CHAPTER 2 INCIDENCE AND LEVY OF TAX

3. Incidence of tax :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every dealer,-

(i) whose total turnover during the year immediately preceding the appointed day exceeded rupees five lakhs and whose taxable turnover exceeded rupees ten thousand in a year (the aforesaid amounts of total turnover and taxable turnover are hereinafter referred to as "thresholds of turnover"), or

(ii) who was registered under the earlier law or under the Central Act as on the appointed day, or

(iii) whose total turnover and taxable turnover in any year first exceed the thresholds of turnover, or

(iv) who is registered or liable to be registered as a dealer under this Act or under the Central Act at any time after the appointed day shall be liable to pay tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, a casual dealer or an auctioneer shall be liable to be registered if his taxable turnover of sales exceeds ten thousand rupees and he shall be liable to pay tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) The dealer shall be liable to pay tax,-

(a) in case of clauses (i) and (ii) of sub-section (1), with effect from the appointed day;

(b) in case of clause (iii) of sub-section (1), with immediate effect when his turnover calculated from the commencement of the year first exceeds the thresholds of turnover;

(c) in case of clause (iv) of sub-section (1), with immediate effect when he becomes so liable or the date of registration under this Act, whichever is earlier:

Provided that the dealer shall not be liable to pay tax in respect of thresholds of turnover as takes place during the period prior to the relevant date of effect under this sub-section.

(4) Every dealer who has become liable to pay tax under this Act shall continue to be so liable until the expiry of one year during which his total turnover and taxable turnover have remained below the thresholds of turnover and such further period after the date of such expiry as may be prescribed; and on the expiry of such further period his liability to pay tax shall cease:

Provided that any dealer whose liability to pay tax under this Act ceases or his total turnover and taxable turnover during the year remains below the thresholds of turnover, may apply for the cancellation of his certificate of registration; and on such cancellation, <sup>1</sup> [***]

Provided that any dealer whose liability to pay tax under this Act ceases or his total turnover and taxable turnover during the year remains below the thresholds of turnover, may apply for the cancellation of his certificate of registration; and on such cancellation, his liability to pay tax shall cease and such dealer shall remain liable to pay tax till his certificate of registration is cancelled.

(5) Every dealer whose liability to pay tax under this Act has ceased under sub-section (4) or whose certificate of registration has been cancelled, shall, if his total turnover and taxable turnover calculated from the commencement of any year (including the year in which the registration has been cancelled) again exceed the threshold of turnover, on any day within such year, be liable to pay tax with effect from the date immediately following the day on which his such turnover again exceed thresholds of turnover of sales effected by him after that date.

(6) Where by an order passed under this Act, it is found that any person registered as a dealer ought not to have been so registered, then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, such person shall be liable to pay tax for the period commencing with the date of his registration and ending with the date of such order, as if he were a dealer.

1. These words "and such further period after the date of such expiry as may be prescribed, and on the expiry of such further period his liability to pay tax shall cease" were deleted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 4,

4. Certain sales and purchases not liable to tax :-

Nothing contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder shall be deemed to impose or authorise the imposition of tax on any sale or purchase of any goods where such sale or purchase takes place -

(a) in the course of inter-State trade or commerce; or

(b) outside the State; or

(c) in the course of the import of goods into or export of goods out of the territory of India, and the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder shall be construed accordingly.

Explanation- Section 3,4 and 5 of the Central Act shall apply for determining whether or not a particular sale or purchase has taken place in the manner indicated in clause (a), (b) or (c).

5. Exemptions :-

1 (1) The sales and purchases of the goods specified in Schedule I shall be exempt from tax subject to the conditions and exceptions set out therein against each of them in column 3 of that Schedule.

1 (1A) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, add to, or enlarge, any entry in Schedule I, or relax or omit any conditions or exceptions specified therein, and thereupon the said Schedule shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

1 (2) (a) Subject to such conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if it considers necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any specified class of sales or purchases or sales or purchases of goods by any specified dealer or specified class of dealers from payment of the whole or any part of the tax payable under the provisions of this Act.

(b) Where the State Government considers it necessary so to do in the public interest to continue tax exemption granted to the sales or purchases of goods by industrial units under sub-section (2) of section 49 of the Gujarat Sales Tax Act, 1969, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, continue such exemption with such modification, subject to such conditions and for such period, as may be prescribed.

8. Adjustments in tax :-

(1) The provisions of sub-section(2) shall apply where, in relation to the sales of taxable goods by any registered dealer-

(a) that sale has been cancelled; or

(b) the consideration previously agreed upon for that sale has been altered by agreement with the recipient, whether due to the offer of a discount or for any other reason; or

(c) the goods or part of the goods sold have been returned to the seller, and as a result of the occurrence of any one or more of the above mentioned events of such sales, the seller has-

(i) provided a tax invoice in relation to that sale and the amount shown therein as tax charged on that sale is incorrect in relation to the amount properly chargeable on that sale; or

(iii) furnished a return in relation to the period in respect of which tax on that sale is attributable, and has accounted for an incorrect amount of tax on that sale in relation to the amount properly chargeable on that sale.

(2) Where a seller has accounted for either in the tax invoice or in the return an incorrect amount of tax as contemplated in sub-section (1), such seller shall make an adjustment in calculating the tax payable by him in the return for the tax period during which it has become apparent that the tax is incorrect. Such adjustment shall be made in the following manner, namely:-

(a) if the amount of tax chargeable in relation to that sale exceeds the amount of tax actually accounted for by the seller, the amount of that excess shall be deemed to be tax charged by such seller in relation to a taxable sale attributable to the tax period in which the adjustment is to be made, and shall not be attributable to any prior tax period; or

(b) the amount of tax actually accounted for exceeds the amount of tax properly chargeable in relation to that sale, such seller shall reduce the amount of tax attributable to the said tax period in terms of section 7 by that excess amount of tax;

Provided that the reduction in the amount of tax under clause (b) shall not be made-

(a) where the excess tax has been borne by the purchaser of goods, or

12. Tax credit for stock on 31st March, 2006 :-

(1) Within the period as may be prescribed, all the dealers who are deemed to have been registered under section 23 shall furnish in such form and to such authority as may be prescribed,<sup>2</sup> [a statement of such taxable goods under this Act held in stock on the 31st March, 2006 which are purchased during the period commencing on the 1st April, 2005 and ending on 31st March, 2006] for which the dealer intends to claim tax credit under this Act.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this section, "taxable goods held in stock" includes taxable goods in the process of use in the manufacture as on the<sup>3</sup> [31st March, 2006.]

(2) A registered dealer who has submitted the statement of taxable goods under subsection (1) shall not be permitted to make any changes in the details of such statement if such changes result in increase in tax credit claimed in the statement of taxable goods.

(3) If the goods shown in the statement referred to in sub-section (1) -

(a) were liable to tax under the earlier law, and the purchasing registered dealer has paid the amount of tax to the selling registered dealer under the earlier law or had paid purchase tax under the earlier law, and

(b) are intended to be used for the purposes specified in sub-section (3) of section 11 -

then the amount of tax so paid by the purchasing dealer on such goods, determined in such manner and subject to the provisions of section 11 as far as they may apply and further subject to such conditions and restrictions and to such extent as may be prescribed, shall be allowed as the tax credit to the dealer referred to in sub-section(1). Such tax credit shall be available as the outstanding credit brought forward for being claimed in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, no tax credit under this section shall be allowed in respect of those goods,-

(a) which are not taxable under this Act or the earlier law;

(b) which are not included in the statement of taxable goods referred to in subsection (1);

(c) for which the dealer does not have in his possession sales vouchers issued by a dealer registered under the earlier law, against the purchases of the said goods or for which purchase tax payable under earlier law has not been paid by the<sup>4</sup> [31st March 2006.]

(d) which are not recorded in the books of accounts of the dealer claiming tax credit under this section; or

5 [(e) [***]]

(5) Where the amount of tax on the goods purchased is not indicated separately on the sale vouchers, the tax credit under this section shall be calculated in the manner as may be prescribed.

(6) The provisions of section 11 shall apply mutates-mutandis to the tax credit to be availed of under this section.

(7) If the Commissioner is satisfied that a dealer-

(a) has claimed tax credit for such stock for which he is not entitled for claiming tax credit as per the provisions of section 11 and sub-sections(3) and (4) of section 12, or

(b) has claimed excess tax credit than what he is entitled to under section 11 or under this section the Commissioner may, after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard direct him to pay a penalty equal to twice the amount of tax credit so claimed.

28. Security from certain class of dealers :-

(1) Where it appears necessary to the authority to which an application is made under section 21 or 22 for issue of certificate of registration, so to do for the proper realization of the tax, penalty and interest payable under this Act, it may by an order in writing and for the reasons to be recorded therein, impose as a condition for the issue of certificate of registration a requirement that the dealer shall furnish in the prescribed manner and within such time as may be specified in the order, such security as may be specified in the order for the aforesaid purpose.

(2) Where it appears necessary to the authority referred to in section 21, or the Commissioner so to do for the proper realization of the tax, interest and penalty payable or which has become due for payment, for any period of any year, he may, at any time, by an order in writing and for reason to be recovered therein, require a registered dealer to furnish, in the prescribed manner and within such time as may be specified in the order, such security or if such dealer has already furnished any security, such additional security as may be specified in order.

(3) No dealer shall be required to furnish any security under sub-section (1) or any security or additional security under sub-section (2) unless he has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(4) The amount of security, which a dealer may be required to furnish under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), or the aggregate of the amount of such security, and the amount of additional security which he may be required to furnish under sub-section (2) by the authority referred to therein or the Commissioner, shall not exceed the amount of tax, interest and penalty payable or which has become due for payment for a period of any year according to the estimate of the authority referred to in subsection (1) or the Commissioner, on the turnover of sales or turnover of purchase of goods of such dealer for any period of any year.

(5) Where the security furnished by a dealer under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) is in the form of a surety bond and the surety becomes insolvent or dies, the dealer shall, within thirty days of the occurrence of any of the aforesaid events, inform the authority referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or, as the case may be, the Commissioner and shall within ninety days of such occurrence, furnish a fresh security for the same amount as that of the bond in the form of a bond or in any other prescribed manner.

(6) The authority referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or, as the case may be, the Commissioner may, by order and for good and sufficient cause, forfeit the whole or any part of the security furnished by a dealer for realizing any amount of the tax, interest or penalty payable by the dealer:

Provided that no order shall be passed under this sub-section without giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard.

(7) Where by reason of an order under sub-section (6), the security furnished by any dealer is rendered insufficient, he shall make up the deficiency in such, manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

(8) The authority referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or, as the case may be, the Commissioner may, on an application made by a dealer in that behalf, make an order of refund of any amount or part thereof deposited by the dealer by way of security or for the release of bond under this section, if it is not required for the purpose of realization of tax, interest or penalty.

(9) Where a dealer fails to furnish security as required under sub-section (1), (2), (5) or (7), the authority referred to in section 21 shall refuse to issue or, as the case may be, shall cancel the certificate of registration:

Provided that the refusal or cancellation of a certificate of registration under this sub-section shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 3, not affect the liability of the dealer to pay the tax, penalty and interest due for any period before or after the date of such refusal or cancellation of the certificate of registration; and accordingly the provisions of this Act shall continue to apply.

CHAPTER 5 RETURNS, PAYMENT OF TAX, ASSESSMENT, RECOVERY OF TAX AND REFUND

29. Returns :-

(1) Every Registered dealer shall furnish correct and complete returns <sup>1</sup> [of the goods in respect of his business and the transactions thereof] in such form, for such period, by such dates and to such authority, as may be prescribed.

(2) The Commissioner may, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, exempt any dealer from furnishing returns or permit any dealer, -

(a) to furnish for such different periods, or

(b) to furnish separate returns relating to various places of business of a dealer in the State for the said period, or for such different period, to such authority, as he may direct.

(3) If the Commissioner has reason to believe that the total turnover of any dealer is likely to exceed the thresholds of turnover specified in sub-section (1) of section 3, he may, by notice served in the prescribed manner, require such dealer to furnish returns as if were a registered dealer, but no tax shall be payable by such dealer, unless he become liable to pay tax under sub-section (1) of section 3.

(4) If any dealer having furnished returns under sub-section (1) or (3) discovers any mistake, error, omission or incorrect statement therein, he may furnish a revised return before the expiry of <sup>2</sup> [one month from] the last date prescribed for furnishing the original return.

(5) If a registered dealer or <sup>3</sup> [any other dealer, not being a dealer referred to in subsection (4)] required to furnish return under this section fails to furnish any return by the prescribed date as required under <sup>4</sup> [sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, sub-section (2)] or fails to comply with the requirement of notice issued under sub-section (3), the Commissioner shall direct him to pay, in addition to any tax and interest payable or paid by him, by way of penalty <sup>6</sup>[such sum as may be prescribed but not exceeding rupees ten thousand per return" shall be substituted] The <sup>7</sup>[penalties prescribed] under this sub-section shall be imposed by the Commissioner notwithstanding the fact that the assessment proceedings have not been initiated against the dealer under section 32, 33 or 34. Any penalty imposed under this sub-section shall be without prejudice to any prosecution for <sup>5</sup> [any offence or any other proceedings] under this Act.

30. Periodical payment of tax and interest on non-payment of tax :-

(1) Tax shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided, and at such intervals as may be prescribed.

(2) Every registered dealer furnishing return as required by sub-section (1) of section 29 shall pay into a Government treasury, in the manner prescribed, the whole amount due from him according to such return and shall furnish along with the return a receipt showing full payment of such amount

(3) If the revised return furnished by a registered dealer in accordance with sub-section (4) of section 29, shows a higher amount of tax due than shown in the return earlier furnished by him, he shall pay into a Government treasury the remaining amount of tax arising from the revised return alongwith interest on delayed payment of such remaining amount, and furnish alongwith the revised return showing such payment.

(4) If a registered dealer does not pay the amount of tax payable in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), (2) or (3), the Commissioner shall forthwith initiate recovery proceedings under this Act.

(5) Where a dealer does not pay the amount tax within the time prescribed for its payment under this section, then there shall be paid by such dealer for the period commencing on the date of expiry of the aforesaid prescribed time and ending on date of payment of the amount of tax, simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent, per annum, on the amount of tax not so paid or on any less amount thereof remaining unpaid during such period.

1 (6) Where a dealer is liable to pay interest under sub-section (5) or under sub-section (7) of section 42 and he makes payment of an amount which is less than the aggregate of the amount of tax, penalty and interest, the amount so paid shall be first applied towards the amount of interest, thereafter the balance, if any, towards the amount of penalty and thereafter the balance, if any, towards the amount of tax.

1. Sub-section (6) was inserted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 17,

31. Collection of Tax only by registered dealer :-

(1) A person who is not a registered dealer shall not collect in respect of any sale of goods any amount by way of tax under this

Act and no registered dealer shall make any such collection except in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made there under.

(2) A registered dealer who has been permitted by the commissioner to make a lump sum payment under section 14 shall not collect from his purchaser any sum by way of tax on the sales of goods during the period the permission for lump sum tax is valid.

(3) The tax collected and deposited under the provisions of this Act to which a dealer may be held not liable shall not be refunded to the dealer and the amount of such tax shall stand forfeited to the Government.

(4) If any person collects any amount by way of tax in contravention of the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to any tax payable, a penalty equal to the amount so collected.

32. Return Scrutiny and provisional assessment :-

(1) Returns or revised returns furnished by the dealer in accordance with section 29 shall be subject to scrutiny by the Commissioner.

(2) (a) If any dealer has furnished return or revised return according to which,-

(i) net amount of tax payable, in accordance with section 13, is nil, or

(ii) the amount of tax credit is carried forward for subsequent return, or

(iii) the amount of refund is claimed there in, or

(iv) the dealer has claimed in his return or the revised return higher amount of tax credit than the admissible amount of tax credit,-

than, the Commissioner may, as soon as possible, provisionally assess such dealer for the period of such return or as the case may be, revised return. For the purpose of aforesaid provisional assessment, the commissioner shall serve on such dealer in the prescribed manner a notice requiring him to explain in writing, on or before the date specified in the aforesaid notice the basis on which the dealer has furnished such returns or the revised returns. The Commissioner may, after considering such explanation provisionally assess the amount of tax due from such dealer and issue an order in the prescribed form.

(b) If the dealer who has been served the notice under clause (a) fails to comply with requirement of clause (a), the Commissioner shall determine the amount of tax payable in the manner as may be prescribed and serve on such dealer an order of the provisional assessment.

(3) Where a registered dealer has not furnished the return in respect of any tax period within the prescribed time, the Commissioner shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 34, proceed to assess the dealer provisionally for the period for such default. Such provisional assessment shall be made on the basis of past returns or past records or on the basis of information received by the Commissioner and the Commissioner shall direct the dealer to pay the amount of tax assessed in such manner and by such date as may be prescribed.

(4) Where the Commissioner has reason to believe that the dealer has evaded the tax or has claimed more amount of tax credit than the admissible amount of tax credit, he may, after taking into account all relevant materials gathered by him and after giving the dealer a notice in the prescribed form, provisionally assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax payable by the dealer.

(5) The provisions of this Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to the provisional assessment as if provisional assessment were an audit assessment made under this Act.

(6) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the Commissioner from making assessment under sections 33 and 34.

33. Self assessment :-

(1) Every registered dealer shall, by such dates and to such authority as may be prescribed, furnish annual return by way of self-assessment in the prescribed form, containing such particulars and accompanied by supporting documents, as may be prescribed.

(2) The amount of tax credit, exemptions and other claims by the dealer in the annual return for which no supporting tax invoice, declarations, certificates, or evidence required under this Act or the Central Act is furnished, shall be self -assessed by the dealer by disallowing such tax credits, exemptions and other claims and by levying the appropriate rate of tax as if the sales or purchase were taxable.

1 [(3) Where,--

(a) a dealer has furnished all the returns, revised returns, if any, and annual returns by the date prescribed therefore and paid the amount of tax due according to such returns, and

(b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the returns or, as the case may be, revised returns and annual returns furnished are correct and complete, and

(c) a notice for audit assessment under sub-section (2) of section 34 has not been served on such dealer within such period as may be prescribed, such dealer shall be deemed to have been assessed for that year:

Provided that the Commissioner of his own motion within a period of three years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable, may call for and examine the record of such dealer who has been deemed to have been assessed and after serving notice and giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard, pass such order thereon in accordance with the provisions of section 34, as the Commissioner may think just and proper.

1. Sub-section (3) was substituted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 18,

Prior to substitution sub-section (3) read as under:

(3) If a dealer has furnished all the returns, revised returns, if any, and annual return within the prescribed period and the Commissioner is satisfied that the returns or as the case may be, revised returns, and annual return are correct and complete, he may accept the annual return by way of self assessment filed by the dealer and shall assess the amount of tax and interest due from the dealer on the basis of such returns. The Commissioner shall send to such dealer an intimation in the prescribed form regarding the assessment done under this section.

34. Audit assessment :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the amount of tax due from a registered dealer shall be assessed in the manner hereinafter provided, separately for each year, during which he is liable to pay tax.

(2) (a) Where,

(i) the Commissioner is not satisfied with the bonafides of any claim of tax credit, exemption, refund, deduction, concession, rebate, or genuineness of any declaration or evidence furnished by a dealer in support thereof with self-assessment or

(ii) the Commissioner has reason to believe that detailed scrutiny of the case is necessary, the Commissioner may, notwithstanding the fact that the dealer may have been assessed under section 33, serve on such dealer in the prescribed manner a notice requiring him to appear on a date and place specified therein, which may be his place of business or a place specified in the notice, either to attend and produce or cause to be produced the books of account and all evidence on which the dealer relies in support of his returns or to produce such evidence as specified in the notice.

1 [(b) in respect of such class of dealers as the State Government may, by rules, specify;

(3) The dealer shall provide all co-operation and reasonable assistance to the Commissioner as may be required in case the proceedings under this section are required to be conducted at his place of business.

(4) if proceedings under this section are to be conducted at the place of business of the dealer and it is found that the dealer is not functioning from such premises or no such premises exists, the Commissioner shall assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax due from him.

(5) If the commissioner is unlawfully prevented from conducting the proceedings under this section, he may assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax due from dealer and may further direct that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, in addition to the amount of tax so assessed, a sum equal to the tax amount.

(6) If any dealer-

(a) has not furnished returns in respect of any period by the prescribed date,

(b) has furnished incomplete or incorrect returns for any period,

(c) has failed to comply with the terms of notice issued under sub section(2),

(d) has failed to maintain books of account in accordance with the provision of this Act or rules made there under or has not regularly employed any method of accounting ,- the Commissioner shall assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax due from him.

(7) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the dealer, in order to evade or avoid payment of tax,-

(a) has failed to furnish, without reasonable cause, returns in respect of any period or the self-assessment by the prescribed date;

(b) has furnished incomplete or incorrect returns for any period;

(c) has availed tax credit for which he is not eligible;

(d) has employed such method of accounting which does not enable the commissioner to assess the tax due from him, or Audit assessment

(e) has knowingly furnished false or incorrect self assessment,-

he shall, after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard, direct that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum <sup>3</sup>[not exceeding] <sup>2</sup> [one and a half times of the amount] of tax assessed on account of the said reason in the audit assessment

(8) If the Commissioner, upon information which has come into his possession, is satisfied that any dealer who has been liable to pay tax under this Act in respect of any period, has failed to get himself registered, the Commissioner shall proceed to assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax due from dealer in respect of such period and all subsequent periods. In making such assessment, he shall give the dealer an opportunity of being heard. The Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the default was without reasonable cause, direct that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, in addition to the amount of tax so assessed, a sum of equal to the amount of tax assessed or a sum of rupees five thousand, whichever is more.

(9) No assessment under sub-sections (2), (5), (6) or (7) shall be made after the expiry of four years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable.

(10) No assessment under sub-section (8) shall be made after the expiry of eight years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable:

Provided that where any assessment is required to be made in pursuance of an order of any court or authority, such fresh assessment shall be made at any time within two years from the date of such order:

Provided further that in computing the period of limitation for the purpose this section, any period during which assessment proceedings are stayed by an order or injunction of any court or authority shall be excluded.

(11) Any assessment made or penalty imposed under this section shall be without prejudice to prosecution for any offence under this Act.

(12) Where in the case of dealer, the amount of tax assessed for any period under this section or reassessed for any period under section 35 exceeds the amount of tax already paid under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) of section 30 by the dealer in respect of such period by more than twenty five percent of the amount of the tax so paid, there shall be levied on such dealer a penalty not exceeding one and one-half times the difference between the tax paid under section 30 and the amount so assessed or reassessed.

1. Sub-section (2) was renumbered and as clause (a) and sub-clauses (a) and (b) were renumbered as (i) & (ii) and clause (b) was inserted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 19(1),

2. These words were substituted for the words "twice the amount" by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 19(2),

3. Substituted by Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 2009, s. 34(7) for the following "equal to"

34A. Assessment on basis of fair market price :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if the Commissioner is of the opinion that any transaction by any dealer during any tax period or a set of transactions by the dealer has been accounted in a manner so as to pay tax less than the tax otherwise payable on such sale or purchase, then the Commissioner shall calculate the tax liability as per fair market price of such transaction or transactions.

Explanation.--For the purpose of this section, "fair market price" means the value at which goods of like kind are sold or would be sold in the open market in the State.

1. Section 34A was inserted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 20,

35. Turnover escaping assessment :-

(1) Where after a dealer has been assessed under section 32,33,34 for any year or part thereof, the Commissioner has reason to believe that the whole or any part of the taxable turnover of the dealer in respect of any period has,-

(a) escaped assessment, or

(b) been under-assessed, or

(c) been assessed at a rate lower than the rate at which it is assessable, or

(d) wrongly been allowed any deduction there from; or

(e) Wrongly been allowed any credit therein, the Commissioner may serve a notice on the dealer and after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard and making such inquiry as he considers necessary, proceed to determine to the best of his judgment, the amount of tax due from the dealer in respect of such turnover which comes to his notice subsequently, and the previous of his Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

(2) No order shall be made under sub-section (1) after the expiry of five years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable.

36. Refund of excess payment :-

(1) Subject to other provisions of this Act and the rules, the Commissioner may refund to a person the amount of tax, penalty and interest, if any, paid by such person in excess of the amount due from him.

Provided that, the Commissioner shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due under this Act or the earlier laws and shall then refund only the balance amount, if any:

Provided further that no adjustment under the provision shall be made towards a recovery of an amount due that has been stayed by an appellate authority.

(2) Where any refund due to any dealer, according to the return furnished by him for any period, such refund may provisionally be adjusted by him against the tax due and payable as per the returns furnished under section 29 for any subsequent period in the year.

Provided that the amount of tax, or penalty, interest or surety forfeited or all or any of them due from and payable by the dealer on the date of such adjustment, shall first be deducted from such refund before making the adjustment.

37. Provisional refund :-

(1) If a registered dealer has filed any return as required or under this Act, and such return shows any amount to be refundable to the dealer, then the dealer may apply in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, to the Commissioner for grant of provisional refund pending assessment.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), the Commissioner may require the aforesaid dealer to furnish <sup>1</sup> [such] Guarantee or other security as may be prescribed, for an amount equal to the amount of refund. On receipt of such guarantee or other security, the Commissioner may, subject to rules, grant provisional refund to the dealer.

(3) The Commissioner may direct that assessment under section 32 of such dealer in respect of the period covered by the said return be taken up as early as practicable and adjust the grant of provisional refund against tax due, if any, as a result of the assessment.

(4) If, on assessment, the provisional refund granted under sub-section (2) is found to be in excess, then such excess shall be recovered as if it is a tax due from the dealer under this Act and the interest on such tax shall be charged at the rate of eighteen percent per annum, for the period from the date of grant of provisional refund, till the date of assessment.

1. This word was substituted for the words "a Bank" by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 21,

38. Interest on refund :-

(1) Where refund of any amount of tax becomes due to the dealer by virtue of an order of assessment under section 34, he shall subject to the provision of this section be entitled to receive in addition to the amount of tax, simple interest at the rate of six per cent per annum on the said amount of tax from the date immediately following the date of the closure of the accounting year to which the said amount of tax relates<sup>1</sup> [till the date of payment of amount of such refund.]

Provided that where the dealer has paid any amount of tax after the closure of the accounting year and such amount is required to be refunded, no interest shall be payable for the period from the date of closure of such accounting year to the date of payment of such amount.

(2) A registered dealer entitled to refund in pursuance of any order other than referred to under sub-section (1) or in pursuance of any order by any court, shall subject to rules, be entitled to receive, in addition to the refund, simple interest at the rate of six percent<sup>2</sup> [per annum on the amount of such refund from the date immediately following the date of closer of the accounting year to which the said amount of refund relates] till the date of payment of amount of such a refund. The interested shall be calculated on the amount of refund due after deducting there from any tax, interest, penalty or any other dues under this Act, or under the Central Act. If, as a result of any order passed under this Act, the amount of such refund is enhanced or reduced, such interest shall be enhanced or reduced accordingly.

(3) Where the realization of any amount remains stayed by the order of any court or authority and such order is subsequently vacated, interest shall be payable also for any period during which such order remained in operation.

1 . These words were substituted for the words "to the date of order of assessment" by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 22(1),

2 . These words were substituted for the words "for the period commencing after thirty days from the date of such order" by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 22(2) (a),

3. The proviso and explanations under sub-section (2) were deleted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 22(2)(b),

Prior to deletion they read as under :

Provided that where the amount becomes refundable by virtue of an order of the appellate authority or revision authority or of a court, the interest under the provisions of this section shall be payable from that date immediately following the expiry of the period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the order of appellate authority or revision authority or of a court, by the officer whose order forms the subject matter of the proceeding before the appellate authority or revisional authority or the court to the date refund.

Explanation 1 -- For the purposes of this section, where the refund of tax, whether full or in part, includes refund of any amount of tax paid after the date prescribed for making the last payment of any period covered by the return, then the interest, in so far as it relates to the refund arising from such payment, shall be calculated from the date of such payment to the date of such order.

Explanation 2 - If the delay in granting the refund within the period of thirty days aforesaid is attributable to the said dealer, whether wholly or in part, the period of the delay attributable to him shall be excluded from the period for which the interest is payable.

Explanation 3 - Where the refund of a sum deposited as a pre-condition for entertainment of appeal under sub-section (4) of section 73 becomes due on account of appeal being decided in dealers favour, the date of order for the purpose of this section shall be -

(a) In the case where the case has been remanded by the appellate authority, the date of the order made in pursuance of the order of the appellate authority; and

(b) In any other case, the date of the order of the appellate authority.

39. Power to withhold refund in certain cases :-

(1) Where an order giving rise to a refund is the subject matter of an appeal or further processing or where any other processing under this Act is pending and the Commissioner is of the opinion that grant of such refund is likely to adversely affect the revenue, he may, after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard, withhold the refund till such time as he may determine.

(2) Where a refund is withheld under sub-section (1), the dealer shall be entitled to interest as provided under section 38, if as a result of the appeal or further proceeding he becomes entitled to refund.

40. Refund of tax for certain categories :-

(1) Subject to such terms and conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if it considers necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification in the official gazette, authorize the Commissioner to grant refund of the amount of tax separately charged by any registered dealer to any class of persons who have purchased the goods from such dealer.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as possible after it is issued and shall be subject to rescission by the State Legislature or to such modification as the State Legislature may take, during session in which it is so laid or session immediately following. Any rescission or modification so made by the State Legislature shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon take effect.

(3) Any person, so entitled for refund under sub-section (1) may apply to the prescribed authority in the manner and within the time as may be prescribed. The Commissioner shall subject to provisions of this Act grant refund to such person.

41. Remission of tax, penalty or interest :-

(1) Subject to such conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if it is necessary so do in public interest in case of double taxation or to redress an <sup>1</sup> [inequitable situation or for sufficient and reasonable cause] remit by an order either generally or specially, the whole or any part of the tax, penalty or interest payable in respect of any period by any dealer or a class of dealers of any specified class of sales or purchase.

(2) The Commissioner may, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions and within such limit as may be prescribed remit the whole or any part of the tax, penalty or interest payable, in respect of any period, by any dealer.

1. Substituted vide The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 2006 (Act No. 25 of 2006) w.e.f. 10.05.2006 for the words: "inequitable situation".

42. Payment and recovery of tax and interest on delayed payment :-

(1) The amount of tax assessed, reassessed or becoming payable for any period under section 32, 33, 34, 35, 75 or 79, less any amount already paid by the dealer in respect of such period, shall together with penalty and interest if any that may become payable under any of the provisions of this Act, be paid by the dealer or the person liable therefor into a Government treasury or in such other manner as may be prescribed within thirty days from the date of service of notice of demand issued by the Commissioner for this purpose.

(2) On any application by the dealer, the Commissioner may in respect of any particular dealer or person and for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time for payment or allow payment by installments, subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case.

(3) In a case where payment in installments is allowed under sub-section (2) and the dealer or the person liable for such payments commits default in paying any one of the installments within the time fixed by the Commissioner under that sub-section, the dealer or the person shall be deemed to be default in respect of the whole of the amount than outstanding and the other installments shall be deemed to have been due on the same date as the installment in default.

(4) Interest at the rate of eighteen percent per annum shall be charged for the period as may be extended or the installments as may be granted under sub-section (2).

(5) If the amount of tax and penalty, if any, is not paid within time specified in sub-section (1) or extended under sub-section (2), as the case maybe, the dealer or the person liable there for shall be deemed to be in default in respect of that amount.

(6) Where the amount of tax assessed or reassessed for any period, under section 34 or section 35, subject to revision, if any, under section 75, exceeds the amount of tax already paid by the dealer for that period, there shall be paid by such a dealer, for the period commencing from the date of expiry of the time prescribed for payment of tax under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) of section 30 and ending on date of order of assessment, reassessment or, as the case may be, revision, simple interest at the rate of eighteen percent per annum on the amount of tax not so paid or any less amount there of remaining unpaid during such period.

(7) Where a dealer does not pay the amount of tax falling under sub-section (1) on or before the prescribed date, than there shall be paid by such dealer for the period commencing on the specified date and ending on the date of payment, simple interest at the rate of eighteen percent per annum on the amount of tax not so paid or any less amount thereof remaining unpaid during such period:

Provided that where security, other than in the form of surety bond, has been furnished by a dealer under sub-section (1) and (2) of section 28, the Commissioner may, for good and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, realise any amount of tax, penalty or interest remaining unpaid as aforesaid or part thereof by ordering forfeiture of the whole or any part of the security.

43. Continuation of certain recovery proceedings :-

(1) Where any notice of demand in respect of any tax, penalty, interest or any other amount payable under this Act (hereinafter in this section referred to as "Government dues") is served upon any dealer and any appeal, revision application is filed or other proceeding is initiated in respect of such Government dues, then -

(a) Where such Government dues are enhanced in such appeal, revision or other proceeding, the Commissioner shall serve upon the dealer another notice of demand only in respect of the amount by which such Government dues are enhanced and any recovery proceeding in relation to such Government dues as are covered by the notice of demand served upon him before the disposal of such appeal, revision application or proceeding may, without the service of any fresh notice of demand, be continued from the stage at which such proceedings stood immediately before such disposal.

(b) Where such Government dues are reduced in such appeal, revision or in other proceeding -

(i) It shall not be necessary for the Commissioner to serve upon the dealer a fresh notice of demand;

(ii) The Commissioner shall give intimation of such reduction to him and to the appropriate authority with whom recovery proceeding is pending;

(iii) Any recovery proceedings initiated on the basis of the demand served upon him prior to the disposal of such appeal, revision application or other proceeding may be continued in relation to the amount so reduced from the stage at which such proceedings stood immediately before such disposal.

44. Special mode of recovery :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract to the contrary, the Commissioner may at any time or from time to time, by notice in writing, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the dealer at his last known address, require, --

(a) any person from whom any amount of monies is due, or may become due, to a dealer on whom notice has been served under sub-section (1), or

(b) any person who holds or may subsequently hold monies for or on account of such dealer, to pay the Commissioner, either forthwith upon the monies becoming due or being held or within the time specified in the notice (but not before the monies becomes due or is held as aforesaid) so much of the monies as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the dealer in respect of the arrears of tax, penalty or interest under this Act, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.

Explanation - For the purposes of this sub-section, the amount of monies due to a dealer from, or monies held for or on account of a dealer by any person, shall be calculated by the Commissioner after deducting therefrom such claims, if any, lawfully subsisting, as may have fallen due for payment by such dealer to such person.

(2) The Commissioner may amend or revoke any such notice or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of the notice.

(3) Any person making any payment in compliance with a notice under this section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the dealer, and the receipt thereof by the Commissioner shall continue a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person to the extent of the amount specified in the receipt.

(4) Any person discharging any liability to the dealer after receipt of the notice referred to in this section, shall be personally liable to the Commissioner to the extent of the liability discharged or to the extent of the liability of the dealer for tax, penalty and interest, whichever is less.

(5) Where a person to whom a notice under this section is sent objects to it by a statement in writing that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due or payable to the dealer or that he does not hold any monies for or account of the dealer, the Commissioner shall hold an inquiry and after giving to such person or dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard, make such order as he thinks fit.

(6) Any amount of monies which the aforesaid person is required to pay to the Commissioner, or for which he is personally liable to the Commissioner under this section shall, if it remains unpaid, be recoverable as an arrears of land revenue.

(7) The Commissioner may apply to the court in whose custody there is monies belonging to the dealer for payment of the amount of such monies towards the outstanding amount of tax, interest and penalty payable by the dealer.

45. Provisional attachment :-

(1) Where during the pendency of any proceedings of assessment or reassessment of turnover escaping assessment the Commissioner is of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interest of the Government revenue, it is necessary so to do, he may by order in writing attach provisionally any property belonging to the dealer in such a manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Every such provisional attachment shall cease to have effect after the expiry of a period of one year from the date of the order made under sub-section (1).

46. Special powers of tax authorities for recovery of tax as arrears of land revenue :-

(1) For the purposes of effecting recovery of the amount of tax, penalty or interest due from any dealer or other person by or under the provisions of this Act or under any earlier law, as arrears of land revenue. --

(i) the Commissioner, the special Commissioner, Additional Commissioner and the joint Commissioners shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Collector under the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879.

(ii) the Deputy Commissioners and Assistant Commissioner shall have and exercise all the powers (except the powers of arrest and confinement of a defaulter in a civil jail) and perform all the duties the assistant Collector or Deputy Collector under the said Code.

57. Special provision regarding liability to pay tax in certain cases :-

(1) Where a person who is or has been a dealer, liable to pay tax under this Act, dies, then-

(a) if a business carried on by the dealer is continued after his death by his legal representative or any other person, such legal representative or other person, shall be liable to pay tax, interest or penalty due from such dealer under this Act or under any earlier law, and

(b) if the business carried on by the dealer is discontinued, whether before or after his death, his legal representative shall be liable to pay out of the estate of the deceased, to the extent to which the estate is capable of meeting the charge, the tax, penalty or interest due from such dealer under this Act or under any earlier law,- whether such tax interest or penalty has been assessed before his death but has remained unpaid or is assessed after his death.

(2) Where a dealer, liable to pay tax under this Act, is a Hindu Undivided Family and the property of the Hindu Undivided Family is partitioned amongst the various members or groups of members then each member or group of members shall jointly and severally be liable to pay the tax, interest or penalty due from the dealer under this Act or under any earlier law upto the time of the partition whether such tax, penalty or interest has been assessed before partition but has remained unpaid or is assessed after the partition.

(3) Where a dealer, liable to pay tax under this Act, is a firm, and the firm is dissolved, then every person who was a partner shall be jointly and severally liable to pay to the extent to which he is liable to pay to the extent to which he is liable under section 54 the tax, interest or penalty due from the firm under this Act or under any earlier law, upto the time of dissolution whether such tax, interest or penalty has been assessed before the dissolution, but has remained unpaid or is assessed after dissolution.

(4) Where the dealer liable to pay tax under this Act,-

(a) is the guardian of a ward on whose behalf the business is carried on by the guardian, or

(b) is a trustee who carries on the business under a trust for a beneficiary.

then if the guardianship or trust is terminated, the ward or, as the case may be, the beneficiary shall be liable to pay the tax, interest or penalty due from the dealer upto the time of the termination of the guardianship or trust, whether such tax, interest or penalty has been assessed before the termination of guardianship or trust but has remained unpaid or is assessed thereafter.

(5) Where a person becomes liable to pay tax in the manner described in clause (a) of sub-section (1), then such person shall, (notwithstanding anything contained in section 3), be liable to pay tax on the sales of goods made by him on and after the date of such succession or transfer and shall (unless he already holds a certificate of registration) in the case of succession, within six months and in the case of transfer, within thirty days, thereof apply for registration.

58. Liability in other case :-

(1) Where a dealer is a firm or an association of persons or a Hindu Undivided Family and such firm, association or family has discontinued business-

(a) the tax payable under this Act, by such firm, association or family up to the date of such discontinuance may be assessed as if no such discontinuance had taken place; and

(b) every person who was at the time of such discontinuance, a partner of such firm, or a member of such association or family, shall, notwithstanding such discontinuance be liable jointly and severally for the payment of tax assessed and penalty or interest imposed and payable by such firm, association or family, whether such tax, interest or penalty or has been assessed prior to or after such discontinuance and subject as aforesaid, the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply as if every such person or partner or member were himself a dealer.

(2) Where a change has occurred in the constitution of a firm or an association of persons, the partners of the firm or members of association, as it existed before and as it exists after his reconstitution, shall, without prejudice to the provisions of section 54, jointly and severally be liable to pay tax, interest and penalty due from such firm or association for any period before its reconstitution.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall, so far as may be, apply where the dealer, being a firm or association of persons is dissolved or where the dealer, being a Hindu Undivided Family, has effected partition with respect to the business carried on by it and accordingly references in that sub-section to discontinuance shall be construed as reference to dissolution or, as the case may be, to partition.

59. Service of notice in certain circumstances :-

(1) Where a Hindu Undivided Family has been partitioned, notice under this Act shall be served on the person who was the last manager of the Hindu Undivided Family, or if such person cannot be found, then on all adults who were members of the Hindu Undivided Family, immediately before the partition.

(2) Where a firm or an association of persons is dissolved, notice under this Act may be served on any person who was a partner (not being a minor) of the firm, or member of the association, as the case may be, immediately before its dissolution.

(3) Where the business of a firm, an association of persons or company has been discontinued, a notice under this Act shall be served in the case of a firm or an association of persons on any person who was a member of such firm or association at the time of its discontinuance and in the case of a company, on the principal officer thereof.

78. Appeal to High Court :-

1[(1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from Court every order passed in appeal by the Tribunal, if the High Court is satisfied that the case- involves a substantial question of law.

(2) In an appeal under this section, the memorandum of appeal shall precisely state the substantial question of law involved in the appeal.

(3) Where the High Court is satisfied that a substantial question of law is involved in any case, it shall formulate that question.

(4) The, appeal shall be heard on the question so formulated and the respondent shall, in the hearing of the appeal, be allowed to argue that the case does not involve such question:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to take away or abridge the power of the Court to hear, for reasons to be recorded, the appeal on any other substantial question of law, not formulated by it, if it is satisfied that the case involves such question.

(5) The High Court, upon hearing of such case, shall decide the question so formulated or involved and deliver the judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded.

(6) An appeal under this section may be filed within ninety days from the date of communication of the order of the Tribunal and shall be accompanied with a fee of rupees two hundred.

(7) In respect of such matters not provided in this section, the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, which applies to the second appeal to High Court under section 100 of the said Code shall, so far as may be, apply to the second appeal under this section.]

1. Section 78 was substituted by The Gujarat Value Added Tax (Amendment) Act, 6 of 2006, S. 38, Prior to substitution it read as under :

78. Statement of case to the High Court

(1) Any person or the Commissioner, within ninety days from the date of the communication of the order of the Tribunal, passed in appeal or revision, being an order which affects the liability of any person to pay tax, interest or penalty, or which affects the recovery from such person of any amount under section 44, may, by application in writing (accompanied, where the application is made by that person, by a fee of one hundred rupees) require the Tribunal to refer to the High Court any question of law arising out of such order; and where the Tribunal agrees, the Tribunal shall, as soon as may be, after the receipt of such application, draw up a statement of the case and refer it to the High Court:

Provided that if in the exercise of its power under this sub-section, the Tribunal refuses to state the case which has been required to do on the ground that no question of law arises, that person, or as the case may be, the Commissioner may, within thirty days of such refusal either withdraw his application or apply to the High Court against such refusal.

(2) If the High Court, upon receipt of an application under sub section (1), is not satisfied as to the correctness of the decision of the Tribunal, it may require the Tribunal to state the case and refer to it; and accordingly, on receipt of any such requisition, the Tribunal shall state the case and refer it to the High Court.

(3) If The High Court is not satisfied that the statements in the case referred under this section are sufficient to enable it to determine the question raised thereby, it may refer the case back to the Tribunal to make such addition thereto or alterations therein, as the High Court may direct in that behalf.

79. Rectification of mistakes :-

(1) The Commissioner may at any time within two years from the date of the communication of the order passed by him, to the person affected by such order, on his own motion, rectify any mistake of fact apparent from the record, and shall within a like period rectify any such mistake which has been brought to his notice by any person affected by such order:

Provided that, no such rectification shall be made if it has the effect of enhancing the tax or reducing the amount of refund or tax credit, unless the Commissioner has given notice in writing to such person of his intention to do so and has allowed such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply to the rectification of a mistake by the Tribunal or an appellate authority under section 73 as they apply to the rectification of a mistake by the Commissioner.

(3) Where any such rectification has the effect of reducing the amount of the tax, interest or penalty, the Commissioner shall, in the prescribed manner, refund any amount due to such person.

(4) Where any such rectification has the effect of enhancing the amount of the tax or penalty or reducing the amount of refund, the Commissioner shall recover the amount due from such person in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
