KARNATAKA RADIO AND ELECTRICAL MANUFACTURING COMPANY (ACQUISITION OF SHARES) ACT, 1978

[April 1, 1978]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS [KARNATAKA ACT No. 5 OF 1978] Karnataka Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 18-3-1978 The Radio and Electricals Manufacturing Company Limited, Bangalore is producing electronic and engineering goods of a wide range such as Energy Meters, Cables, Capacitors, Radio and Television receivers, loudspeakers, etc., which are vital to the needs of the country. But, for some years past the management of the Company has not been satisfactory and it is incurring huge losses. It is necessary in the national interest to reverse this trend and to secure the development of the Company. Government of India have agreed to the take over of all the assets and liabilities of the Company by the Bharath Heavy Electricals Limited, a Government of India Undertaking. The majority of the shares of the REMCO which were held by the State Government have already been transferred to the Bharath Heavy Electricals Limited. Only 10% (General public) and 3.8% (Unit Trust of India, Life Insurance Corporation of India, etc.,) of the shares remain with private persons. It has not been possible to acquire those shares through negotiations. It is proposed to acquire them by legislation. As the Legislative Assembly was not in session and as it was urgent an Ordinance was promulgated. This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance.

CHAPTER 1
Preliminary

1. Short title and commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the Karnataka Radio and Electrical Manufacturing Company (Acquisition of Shares) Act, 1978.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the Thirteenth day of October, 1977.

think fit to assist the Commissioner and thereupon the Commissioner may authorise one or more of such persons also to exercise all or any of the powers exercisable by him under this Act and different persons may be authorised to exercise different powers.

(3) Any person authorised by the Commissioner to exercise any of the powers exercisable by the Commissioner may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the same effect, as if they have been conferred on that person directly by this Act and not by way of authorisation.

(4) The salaries and allowances of the Commissioner and other persons appointed under this section, shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund of the State.

6. Payment by the Government to the Commissioner :-

(1) The Government shall, within thirty days from the specified date, pay, in cash, to the Commissioner, for payment to the shareholders of the Company and other interested persons.-

(a) an amount equal to the amount payable under sub-section (1) of Section 4 ; and

(b) an amount equal to the amount determined under sub-section (2) of Section 4 .

(2) A deposit account shall be opened by the Government in favour of the Commissioner in the public account of the State and every amount paid under this Act to the Commissioner shall be deposited by him to the credit of the said deposit account and the said deposit account shall be operated by the Commissioner.

(3) The interest accruing on the amount standing to the credit of the deposit account referred to in sub-section (2) shall enure to the benefit of the shareholders of the company and other interested persons.

7. Claims to be made to the Commissioner :-

Every person interested in and having a claim, in relation to any share acquired by this Act, either as holder of such share or as holder of any encumbrance or charge over such share immediately before the appointed day, shall prefer such claim before the Commissioner within thirty days from the specified date indicating the nature of his interest in such share:

Provided that if the Commissioner is satisfied that the claimant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the claim within the period of thirty days, he may entertain the claim within a further period of thirty days and not thereafter.

8. Examination of claims :-

On receipt of the claims made under Section 7 , the Commissioner shall examine the claims in relation to each share.

9. Admission or rejection of claims :-

(1) After examining the claims, the Commissioner shall fix a certain date on or before which every claimant shall file the proof of his claim.

(2) Not less than fourteen days notice of the date so fixed shall be given by advertisement in one issue of a daily newspaper in the English language and one issue of a daily newspaper in the Kannada language having wide circulation and every such notice shall call upon the claimant to file the proof of his claim with the Commissioner within the time specified in the advertisement.

(3) Every claimant, who fails to file the proof of his claim within the time specified by the Commissioner shall be excluded from the disbursement made by the Commissioner.

(4) The Commissioner shall, after such investigation as may, in his opinion, be necessary, and after giving the Company an opportunity of refuting the claim and after giving the claimant a reasonable opportunity of being heard, determine the nature and extent of such claims and admit or reject the claim in whole or in part. The Commissioner shall also decide any dispute as to the person or persons who are entitled to the amount and any dispute as to who are the legal representatives of any deceased claimant.

(5) The Commissioner shall have the power to regulate his own procedure in all matters arising out of the discharge, of his functions, and shall, for the purpose of making an investigation under this Act have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely.-
