An Act to provide for the reorganisation of the State of the Bombay and for matters connected therewith. Be it enacted by Parliament in the Eleventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

PART 1

Preliminary

1. Short title :-

This Act may be called the Bombay Reorganisation Act, 1960.

2. Definitions :-

in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) "appointed day" means the 1st day of May, 1960;

(b) "article" means an article of the Constitution;

(c) "assembly constituency" "council constituency" and "parliamentary constituency" having the same meanings as in the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950);

(d) "law" includes any enactment, ordinance, regulation, order, bye-law, rule, scheme, notification or other instrument having, immediately before the appointed day, the force of law in the whole or in any part of the State of Bombay;

(e) "notified order" means an order published in the Official Gazette;

(f) "population ratio", in relation to the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat, means the ratio of 66.31 to 33.69.

(g) "sitting member", in relation to either House of Parliament or of the Legislature of the State of Bombay, means a person who, immediately before the appointed day, is a member of that House;

(h) "transferred territory" means the territories which, as from the appointed day, are the territories of the State of Gujarat;

(i) "treasury" includes a sub-treasury;

(j) "any reference" to a district, taluka, village or other territorial division of the State of Bombay shall be construed as a reference to the area comprised within that territorial division as recognised for land revenue purposes on the 1st day of December, 1959.

Reorganisation of Bombay State

3. Formation of Gujarat State :-

(1) As from the appointed day, there shall be formed a new State to be known as the State of Gujarat comprising the following territories of the State of Bombay, namely :-

(a) Banaskantha, Mehsana, Sabarkantha, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Panchmahals Baroda, Broach, Surat, Dangs, Amreli, Surendranagar, Rajkot Jamnagar, Junagadh, Bhavnagar and Kutch districts; and

(b) the villages in Umbergaon taluka of Thana district, the villages in Nawapur and Nandurbar Talukas of West Khandesh district and the villages in Akkalkuwa and Taloda talukas of West Khandesh district, respectively specified in Parts I, II and III of the First Schedule; and thereupon, the said territories shall cease to form part of the State of Bombay, and the residuary State of Bombay shall be known as the State of Maharashtra.

(2) The villages in Umbergaon taluka specified in Part I of the First Schedule shall form a separate taluka of the same name and be included in Surat district, and the remaining villages in the said taluka shall be included in and form part of Dahanu taluka of Thana district; and villages specified in Parts II and III of First Schedule shall respectively be included in, and form part of, Songadh taluka of Surat district and Sagbara taluka of Broach district.

4. Amendment to the First Schedule to the Constitution :-

As from the appointed day, in the First Schedule to the Constitution, under the heading "1 THE STATE"-

(a) For entry 4, the following entry shall be substituted, namely:-

"4". Gujarat The territories referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Bombay Reorganisation Act, 1960.,";

(b) after entry 7, the following entry shall be inserted, namely:-

"8. Maharashtra The territories specified in sub-section (1) of Section 8 of the STATES REORGANISATION ACT, 1956 , but excluding the territories referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Bombay Reorganisation Act, 1960,"; and

(c) entries 8 to 14 shall be renumbered as entries 9 to 15, respectively.

5. Saving powers of State Government :-

Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Part shall be deemed to affect the power of the State Government to alter, after the appointed day, the name, extent or boundaries of any district, taluka or village in the State.

PART 3

Representation in the Legislatures

PART 4

High Courts

28. High Court for Gujarat :-

(1) As from the appointed day, there shall be a separate High Court for the State of Gujarat (hereinafter referred to as "the High Court of Gujarat") and the High Court of Bombay shall become the High Court for the State of Maharashtra (hereinafter referred to as the High Court at Bombay).

(2) The principal seat of High Court of Gujarat shall be at such place as the President may, by notified order, appoint.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the Judges and division courts of the High Court of Gujarat may sit at such other place or places in the State of Gujarat other than its principal seat as the Chief Justice may, with the approval of the Governor of Gujarat, appoint.

29. Judge of Gujarat High Court :-

(1) Such of the Judges of the High Court of Bombay holding office immediately before the appointed day as may be determined by the President shall on that day cease to be Judges of the High Court at Bombay and become Judge of the High Court of Gujarat.

(2) The persons who by virtue of sub-section (1) become Judges of the High Court of Gujarat shall except in the case where any such person is appointed to be the Chief Justice of that High Court, rank in that Court according to the priority of their respective appointments as Judges of the High Court of Bombay.

30. Jurisdiction of Gujarat High Court :-

The High Court of Gujarat shall have, in respect of any part of the territories included in the State of Gujarat, all such jurisdiction, powers and authority as, under the law in force immediately before the appointed day, are exercisable in respect of that part of the said territories by the High Court of Bombay.

31. Power to enroll advocates etc :-

(1) The High Court of Gujarat shall have the like powers to approve, admit, enroll, remove and suspend advocates and attorneys, and to make rules with respect to advocates and attorneys, as are, under the law in force immediately before the appointed day, exercisable by the High Court of Bombay;

(2) The right of audience in the High Court of Gujarat shall be regulated in accordance with the like principles as, immediately before the appointed day, are in force with respect to the right of audience in the High Court of Bombay: Provided that, subject to any rule made or direction given by the High Court of Gujarat in exercise of the powers conferred by this section, any person who immediately before the appointed day, is an advocate entitled to practice, or an attorney entitled to act, in the High Court of Bombay shall be recognised as advocate or an attorney entitled to practice or to act, as the case may be, in the High Court of Gujarat.

1. The section stand repealed on the coming into force of sub-section(5) of S.50 of the Advocates Act, 1961. See Advocates Act, 1961, S.50(5) and the Schedule

32. Practice and procedure in Gujarat High Court :-

Subject to the provisions of this Part, the law in force immediately before the appointed day with respect to practice and procedure in the High Court of Bombay shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the High Court of Gujarat, and accordingly, the High Court of Gujarat shall have all such powers to make rules and orders with respect to practice and procedure as are immediately before the appointed day exercisable by the High Court of Bombay:

Provided that any rules or orders which are in force immediately before the appointed day with respect to practice and procedure in the High Court of Bombay shall, until varied or revoked by rules or orders made by the High Court of Gujarat, apply with the necessary modifications in relation to practice and procedure in the High Court of Gujarat as if made by that Court.

33. Custody of seal of Gujarat High Court :-

The law in force immediately before the appointed day with respect to the custody of the seal of the High Court of Bombay shall, with the necessary modifications, apply with respect to the custody of the seal of the High Court of Gujarat.

34. Form of writs and other process :-

The law in force immediately before the appointed day with respect to the form of writs and other process used, issued or awarded by the High Court of Bombay shall, with the necessary modifications, apply with respect to the form of writs and other processes used, issued or awarded by the High Court of Gujarat.

35. Powers of Judges :-

The law in force immediately before the appointed day relating to the powers of the Chief Justice, single Judges and division courts of the High Court of Bombay and with respect to all matters ancillary to the exercise of those powers shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the High Court of Gujarat.

36. Procedure as to appeals to Supreme Court :-

The law in, force immediately before the appointed day relating to appeals to the Supreme Court from the High Court of Bombay and the Judges and division courts thereof shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the High Court of Gujarat.

37. Transfer of proceedings from Bombay High Court to Gujarat High Court :-

(1) Except as hereinafter provided, the High Court at Bombay shall, as from the appointed day, have no jurisdiction in respect of the transferred territory.

(2) Such proceedings pending in the High Court of Bombay immediately before the appointed day as are certified, whether before or after that day, by the Chief Justice of the High Court, having regard to the place of accrual of the cause of action and other circumstances, to be proceedings which ought to be heard and decided by the High Court of Gujarat shall as soon as may be after such certification, be transferred to the High Court of Gujarat.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and (2) of this section or in section 30, but save as hereinafter provided, the High Court at Bombay shall have, and the High Court of Gujarat shall not have jurisdiction to entertain, hear or dispose of appeals, applications for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, applications for review and other proceedings where any such proceedings seek any relief in respect of any order passed by the High Court of Bombay before the appointed day: Provided that if after any such proceedings have been entertained by the High Court at Bombay, it appears to the Chief Justice of that High Court that they ought to be transferred to the High Court of Gujarat, he shall order that they shall be so transferred, and such proceedings shall thereupon be transferred accordingly.

(4) Any order made by the High Court of Bombay-

(a) before the appointed day, in any proceedings transferred to the High Court of Gujarat by virtue of sub-section (2), or

(b) in any proceedings with respect to which the High Court at Bombay retains jurisdiction by virtue of sub-section (3), shall for all purposes have effect not only as an order of the High Court at Bombay, but also as an order made by the High Court of Gujarat.

38. Right to appear or to act in proceedings transferred to Gujarat High Court :-

Any person, who, immediately before the appointed day, is an advocate entitled to practice, or an attorney entitled to act, in the High Court of Bombay and was authorised to appear or to act in any proceedings transferred from that High Court to the High Court of Gujarat under Section 37, shall have the right to appear or to act, as the case may be, in the High Court of Gujarat in relation to those proceedings.

39. Interpretation :-

For the purposes of Section 37 -

(a) proceedings shall be deemed to be pending in a court until that court has disposed of all issues between the parties, including any issues with respect to the taxation of the costs of the proceedings and shall include appeals, applications for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, applications for review, petitions for revision and petitions for writs;

(b) references to a High Court shall, be construed as including references to a Judge or division court thereof, and references to an order made by a court or a Judge shall be construed as including references to a sentence, judgment or decree passed or made by that court or Judge

40. Savings :-

Nothing in this Part shall affect the application to the High Court of Gujarat of any provisions of the Constitution, and this Part shall have effect subject to any provision that may be made on or after the appointed day with respect to that High Court by any Legislature or other authority having power, to make such provision.

41. Permanent Bench of Bombay High Court at Nagpur :-

Without prejudice to the provisions of Section 51 of the STATES REORGANISATION ACT, 1956 , (37 of 1956), such Judges of the High Court at Bombay, being not less than three in number, as the Chief Justice may from time to time nominate, shall sit at Nagpur in order to exercise the jurisdiction and power for the time being vested in that High Court in respect of cases arising in the districts of Buldana, Akola, Amaravati, Yeotmal, Wardha, Nagpur, Bhandara, Chanda and Rajura: Provided that the Chief Justice may, in his discretion, order that any case arising in any such district shall be heard at Bombay.

Authorisation of expenditure

42. Authorisation of expenditure of Gujarat State :-

The Governor of Bombay may, at any time before the appointed day, authorise such expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State of Gujarat as he deems necessary for a period of not more than six months beginning with the appointed day pending the sanction of such expenditure by the Legislature of the State of Gujarat: Provided that the Governor of Gujarat may, after the appointed day, authorise such further expenditure as he deems necessary from the Consolidated Fund of the State of Gujarat for any period not extending beyond the said period of six months.

43. Reports relating to accounts of Bombay State :-

(1) The reports of the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India referred to in clause (2) of article 151 relating to the accounts of the State of Bombay in respect of any period prior to the appointed day shall be submitted to the Governor of each of the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat who shall cause them to be laid before the Legislature of the State.

(2) The President may by order-

(a) declare any expenditure incurred out of the Consolidated Fund of Bombay on any service in respect of any period prior to the appointed day during the financial year 1960-61 or in respect of the earlier financial year in excess of the amount granted for that service and for that year as disclosed in the reports referred to in sub-section (1) to have been duly authorised and

(b) provide for any action to be taken on any matter arising out of the said reports.

44. Allowances and privileges of Governor of Gujarat :-

The allowances and privileges of the Governor of Gujarat shall until provision in that behalf is made by Parliament by law under clause (3) of article 158 be such as the President may, by order, determine.

45. Distribution of revenues :-

(1) S.3 of the Union Duties of Excise (Distribution) Act, 1957 (55 of 1957), Section 3 and 5 of the Estate Duty and Tax on Railway Passenger Fares (Distribution) Act, 1957 (57 of 1957), Section 4 of and Second Schedule to, the Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act, 1957 (58 of 1957), and paragraph 3 of the Constitution (Distribution of revenues) No. 2 Order 1957, shall have effect subject to such modifications as are specified in the Ninth Schedule.

(2) The total amount payable to the State of Maharashtra under the enactments and Order referred to in sub-section (1) in respect of the part of the financial year 1960-61 beginning with 'the appointed day and in respect of the financial year 1961-62 shall be reduced by a sum of 602 lakhs of rupees and 614 lakhs of rupees, respectively and the total amount payable to the State of Gujarat, under those enactments and Order in respect of each of those periods shall be correspondingly increased.

46. Application of Part :-

The provisions of this Part shall apply in relation to the apportionment of the assets and liabilities of the State of Bombay immediately before the appointed day.

47. Land and goods :-

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Part, all land and all stores, articles and other goods belonging to the State of Bombay shall,-

(a) if within the transferred territory, pass to the State of Gujarat

(b) in any other case, remain the property of the State of Maharashtra: Provided that where the Central Government is of opinion that any goods or class of goods should be distributed otherwise than according to the situation of the goods, the Central Government may issue such direction as it thinks fit for a just and equitable distribution of the goods and the goods shall remain the property of the State of Maharashtra or, as the case may be, pass to the State of Gujarat, accordingly.

(2) Any such stores of the State of Bombay as are referred to in the Tenth Schedule shall be divided between the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat in the manner specified therein.

(3) In this section, the express "land" includes immovable property of every kind and any rights in or over such property, and the expression "goods" does not include coins, bank notes and currency notes.

48. Treasury and bank balances :-

The total of the cash balances in all treasuries of the State of Bombay and the credit balances of that State with the Reserve Bank of India, the State Bank of India and the State Bank of Saurashtra immediately before the appointed day shall be divided between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat according to the population ratio: Provided that for the purposes of such division, there shall be no transfer of cash balances from any treasury to any other treasury and the apportionment shall be effected by adjusting the credit balances of the two States in the books of the Reserve Bank of India on the appointed day: Provided further that if the State of Gujarat has not account on the appointed day with the Reserve Bank of India, the adjustment shall be made in such manner the Central Government may, by order, direct.

49. Arrears of taxes :-

The right to recover arrears of any tax or duty on property, including arrears of land revenue, shall belong to the State in which the property is situated, and the right to recover arrears of any other tax or duty shall belong to the State in whose territories the place of assessment of that tax or duty is included on the appointed day: Provided that any sum recovered after the appointed day in respect of any arrears of tax accruing during the period between the 1st day of January, 1960, and the 30th day of April, 1960 (both days inclusive) under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 (74 of 1956), or the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959 (Bom. Act LI of 1959), shall, after deducting the cost of collection thereof, be divided between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat according to the population ratio.

50. Right to recover loans and advances :-

(1) The right of the State of Bombay to recover any loans or advances made before the appointed day to any local body, society, agriculturist or other person in an area within that State shall belong to the State in which that area is included on that day.

(2) The right of the State of Bombay to recover any loans or advances made before the appointed day to any person or institution outside that State shall belong to the State of Maharashtra: Provided that any sum recovered in respect of any such loan or advances shall be divided between the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat according to the population ratio.

51. Credits in certain funds :-

(1) Out of the investments of the State of Bombay made before the appointed day in the cash balance investment account of the State, such securities of the value of ten crores of rupees, as the Central Government may by order specify, shall pass to the State of Gujarat in connection with the construction of a capital for that State; and the remaining investments in the said account shall be divided between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat according to the population ratio.

(2) The investments of the State of Bombay immediately before the appointed day in the State Famine Relief Fund, the State Road Fund, the Fund for Development Schemes, the Insurance Fund, the Bombay State Milk Fund, the Securities Adjustment Reserve Fund and any other General fund and the sums at the credit of that State in the Central Road Fund shall be divided between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat according to the population ratio.

(3) The investments of the State of Bombay immediately before the appointed day in the Dangs District Reserve Fund, the Port Reserve Fund, the Port Development Fund and the Anand Institute Fund shall pass to the State of Gujarat and the investments in any other special fund the objects of which are confined to a local area shall belong to the State in which that area is included on the appointed day.

(4) The investments of the State of Bombay immediately before the appointed day in any private commercial or industrial undertaking, in so far as such investments have not been made or are deemed not to have been made from the cash balance investment account, shall pass to the State in which the principal seat of business of the undertaking is located.

(5) Where any body corporate constituted under a Central Act, State Act or Provincial Act for the State of Bombay or any part thereof has, by virtue of the provisions of Part II, become an inter-State body corporate, the investments in, or loans or advances to, any such body corporate by the State of Bombay made before the appointed day shall, save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, be divided between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat in the same proportion in which the assets of the body corporate are divided under the provisions of Part VII.

52. Special Revenue Reserve Fund in Gujarat :-

(1) Out of the investments in the cash balance investment account which remain with the State of Maharashtra after giving effect to the provisions of section 51, such securities of the value of 14, 20 lakhs of rupees as the Central Government may by order specify shall stand transferred to the State of Gujarat.

(2) There shall be constituted in the State of Gujarat a Fund to be called the Special Revenue Reserve Fund consisting of the securities transferred to that State under sub-section (1) and such other securities belonging to the State of Gujarat of the value of 1,419 lakhs of rupees as the Central Government may by order specify.

(3) From and out of the fund constituted under sub-section (2), there shall be transferred as receipts in the revenue account of the State of Gujarat in each of the financial years specified in column 1 of the following Table a sum set out against that year in column 2 thereof, and in the financial year 1969-70, the balance, if any, remaining in that fund :-

Financial year Amount in lakhs of rupees
(1)	(2)
1962-63	612

1966-67	433
1967-68	340
1968-69	209

53. Assets and liabilities of State undertakings :-

The assets and liabilities relating to any commercial or industrial undertaking of the State of Bombay shall pass to the State in which the undertaking is located.

(2) Where a depreciation reserve fund is maintained by the State of Bombay for any such commercial or industrial undertaking, the securities held in respect of investments made from that fund shall pass to the States in which the undertaking is located.

54. Public debt :-

(1) The public debt of the State of Bombay attributable to loans raised by the issue of Government securities and outstanding with the public immediately before the appointed day shall, as from that day, be the debt of the State of Maharashtra. Provided that -

(a) the State of Gujarat shall be liable to pay to the State of Maharashtra its share of the sums due from time to time for the servicing and repayment of the debt; and

(b) for the purpose of determining the said share, the debt shall be deemed to be divided between the States of Maharashtra, and Gujarat as if it were a debt referred to in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), as the case may be.

(2) The public debt of the State of Bombay attributable to loans taken from the Central Government, the National Co-operative Development and Warehousing Board or the Khadi and Village Industries Commission or from any other source for the express purpose of re-lending the same to a specific institution and outstanding immediately before the appointed day shall,-

(a) if re-lent to any local body, body corporate or other institution in any local area, be the debt of the State in which the local area is included on the appointed day; or

(b) if re-lent to the Bombay State Electricity Board the Bombay State Road Transport Corporation, or the Bombay Housing Board or any other institution which becomes an inter-State institution on the appointed day, be divided between the state of Maharashtra and Gujarat in the same proportion in which the assets of such body corporate or institution are divided under the provisions of Part VII.

(3) The remaining public debt of the State of Bombay attributable to loans taken from the Central Government, the Reserve Bank of India or any other body corporate and outstanding immediately before the appointed day, shall be divided between the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat in proportion to the total expenditure on capital works and other capital outlays incurred or deemed to have been incurred up to the appointed day in the territories included respectively in each of those States: Provided that for the purposes of such division, only the expenditure on assets for which capital accounts have been kept shall be taken into account.

Explanation. -Where any expenditure on capital works or other capital outlays cannot be allocated between the territories included in the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat such expenditure shall, for the purposes of this sub-section, be deemed to have been incurred in those territories according to the population ratio.

(4) Where a sinking fund or a depreciation fund is maintained by the State of Bombay for repayment of any loan raised by it, the securities held in respect of investments made from that fund shall be divided between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat in the same proportion in which the total public debt is divided between the two States under this section.

Explanation.-For the purposes of this sub-section, the fund in the public account of the State of Bombay known as the Debt Redemption and Avoidance Fund shall be deemed to be a sinking fund.

(5) The share of the State of Gujarat in the liability on account of public debt apportioned under sub-section (3) shall be reduced by 14,19 lakhs of rupees and the share of the State of Maharashtra in such liability shall be correspondingly increased.

(6) In this section, the expression "Government security" means a security created and issued by a State Government for the purpose of raising a public loan and having any of the forms specified in, or prescribed under, clause (2) of section 2 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 (18 of 1944).

55. Floating Debt :-

(1) The liability of the State of Bombay in respect of any floating debt of a Merged State shall be the liability of the State in whose territories the area of the Merged States is included on the appointed day.

(2) The liability of the State of Bombay in respect of any other floating loan to provide short-term finance to any commercial undertaking shall be the liability of the State in whose territories the undertaking is located.

56. Refund of taxes collected in excess :-

The liability of the State of Bombay to refund any tax or duty on property, including land revenue, collected in excess shall be the liability of the State in which the property is situated, and the liability of the State of Bombay to refund any other tax or duty collected in excess shall be the liability of the State in whose territories the place of assessment of that tax or duty is included:

Provided that the liability to refund any amount after the appointed day on account of any excess collected in respect of any tax accruing during the period between the 1st day of January, 1960, and the 30th day of April 1960 (both days inclusive) under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 (74 of 1956), or the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959 (Bom. Act LI of 1959), shall be shared between the two States of Maharashtra and Gujarat according to the population ratio.

57. Deposits, etc. :-

(1) The liability of the State of Bombay in respect of any civil deposit or local deposit shall as from the appointed day, be the liability of the State in whose area the deposit has been made.

(2) The liability of the State of Bombay in respect of any charitable or other endowment shall, as from the appointed day, be the liability of the State in whose area the institution entitled to the benefit of the endowment is located or of the State to which the objects of the endowment, under the terms thereof, are confined.

58. Provident fund. :-

The liability of the State of Bombay in respect of the provident fund account of a Government servant in service on the appointed day shall, as from that day, be the liability of the State to which that Government servant is permanently allotted.

59. Pensions :-

The liability of the State of Bombay in respect of pensions shall pass to, or be apportioned between, the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat in accordance with the provisions contained in the Eleventh Schedule.

60. Contracts :-

(1) Where, before the appointed day, the State of Bombay has made any contract in the exercise of its executive power for any purposes of State, that contract shall be deemed to have been made in the exercise of the executive power :-

(a) if such purposes are, as from that day exclusively purposes of either the State of Maharashtra or the State of Gujarat, of that State and

(b) in any other case, of the state of Maharashtra; and all rights and liabilities which have accrued, or may accrue, under any such contract shall, to the extent to which they would have been rights or liabilities of the State of Bombay, be rights or liabilities of the State of Maharashtra or the State of Gujarat, as the case may be: Provided that in any such case as is referred to in clause (b), the initial allocation of rights and liabilities made by this sub-section shall be subject to such financial adjustment as may be agreed upon between the State of Maharashtra and the State of Gujarat or, in default of such agreement, as the Central Government may by order direct.

(2) For the purpose of this section, there shall be deemed to be included in the liabilities which have accrued or may accrue under any contract-

(a) any liability to satisfy an order or award made by any court or other tribunal in proceedings relating to the contract; and

(b) any liability in respect of expenses incurred in or in connection with any such proceedings.

(3) This section shall have effect subject to the other provision of this Part relating to the apportionment of liabilities in respect of loans, guarantees and other financial obligations; and bank balances and securities shall, notwithstanding that they partake of the contractual rights, be dealt with under those provisions.

61. Liability in respect of actionable wrong :-

Where, immediately before the appointed day, the State of Bombay is subject to any liability in respect of any actionable wrong other than breach of contract, the liability shall-

(a) if the cause of action arose wholly within the territories which as from that day, are the territories of the State of Maharashtra or the State of Gujarat, be a liability of that State; and

(b) in any other case, be initially a liability of the State of Maharashtra, but subject to such financial adjustment as may be agreed upon between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat or in default of such agreement, as the Central Government may by order direct.

62. Liability as guarantor :-

Where, immediately before the appointed day, the State of Bombay is liable as guarantor in respect of any liability of a registered co-operative society or other person, that liability shall,-

(a) if the area of operation of such society or person is limited to the territories which, as from that day are the territories of the State of Maharashtra or of the State of Gujarat, be a liability of the State; and

(b) in any other case, be initially a liability of the State of Maharashtra, subject to such financial adjustment as may be agreed upon between the State of Maharashtra and Gujarat or, in default of such agreement, as the Central Government may by order direct.

63. Items in suspense :-

If any item in suspense is ultimately found to affect an asset or liability of the nature referred to in any of the foregoing provisions of this Part, it shall be dealt with in accordance with that provision.

64. Residuary provision :-

The benefit or burden of any asset or liability of the State of Bombay not dealt with in the foregoing provisions of this Part shall pass to the State of Maharashtra in the first instance, subject to such financial adjustment as may be agreed upon between the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat before the 1st day of April, 1961 or, in default of such agreement as the Central Government may by order direct.

65. Apportionment of assets or liabilities by agreement :-

Where the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat agree that the benefit or burden of any particular asset or liability should be apportioned between them in a manner other than that provided for in the foregoing provisions of this Part, then notwithstanding anything contained therein, the benefit or burden of that asset or liability shall be apportioned in the manner agreed upon.

66. Power of Central Government to order allocation or adjustment in certain cases :-

Where by virtue of any of the provisions of this Part, any of the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat becomes entitled to any property or obtains any benefit or becomes subject to any liability, and Central Government, on a reference made within a period of three years from the appointed day either of the States, is of opinion that it is just and equitable that that property or those benefits should be transferred to, or shared with other States or that a contribution towards that liability should be made by the other State the said property or benefits shall be allocated in such manner between the two States, or other State shall make to the State subject to the liability such contribution in respect thereof, as the Central Government may, after consultation with the two State Governments, by order determine.

67. Certain expenditure to be charged on Consolidated Fund :-

All sums payable either by the State of Maharashtra or by the State of Gujarat to the other State or by the Central Government to either of those States, by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the State by which such sums are payable or as the case may be, the Consolidated Fund of India.

PART 7

PROVISIONS AS TO CERTAIN CORPORATIONS

68. Provisions as to Bombay State Electricity Board and State Warehousing Corporation :-

(1) The following bodies corporate constituted for the State of Bombay, namely :-

(a) the State Electricity Board constituted under the Electricity Supply Act, 1948 (54 of 1948); and

(b) the State Warehousing Corporation established under the Agricultural Procedure (Development and Warehousing) Corporation Act, 1956, shall, as from the appointed day, continue to function in those area in respect of which they were functioning immediately before that day subject to the provisions, of this section and to such directions as may, from time to time, be issued by the Central Government.

(2) Any directions issued by the Central Government under sub-section (1) in respect of the Board or the Corporation shall include a direction that the Act under which the Board or the Corporation was constituted shall, in its application to that Board or Corporation, have effect subject to such exceptions and modifications as the Central Government thinks fit.

(3) The Board or the Corporation referred to in sub-section (1) shall cease to function as from and shall be deemed to be dissolved on, the 1st day of October, 1960, or such earlier date as the Central Government may, by order, appoint; and upon such dissolution, its assets, right and liabilities shall be apportioned between the State of Maharashtra and the State of Gujarat in such manner as may be agreed upon between them within one year of dissolution of the Board or the Corporation, as the case may be, or if no agreement is reached, in such manner as the Central Government may by order determine.

(4) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be construed as preventing the Government of the State of Maharashtra or as the case may be, the Government of the State of Gujarat from constituting, at any time on or after the appointed day, a State Electricity Board or a State Warehousing Corporation for that State under the provisions of the Act relating to such Board or Corporation; and if such a Board or Corporation is to be constituted in either of the States before the dissolution of the Board or Corporation referred to in sub-section (1),-

(a) provision may be made by order of the Central Government enabling the new Board or the new Corporation to take over from the existing Board or Corporation all or any of its undertakings, assets, right and liabilities in that State, and

(b) upon the dissolution of the existing Board or Corporation, any assets and liabilities which would otherwise have passed to that State by or under the provisions of sub-section (3) shall pass to the new Board or the new Corporation instead of to that State.

69. Continuance of arrangements in regard to generation and supply of electric power and supply of water :-

If it appears to the Central Government that the arrangement in regard to the generation or supply of electric power or the supply of water for any area or in regard to the execution of any project for such generation or supply has been or is likely to be modified to the disadvantage of that area by reason of the fact that it is, by virtue of the provisions of Part II, outside the State in which the power stations and other installations for the generation and supply of such power, or the catchment area, reservoirs and other works for the supply of water, as the case may be, are located, the Central Government may give such directions as it deems proper to the State Government or other authority concerned for the maintenance, so far as practicable of the previous arrangement.
