- (1) These rules may be called the Manner of Giving Open Delivery and Prescription of Partial Delivery Certificate Form Rules, 1990.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions :-

In these rules unless the context otherwise requires,-

- (a) "Act" means the Railways Act, 1989 (24 of 1989) -,
- (b) "Open Delivery" means delivery of a consignment given by railway administration on the demand of the consignee or endorsee, when such consignment arrives in a damaged condition or shows signs of having been tampered with ¹ ,

(c) "Partial Delivery" means delivery of a part of the consignment where the whole consignment has not arrived at the destination:

(d) "Schedule" means the Schedule to these rules :

(e) words and expressions used herein and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

1. Vide G.S.R. 942 (E), dated 1st December, 1990(w.e.f. 1st December, 1990).

3. Open delivery of consignment :-

Where any consignment arrives at the destination station in a damaged condition or shows signs of having been tampered with, the consignee or the endorsee may make a request in writing to the railway administration for open delivery of such consignment, in accordance with these rules: Provided that any assessment of the extent of damage shall not prejudice the rights of the railway administration to repudiate its liability under the Act.

4. Condition subject to which open delivery of a damaged consignment shall be given :-

A railway administration may give open delivery of damaged consignment subject to the condition that the extent of damage to the consignment shall be assessed by the railway servant granting such open delivery on the basis of visual examination and such other chemical or physical tests as he may deem necessary.

5. Conditions subject to which open delivery of tampered consignments shall be given :-

A railway administration may give open delivery of tampered consignment subject to the following conditions, namely:- (1) Assessment of the extent of shortage shall be done by the railway servant granting open delivery after comparing the details of the consignment booked for carriage as recorded in the railway receipt produced by consignee or the endorsee. (2) The extent of shortage may, also, either be assessed, by physical counting of the packages and their contents forming the consignment, or by weighing.

6. Assessment of the value of damage or shortage :-

The consignee or the endorsee shall produce the original trade invoice or bill of lading or receipt or any other documentary proof indicating the contents and value of the consignment to enable the railway servant granting open delivery to compute the shortage or damage.

7. Imported consignment :-
