PUBLIC LIABILITY INSURANCE RULES, 1991

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 23 of the Public Liability Insurance Act, 1991, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:

1. Short title and commencement :-

- (i) These rules may be called the Public Liability Insurance Rules, 1991.

2. Definitions :-

In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) "Act" means the Public Liability Insurance Act, 1991 (6 of 1991);
- (b) "Advisory Committee" means the committee constituted by the Central Government in accordance with Section 21 of the Act called the Public Liability Insurance Advisory Committee (PLIAC);
- (c) "Authorised physician" means any person registered under any Central Act or State Act providing for the maintenance of a register of medical practitioners or in any area where no such last mentioned Act is in force, any person declared by State Government by notification in the Official Gazette to be a qualified medical practitioner;

(d) ["Fund" means the Public Liability Insurance Fund established] and maintained by an owner in accordance with the proviso to sub-section (3) of Section 4 of the Act;

(e) Words and expression used in these rules but not defined and defined in the Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in these Acts.

3. Application for relief :-

An application for claim for relief shall be made to the Collector in Form I.

4. Documents that may be required :-

The claim application shall be made to the Collector in Form I accompanied by such of the following documents as may be applicable.

(i) Certificate of an authorised physician regarding disability or injury or illness caused by the accident;

(ii) Death Certificate and/or post-mortem report in the case of a fatal accident;

(iii) Certificate of the employer regarding loss of wages due to temporary or partial disability, with proof of hospitalisation for a period exceeding three days and certificate about the date of birth or age of victim;

(iv) Medical bills and receipts;

(v) Certificate of cost of repairs or replacement of private property damaged by the accident;

(vi) Any other documents which may have relevance to the claim.

5. Powers of Collector :-

(i) The Collector may follow such summary procedure for conducting an inquiry on an application for relief under the Act, as he thinks fit.

(ii) The Collector shall have all the powers of a civil court for the following purposes, namely,

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of documents;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavits;

(d) subject to the provisions of Sections 123 and 124 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, requisitioning any public record or documents or copy of such record or document from any office;

(e) issuing commissions for the examination of witness or documents;

(f) dismissing an application for default or proceeding ex parte;

(g) setting aside any order of dismissal of any application for default or any order passed by it ex parte;

(h) inherent powers of a civil court as saved under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

6. Establishment and Administration of Fund :-

[(1) An owner seeking exemption under sub-section (3) of Section 4 of the Act, shall with the prior approval of the Central Government create and maintain a Fund for an amount of Rs. 5 crores or for an amount equal to the paid up capital of the undertaking handling hazardous substances, whichever is less, in the State Bank of India or any of its subsidiaries or any nationalised Bank, and which will be available readily for meeting the liability of that owner under the Act.]

(2) The fund to be created shall be utilised for the purpose of meeting the liability arising out of any claim awarded against the owner who has created the fund and to discharge the amount awarded by the Collector.

(3) The fund shall be operated by an Administrator to be nominated by the owner. The owner shall notify the nomination of the administrator to the Central Government.

1. Sub-rule(1) substituted by GSR 391(E), dated 23-4-1993, w.e.f. 29-4-1993.

7. Miscellaneous :-

(1) The Collector shall maintain a register of the application for relief or claim petitions, and a register of awards and payment made thereunder.

(2) These registers shall be kept open to public inspection from 11.00 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on every working day.

(3) On a request from a concerned person, the Collector shall supply a copy of or extract from any particulars entered in the registers mentioned above to be a true copy or extract thereof.

(4) A copy of or extract from the register(s) of the Collector as certified under the hand of the Collector or any officer authorised to act in this

8. Directions :-

1 [(1) Any direction issued under Section 12 shall be in writing.

(2) The direction shall specify the nature of action to be taken and the time within which it shall be complied with by any owner, person, officer, authority or agency to whom such direction is given.

(3) The owner, person, officer, authority or agency to whom any direction is sought to be issued, shall be served with a copy of the proposed direction and shall be given an opportunity of not less than fifteen days from the date of service of the notice to file, with an officer designated in this behalf, the objections, if any, to the issue of the proposed direction.

(4) The Government shall within a period of forty-five days from the date of receipt of the objections, or from the date up to which an opportunity is given to the owner, person, officer, authority or agency to file objections, whichever is earlier after considering the objections, if any, received from the owner, person, officer, authority or an agency sought to be directed and for reasons to be recorded in writing, confirm, modify or decide not to issue the proposed direction.

(5) In a case where the Government is of the opinion that in view of the likelihood of a grave injury to the public it is not expedient to provide an opportunity to file objections against the proposed direction, it may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, issue directions without providing such an opportunity.

(6) Every notice or direction required to be issued under this rule shall be deemed to be duly served.

(a) where the person to be served is a company, if the document is addressed in the name of the company, at its registered office or at its principal office or place of business, and is either,

(i) sent by registered post; or

(ii) delivered or affixed at some conspicuous part of the premises at its registered office or at the principal office or place of business;

(b) where the person to be served is an officer serving in Government, if the document is addressed to the person and a copy thereof is endorsed to his Head of the Department and also to the Secretary to the Government, as the case may be, incharge of the Department in which, for the time being, the business relating to the Department, in which the officer is employed, is transacted and is either,

(i) sent by registered post; or

(ii) is given or tendered to him;

(c) in any other case, if the document is addressed to the person to be served, and

(i) is given or tendered to him; or

(ii) if such person cannot be found, is affixed on some conspicuous part of his last known place of residence or business, or is given or tendered to some adult member of his family or is affixed on some conspicuous part of the land or building, if any, to which it relates; or

(iii) is sent by registered post to that person.

Explanation. For the purpose of this rule

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals;
