KARNATAKA LOKAYUKTA ACT, 1984

4 of 1985

[29th MARCH, 1983]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS KARNATAKA ACT No. 4 OF 1985 Karnataka Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 29-3-1983 The Administrative Reforms Commission had recommended the setting up of the institution of Lokayukta for the purpose of improving the standards of public administration, by looking into complaints against administrative actions, including cases of corruption, favouritism and official indiscipline in administration machinery. One of the election promises in the election manifesto of the Janatha Party was the setting up of the institution of the Lokayukta. The Bill provides for the appointment of a Lokayukta and one or more Upalokayuktas to investigate and report on allegations or grievances relating to the conduct of public servants. The public servants who are covered by the Act include. (1) Chief Minister; (2) all other Minister and members of the State Legislature; (3) all officers of the State Government; (4) Chairmen, Vice-Chairmen of Local Authorities, Statutory Bodies, or Corporations established by or under any law of the State Legislature, including Co-operative Societies; (5) Persons in the service of Local Authorities, Corporations, owned or controlled by the State Government, a company in which not less than fifty-one per cent of the shares are held by the State Government, Societies registered under the Societies Registration Act, Co-operative Societies and Universities established by or under any law of the Legislature. Where, after investigation into a complaint, the Lokayukta considers that the allegation against a public servant is prima facie true and makes a declaration that the post held by him, and the declaration is accepted by the Competent Authority, the public servant concerned, if he is a Chief Minister or any other Minister or Member of State Legislature shall resign his office and if he is any other non-official shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and, if an official, shall be deemed to have been kept under suspension, with effect from the date of the acceptance of the declaration. If after investigation, the Lokayukta is satisfied that the public servant has committed any criminal offence, he may initiate prosecution without reference to any other authority. Any prior sanction required under any law for such prosecution shall be deemed to have been granted. The Vigilance Commission is abolished. But all inquiries and investigations and other disciplinary proceedings pending before the Vigilance Commission will get transferred to the Lokayukta. There are other incidental and consequential provisions. Hence this Bill.

1. Short title and commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the Karnataka Lokayukta Act, 1984.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification, appoint.

6. Removal of Lokayukta or Upa-lokayukta :-

(1) The Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta shall not be removed from his office except by an order of the Governor passed after an address by each House of the State Legislature supported by a majority of the total membership of the House and by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of that House present and voting has been presented to the Governor in the same session for such removal on the ground of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.

(2) The procedure of the presentation of an address and for the investigation and proof of the misbehaviour or incapacity of the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta under sub-section (1) shall be as provided in the Judges (Inquiry) Act, 1968 in relation to the removal of a Judge and accordingly the provisions of that Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to the removal of the Lokayukta and Upa-lokayukta as they apply in relation to the removal of a Judge.

7. Matters which may be investigated by the Lokayukta and an Upa-lokayukta :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken by or with the general or specific approval of.

(i) the Chief Minister;

(ii) a Minister or a Secretary;

(iii) a Member of the State Legislature; or

(iv) any other public servant being a public servant of a class notified by the State Government in consultation with the Lokayukta in this behalf, in any case where a complaint involving a grievance or an allegation is made in respect of such action ¹[x x x x x.]

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an Upa-lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken by or with the general or specific approval of, any public servant not being the Chief Minister, Minister, Member of the Legislature, Secretary or other public servant referred to in sub-section (1), in any case where a complaint involving a grievance or an allegation is made in respect of such action or such action can be or could have been, in the opinion of the Upa-lokayukta, the subject of a grievance or an allegation.

²[(2-A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta may investigate any action taken by or with the general or specific approval of a public servant, if it is referred to him by the State Government.]

(3) Where two or more Upa-lokayuktas are appointed under this Act, the ³[Lokayukta] may, by general or special order, assign to each of them matters which may be investigated by them under this Act:

Provided that no investigation made by an Upa-lokayukta under this Act, and no action taken or things done by him in respect of such investigation shall be open to question on the ground only that such investigation relates to a matter which is not assigned to him by such order.

4 [(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) to (3), when an Upa-lokayukta is unable to discharge his functions owing to absence, illness or any other cause, his function may be discharged by the other Upa-lokayukta, if any, and if there is no other Upa-lokayukta by the Lokayukta.]

1. The words "or where such action can be or could have been, in the opinion of the Lokayukta, the subject of a grievance or an allegation" omitted by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

2. Sub-section (2-A) inserted by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

3. Substituted for the word "Government" by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

4. Sub-section (4) inserted by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

8. Matters not subject to investigation :-

(1) Except as hereinafter provided, the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta shall not conduct any investigation

(a) if such action relates to any matter specified in the Second Schedule; or

(b) if the complainant has or had, any remedy by way of appeal, revision, review or other proceedings before any Tribunal, ¹ [Court of Appeal or other authority and has not availed of the same.]

(2) The Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta shall not investigate.

(a) any action in respect of which a formal and public inquiry has been ordered with the prior concurrence of the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta, as the case may be;

(b) any action in respect of a matter which has been referred for inquiry, under the Commission of Inquiry Act, 1952 with the prior concurrence of the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta, as the case may be;

(c) any complaint involving a grievance made after the expiry of a period of six months from the date on which the action complained against becomes known to the complainant; or

(d) any complaint involving an allegation made after the expiry of five years from the date on which the action complained against is alleged to have taken place:

Provided that he may entertain a complaint referred to in clauses (c) and

(d) if the complainant satisfies that he had sufficient cause for not making the complaint within the period specified in those clauses.

(3) In the case of any complaint involving a grievance, nothing in this Act shall be construed as empowering the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta to question any administrative action involving the exercise of discretion except where he is satisfied that the elements involved in the exercise of the discretion are absent to such an extent that the discretion can prima facie be regarded as having been improperly exercised.

1. Substituted for the words "Court or other authority" by Act No. 1 of 1988, w.e.f. 25-2-1988 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

9. Provisions relating to complaints and investigations :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any person may make a complaint under this Act to the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta.

(2) Every complaint shall be made in the form of a statement supported by an affidavit and in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Where the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta proposes, after making such preliminary inquiry as he deemed fit, to conduct any investigation under this Act, he.

(a) shall forward a copy of the complaint to the public servant and the Competent Authority concerned;

(b) shall afford to such public servant an opportunity to offer his comments on such complaint;

(c) may make such order as to the safe custody of documents relevant to the investigation, as he deems fit.

(4) Save as aforesaid, the procedure for conducting any such investigation shall be such, and may be held either in public or in camera, as the Lokayukta or the Upa-lokayukta, as the case may be, considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(5) The Lokayukta or the Upa-lokayukta may, in his discretion, refuse to investigate or cease to investigate any complaint involving a grievance or an allegation, if, in his opinion.

(a) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or is not made in good faith;

(b) there are no sufficient grounds for investigating or, as the case may be, for continuing the investigation; or

(c) other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case it would be more proper for the complainant to avail of such remedies.

(6) In any case where the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta decides not to entertain a complaint or to discontinue any investigation in respect of a complaint he shall record his reasons therefor and communicate the same to the complainant and the public servant concerned.

(7) The conduct of an investigation ¹[under this Act against a public servant] in respect of any action shall not affect such action, or any power or duty of ² [any other public servant] to take further action with respect to any matter subject to the investigation.

1. Substituted for the words "under this Act" by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

2. Substituted for the words "any public servant" by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000.

10. Issue of search warrant, etc :-

(1) Where, in consequence of information in his possession, the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta.

(a) has reason to believe that any person.

(i) to whom a summon or notice under this Act, has been or might be issued, will not or would not produce or cause to be produced any property, document or thing which will be necessary or useful for or relevant to any inquiry or other proceeding to be conducted by him;

(ii) is in possession of any money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing and such money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing represents either wholly or partly income or property which has not been disclosed to the authorities for the purpose of any law or rule in force which requires such disclosure to be made; or

(b) considers that the purposes of any inquiry or other proceedings to be conducted by him will be served by a general search or inspection, he may by a search warrant authorise any Police Officer not below the rank of an ¹[Inspector of Police to conduct a search or carryout an inspection in accordance therewith and in particular to].

(i) enter and search any building or place where he has reason to suspect that such property, document, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing is kept;

(ii) break open the lock of any door, box, locker, safe, almirah or other receptacle for exercising the powers conferred by sub-clause (i) where the keys thereof are not available;

(iii) seize any such property, document, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing found as a result of such search;

(iv) place marks of identification on any property or document or make or cause to be made extracts or copies there from; or

(v) make a note or an inventory of any such property, document, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 relating to search and seizure shall apply, so far as may be, to searches and seizures under sub-section (1).

(3) A warrant issued under sub-section (1) shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be a warrant issued by a Court under Section 93 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

1. Substituted for the words and brackets "Inspector of Investigation (General) or Inspector of Police to" by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000..

2. Sub-clause (i-a) inserted by Act No. 31 of 1986 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 16-6-1986 and subsequently repealed by Act No. 22 of 2000, w.e.f. 29-11-2000..

11. Evidence :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, for the purpose of any investigation (including the preliminary inquiry if any, before such investigation) under this Act, the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta may require any public servant or any other person who, in his opinion, is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the investigation to furnish any such information or produce any such document.

(2) For the purpose of any such investigation (including the preliminary inquiry) the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta shall have all the powers of a Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavits;

(d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any Court or office;

(e) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;

(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) Any proceeding before the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Section 193 of the Indian Penal Code.

(4) No person shall be required or authorised by virtue of this Act to furnish any such information or answer any such question or produce so much of any document.

(a) as might prejudice the affairs of the State of Karnataka or the security-or defence or international relations of India (including India's relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation);

(b) as might involve the disclosure of proceedings of the Cabinet of the State Government or any Committee of that Cabinet, and for the purpose of this sub-section, a certificate issued by the Chief Secretary certifying that any information, answer or portion of a document is of the nature specified in clause (a) or clause (b), shall be binding and conclusive.

(5) For the purpose of investigation under this Act no person shall be compelled to give any evidence or produce any document which he could not be compelled to give or produce in proceedings before a Court.

12. Reports of Lokayukta, etc :-

(1) If, after investigation of any action ¹[x x x x x] involving a grievance has been made, the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta is satisfied that such action has resulted in injustice or undue hardship to the complainant or to any other person, the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta shall, by a report in writing, recommend to the Competent Authority concerned that such injustice or hardship shall be remedied or redressed in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the report.

(2) The Competent Authority to whom a report is sent under sub-section (1) shall, within one month of the expiry or the period specified in the report, intimate or cause to be intimated to the Lokayukta or the Upa-lokayukta the action taken on the report.

(3) If, after investigation of any action ²[x x x x x] involving an allegation has been made, the Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta is satisfied that such ³[is substantiated] either wholly or partly, he shall by report in writing communicate his findings and recommendations along with the relevant documents, materials and other evidence to the Competent Authority.

(4) The Competent Authority shall examine the report forwarded to it under sub-section (3) and within three months of the date of receipt of the report, intimate or cause to be intimated to the Lokayukta or the Upa-lokayukta the action taken or proposed to be taken on the basis of the report.

(5) If the Lokayukta or the Upa-lokayukta is satisfied with the action taken or proposed to be taken on his recommendations or findings referred to in sub-sections (1) and (3), he shall close the case under information to the complainant, the public servant and the Competent Authority concerned; but where he is not so satisfied and if he considers that the case so deserves, he may make a special report upon the case to the Governor and also inform the Competent Authority concerned and the complainant.

4 [(6) The Lokayukta shall present annually a consolidated report on the performance of his functions and that of the Upa-lokayukta under this Act to the Governor.]

(7) On receipt of the special report under sub-section (5), or the annual report under sub-section (6), the Governor shall cause a copy thereof together with an explanatory memorandum to be laid before each House of the State Legislature.

(8) The Lokayukta or an Upa-lokayukta may at his discretion make available, from time to time, the substance of cases closed or otherwise disposed of by him which may appear to him to be of general, public, academic or professional interest in such manner and to such persons as he may deem appropriate.
