OF 1985 Karnataka Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 25-3-1985 The activities of certain anti-social elements like bootleggers, drug offenders, gamblers, goondas, immoral traffic offenders and slum grabbers have from time to time caused a feeling of insecurity and alarm among the public. The even tempo of life especially in urban areas has frequently been disrupted because of such persons. (2) In order to ensure that the maintenance of public order in this State is not adversely affected by the activities of these known anti-social elements, it is considered necessary to enact a special legislation to provide as follows. (a) to define with precision the terms "bootleggers", "drug offenders", "gamblers", "goondas", "immoral traffic offenders" and "slum grabbers". (b) to specify their activities which adversely affect public order; and (c) to provide for preventive detention of the persons indulging in these dangerous activities. 3. Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra State have introduced specific legislation for dealing with these categories of anti-social elements as these classes of offenders could not be effectively dealt with under the National Security Act. 4. It is proposed to make a similar legislation in Karnataka also in public interest. STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASON$KARNATAKA ACT No. 22 OF 1987 Karnataka Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 4-2-1987 The State Government has experienced some procedural difficulty to sustain the detention orders in certain cases which were challenged before the High Court on technical grounds such as error in the date or the number of the case or defect in specifying the stage of the case concerning the detainee in the grounds or for the reason that one of the grounds of detention has been found some what defective, even though the other grounds are found to be valid and sufficient to uphold the detention order. In order to cure the technical lacuna, the Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug-Offenders, Gamblers, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders and Slum-Grabbers (Amendment) Ordinance, 1987 was promulgated.
