Explanation.- For the purposes of this sub-section, the expressions, scheduled caste, scheduled tribes and other backward classes shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Kerala State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1958.

12. Determination Of Contribution :-

(1) The Fisheries Officer or any officer of the Board not below the rank of a Sub Inspector of Fisheries authorised by the Board in this behalf may, after making such inquiry as may be necessary and after giving every person liable to pay contribution under section 4 an opportunity to be heard, by order, determine the amount due from such person under that section.

(2) The officer conducting the inquiry under sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of such inquiry, have the same powers as the vested in a civil court, while trying a suit, under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely:-

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person or examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of documents ;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavit;

(d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses

(3) Any inquiry under this section shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 and for the purpose of section 196 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Central Act 45 of 1860).

(4) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (1) may prefer an appeal to the Director of Fisheries within sixty days from the date of receipt of the order and the Director of Fisheries may, after making such inquiry, pass such orders thereon as he thinks fit.

(5) The Government may, either suo-motu or on application of the aggrieved person, call for the record of any proceeding taken by the Director of Fisheries under sub-section (4) and make such enquiry and pass such orders, as they deem fit:

Provided that an application for revision under this Sub-section shall be made within thirty days from the date on which the order was communicated to the applicant:

Provided further that no order shall be passed under this sub-section without giving the person who may be affected thereby an opportunity to be heard.

13. Provisional Assessment And Collection Of Advance Contribution :-

(1) Every person liable to pay contribution under section 4 shall, pending determination under section 12 of the amount due from him, pay every month by way of advance contribution an amount equivalent to one-twelfth of the amount payable annually by him according to the latest determination under the said section :

Provided that the provisions of this Sub-section shall not apply to the payment of contribution by a fisherman or a dealer or the owner of a prawn filtration area or a fish farm for the period of three years from the commencement of this Act under the proviso to sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (5) of section 4 as the case may be.

(2) The advance contribution for a month shall become payable on or before the 5th day of the succeeding month.

(3) Where the advance contribution is not paid on or before the due date, the Fisheries Officer or any officer of the Board authorised by it in this behalf, shall issue a notice to the defaulter showing the amount of arrears, and if the amount is not paid within fifteen days of the receipt of such notice, it may be recovered in the same manner as arrears of public revenue due on land under the Revenue Recovery Act for the time being in force.

(4) The amount paid under this section for an year shall be adjusted against the amount determined under section 12 for that year.

14. Exemption :-

Government may, by notification in the Gazette, exempt any dealer, whose annual turnover from fish does not exceed Rs.24,000 per annum, from all or any of the provisions of this Act, subject to such condition as may be specified in the notification.

15. Power To Obtain Copies Of Records Etc., Maintained By A Fishermens Welfare Society :-

(1) Any officer of the Board not below the rank of a Fisheries Development Officer authorised by it in that behalf shall have power to peruse the books or registers or other records maintained by a Fishermens Welfare Society constituted under the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980 (7 of 1981) or to requisition the copy of a copy of any such book or register or other record or of any entry therein as may be specified in such requisition.

(2) The Fisheries Officer shall provide all facilities for the perusal of any book or register or other records by an officer under sub-section (1) and shall comply with any requisition made under that sub-section.

16. Mode Of Recovery Of Money Due Under The Act :-

Any amount due from any person under the provisions of this Act or the scheme may be recovered in the same manner as an arrear of public revenue due on land under the Revenue Recovery Act for the time being in force.

17. Protection Against Attachment :-

(1) The amount standing to the credit of any member in the fund shall not in any way be capable of being assigned or charged and shall not be liable to attachment under any decree or order of any court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the member and no receiver appointed under the Insolvency Act, 1955 (2 of 1956), shall be entitled to, or have any claim on, any such amount.

(2) Any amount standing to the credit of a member in the fund at the time of his death and payable to his nominee under the scheme shall, subject to any deduction authorised by the scheme, vest in the nominee and shall be free from any debt or other liability incurred by the deceased or the nominee before the death of the member.

18. Priority Of Payment Of Contributions Over Other Debt :-

Where any person liable to pay contribution under section 4 is adjudicated insolvent or, in case where such person is a company, an order for winding up is made, the amount due from such person under the scheme shall, where the liability therefor has accrued before the order of adjudication or winding up is made, be deemed to be included among the debts which under section 64 of the insolvency Act, 1955 (2 of 1956) or under section 530 of the Companies Act, 1956 (Central Act 1 of 1956) are to be paid in priority to all other debts in the distribution of the property of the insolvent or the assets of the company being wound up, as the case may be.

19. Penalty :-

(1) Whoever for the purpose of avoiding any payment to be made by himself under this Act or under the scheme or for enabling any other person to avoid such payment knowingly makes or causes to be made any false statement or false representation shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

(2) Whoever contravenes or makes default in complying with any of the provisions of this Act or of the scheme shall, if no other penalty is elsewhere provided by or under this Act for such contravention or non compliance, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extent to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(3) No court shall take cognisance of any offence punishable under this Act except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence made with the previous sanction of the Board, by the Director of Fisheries or by the Managing Director of the Kerala State Co-operative Federation for Fisheries Development or by such officer of the Board or Department of Fisheries not below the rank of Assistant Director of Fisheries, as may be specified in this behalf by the Board.

20. Offences By Companies :-

(1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, every officer of the company who is in default as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that in any proceeding against an officer of the company in respect of an offence under this Act it appears to the court hearing the case that the offence is not attributable to the negligence, default, breach of duty, misfeasance or breach of trust committed by the officer, but that he has acted honestly and reasonably and that having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including those connected with his appointment, he ought fairly to be excused, the court may relieve him either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as it may think fit.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any wilful negligence, default, breach of duty, misfeasance or breach of trust on the part of any officer of the company, such officer of the company shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this section,-

(a) company means any body corporate and includes a firm, a cooperative society or other association of individuals;

(b) director in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm ;

(c) officer of the company means the Managing Director, Director, Managing Agent, Secretary, Treasurer or Manager of the company and includes the office-bearers of a firm co-operative society or other association of individuals; and

(d) officer of the company who is in default means any officer of the company who is knowingly guilty of non-compliance, failure, or contravention of the provisions of this Act or the scheme, or who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such non-compliance, failure or contravention.

21. Power To Recover Damages :-

Where any person makes default in the payment of any contribution, the Board may recover from him damages not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the amount of arrear as they may think fit to impose.

22. Protection Of Acts Done In Good Faith :-

No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any member of the Board or any other person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or under the scheme.

23. Direction By Government :-

(1) The Government may, after consultation with the Board, give to the Board general directions to be followed by the Board.

(2) In the exercise of the powers and performance of its duties under this Act, the Board shall not depart from any general direction issued under sub-section (1) except with the previous permission of the Government.

24. Power To Order Inquiry :-

(1) The Government may, at any time, appoint any person to inquire into the working of the Board and to submit a report to the Government.

(2) The Board shall give the person so appointed all facilities for the proper conduct of the inquiry and furnish to him such documents, accounts or information in the possession of the Board as he may require.

25. Power To Erse The Board :-

(1) If, on consideration of the report under section 24 or otherwise, the Government are of opinion that the Board has persistently made default in the performance of the duties imposed on it by or under the provisions of this Act or the scheme or has exceeded or abused its powers, the Government may, by notification in the Gazette, erse the Board for such period not exceeding six months as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that before issuing a notification under this sub-section the Government shall give a reasonable opportunity to the Board to show cause why it should not be erased and shall consider the explanations and objections, if any, of the Board.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification under sub-section (1),-

(a) all the members of the Board shall, as from the date of such publication, vacate their offices as such members;

(b) all the powers and duties which may be exercised or performed by the Board shall, during the period of ersement be exercised or performed by such officer or officers as may be specified in the notification ;

(c) all funds and other properties vested in the Board shall during the period of ersement, vest in the Government.

(3) On the expiration of the period of ersement specified in the notification issued under sub-section (1), the Government shall reconstitute the Board in the manner provided in section 7.

26. Audit Of Accounts Of The Board :-

The Government shall appoint auditors to audit the accounts of the board.

27. Annual Report :-

(1) The annual report of the Board shall be prepared under the direction of the Board and after approval by the Board, a copy of the report shall be submitted to Government before the end of July every year.
