(c) perform such duties as the Board may by regulations or otherwise assign to him;

(d) receive such salary and allowances and be governed by such terms and conditions of service as may be determined by the Board and approved by the State Government.

(3) If the managing director is by infirmity or otherwise rendered incapable of carrying out his duties or is absent on leave or otherwise in circumstances not involving the vacation of his appointment, the State Government may appoint another director who is an officer of the State Government to act in his place during his absence.

14. Defect in appointment not to invalidate acts, etc :-

(1) No act or proceeding of the Board or any of its committees shall be questioned or be invalid on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or any defect in the constitution of the Board or the committee, as the case may be .

(2) No act done by any person acting in good faith as a director or member of any committee shall be deemed to be invalid, merely on the ground that he was disqualified to be a director or member or there was any other defect in his nomination.

CHAPTER 4 FUNCTIONS AND FUNDS OF THE CORPORATION

15. Officers and other employees of the Corporation :-

(1) The Board may appoint such officers and employees as it considers necessary, for the efficient performance of the functions of the Corporation and determine by regulations or otherwise their conditions of appointment and service and the remuneration payable to them.

(2) The Board shall, in respect of reservation of appointments, and posts in favour of the members of scheduled castes, scheduled tribes, backward classes and antyodaya families, comply with such directions, as may be issued by the State Government, from time to time, for ensuring adequate representation to such members in the service under the Corporation.

(3) The Board may, by general or special order, delegate to the chairman, ¹[the Vice-Chairman], the managing director, director or to any other officer or employee of the Corporation, subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be specified, such of its powers and duties under this Act, except the power to make regulations, as it may deem necessary.

1. Inserted. by HP Act No. 27 of 1979, sec. 5.

16. Functions of the Corporation :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the primary duty of the Corporation to undertake the task of upliftment of antyodaya families.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, such functions shall include the functions-

(i) to plan, promote and undertake, on its own or in collaboration with or through other agencies whether governmental and non-governmental, programmes of agricultural development, marketing, processing, supply and storage of agricultural produce, small scale cottage and village industries, trade and business or any other activity which will, in the opinion of the Board, enable the members of the antyodaya families to earn a better living and help in the upliftment of their economic condition;

(ii) to undertake programmes for setting up employment-oriented industries by providing financial, technical and managerial assistance and any other assistance which will be required in achieving this objective;

(iii) to provide financial assistance to the members of the antyodaya families by advancing or arranging loans and by paying margin money for any of the purposes which will generate income to such families;

(iv) to give grants and subsidies to, and to guarantee loans, taken by the members of antyodaya families and such other organisations for the benefit of Antyodaya families;

(v) to arrange for the training of skills with a view to provide gainful employment to the members of antyodaya families;

(vi) to act as an agency of the State or the Central Government for disbursement of aid in cash or in kind to the antyodaya families;

(vii) to arrange for publicity and marketing of the finished goods manufactured by the antyodaya families;

(viii) to borrow money from commercial banks or from any other organisation, including Government, subject to such conditions as the Board may specify;

(ix) to receive gifts, grants and donations and to issue bonds and debentures;

(x) to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, hundies, bills warrants, debentures and other negotiable instruments;

(xi) to invest or deposit surplus funds of the Corporation in Government securities or in such other manner as the Board may decide;

(xii) to enter into contracts;

(xiii) to provide facilities for survey; research and study in relation to the problems relating to upliftment of the antyodaya families with a view to promote programmes for providing gainful employment to the members thereof;

(xiv) to undertake such other functions as are supplemental, incidental or consequential to any of the functions conferred on it under this Act or the rules made thereunder; and

(xv) to undertake such other programmes and discharge such other functions as may be prescribed by the State Government, from time to time.

17. Funds of the Corporation :-

The Corporation shall establish and maintain the following funds, namely: -

(a) Development and Finance Fund;

(b) Guarantee and Bad Debts Fund;

(c) Relief and Common Good Fund;

(d) Grants-in-aid and Subsidies Fund; and

(e) Loan Fund.

18. Development and Finance Fund :-

Save as otherwise provided in sections 19, 20, 21 and 22,-

(1) all amounts that are received by the Corporation from any source, whatsoever, shall be credited to the Development and Finance Fund.

(2) all amounts that are expended by the Corporation shall be debited to this Fund.

19. Guarantee and Bad Debts Fund :-

The Guarantee and Bad Debts Fund shall consist of-

(i) the funds placed at the disposal of the Corporation by the State Government as grant for this purpose;

(ii) ten per cent of its own profits;

(iii) the interest accrued, from time to time, on this Fund;

(iv) such money as may be contributed to this fund specifically by any agency, organisation and by the Corporation itself, as may be decided by the Board:

Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to debar the State Government, the Central Government or any other organisation or agency from giving such amounts by way of grant or donation for being credited to this Fund.

(2) This Fund shall be used in connection with furnishing of guarantees in respect of loans taken by the members of antyodaya families or organisations and to meet irrecoverable debts of the Corporation in such manner as may be prescribed.

20. Relief and Common Good Fund :-

(1) To the Relief and Common Good Fund shall be credited every year such amount, not exceeding ten percent of the net profits, if any of the Corporation, as the Board may decide:

Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to debar the State Government, Central Government or any other organisation from giving such amount by way of additional grant for being credited to this Fund as it may think fit.

(2) The Relief and Common Good Fund shall be used for the purposes in connection with the welfare of the members of antyodaya families in such form and manner as may be decided by the Board.

21. Grants-in-aid and Subsidies Fund :-

To Grants-in-aid and Subsidies Fund shall be credited amounts, as may be received from the State Government, the Central Government or any other organisation/agency to be spent for a specified purpose by way of grant/subsidy to the antyodaya families or organisations for their economic upliftment. The conditions, if any, imposed by the grantor shall be adhered to in the utilisation of this Fund.

22. Loan Fund :-

The loans raised or obtained by the Corporation from the financial institutions/banks and the State or the Central Government or any other agency shall be credited to this Fund. The Loan Fund shall be used for the purpose of advancing loans at such rate of interest as may be determined, and on such conditions as may be imposed, by the Board for protecting the interest of the Corporation.

CHAPTER 5 RECOVERY OF LOANS AND GRANTS

23. Power to resume grants and call repayment of loans :-

Notwith-standing anything to the contrary contained in any agreement, the Corporation may, by notice in writing, require any beneficiary, including a guarantor and a debtor, to discharge forthwith, in full or any part of the amount advanced to him as subsidy, grant, loan or in any other fund, to the Corporation-

(a) if it appears to the Board that any false or misleading information or particular was given by the beneficiary before or at the time of receiving the benefit;

(b) if the recipient has failed to comply with any of the terms of such grants, subsidy or loan imposed by the Corporation at the time of payment;

(c) if he contravenes any of the provisions of the agreement or conditions imposed by the Corporation at the time of advancing such loan or making such grant, as the case may be;

(d) if there is reasonable apprehension that the beneficiary is unable to utilise the money for the purpose for which it has been given; or

(e) if for any other reason it is necessary to do so to protect the interest of the Corporation.

24. Recovery of money due to the Corporation :-

(1) Where any amount is due to the Corporation from any person, including the surety of a debtor, in respect of loans, advances, grants, subsidies or any other financial accommodation granted by it, such amount shall on a certificate being issued by the managing director in the prescribed form, be recoverable as arrears of land revenue by the Collector of the district in which the person from whom the amount is due resides or carries on business or owns any property.

(2) The Certificate issued by the managing director under subsection(1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be called in question before any authority or court.

(3) For the purpose of recovering any amount due to the Corporation in respect of the loan or any other advance, it shall not be necessary to proceed against the principal before proceeding against the surety.

25. First charge of Corporations dues :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, but subject to the provisions in any law made by the Parliament relating to priority of charges and to any prior claim of a bank or of the Government in respect of land revenue or any money recoverable by it as arrears of land revenue, the dues of the Corporation as determined under the preceding section of this Act together with interest accrued thereon and costs of recovery shall be the first charge on the property of the debtor and the guarantor if any.

CHAPTER 6 ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

26. Accounts :-

(1) The balance sheet and accounts including the profit and loss accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Board shall cause the books and accounts of the Corporation to be balanced and closed on the thirty-first day of March each year.

27. Audit :-

(1) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited once in every financial year, by auditors duly qualified to act as auditors under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), who shall be appointed by the Board and shall receive such remuneration from the Corporation as the Board may fix.

(2) The auditors shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance sheet and the profit and loss account of the Corporation and it shall be their duty to examine them together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto, and they shall have a list delivered to them of all books kept by the Corporation and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts and other documents of the Corporation and may require from any director or officer of the Corporation such information as the auditors may think necessary for the performance of their duties as auditors.

(3) The auditors shall make a report to the Corporation upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts examined by them and in every such report they shall state whether, in their opinion, the balance sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the State of affairs of the Corporation.

(4) The Corporation shall furnish to the State Government within four months from the date on which its accounts are closed and balanced, a copy of its balance-sheet and accounts together with a copy of the auditors report, and a report on the working of the Corporation during the relevant year and the State Government shall lay them as soon as possible before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for the total period of ten days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions.

(5) Without prejudice to anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, the accounts of the Corporation, as and when it is considered necessary and expedient to do so in public interest, may also be audited by an agency specifically authorised in this behalf by the State Government, from time to time and any expenditure incurred by it in connection with such examination and report shall be payable by the Corporation to such agency.

CHAPTER 7 MISCELLANEOUS

28. Dissolution of Board :-

(1) No provision of law other than this Act, relating to the winding up, dissolution or liquidation of the companies or corporations shall apply to the Corporation.

(2) The State Government may, if the Corporation exceeds its powers, or upon receipt of a report under section 27, call upon the Board to show cause why it should not be dissolved, and if no explanation is offered within the specified period, or if the State Government is not satisfied with the explanation, it may dissolve the Board from such date as may be specified.

29. Consequences of dissolution of the Board :-

(1) When the Board is dissolved under section 28-

(i) all directors shall, from the date of dissolution vacate their offices;

(ii) all powers and duties of the Board shall, during the period of dissolution, be exercised and performed by such person or persons as the State Government may appoint in this behalf;

(iii) all funds and other property vested in the Corporation shall, during the period of dissolution, vest in the State Government.

(2) The State Government may, in its discretion, reconstitute the Board after such period as it may think fit.

30. Bar of jurisdiction :-

Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no civil court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or proceeding in respect of any matter which the Corporation or any officer or authority appointed under this Act is empowered by or under this Act to determine, and no injunction shall be granted by any court or other authority in respect of any action taken or to be taken in pursuance of any power conferred by or under this Act.

31. Protection of action taken in good faith :-

No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Corporation or any director including the managing director, or any officer or employee or any other person authorised by the corporation to discharge any functions under this Act for any loss or damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

32. Officers and employees to be public servants :-

The managing director and other employee of the Corporation shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

33. Indemnity of Directors :-

(1) Every director shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all losses and expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his duties except such as are caused by his own wilful act or default.

(2) A director shall not be responsible for any other director, or for any officer or other employee of the Corporation or for any loss or expenses resulting to the Corporation from the insufficiency or deficiency of value of or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Corporation in good faith, or anything done in good faith, in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto.

34. Exemption from registration fee and stamp duty :-

All instruments executed by or on behalf of the Corporation in relation to the discharge of its functions shall be exempted from payment of stamp duty and registration fee:

Provided that exemption from payment of stamp duty shall apply in the case of such instruments only as are specified in Schedule I-A to the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (2 of 1899)¹

1. Substituted vide H. P. Act. No. 27 of 1979. Sec, 6.

35. Power to make regulations :-

(1) Subject to the rules framed by the State Government under section 36, the Board may, from time to time, make regulations not inconsistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions contained in this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such regulations may provide for-

(a) the time and places of meetings of the Board and the procedure to be followed in relation to such meetings, including the quorum necessary for the transaction of its business;

(b) the conditions which the Corporation may impose in granting loans or entering into other arrangements;

(c) the rate of interest on loans;

(d) duties which the managing director shall perform;

(e) the duties, conduct, salary, allowances and conditions of service of officers and other employees of the Corporation;

(f) the delegation of powers and functions to the officers and employees of the Corporation;

(g) the establishment and maintenance of provident and other benefit funds, for the officers and employees of the Corporation;
and

(h) generally, the efficient conduct of the affairs of the Corporation.

36. Power to make rules :-

(1) The State Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out all or any of the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(a) the fixation of norms for the identification of antyodaya families under clause (b) of section 2;

(b) the terms and conditions of appointment of directors ¹[and the Vice Chairman] and the fees and allowances payable to them;
