(h) causes or attempts to cause any person to do any of the abovementioned acts, shall, on conviction, be punishable.

(i) for the first offence with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees;

(ii) for the second offence with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees; and

(iii) for any subsequent offence with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both.

(2) In any proceedings instituted under sub-section (1), an accused person shall not be deemed to be guilty if he proves that the lottery to which the proceedings relate was such a lottery as is not deemed to be an unlawful lottery or prize competition under Sections 5, 6, 7 or 8, as the case may be, and that at the date of the alleged offence the accused believed and had reasonable grounds for believing that there was no contravention of any of the conditions required by Section 5 or Section 6 or Section 7 to be observed in connection with the promotion and conduct of the lottery.

5. Licensed entertainment lotteries not unlawful :-

(1) A lottery promoted as an incident of an entertainment shall not be deemed to be an unlawful lottery, if the promoter thereof has obtained a licence in respect of such lottery.

(2) The following conditions shall be observed by the promoter in connection with the promotion and conduct of such lottery, namely.

(a) the whole proceeds of the entertainment (including the proceeds of the lottery) after deducting.

(i) the expenses of the entertainment, excluding expenses incurred in connection with the lottery;

(ii) the expenses incurred in printing tickets in the lottery; and

(iii) such sum (if any) not exceeding five hundred rupees as may be specified in the licence as expenses which may be incurred by the promoters in purchasing prizes in the lottery, shall be devoted to purposes other than private gain;

(b) none of the prizes in the lottery shall be money prizes;

(c) tickets or chances in the lottery shall not be sold or issued, nor shall the result of the lottery be declared, except on the premises on which the entertainment takes place and during the progress of the entertainment; and

(d) the facilities afforded for participating in lotteries shall not be the only, or the only substantial, inducement to persons to attend the entertainment.

(3) If any of the conditions specified in sub-section (2) is contravened, every person concerned in the promotion or conduct of the lottery shall, on conviction, be punishable.

(a) for the first offence with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees; and

(b) for the second offence with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees; and

Provided that in any proceeding under this section, it shall be a defence for a person charged to prove that the offence was committed without his knowledge.

Explanation. The entertainments to which this section applies are, bazaars, shandies, exhibitions, sales of work, exhibition of feats and other entertainments of a similar character, whether limited to one day or extending over two or more days.

6. Licensed private lotteries not unlawful :-

(1) A private lottery shall not be deemed to be an unlawful lottery, if the promoter thereof has obtained a licence in respect of such lottery.

(2) The following conditions shall be observed by the promoter in connection with the promotion and conduct of such lottery, namely.

(a) the whole proceeds, after deducting only expenses incurred for printing and stationary, shall be devoted to the provision of prizes for purchasers of winning tickets or chances, or, in the case of a lottery promoted for the members of a society, shall be devoted either to the provision of prizes as aforesaid or to purposes which are purposes of the society or, as to a part of the proceeds, to the provision of prizes as aforesaid and, as to the remainder, to such purposes as aforesaid;

(b) there shall not be exhibited, published or distributed any written notice or advertisement of the lottery other than.

(i) a notice thereof exhibited on the premises of the society for whose members it is promoted or, as the case may be on the premises on which the persons for whom it is promoted work or reside; and

(ii) such announcement or advertisement thereof as is contained in the tickets, if any;

(c) the price of every ticket or chance shall be the same and shall be stated on the ticket;

(d) every ticket shall bear upon the face of it the name and address of the promoters and a statement of the persons to whom the sale of tickets or chances by the promoters is restricted, and a statement that no prize won in the lottery shall be paid or delivered by the promoters to any person other than the person to whom the winning ticket or chance was sold by them, and no prize shall be paid or delivered except in accordance with that statement;

(e) no ticket or chance shall be issued or allotted by the promoters except by way of sale and upon receipt of the full price thereof, and no money or valuable thing so received by a promoter shall in any circumstance be returned; and

(f) no tickets in the lottery shall be sent through the post.

(3) If any of the conditions specified in sub-section (2) is contravened, each of the promoters of the lottery, and where the person by whom the condition is contravened, is not one of the promoters, that person also, shall, on conviction, be punishable.

(a) for the first offence with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees;

(b) for the second offence with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees; and

(c) for any subsequent offence with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both:

Provided that in any proceeding under this section, it shall be a defence for a person charged only by reason of his being a promoter of the lottery to prove that the offence was committed without his knowledge.

Explanation. For the purpose of this section.

(a) the expression "private lottery" means a lottery in the State which is promoted for and in which the sale of tickets or chances by the promoters is confined to, either.

(i) members of one society established and conducted for purposes not connected with gaming, wagering or lotteries; or

(ii) persons all of whom work on the same premises; or

(iii) persons all of whom reside on the same premises, and which is promoted by persons each of whom is a person to whom under the foregoing provisions tickets or chances may be sold by the promoters and, in the case of a lottery promoted for the members of a society, is a person authorised in writing by the governing body of the society to promote the lottery; and

(b) the expression "society" includes a club, institution, organisation or other association of persons by whatever name called and each local or affiliated branch or section of a society shall be regarded as a separate and distinct society.

7. Licensed charitable lotteries not unlawful :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the State Government may, in respect of a lottery promoted for the benefit of a charitable, religious or educational institution or organisation, grant a licence, subject to such conditions and on the payment of such fees or taxes as may be specified in the said licence, and such lottery shall not be deemed to be an unlawful lottery:

Provided that the rate of tax shall not be, in any case, higher than the rates set out in clause (a) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) of Section 12.

(2) If any of the conditions specified in any licence granted under sub-section (1) is contravened, each of the promoters of the lottery, and where the person by whom the condition is contravened, is not one of the promoters, that person also, shall, on conviction, be punishable.

(a) for the first offence with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees;

(b) for the second offence with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees; and

(c) for any subsequent offence with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both:

Provided that in any proceeding under this section, it shall be a defence for a person charged only by reason of his being a promoter of the lottery to prove that the offence was committed without his knowledge.
