereof have been lawfully sub-let ¹ [before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959] (Bom Ord. No. III of 1959) shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to become the tenant of the landlord on the same terms and conditions as he would have held from the tenant if the tenancy had continued.

1. This portion was substituted for the words "before the coming into operation of this Act" by Bombay 49 of 1959, Section 6.

15. In absence of contract to the contrary tenant not to sublet or transfer :-

¹[(1)] Notwithstanding anything contained in any law ²[but subject to any contract to the contrary,] it shall not be lawful after the coming into operation of this Act for any tenant to sublet the whole or any part of the premises let to him or to assign or transfer in any other manner his interest therein:

³[Provided that the 6[State] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, permit in any area the transfer of interest in premises held under such leases or class of leases and to such extent as may be specified in the notification.]

Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, it shall not be lawful after the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963 (Guj. LVII of 1963.) for any tenant to give premises or any part thereof on licence for monetary consideration without the previous permission of the landlord.]

16. Recovery of possession for repairs and re-entry. :-

(1) The Court shall when passing a decree on the ground specified in clause (h) of sub section (1) of section 13 ascertain from the tenant whether he elects to be placed in occupation of the premises or part thereof from which he is to be evicted and, if the tenant so elects, shall record the fact of the election in the decree and specify in the decree the date on or before which he shall deliver possession so as to enable the landlord to commence the work of repairs.

[(2) If the tenant delivers possession on or before the date specified in the decree the landlord shall, two month before the date on which the work of repairs is likely to be completed, give notice to the tenant of the date on which the said work shall be completed. Within fifteen days from the date of such notice, the tenant shall intimate to the landlord his acceptance of the accommodation offered and deposit with the landlord rent for one month. If the tenant gives such intimation and makes the deposit, the landlord shall, on completion of the work of repairs, place the tenant in occupation of the premises or part thereof on the original terms and conditions. If the tenant fails to give such intimation and to make the deposit, the tenant's right to occupy the premises shall terminate.]

(3) If, after the tenant has delivered possession on or before the date specified in the decree, the landlord fails to commence the work of repairs within one month of the specified date or fails to complete the work within a reasonable time or having completed the work fails to place the tenant in occupation of the premises in accordance with sub-section (2), the Court may, on the application of the tenant made within one year of the specified date, order the landlord to place him in occupation of the premises or part thereof on the original terms and conditions; and on such order being made the landlord and any person who may be in occupation shall give vacant possession to the tenant of the premises or part thereof.

(4) Any landlord who, when the tenant has vacated by the date specified in the decree, without reasonable excuse fails to commence the work or repairs and any landlord or other person in occupation of the premises who fails to comply with the order made by the Court under subsection (3), shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

17. Recovery of possession for occupation, etc. and re-entry. :-

(1) Where a decree for eviction has been passed by the Court on the ground specified in clause (g) or (i) of sub-section (1) of section 13 and the premises are not occupied or the work of erection is not commenced within a period of one month from the date the landlord recovers possession or the premises are re-let within one year of the said date to any person other than the original tenant, the Court may, on the application of the original tenant made within thirteen months of such date, order the landlord to place in occupation of the premises on the original terms and conditions, and, on such order being made, the landlord and any person who may be in occupation of the premises shall give vacant possession to the original tenant.

(2) Any landlord who recovers possession on the ground specified in clause (g) or (i) of sub-section (1) of section 13 and keeps the premises unoccupied or does not commence the work of erection without reasonable excuse within the period of one month from the date he recovered possession and any landlord or other person in occupation of the premises who fails to comply with the order of the Court under sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

17A. Recovery of possession for demolishing building :-

(1) Where a decree for eviction has been passed by the court on the ground specified in clause (hh) of sub-section (1) of section 13 and the work of demolishing the premises has not been commenced by the landlord within the period specified in clause (d) of sub-section (3A) of the said section ¹ [or extended under the proviso to the said sub-section] the tenant may give the landlord a notice of his intention to occupy the premises from which he has been evicted and if the landlord does not forthwith deliver to him the vacant possession of the premises on the same terms and conditions on which he occupied them immediately before the eviction, the tenant may make an application to the Court within six weeks of the date on which he delivered vacant possession of the premises to the landlord.

(2) If the Court is satisfied that the landlord has not substantially commenced the work of demolishing the premises within the period of one month in accordance with his undertaking, the Court shall order the landlord to deliver to the tenant vacant possession of the premises on the terms and conditions on which he occupied them immediately before the eviction. On such order being made the landlord shall forthwith deliver vacant possession of the premises to the tenant. Such order shall be deemed to an order within the meaning of clause (14) of section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

(3) Any landlord who recovers possession on the ground specified in clause (hh) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 , and fails to carry out any undertaking referred to in clause (a), (b) or (c) of sub-section (3A) of the said section without any reasonable excuse or fails to comply with the order of the Court under sub-section (1) shall, without prejudice to his liability in execution of the order under sub-section (2), on conviction be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.}

29A. Saving of suits involving title :-

Nothing contained in Section 28 or Section 29 shall be deemed to bar a party to a suit, proceeding or appeal mentioned therein in which a question of title to premises arises and is determined, from suing in a competent court to establish his title to such premises.]

30. Compensation in respect of proceedings which are not bona fide or are false, frivolous or vexatious. :-

If the Court finds that any suit, proceeding or application instituted or made before it is not instituted or made bona fide or is false, frivolous or vexatious, the Court may, after hearing the plaintiff or applicant and for reasons to be recorded, order that compensation, not exceeding one thousand rupees, be paid by such plaintiff or applicant to the defendant or opponent, as the case may be.

31. Procedure of Courts. :-

The courts specified in sections 28 and 29 shall allow the prescribed procedure in trying and hearing suits, proceeding, applications and appeals and in executing orders made by them.

31A. Special procedure for disposal of certain applications :-

. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as many persons as it thinks fit as competent authority for the purpose of exercising the powers conferred, and performing the duties imposed on the competent authority under this section and shall define the local limits within which any competent authority so appointed shall exercise such powers and perform such duties.

(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a competent authority unless he had held a judicial office for atleast five years or has been practising as an advocate or pleader for atleast seven years.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, an application for eviction on the ground specified in Section 13AA shall be made to the competent authority which shall deal with the application in accordance with the procedure laid down in this section.

(4) The competent authority shall issue summons, in relation to every application referred to in sub-section (3), in the form specified in Schedule IV.

(5) (a) The competent authority shall, in addition to, and simultaneously with, the issue of summons for service on the tenant, also direct the summons to be served by registered post (acknowledgment due), addressed to the tenant or his agent empowered to accept the service at the place where the tenant or his agent actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain and may, if the circumstances of the case so require, also direct the publication of the summons in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the tenant is last known to have resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain.

(b) When an acknowledgement purporting to have been signed by the tenant or his agent is received by the competent authority or the registered article containing the summons is received back with an endorsement, purporting to have been made by a postal employee to the effect that the tenant or his agent had refused to take delivery of the registered article, the competent authority may declare that there has been a valid service of summons.

(6) The tenant, on whom the summons is duly served (whether in the ordinary way or by registered post) in the form specified in Schedule IV shall not contest the prayer for eviction from the premises unless he files an affidavit stating the grounds on which he seeks to contest the application for eviction and obtains leave from the competent authority as hereinafter provided and in default of his appearance in pursuance of the summons or his obtaining such leave the statement made by the landlord in the application for eviction shall be deemed to be admitted by the tenant and the applicant shall be entitled to an order for eviction on the ground aforesaid.

(7) The competent authority shall give to the tenant leave to contest the application if the affidavit filed by the tenant discloses such facts as would disentitle the landlord from obtaining an order for the recovery of possession of the premises on the ground specified in section 13AA.

(8) Where leave is granted to the tenant to contest the application, the competent authority shall commence the hearing of the application as early as practicable,

(9) The competent authority shall, while holding an inquiry in a proceeding to which this section applies, follow the practice and procedure of a Court of Small Cause, including the recording of evidence.

(10) No appeal shall lie against an order for the recovery of possession of any premises made by the competent authority in accordance with the procedure specified in this section: Provided that High Court may, for the purpose of satisfying itself that an order made in any case by the competent authority under this section is according to law, call for the record of that case and pass such order in respect thereto as it thinks fit.

(11) Where no application has been made to the High Court for revision, the competent authority may exercise the powers of review in accordance with the provisions of Order XLVII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

(12) If any person refuses or fails to comply with the order of the eviction within thirty days of the date on which it has become final, the competent authority or any other officer duly authorised by such competent authority in this behalf, may evict that person from and take possession of, the premises and deliver the same to the landlord and for that purpose, use such force as may be necessary.

(13) In respect of an application for eviction on the ground specified in Section 13AA made to the competent authority the provisions of Section 17 shall apply as if for sub-sections (1) and (2) the following subsections had been substituted, namely,

"(1) Where an order for eviction has been made by the competent authority under Section 13AA and the premises are not occupied or the premises are re-let within one year from the date the specified landlord or the successor-in-interest recovers possession, to any person other than the original tenant, the competent authority may on the application of the original tenant made within 13 months of such date order the specified landlord or the successor-in-interest to place the original tenant in occupation of the premises on the original terms and conditions, and on such order being made the specified landlord or the successor-in-interest or any person who may be in occupation of the premises shall give vacant possession to the original tenant.

(2) Any specified landlord or the successor-in-interest who recovers possession under Section 13AA and keeps the premises unoccupied and any specified landlord or successor-in-interest or other person in occupation of the premises who fails to comply with the order of the competent authority under sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both."

(14) Save as otherwise provided in this section, the procedure for the disposal of an application for eviction on the ground specified in section 13AA shall be the same as the procedure laid down for the disposal of application by the Court.]

PART 3

Hotels and Lodging Houses

32. Appointment of Controller. :-

The ¹ [State] Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint any person to be a Controller for any area for the purposes of this Part.

1. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

33. Fixation of fair rates percentage of accommodation and number of Lodgers. :-

(1) The Controller may fix a fair rate to be charged, for board, lodging or other service provided in a hotel or lodging house, at such amount as having regard to the circumstances of the case, he deems just. ¹[The Controller may also fix the percentage of accommodation of daily and monthly lodgers respectively in a hotel or lodging house.]

(2) The Controller may fix a fair rate separately for (i) lodging with reference to the nature of the accommodation and the number of lodgers to be accommodated; (ii) board, partial or full; (iii) other service.

(3) The Controller may fix fair rates separately for daily and monthly lodgers.

(4) The Controller shall also fix the number of lodgers to be accommodated in each room or specified accommodation in the hotel or lodging house.

² [Explanation, For the purposes of this Part, a lodger who agree to reserve accommodation in a hotel or lodging house for a period of less than a month shall be deemed to be a daily lodger.]

1. This portion was added by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 4(1).

2. This Explanation was inserted, Gujarat 57 of 1963., Section 4(2).

34. Revision of fair rates, percentage of accommodation and number of Lodgers. :-

The Controller may, from time to time, revise the fair rates, ¹ [the percentage of accommodation] or the number of lodgers fixed under Section 33 .

1. These words were inserted, Gujarat 57 of 1963., Section 5.

35. Continuance of fair rates before coming into operation of this Part :-

Fair rates fixed under the Bombay Hotels and Lodging Houses Control Order, 1942, or the Bombay Rents, Hotel Rates and Lodging House Rates (Control) Act, 1944 , (Bom. VII 1944.) and which were in force immediately before the coming into operation of this Part shall be deemed to have been fixed under this Part, and the provisions of this Part shall apply in respect of such rates.

36. Notice of fair rate, percentage of accommodation and number of lodgers to be displayed. :-

Where under section 33 or section 34 the Controller has fixed or revised the fair rate, the ¹[percentage of accommodation] or the number of lodgers he shall direct the manager of the hotel or the owner of lodging house, as the case may be, to display a notice of the fair rate, ¹ [percentage of accommodation], the number of lodgers and all the provisions of this Act relating thereto in a conspicuous manner in the hotel or lodging house and also in the room or accommodation in respect of which the fair rate and the number of lodgers are fixed or revised.

1. These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 6.

37. Charges not recoverable in excess of fair rate. :-

(1) Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, no manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house shall charge any amount in excess of the fair rate.

(2) When the Controller has fixed the fair rate any agreement for the payment of any charges in excess of such fair rate shall be void in respect of such excess and shall be construed as if it were an agreement for payment of the said fair rate.

(3) Any sum paid by a lodger in excess of the fair rate shall be recoverable by him at any time within a period of six months from the date of payment from the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house or his legal representative, and may, without prejudice to any other remedy for recovery, be deducted by such lodger from any amount payable by him to such manager or owner.

38. No ejectment ordinarily to be made if fair rate paid. :-

No manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house shall evict or refuse board or other service to a lodger so long as he pays, or is ready and willing to pay, the fair rate and observes and performs the other conditions of his agreement in so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act:

¹ [Provided that where under Section 33 or Section 34 the Controller has fixed or revised the percentage of accommodation for daily and monthly lodgers respectively, the manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house may refuse accommodation to any daily or monthly lodger, as the case may be, if the accommodation in respect of such class of lodgers is fully occupied.]

1. This proviso was added, Gujarat 57 of 1963., Section 7.

39. When manager of a hotel or owner of lodging house may recover possession. :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house shall be entitled to recover possession of the accommodation provided by him on obtaining a certificate from the Controller certifying that

(a) the lodger has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or an annoyance to any adjoining or neighbouring lodger; ^{1*}

(b) the accommodation is reasonably and bonafide required by the owner of the hotel or lodging house, as the case may be, either for his own occupation or for the occupation of any person for whose benefit the accommodation is held, or for any other cause which may be deemed satisfactory by the Controller; ^{2*}

³[(bb.) the lodger is habitually irregular in making payment of the charge for board, lodging or other service provided in the hotel or lodging house;]

⁴[(c) the lodger has failed to vacate the accommodation on the termination of the period of the agreement in respect thereof:

Provided that before issuing a certificate under this clause the Controller shall take into consideration the vacancies, if any, in the accommodation for daily and monthly lodgers the percentage of which has been fixed or revised under Section 33 or Section 34 and the circumstances under which the lodger did not vacate on the termination of the period of the agreement:] ⁵[or]

⁶ [(d) the lodger has done any act which is inconsistent with the purpose for which the accommodation is provided to him or which is likely to affect adversely and substantially the owner's interest therein.]

1. The word "or" was deleted, Gujarat 57 of 1963., Section 8.

2. This word "or" was deleted by Bombay 58 of 1949, Section (6) (1).

3. This clause was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, Section 18.

6. Clause (d) was added, Gujarat 57 of 1963., Section 6(3).

40. Penalties. :-

(1) If any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house either himself or through any person acting or purporting to act on his behalf or if any person acting or purporting to act on behalf of a manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house receives any fine, premium or other like sum or deposit or any consideration other than the fair rate, in respect of the grant or continuance of accommodation in the hotel or lodging house, such manager, owner or person shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and shall also be punished with fine which shall not be less than the amount of the fine, premium or sum or deposit or the value of the consideration received by him.

(2) Any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house who charges any amount in excess of the fair rate in contravention of section 37 shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine, or with both.

(3) Any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house who accommodates lodgers or permits lodgers to be accommodated in room or specified accommodation in excess of the number fixed by the Controller shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(4) Any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house who fails to display a notice in contravention of the Controller's direction under section 36 shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

¹ [Explanation. For the purposes of sub-section (1), receipt of charges in advance for more than one month shall be deemed to be a fine or premium or consideration.]

1. This Explanation was added by Bombay 36 of 1948, Section 7.

41. Provisions relating to inquiries by Controller. :-

(1) No order under this Act shall be made by the Controller except after holding an inquiry.

(2) Every such inquiry shall be made summarily in the prescribed manner.

(3) For the purposes of holding an inquiry under sub-section (1) the Controller shall have the same powers as are vested in Civil Courts in respect of (a) proof of facts by affidavits, (b) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath, (c) compelling the production of documents, and (d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(4) The Controller may himself, enter or authorize any person subordinate to him to enter upon any premises, hotel or lodging house or any part thereof to which the inquiry relates.

42. Appeal :-

An appeal shall lie to the ¹[State] Government from an order passed by the Controller under the provisions of this Part (including an order granting or refusing a certificate under Section 39) within fifteen days from the date of communication of the order and the ¹[State] Government may pass such order as it deems fit.

1. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

43. Procedure of courts in suits. :-

¹[(1) The provisions contained in Section 28 , Section 29 , Section 30 and Section 31 shall, ²{subject to the provisions of subsection

(2),] apply to suits by a manager of a hotel or an owner of a lodging house against a lodger for recovery of charges for, or possession of, the accommodation provided in the hotel or lodging house.

[(2) Pending the final decision of the suit for recovery of charges for the accommodation provided in hotel or lodging house, the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house may make an application to the Court requiring the lodger to deposit in Court the amount of such charges. On such application, the Court shall forthwith make an order directing the lodger to deposit in Court such amount of charges within such period as it thinks fit and shall serve ³ [the order upon the lodger and a copy thereof upon the manager] of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house. If the lodger fails to deposit such amount within the period specified in the order the Court may at any time thereafter pass an order for the eviction of the lodger.]

1. This section was renumbered as 43(1) by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 9(1).

2. This portion was inserted, Gujarat 57 of 1963.

3. These words were substituted for the words "a copy of such order upon the manager" by Bombay 61 of 1953, Section 19.
