(4) The Councillors of every Municipality shall be elected by direct election]

(5) Specified seats shall be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in every Municipality. The number of seats to be reserved in a Municipality shall be determined by the Government. The number of seats so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in that Municipality as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the municipal area or of the Scheduled Tribes in the municipal area bears to the total population of that area and such seats may be allotted by rotation to different wards in a Municipality as the m[the State Election Commission or an officer authorised by it] may, determine for each general election: Provided that where the population of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes in a municipal area is not sufficient to make them eligible for the reservation of any seat, one seat shall be reserved in that Municipality for the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes having higher population.

(6) Not less than one-third of the total number of seats reserved under sub-section (5) shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes, or as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes:

Provided that where the number of seats reserved for the Scheduled Castes or as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes under sub-section (5) is only one, that seat need not be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes or, as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes. Not less than one-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in every Municipality shall be reserved by the Government for women and such seats may be allotted by rotation to different wards in a Municipality as the "[the State Election Commission or an officer authorised by it] may, by notification in the Gazette, determine for each general election.

(8) Nothing contained in sub-sections (5) to (7) shall be deemed to prevent persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes or Women from being a candidate to the election to the unreserved seats in a Municipality.

12[(9) The officer authorised in this behalf by the State Election Commission shall, by draw of lots, determine the wards to which seats reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes under sub-section (5) and for Women under sub-sections (6) and (7) are to be allotted by rotation at such time and on such date and at such place as may be notified by the Commission.

(10) Immediately after deciding the reserved wards under sub-section (9), the State Election Commission shall notify the list of wards so reserved, in the manner prescribed.]

7. Duration of Municipalities and tilling up of vacancies :-

(1) Every Municipality, unless sooner dissolved, shall continue for five years from the date appointed for its first meeting and no longer.

(2) An election to constitute a Municipality shall be completed,-

(a) before the expiry of its duration specified in sub-section (1); or

(b) before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of its dissolution; as the case may be:

Provided that where the remainder of the period for which the dissolved Municipality would have continued is less than six months, it shall not be necessary to hold any election for constituting the Municipality for such period.

(3) A Municipality constituted upon the dissolution of a Municipality before the expiration of its duration shall continue only for the remainder of the period for which the dissolved Municipality would have continued under sub-section(i), had it not be so dissolved.

13[(3 A) A casual vacancy in the office of a Councillor shall be reported directly by the Secretary concerned to the State Election Commission within seven days from the date of occurrence of that vacancy and the Secretary who fails to report so without proper reason shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and for which the State Election Commission shall have power to initiate the prosecution steps.]

(4) Election to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a Councillor shall be held by the State Election Commission 13A[within six months], after the occurrence of that vacancy; Provided that it shall not be necessary to hold an election to fill a vacancy, the duration of which is less than six months.

(6) A Councillor elected to fill a casual vacancy shall be eligible to hold office for the remaining term of the person in whose place he was elected.

8. Procedure where no Councillor is elected from any ward of a Municipality :-

(1) Where, for any reason, a Councillor could not be elected from any of the wards, at an election the State Election Commission shall hold an election within three months to elect a Councillor from that ward.

(2) The term of office of a Councillor elected under sub-section(1) shall be co-terminus with the term of the Municipality to which he is elected.

9. Reservation to be subject to Article 334 :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 6 and section 10, reservation of seats in the Municipalities and in the offices of Chairman or Mayor thereof, as the case may be, for the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period fixed in Article 334 for the reservation of seats for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in the State Legislative Assembly:

(e) the date before which the election shall be completed.

106. Public notice of election :-

On the issue of a notification under section 105, the Returning Officer shall give public notice of the intended election in such form and manner, as may be prescribed, inviting nominations of candidates for such election and specifying the place at which the nomination papers are to be delivered.

107. Nomination of candidates for election :-

Any person may be nominated as a candidate for election to fill a seat if he is qualified to be chosen to fill that seat under the provisions of this Act:

24A[Provided that a person nominated as a candidate for filling up a seat in a Municipality shall not be nominated as candidate in another ward of the same Municipality]

108. Presentation of nomination paper and requirements for a valid nomination :-

1. On or before the date appointed under clause (a) of section 105 each candidate shall, either in person or by his proposer, between the hours of eleven o'clock in the forenoon and three o'clock in the afternoon deliver to the Returning Officer at the place specified in this behalf in the notice issued under section 106 a nomination paper completed in the prescribed form and signed by the candidate and by an elector of the ward as proposer.

["(1A) Every candidate submitting nomination under subsection (1) shall not be deemed to be qualified to be elected to fill that post unless he submits, along with such nomination, the details regarding his educational qualification, criminal cases in which he is involved at the time of submission of nominations, property owned by him and other members of his family, liabilities including arrears due from him to any Public Sector Undertaking or Government or Local Self Government Institutions and whether disqualified for defection under the Kerala Local Authorities (Prohibition of Defection) Act, 1999 in the form and manner as may be prescribed".]

(2) In a ward where the seat is reserved for the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes a candidate shall not be deemed to be qualified to be chosen to fill that seat unless his nomination paper contains a declaration by him specifying the particular caste or tribe of which he is a member.

(3) Where the candidate is a person who, having held any office referred to in section 86 has been dismissed or removed and a period of five years has not elapsed since the dismissal or removal, such person shall not be deemed to be duly nominated as a candidate unless his nomination paper is accompanied by a certificate issued in the prescribed manner by the State Election Commission to the effect that he has not been dismissed or removed for corruption or disloyalty.

(4) On the presentation of a nomination paper, the Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the names and electoral roll numbers of the candidate and his proposer as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the electoral roll: Provided that no misnomer or inaccurate description or clerical, technical or printing error is regarded to the name of the candidate or his proposer or any other person or in regard to any place, mentioned in the electoral roll or the nomination paper and no clerical, technical or printing error in regard to the electoral roll numbers of any such person in the electoral roll or the nomination paper, shall affect the full operation of the electoral roll or the nomination paper with respect to such person or place in any case where the description in regard to the name of the person or place is such as to be commonly understood: and the Returning Officer shall permit any such misnomer or inaccurate description or clerical, technical or printing error to be corrected and were necessary, direct that any such misnomer, inaccurate description, clerical, technical or printing error in the electoral roll or in the nomination paper shall be overlooked.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prevent any candidate from being nominated by more than one nomination paper: Provided that not more than three nomination papers shall be presented by or on behalf of any candidate or accepted by the Returning Officer.

109. Deposits :-

(1) A candidate shall not be deemed to be duly nominated for election from a ward in a Municipality unless he deposits or causes to be deposited such sum as may be prescribed: Provided that in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, the amount of deposit shall be fifty percent of the amount prescribed: Provided further that where a candidate has been nominated by more than one nomination paper, not more than one deposit shall be required of him under this sub-section.

(2) Any sum required to be deposited under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to have been deposited under that sub-section unless, at the time of delivery of the nomination paper under sub-section (1) of section 108 the candidate has either deposited or caused to be deposited that sum with the Returning Officer in cash or enclosed with the nomination paper a receipt showing that the said sum has been deposited by him or on his behalf in the office of such authority as may be notified by the Government.

110. Notice of nominations and the time and place for their scrutiny :-

The Returning Officer shall, on receiving the nomination paper under sub-section (1) of section 108 inform the person or persons delivering the same, of the date, time and place fixed for the scrutiny of nominations and shall enter on the nomination paper its serial number, and shall sign thereon a certificate stating the date on which and the hour at which the nomination paper has been delivered to him; and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, cause to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office a notice of the nomination containing descriptions similar to those contained in the nomination paper, both of the candidate and for the proposer.

111. Scrutiny of nominations :-

(1) On the date fixed for the scrutiny of nominations under section 105 the candidates, their election agents, one proposer of each candidate and one other person duly authorised in writing by each candidate, but no other person, may attend at such time and place as the Returning Officer may appoint and the Returning Officer shall give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates which have been delivered within the time and the manner laid down in section 108.

(2) The Returning Officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made to any nomination and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary inquiry if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination on any of the following grounds, namely:-

(a) that on the date fixed for the scrutiny of nominations, the candidate is either not qualified or is disqualified for being chosen to fill the seat under any of the provisions of this Act;

(b) that there has been failure to comply with any of the provisions of section 108 or section 109; or

(c) that the signature of the candidate or the proposer on the nomination paper is n o t genuine.

(3) Nothing contained in clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (2) shall be deemed to authorise the rejection of the nomination of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper, if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(4) The Returning Officer shall not reject any nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of a substantial character.

(5) The Returning Officer shall hold the scrutiny on the date appointed in this behalf under clause (b) of section 105 and shall not allow any adjournment of the proceedings except when such proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence or by causes beyond his control:

Provided that in case an objection is raised by the Returning Officer or is made by any other person, the candidate concerned may be allowed time to rebut it not later than the next day but one following the date fixed for scrutiny, and the Returning Officer shall record his decision on the date to which the proceedings have been adjourned.

(6) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same and, if the nomination paper is rejected, shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection.

(7) For the purpose of this section, a certified copy of an entry in the electoral roll for the time being in force for a ward shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the person referred to in that entry is an elector in that ward, unless it is proved that he is subject to a disqualification mentioned in section 74.

(8) Immediately after all the nomination papers have been scrutinised and decisions accepting or rejecting the same have been recorded, the Returning Officer shall prepare a list of candidates whose nominations have been found valid and affix it to his notice board.

112. Withdrawal of candidature :-

(1) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by a notice in writing which shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed and shall be subscribed by him and delivered before three O'clock in the afternoon on the day fixed under clause (c) of section 105 to the Returning Officer either by such candidate in person or by his proposer, or election agent who has been authorised in this behalf in writing by such candidate.

(2) No person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-section (1) shall be allowed to cancel the notice.

(3) The Returning Officer shall, on being satisfied as to the genuineness of a notice of withdrawal and the identity of the person delivering it under sub-section (1), cause the notice to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office and in the office of the Municipality concerned,

113. Publication of list of contesting candidates :-

(1) Immediately after the expiry of the period within which candidature may be withdrawn under sub-section (1) of section 112 the Returning Officer shall prepare and publish in such form and manner as may be prescribed a list of contesting candidates.

(2) The said list shall contain the names in Malayalam alphabetical order and the addresses of the contesting candidates as given in the nomination papers together with such other particulars, as may be prescribed.

114. Election agents :-

A candidate at an election may appoint in the prescribed manner a person to be his election agent and when any such appointment is made, notice of the appointment shall be given in the prescribed manner, to the Returning Officer.

115. Disqualification for being an election agent :-

A person who is for the time being disqualified under this Act for being a Councillor shall be disqualified for being an election agent at any election.

116. Revocation of the appointment, or death of an election agent :-

(1) Any revocation of the appointment of an election agent, shall be signed by the candidate, and shall operate from the date on which it is lodged with the Returning Officer.

(2) In the event of such a revocation or of the death of an election agent, whether that event occurs before or during the election, or after the election but before the account of the candidates election expenses has been lodged in accordance with the provisions of section 142 the candidate may appoint in the prescribed manner another person to be his election agent and when such appointment is made notice of the appointment shall be given in the prescribed manner to the Returning Officer.

117. Functions of election agents :-

An election agent may perform such functions in connection with the election as are authorised by or under this Act to be performed by an election agent.

118. Appointment of polling agents :-

A contesting candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner, such number of agents and relief agents, as may be prescribed, to act as polling agents of such candidate at each polling station provided under section 101.

119. Appointment of counting agents :-

A contesting candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner one or more persons, but not exceeding such number, as may be prescribed, to be present as his counting agent or agents at the counting of votes, and when any such appointment is made, notice of the appointment shall be given in the prescribed manner to the Returning Officer.

120. Revocation of the appointment or death, of a polling agent or counting agent :-

(1) Any revocation of the appointment of a polling agent shall be signed by the candidate or his election agent and shall operate from the date on which it is lodged with such officer as may be prescribed, and in the event of such a revocation or of the death of a polling agent before the close of the poll, the candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner another polling agent at any time before the poll is closed and shall forthwith give notice of such appointment, in the prescribed manner, to such officer as may be prescribed.

(2) Any revocation of the appointment of the counting agent shall be signed by the candidate or his election agent and shall operate from the date on which it is lodged with the Returning Officer, and in the event of such a revocation or of the death of a counting agent before the commencement of counting of votes, the candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner another counting agent at any time before the counting of votes is commenced and shall forthwith give notice of such appointment, in the prescribed manner, to the Returning Officer.

121. Functions of polling agents and counting agents :-

(1) A polling agent may perform such functions in connection with the poll as are authorised by or under this Act, to be performed by a polling agent.

(2) A counting agent may perform such functions in connection with the counting of votes as are authorised by or under this Act to be performed by a counting agent.

122. Attendance of a contesting candidate or his election agent at polling stations, and performance by him of the functions of a polling agent or counting agent :-

(1) At every election where a poll is taken, each contesting candidate at such election and his election agent shall have a right to be present at any polling station provided under section 101 for the taking of the poll.

(2) A contesting candidate or his election agent may himself do any act or thing which any polling agent or the counting agent of such contesting candidate, if appointed, would have been authorised by or under this Act to do, or may assist any polling agent or the counting agent of such contesting candidate in doing any such act or thing.

123. Non-attendance of polling or counting agents :-

Where any act or thing is required or authorised by or under this Act to be done in the presence of the polling or counting agents, the non-attendance of any such agent or agents at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate the act or thing done.

124. Death of candidate before poll :-

Where a candidate whose nomination has been found valid on scrutiny under section 111 and who has not withdrawn his candidature under section 112 dies and a report of his death is received before the publication of the list of contesting candidates under section 113 or where a contesting candidate dies and a report of his death is received before the commencement of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the State Election Commission and also to the Government and all proceeding with reference to the election shall be commenced anew in all respects as if for a new election: Provided that no further nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person who was a contesting candidate at the time of the countermanding of the poll: Provided further that no person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-section (1) of section 112 before the countermanding of the poll shall be24B [ineligible] for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding.

125. Procedure in. contested and uncontested elections :-

- (1) Where the number of contesting candidates for a ward is more than one, a poll shall be taken.
- (2) Where there is only one candidate for a ward, the Returning Officer shall declare him to be duly elected.
- (3) Where there is no candidate, election proceedings shall be started afresh for filling up the vacancy in all respects as if for a new election.

126. Fixing time for poll :-

The State Election Commission shall fix the hours during which the poll will be taken; and the hours so fixed shall be published in such manner, as may be prescribed:

Provided that the total period allotted on any one day for polling at an election in a ward shall not be less than eight hours between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m .

127. Adjournment of poll in emergencies :-

- (1) If at an election the proceedings at any polling station provided under section 101 for the poll are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or open violence, or if at an election it is not possible to take the poll at any polling station on account of any natural calamity, or any other sufficient cause, the Presiding Officer for such polling station or the Returning Officer presiding over such place, as the case may be, shall announce an adjournment of the poll to a date to be notified later, and where the poll is so adjourned by a Presiding Officer, he shall forthwith inform the Returning Officer concerned.
- (2) Whenever a poll is adjourned under sub-section (1), the Returning Officer, shall immediately report the circumstances to the State Election Commission, and shall, as soon as may be, with the previous approval of the State Election Commission, appoint the day on which the poll shall recommence, and fix the polling station or place at which, and hours during which the poll will be taken, and shall not count the votes cast at such election until such adjourned poll shall have been completed.
- (3) In every such case as aforesaid, the Returning Officer shall notify in such manner as the State Election Commission may direct the date, place and hours of polling fixed under sub-section (2).

128. Fresh poll in the case of destruction, etc., of ballot boxes :-

(1) If at any election-

(a) any ballot boxes used at a polling station or at a place fixed for the polls is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the Presiding Officer or the Returning Officer, or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed or lost, or is damaged or tampered with, to such an extent, that the result of the poll at that polling station or place cannot be ascertained; or

(aa) any voting machine develops a mechanical failure during the course of recording votes; or

(b) any such error or irregularity in procedure as is likely to vitiate the poll is committed at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll, the Returning Officer shall forthwith report the matter to the State Election Commission.

(2) Thereupon the State Election Commission shall, after taking all material circumstances into account; either-

(a) declare the poll at that polling station or place to be void, appoint a day, and fix the hours; for taking a fresh poll at that polling station or place and notify the day so appointed and the hours so fixed in such manner as it may deem fit; or

(b) if satisfied that the result of a fresh poll at that polling station or place will not, in any way, affect the result of the election or that the error or irregularity ["or the mechanical failure developed in the voting machine"] in procedure is not material, issue such directions to the Returning Officer as it may deem proper for the further conduct of and completion of the election.

(3) The provisions of this Act and of any rules or orders made there under shall apply to every such fresh poll as they apply to the original poll.

129. Adjournment of poll or countermanding of election on the ground of boothcapturing :-

(1) If at any election-

(a) booth-capturing has taken place at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll (hereafter in this section referred to as a place) in such a manner that the result of the poll at that polling station or place cannot be ascertained; or

(b) booth-capturing takes place in any place for counting of votes in such a manner that the result of the counting at that place cannot be ascertained, the Returning Officer shall forthwith report the matter to the State Election Commission.

(2) The State Election Commission shall, on receipt of a report from the Returning Officer under sub-section (1) and after taking all material circumstances into account, either-

(a) declare that the poll at that polling station or place be void, appoint a day, and fix the hours, for taking fresh poll at that polling station or place and notify the date so appointed and hours so fixed in such manner as it may deem fit; or

(b) if satisfied that in view of the large number of polling stations or places involved in booth-capturing, the result of the election is likely to be affected, or that booth-capturing had affected counting of votes in such a manner as to affect the result of the election, countermand the election.

Explanation.- In this section, "booth-capturing" shall have the same meaning as in section 161.

130. Manner of voting at elections :-

CHAPTER 9 CORRUPT PRACTICES AND ELECTORAL OFFENCES

144. Corrupt practices :-

The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act-

(1) "Bribery", that is to say,-

(A) Any gift, offer or promise by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent of any gratification, to any person whomsoever, with the object, directly or indirectly of inducing,-

(a) a person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at an election, or

(b) an elector to vote or refrain from voting at an election, or as a reward to-

(i) a person for having so stood or not stood, or for having withdrawn or run having withdrawn his candidature; or

(ii) an elector for having voted or refrained from voting;

(B) The receipt of, or agreement to receive, any gratification, whether as a motive or a reward-fa) by a person for standing or not standing as, or for withdrawing or not withdrawing from being, a candidate ; or

(b) by any person whomsoever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or inducing or attempting to induce any elector to vote or refrain from voting, or any candidate to withdraw or not to withdraw his candidature.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this clause the term "gratification" is not restricted to pecuniary gratifications or gratifications estimable in money and it includes all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward but it does not include the payment of any expenses bonafide incurred at, or for the purpose of, any election and duly entered in the account of election expenses referred to in section 141.

(2) Undue influence, that is to say, any direct or indirect interference or attempt to interfere on the part of the candidate or his agent, or of any other person with the consent of the candidate or his election agent, with the free exercise of any electoral right: Provided that(

a) without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this clause any such person as is referred to therein who-

(i) threatens any candidate or any elector, or any person in whom a candidate or an elector is interested, with injury of any kind including social ostracism and ex-communication or expulsion from any caste or community; or

(ii) induces or attempts to induce a candidate or an elector to believe that he, or any person in whom he is interested, will become or will be rendered an object of divine displeasure or spiritual censure, shall be deemed to interfere with the free exercise or the electoral right of such candidate or elector within the meaning of this clause;

(b) a declaration of public policy, or a promise of public action, or the mere exercise of a legal right without intent to interfere with an electoral right shall not be deemed to be interference within the meaning of this clause.

(3) The appeal by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent to vote or refrain from voting for any person on the ground of his religion, race, caste, community or language or the use of, or appeal to religious symbols or the use of, or appeal to, national symbols such as the national flag or the national emblem, for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate:

Provided that no symbol allotted under any rules made under this Act to a candidate shall be deemed to be a religious symbol or a national symbol for the purpose of this clause.

(4) The promotion of, or attempt to promote, feelings of enmity or hatred between different classes of the citizens of India on grounds of religion, race, caste, community or language, by a candidate or his agent or any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate.

(5) The publication by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, with the consent of the candidate or his election agent of any statement of fact which is false, and which he either believes to be false or does not believe to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate, or in relation to the candidature, or withdrawal, of any candidate, being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of that candidates election.

(6) The hiring or procuring, whether on payment or otherwise, of any vehicle or vessel by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent, or the use of such vehicle or vessel for the free conveyance of any elector (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station provided under section 101: Provided that the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by an elector or by several electors at their joint costs for the purpose of conveying him or them to and from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power: Provided further that the use of any public transport, vehicle or vessel or any tramcar or railway carriage by any elector at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause. Explanation.- In this clause, the expression Vehicle means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

(7) The incurring or authorising of expenditure in contravention of section 141.

(8) The obtaining or procuring or abetting or attempting to obtain or procure by a candidate or his agent or, by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent, any assistance (other than the giving of vote) for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidates election, from any person in the service of a local authority or of Government belonging to any of the following classes, namely;-

- (a) gazetted officers;
- (b) members of the police forces;
- (c) excise officers;
- (d) revenue officers; and

(e) such other class of persons in the service of the Government as may be prescribed: Provided that where any person, in the service of a local authority or of the Government and belonging to any of the classes aforesaid, in the discharge or purported discharge of his official duty, makes any arrangements or provides any facilities or does any other act or thing, for, to, in relation to, any candidate or his election agent or any other person acting with the consent of the candidate or his election agent, (whether by reason of the office held by the candidate or for any other reason), such arrangements, facilities or acts or things shall not be deemed to be assistance for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidates election..

(9) Booth-capturing by a candidate or his agent or other person acting with the consent of the candidate or his election agent,

Explanation I.- In this section the expression "agent" includes an election agent, a polling agent and any person who is held to have acted as an agent in connection with the election with the consent of the candidate.

Explanation II.- For the purposes of clause (8), a person shall be deemed to assist in the furtherance of the prospects of a candidates election if he acts as an election agent of that candidate.

Explanation III.- For the purposes of clause (8), notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, the publication in the Gazette of the appointment, resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service of a person in the service of the Government or of a local authority shall be conclusive proof-

(1) of such appointment, resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service, as the case may be; and

(ii) where the date of taking effect of such appointment, resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service, as the case may be, is stated in such publication, also of the fact that such person was appointed with effect from the said date, or in the case of resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service, such person ceased to be in such service with effect from the said date.

Explanation IV.- For the purposes of clause (9), "booth-capturing" shall have the same meaning as in section 161.

145. Promoting enmity between classes in connection with election :-

Any person who, in connection with an election under this Act, promotes or attempts to promote on grounds of religion, race, caste, community or language, feelings of enmity or hatred, between different classes of the citizens of India shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both.

146. Prohibition of public meetings on the day preceding the election day and on the election day :-

147. Disturbances at election meetings :-

(1) Any person who at a public meeting to which this section applies, acts or incites others to act in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting was called together, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) This section applies to any public meeting of a political character held in any ward between the date of the issue of a notification under this Act calling upon that ward to elect a Councillor and the date on which such election is held.

(3) If any police officer reasonably suspects any person of committing an offence under sub-section (1) he may, if requested so to do by the chairman of the meeting, require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address, and if that person refuses or fails so to declare his name and address, or if the police officer reasonably suspects him of giving a false name or address, the police officer may arrest him without warrant.

148. Restrictions on the printing of pamphlets, posters, etc :-

(1) No person shall print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any election pamphlet or poster which does not bear on its face the names and addresses of the printer and the publisher thereof.

(2) No person shall print or cause to be printed any election pamphlet or posterfa) unless, a declaration as to the identity of the publisher thereof, signed by him and attested by two persons to whom he is personally known, is delivered by him to the printer in duplicate; and

(b) unless within a reasonable time after the printing of the document, one copy of the declaration is send by the printer, together with one copy of the document printed to such officer as may be authorised by the State Election Commission in this behalf.

(3) For the purposes of this section,-

(a) any process for multiplying copies of a document, other than copying it by hand, shall be deemed to be printing and the expression printer shall be construed accordingly; and

(b) "election pamphlet or poster" means any printed pamphlet, hand bill of other document distributed for the purpose of promoting or prejudicing the election of a candidate or a group of candidates or any placard or poster having reference to an election, but does not include any hand bill, placard or poster merely announcing the date, time, place and other particulars of an election meeting or routine instructions to election agents or workers.

(4) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both.

149. Maintenance of secrecy of voting :-

(1) Every officer, agent or other person who performs any duty in connection with the recording or counting of votes at an election shall maintain, and aid in maintaining, the secrecy of the voting and shall not (except for some purpose authorised by or under any law) communicate to any person any information calculated to violate such secrecy.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section(I) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which shall not be less than one thousand rupees or with both.

150. Officers etc., at election not to act for candidates or to influence voting :-

(1) No person who is a District Election Officer or a Returning Officer or an Assistant Returning Officer or a Presiding or Polling Officer at an election, or an officer performing any duty in connection with an election shall, in the conduct or the management of the election, do any act (other than the giving of vote) for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of a candidate.

(2) No such person as aforesaid, and no member of a police force, shall endeavour-

(a) to persuade any person to give his vote at an election, or

(b) to dissuade any person from giving his vote at an election, or

(c) to influence the voting of any person at an election in any manner.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (3) shall be cognizable.

151. Prohibition of canvassing in or near polling station :-

(f) without due authority destroys, takes, opens or otherwise interferes with any ballot box or ballot papers then in use for the purposes of the election; or

(g) fraudulently or without due authority, as the case may be, attempts to do any of the foregoing acts or wilfully aids or abets the doing of any such acts.

(2) Any person guilty of an electoral offence under this section shall,-

(a) if he is a Returning Officer or an Assistant Returning Officer or a Presiding Officer at a polling station or any other officer or employee on official duty in connection with the election, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine or with both;

(b) if he is any other person, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be on official duty if his duty is to take part in the conduct of an election or part of an election including the counting of votes or to be responsible after an election for the used ballot papers and other documents in connection with such election, but the expression official duty shall not include any duty imposed otherwise than by or under this Act.

CHAPTER 10 DISPUTES REGARDING ELECTION

163. Election petitions :-

No election shall be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

164. The Court competent to try election petitions :-

The court having jurisdiction to try an election petition shall be the Munsiff's Court having jurisdiction over the place in which the office of the Municipality is located.

165. Presentation of petitions :-

(1) An election petition calling in question any election may be presented on one or more of the grounds specified in section 178 and section 179, to the Munsiffs Court by any candidate at such election or any elector within thirty days from, but not earlier than, the date of election of the returned candidate. Explanation.- In this sub-section, "elector" means a person who was entitled to vote at the election to which the election petition relates, whether he has voted at such election or not.

(2) Every election petition shall be accompanied by as many copies thereof as there are respondents mentioned in the petition and every such copy shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signature to be a true copy of the petition.

166. Parties to the petition :-

A petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition,-

(a) where the petitioner, in addition to claiming a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void, claims a further declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected, all the contesting candidates other than the petitioner, and where no such further declaration is claimed, the returned candidate; and

(b) any other candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in the petition.

167. Contents of petition :-

(1) An election petition,-

(a) shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;

(b) shall set forth full particulars of any corrupt practice that the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practice and the date and place of the commission of each such practice; and

(c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) for the verification of pleadings: Provided that where the petitioner alleges any corrupt practice, the petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof.

(2) Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner and verified in the same manner as the petition.

168. Relief that may be claimed by the petitioner :-

A petitioner may, in addition to claiming a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void, claim a further declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected.

169. Trial of election petitions :-

(1) The Court shall dismiss an election petition which does not comply with the provisions of section 165 or section 166 or section 191. Explanation.- An order of the court dismissing an election petition under this subsection shall be deemed to be an order made under clause (a) of section 176.

(2) Where more election petitions than one are presented to the court in respect of the same election, the court may, in its discretion, try them separately or in one or more groups.

(3) Any candidate not already a respondent shall, upon application made by him to the court within fourteen days from the date of commencement of the trial and subject to any order as to security for costs which may be made by the court, be entitled to be joined as a respondent.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this sub-section and section 176 the trial of a petition shall be deemed to commence on the date fixed for the respondents to appear before the court and answer the claim or claims made in the petition.

(4) The court may upon such terms as to cause and otherwise as it may deem fit, allow the particulars of any corrupt practice alleged in the petition to be amended or amplified in such manner, as may, in its opinion, be necessary for ensuring a fair and effective trial of the petition, but shall not allow any amendment of the petition which will have the effect of introducing particulars of a corrupt practice not previously alleged in the petition.

(5) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date on which the election petition is presented to the court for trial.

170. Procedure before the court :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder, every election petition shall be tried by the court, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the procedure applicable under the Code of Civil Procedure ,1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) to the trial of suits:

Provided that the court shall have the discretion to refuse, for reasons to be recorded in writing, to examine any witness or witnesses if it is of the opinion that the evidence of such witness or witnesses is not material for the decision of the petition or that the party tendering such witness or witnesses is doing so in frivolous ground or with a view to delay the proceedings.

(2) The provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act 1 of 1872), shall, subject to the provisions of this Act , be deemed to apply in all respects to the trial of an election petition.

171. Documentary evidence :-

Notwithstanding anything in any enactment to the contrary, no document shall be inadmissible in evidence at the trial of an election petition on the ground that it is not duly stamped or registered.

172. Secrecy of voting not be infringed :-

No witness or other person shall be required to state for whom he has voted at an election.

173. Answering of criminating questions and certificate of indemnity :-

(1) No witness shall be excused from answering any question as to any matter relevant to a matter in issue in the trial of an election petition upon the ground that the answer to such question may criminate or may tend to criminate him, or that it may expose or may tend to expose him to any penalty or forfeiture: Provided that-

(a) a witness, who answers truly all questions which he is required to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity from the court;

(b) an answer given by a witness to a question put by or before the court shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence, be admissible in evidence against him in any civil or criminal proceeding.

(2) Where a certificate of indemnity has been granted to any witness it may be pleaded by him in any court and shall be a full and complete defence to or upon any charge under Chapter IX A of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act 45 of 1860), or Chapter IX of this Act arising out of the matter to which such certificate relates, but it shall not be deemed to relive him from any disqualification in connection with an imposed by this Act or any other law

174. Expenses of witnesses :-

The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending to give evidence may be allowed by the court to such person and shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be deemed to be part of the costs.

175. Recrimination when seat claimed :-

(1) Where in an election petition a declaration that any candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected is claimed . the returned candidate or any other party may give evidence to prove that the election of such candidate would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented calling in question his election: Provided that the returned candidate or such other party, as aforesaid shall not be entitled to give such evidence unless he has, within fourteen days from the date of commencement of the trial, given notice to the court of his intention to do so and has also given the security and the further security referred to in sections 191 and 192 respectively.

(2) Every notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by the statement and particulars required by section 167 in the case of an election petition and shall be signed and verified in like manner.

176. Decision of Court :-

At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the court shall make an order-

- (a) dismissing the election petition; or
- (b) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void; or
- (c) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected.

177. Other orders to be made by court :-

At the time of making an order under section 176, the court shall also make an order-

(a) where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, recording(i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election, and the nature of that corrupt practice; and

(ii) the names of all persons, if any, who has been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice; and

(b) fixing the total amount of costs payable and specifying the persons by and to whom costs shall be paid:

Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause(a) unless,-

(j) he has been given notice to appear before the court and to show cause why he should not be so named; and

(ii) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross examining any witness who has already been examined by the court and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

178. Grounds for declaring election to be void :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) if the court is of opinion-

(a) that on the date of his election a returned candidate was not qualified, or was disqualified, to be chosen to fill the seat under this Act; or

(b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by a returned candidate or his election agent or by any other person with the consent of a returned candidate or his election agent; or

(c) that any nomination has been improperly rejected; or

(d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected-

(1) by the improper acceptance of any nomination; or

(ii) by any corrupt practice committed in the interests of the returned candidate by an agent other than his election agent; or

(iii) by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void ; or

(iv) by any noncompliance with the provisions of this Act or of any rules or orders made there under, the court shall declare that the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(2) If in the opinion of the court, a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent, other than his election agent, of any corrupt practice but the court is satisfied -

(a) that no such corrupt practice was committed at the election by the candidate or his election agent, and every such corrupt practice was committed contrary to the orders, and without the consent, of the candidate or his election agent;

(b) that the candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practices at the election; and

(c) that in other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agents, then, the court may decide that the election of the returned candidate is not void. Explanation.- In this section the term agent has the same meaning as in section 114.

179. Grounds on which a candidate other than the returned candidate may be declared to have been elected :-

Where any person who has lodged a petition has, in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claimed a declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected and the court is of opinion-

(a) that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes; or

(b) that, but for the votes obtained by the returned candidate by the corrupt practices, the petitioner or such other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes, the court shall after declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void, declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected.

180. Procedure in case of an equality of votes :-

When during the trial of an election petition it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidates at the election and that the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, thenfa) any decision made by the returning officer under the provisions of this Act shall, in so far as it determines the question between those candidates, be effective also for the purposes of the petition; and

(b) in so far as that question is not determined by such a decision the court shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one on whom the lot then falls had received an additional vote.

181. Communication of orders of court :-

The court shall, as soon as may be after the conclusion of trial of an election petition, intimate the substance of the order of the State Election Commission and the Chairperson of the Municipality concerned and, as soon as may be, thereafter, shall send to the State Election Commission an authenticated copy of the order.

182. Transmission of order to the appropriate authority, etc :-

and its publication.-

As soon as may be after the receipt of any order made by the court under section 176 or section 177, the State Election Commission shall forward copies of the order to the Chairperson of the Municipality concerned and, shall cause the order to be published in such manner as the State Election Commission may deem fit.

183. Effect of orders of the court :-

(1) An order under section 176 or section 177 shall take effect as soon as it is pronounced by the court.

(2) Where by an order under section 176 the election of a returned candidate is declared to be void, acts and proceedings of a Municipality in which that returned candidate has, before the date thereof, participated as Councillor shall not be invalidated by reason of that order, nor shall such candidate be subjected to any liability or penalty on the ground of such participation.

184. Withdrawal of election petitions :-

(1) An election petition may be withdrawn only by leave of the court and on an application made in that behalf.

(2) Where an application for withdrawal is made under sub-section (1) notice thereof fixing a date for the hearing of the application shall be given to all parties to the petition and to the Municipality concerned which shall publish the same in the office of that Municipality.

185. Procedure for withdrawal of election petition :-

(1) Where there are more petitioners than once, on application to withdraw an election petition shall be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

(2) No application for withdrawal shall be granted if, in the opinion of the court, such application has been induced by any bargain or consideration which ought not to be allowed.

(3) Where the application is granted-

(a) the petitioner shall be ordered to pay the costs of the respondents theretofore incurred or such

179. Grounds on which a candidate other than the returned candidate may be portion thereof as the court may think fit;

(.b) the court shall direct that the notice of withdrawal shall be published in the office of the court and also in the office of the Municipality concerned;

(c) a person who might himself have been a petitioner may, within fourteen days of such publication apply to be substituted as petitioner in the place of the party withdrawing, and upon compliance with the conditions, if any, as to security, shall be entitled to be so substituted and to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the court may deem fit.

186. Report of withdrawal by the court to the State Election Commission :-

Where an application for withdrawal is granted by the court and no person has been substituted as petitioner under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 185 in the place of the party withdrawing. the court shall report the fact to the State Election Commission.

187. Abatement of the election petitions :-

(1) An election petition shall abate only on the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners.

(2) Where an election petition abates under sub-section (1), the court shall cause a notice of the abatement be published in the office of the court, in the office of the State Election Commission and in the office of the Municipality concerned.

(3) Any person who might himself have been a petitioner may, within fourteen days of such publication, apply to be substituted as petitioner and upon compliance with the conditions. if any, as to security shall be entitled to be so substituted and to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the court may deem fit.

188. Abatement or substitution on death of respondent :-

Where, before the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the sole respondent dies or gives notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition or any of the respondents dies or gives such notice and there is no other respondent who is opposing the petition, the court shall cause notice of such event to be published in the office of the court, in the office of the State Election Commission and in the office of the Municipality concerned and thereupon any person who might have been a petitioner may, within fourteen days of such publication, apply to be substituted in place of such respondent to oppose the petition, and shall be entitled to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the court may think fit.

189. Appeals :-

(I) Any person aggrieved by an order made by the court under section 176 or section 177 may prefer an appeal to the District Court on any question whether of law or of fact.

(2) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of the court under section 176 or section 177: Provided that the District Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

190. Procedure in appeal :-

(I) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the rules, if any made there under the District Court may dispose of the appeal in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) for the hearing of appeals and the decision of the District Court in the appeal shall be final.

(2) As soon as an appeal is decided, the District Court shall intimate the substance of the decision (o the State Election Commission and the Chairperson of the Municipality concerned and as soon as may be, thereafter shall send to the State Election Commission an authenticated copy of the decision; and upon its receipt, the State Election Commission shall-

(a) forward a copy thereof to the Chairperson of the Municipality concerned.

(b) cause the decision to be published in such manner as the State Election Commission may deem fit.

191. Security for costs :-

(1) At the time of presenting an election petition, the petitioner shall deposit in the Munsiff's Court a sum of one thousand rupees as security or enclose with the petition a Government treasury receipt showing that the deposit of the said amount has been made by him in a Government treasury in favour of the Munsiff as security for the costs of the petition.

(2) During the course of the trial of an election petition, the court may, at any time, call upon the petitioner to give such further security for costs as it may direct and if the petitioner fails to do so dismiss the petition.

192. Security for costs from a respondent :-

No person shall be entitled to be joined as a respondent under subsection (3) of section 169 unless he has given such security for costs as the court may direct.

193. Costs :-

Costs shall be in the discretion of the court, provided that where a petition is dismissed under clause (a) of section 176, the returned candidate shall be entitled to the costs incurred by him in contesting the petition and accordingly the court shall make an order for costs in favour of the returned candidate.

194. Payment of costs out of security deposits and return of such deposits :-

(1) Where in any order as to costs under the provisions of this Chapter there is a direction for payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not been already paid, be paid in full or so far as possible, out of the security deposit and the further security deposit, if any, made by such party under this Chapter on an application made in writing in that behalf within a period of one year, from the date of such order to the court by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded.

(2) Where there is any balance left out of any of the said security deposits after payment under subsection (1) of the costs referred to in that sub-section, such balance, or where no costs have been awarded or no application as aforesaid has been made within the said period of one year the whole of the said security deposits may, on an application made in that behalf in writing to the court by the person by whom the deposits have been made, or if such person dies after making such deposits, by the legal representative of such person, be returned to the said person or to his legal representative, as the case may be.

195. Execution of orders as to costs :-

Any order as to costs under the provisions of this Chapter may be produced before the principal civil court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay any sum of money has a place of residence or business, and such court shall execute the order or cause the same to be executed in the same manner and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit:

Provided that where any such costs or any portion thereof may be recovered by an application made under sub-section(1) of section 194 no application shall lie under this section within a period of one year from the date of such order unless it is for the recovery of the balance of any costs which has been left unrealised after an application has been made under that sub-section owing to the insufficiency of the amount of the security deposits referred to in that sub-section.

- (3) A Municipality may exempt any building or land from the whole or any portion of the sanitary tax if it is satisfied that the owner or occupier has made efficient and satisfactory arrangements for the daily removal therefrom of rubbish, filth and carcasses of animals.

- (4) 56[x x x x]

- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, in the case of properties exempted from property tax under "[sub section (1)], the Municipality shall be entitled to claim the cost of services covered by the service taxes.

236. Taxation to be uniform :-

The rate of any class of property tax on lands when levied on their annual value under sub-section (3) of section 233 may be lower than the rate of the same class of property tax on buildings, but either rate shall be uniform throughout the municipal area on all buildings or on lands liable to be so taxed on their annual value, as the case may be.

237. Property tax, first charge on property :-

The property tax on buildings and lands shall, subject to the prior payment of land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon, be a first charge upon the said buildings or lands and upon the movable property, if any, found within or upon the same and belonging to the person liable to such tax.

238. Revision and time of payment of property tax :-

Subject to the rules made by Government the property tax shall be assessed and the half-yearly tax determined 58[once in every four years] and the half-yearly tax shall be payable by the owner of the assessed property within thirty days of the commencement of each half-year: Provided that except in the case of substantial improvements or addition to an existing building since the last assessment, the annual value of any building shall not exceed the limit, if any, fixed by the Government from time to time.

239. Vacancy remission :-

- 1) When any building whether ordinarily let or occupied by the owner himself has been vacant and unlet for a half-year, the owner shall be entitled to a remission of tax for that half-year.
- (2) If the owner had already paid the tax in respect of a half-year in which a remission is due, he shall be entitled to get either refund or shall be entitled to get the amount adjusted in the tax for the succeeding half-year.
- (3)(a) No such remission shall be admissible unless the owner of the building or his agent has previously thereto delivered notice to the Secretary-
 - (i) that the building is vacant and unlet, or
 - (ii) that the building will be vacant and unlet from a specified date either in the half-year in which notice is delivered or in the succeeding half-year.
- (b) Every notice under clause (a) shall expire with the half-year succeeding the half-year during which it is so delivered and shall have no effect thereafter.

240. Obligation of transferor and transferee to give notice, of transfer :-

- (I) Whenever the title of any person primarily liable to the payment of property tax on any premises to or over such premises is transferred, the person whose title is transferred and the person to whom the same shall be transferred shall, within three months after the execution of the instrument of transfer or after its registration if it be registered or, after the transfer is effected, if no instrument be executed, give notice of such transfer to the Secretary.

(2) In the event of the death of any person primarily liable as aforesaid, the person to whom the title of the deceased shall devolve, as heir or otherwise, shall give written notice of such transfer to the Secretary within one year from the date of death of the deceased.

(3) The notice to be given under this section shall be in such form as the Secretary may specify and the transferor, and the transferee or in the case of death of a person, the person to whom the title passes, as the case may be, shall if so required, be bound to produce before the Secretary any documents evidencing the transfer or succession.

(4) Every person who makes a transfer as aforesaid without giving such notice to the Secretary shall, in addition to any other liability which, he may incur for such failure, be liable for the payment of property tax assessed on the premises so transferred until he gives notice or until the transfer is recorded in the registers of the Municipality, but nothing in this section shall be held to affect-

- (a) the liability of the transferee for the payment of the said tax, or
- (b) the prior claim of the Municipality under section 237.

241. Owners obligation to give notice of construction, reconstruction or demolition of building :-

(1)(a) If a building is constructed or reconstructed in a Municipal area the owner shall give notice thereof to the Secretary within fifteen days from the date of completion or occupation of the building, whichever is earlier.

(b) If such date falls within the last two months of a half-year, the owner shall subject to notice being given under clause(a), be entitled to a remission of the whole of the tax or enhanced tax, as the case may be, payable in respect of the building only, for that half-year.

(c) If such date falls within the first four months of a half-year, the owner shall, subject to notice being given under clause(a), be entitled to a remission of so much not exceeding a half of the tax or enhanced tax, as the case may be, payable in respect of the building only for that half-year, as is proportionate to the number of days in that half-year preceding such date.

(2)(a) If any building in a municipal area is demolished or destroyed, the owner shall, until notice thereof is given to the Secretary, be liable for the payment of the property tax which would have been leviable had the building not been demolished or destroyed.

(b) If such notice, is given within the first two months of a half-year the owner shall be entitled to a remission of the whole of the tax payable in respect of the building only; for the half-year.

(c) If such notice is given within the last four months of a half-year, the owner shall be entitled to a remission of so much not exceeding a half of the tax payable in respect of the building only, for that half-year, as is proportionate to the number of days in that half-year, succeeding the demolition or destruction, as the case may be.

242. Assessment of building constructed unlawfully :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, where any person has unlawfully constructed or reconstructed any building, such building shall, without prejudice to any action that may be taken against that person, be liable to tax from the date of completion or occupation whichever is earlier till the date of demolition of that building.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section(1) shall preclude the Secretary from proceeding against such person under section 406 of the Act and the owner shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages due to any action taken by the Secretary under this section.

243. Remission of tax in areas included or excluded in the middle of a half-year :-

(1) Where any area is included within a municipal area the owner of every building or land in such area shall -

(a) if the date of such inclusion falls within the last two months of a half-year, not be liable to pay property tax in respect for that half-year; and

(b) if such date falls within the first four months of a half-year, be entitled to a remission of so much tax not exceeding half of the property tax payable in respect thereof for that half-year, as is proportionate to the number of days in that half-year preceding such date.

(2) Where any area is excluded from a municipal area, the owner of every building or land in such area shall be entitled-

(a) if the date of such exclusion falls within the first two months of a half-year, to a remission of the whole of the property tax payable in respect thereof for that half-year; and

(b) if such date falls within the last four months of a half-year, to a remission of so much tax not exceeding a half of the property tax payable in respect thereof for that half-year, as is proportionate to the number of days in that half-year succeeding such date.

(3) No remission shall be granted under sub-section(2) in respect of any building or land unless an application in writing for such remission is made to the Secretary within three months from the date of exclusion of the area in which the building or land is situated.

244. Secretarys power to call for information and to enter upon premises :-

(1) For the purpose of assessing property tax, the Secretary may, by notice, call upon the owner or occupier of any land or building to furnish him, within thirty days after the service of the notice where the notice is served upon the Government or a company and within fourteen days after such service in other cases, with returns of the rent payable for the land or building, the cost of erecting the building and the measurements of the land and building, and with such other information as the Secretary may require; and every owner and occupier on whom such notice is served shall be bound to comply with it and to make a true return to the best of his knowledge or belief.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section(1), the Secretary may, after giving twenty four hours notice to the owner or the occupier, enter, inspect, survey and measure such building or land.

(1) The expression "transacts business" in section 245 shall be deemed to include the doing of acts or business of whatever nature, whether isolated or not, such as soliciting, obtaining or transmitting orders or buying, making, manufacturing, exporting, importing, receiving, transmitting or otherwise dealing in goods.

(2) Where for the purpose of transacting business within the municipal area, a company or a person has an office or an agent or a firm to represent it or him, the company or the person shall be deemed to transact business within the municipal area, whether or not such office, agent or firm has power to make binding contracts on behalf of the company or the person; and the person in charge of such office or the agent or firm, as the case may be, shall be liable for the tax payable by the company or person,

(3) A company or a person otherwise liable to profession tax under section 245 shall not cease to be liable to such tax by reason only of its or his head office or the place from which its or his business is controlled being situated outside the municipal area, or by reason only of the fact, that its or his transactions are finalised outside the municipal area.

252. Recovery of profession tax by employers :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions, every head of office or employer or manager or proprietor or any person in the administrative control of any office, company, firm, undertaking, establishment or any institution where persons are employed or engaged for salaries or wages shall be bound to recover from any such person liable to profession tax, the profession tax due at the rate fixed by the Municipality and pay over to the Municipality as hereinafter provided.

253. Requisition to furnish name of institutions etc :-

(1) The Secretary shall, during the month of April every year, by notice, require every head of office or person liable to recover profession tax under section 252 to furnish to the Secretary the names and addresses of the offices or institutions under his control within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Every head of office shall furnish to the Secretary the information required by him under sub-section (1) within such time as may be specified and he shall also furnish the name and designation of the head of office and shall intimate the Secretary whenever there is a change of head of office.

(3) The Secretary shall on receipt of the information furnished to him under sub-section

(1) register the name of the offices or institutions in a register to be maintained for the purpose.

254. Assessment of profession tax by head of office etc :-

(1) The Secretary shall, during the month of May and November in every half-year, by notice require every head of office or employer to assess every employee in his institution liable to profession tax and every self drawing officer to remit the profession tax due in accordance with the Schedule to the said notice.

(2) Before the end of August and February of every year, head of office or employer shall assess every employee liable to tax and recover the amount from him and pay over to the Municipality together with a list of all employees who have been assessed to tax giving the details such as name, designation, half-yearly income and the amount of tax recovered and shall also furnish a certificate to the effect that all employees liable to tax have been included in the statement furnished.

255. Issue of receipt for remittance :-

(1) The Secretary shall, on receipt of the payment, issue an official receipt in the name of the head of office for the amount remitted.

(2) Every head of office shall in turn grant to each tax payer a certificate of recovery and payment of tax to the Municipality for the half-year in question.

256. Payment of tax by self drawing officer :-

(1) Every self drawing officer shall, before the end of August and February every year, remit or cause to be remitted the profession tax due from him in respect of each half-year in accordance with the schedule of tax in force along with a statement showing the details of half-yearly income.

(2) On receipt of payment under sub-section(1), the Secretary shall issue official receipt therefor.

257. Maintenance of Demand Register :-

The Secretary shall maintain a ward-wise Demand Register by providing independent pages for every institution specified in sub-section

(2) of section 253, and in such case the head of office and the self-drawing officers, if any, shall be the assesses and the remittance shall be entered against their names. One demand register for this purpose can be used for one or more years.

258. Certificate of drawing and disbursing officers and self-drawing officers :-

A certificate shall be furnished in the salary bill of the drawing and disbursing officer and the self drawing officer relating to the month of February and August every year to the effect that profession tax due in respect of all employees and himself, as the case may be, has been paid and the details furnished to Secretary and in the absence of such certificate the passing officer shall not honour the bill.

259. Penalty for non-payment of tax :-

Where at any time it appears to the Secretary that any head of office or employer or self drawing officer under a duty to furnish the particulars and remit the tax due as specified under section 253, 254 and 256 has failed to furnish such details or to remit the tax due within the specified time the Secretary shall immediately thereafter prosecute such defaulter or defaulters.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this section and sections 252 to 258 (both inclusive) the expression Head of office or employer in relation to an office, institution, undertaking, establishment etc., shall mean the person authorised to draw and disburse the salary or wages of the employees in such office, institution, undertaking or establishment.

BUILDING OTHER THAN HUTS

387. Application to construct or reconstruct building :-

(1) Where any person intends to construct or reconstruct a building other than a hut within a municipal area, he shall send to the Secretary-

(a) an application in writing together with a site plan of the land for the approval of the site; and

(b) an application in writing together with a ground plan, elevation and sections of the building and specification of the work for permission to execute the work.

Explanation.- Building in this sub-section shall include a wall or fence of whatever height bounding or abutting on any public street.

(2) Every document furnished under sub-section (1) shall contain such particulars and be prepared in such manner as may be required under the rules or bye-laws made under this Act.

388. Requirement of prior approval of site :-

The Secretary shall not grant permission to construct or reconstruct a building unless and until he has approved the site on an application made under section 387.

389. Prohibition of commencement of work without permission :-

The construction or reconstruction of a building shall not be begun unless and until the Secretary has granted permission for the execution of the work.

390. Period within which approval or disapproval shall be intimated :-

Within thirty days after the receipt of an application made under section 387 for approval of a site or of any information or further information required under any rules or bye-laws made under this Act, the Secretary shall, by written order, either approve or refuse to approve the site on any of the grounds mentioned in section 393 and intimate the fact to the applicant.

391. Period within which Secretary is to grant or refuse to grant permission to execute work :-

Within thirty days after the date of receipt of an application under section 387 for permission to execute any work or of any information or of document or further information or documents required under the rules or bye-laws made under this Act, the Secretary shall, by written order either grant or refuse to grant such permission on any of the grounds mentioned in section 393 and intimate the fact to the applicant in writing: Provided that the said period of thirty days shall not begin to run until the site has been approved under section 390.

392. Reference to Council where Secretary delays grant or refusal of approval or permission :-

(1) Where, within the period specified in section 390 or section 391, as the case may be, the Secretary has neither given nor refused his approval of a building site, or his permission to execute any work, as the case may be, the Council shall be bound, on the written request of the applicant, to determine whether such approval or permission should be given or not.

(2) Where the Council does not, within one month from the date of receipt of such written request, determine whether such approval or permission should be given or not, such approval or permission shall be deemed to have been given, and the applicant may proceed to execute the work, but not so as to contravene any of the provisions of this Act or any rules or bye-laws made thereunder.

393. Grounds on which approval of sight or permission to construct or reconstruct building may be refused :-

(1) The grounds on which approval of site for construction or reconstruction of a building or permission to construct or reconstruct a building shall be refused are the following, namely:-

(i) that the work or use of the site for the work or any of the particulars comprised in the site plan, ground plan, elevations, sections or specifications would contravene provisions of any law, or any order, rule, declaration or bye-law made under such law;

(ii) that the application for such permission does not contain the particulars or is not prepared in the manner required by any rule or bye-law made under this Act;

(iii) that any of the documents referred to in section 387 has not been signed as required by rules or bye-laws made under this Act;

(iv) that any information or document required by the Secretary under the rules or bye-laws made under this Act has not been duly furnished;

(v) that the streets or roads have not been made as required under section 359;

(vi) that the proposed building would be an encroachment upon a land belonging to the Government or the Municipality; or

(vii) that the land is under acquisition proceedings.

(2) No application for approval of a building site or for permission to construct or reconstruct a building shall be refused without stating the reasons for such refusal.

394. Lapse of permission :-

Where the construction or reconstruction of a building is not completed within the period specified in the permission, such permission shall lapse unless an application for extension of time is made before the expiry of the period specified.

395. Power of Secretary to require alteration in work :-

(1) Where it comes to the notice of the Secretary that a work,-

(a) is not in accordance with the plans or specifications approved,

or

(b) is in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, bye-law, order or declaration made thereunder, he may, by notice, require the person for whom such work is done-

(i) to make such alterations as may be specified in the said notice with the object of bringing the work in conformity with the plans or specifications approved or the provisions so contravened; or

(ii) to show cause why such alterations should not be made, within such period as may be specified in the notice.

12[Provided that any construction made in deviation from the approved plan and specifications may not be required to be altered unless it contravenes any provisions and specification mentioned in this Act or the Building Rules made thereunder.]

(2) Where such person does not show cause as aforesaid, he shall be bound to make the alterations specified in such notice.

(3) Where such person shows sufficient cause as aforesaid, the Secretary may, by order confirm, modify or cancel the notice issued under sub-section(1).

396. Stoppage of work endangering human life :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in any of the foregoing provisions in this Chapter, the Secretary may, at any time, stop the construction or reconstruction of any building if, in his opinion, the work in progress endangers human life.

WELLS

397. Application of certain sections to wells :-

The provisions of section 387, 388, 389, 394,395 and 396 shall, as far as may be, apply to the digging of a well. HUTS

398. Application to construct or reconstruct huts :-

(1) Every person who intends to construct or reconstruct a hut within a municipal area shall send to the Secretary-

(a) a site plan of the land, and

(b) an application for permission to execute the work.

(2) Every such application and plan under sub-section (1) shall contain such particulars and be prepared in such manner as required by rules or bye-laws made under this Act.

399. Prohibition of commencement of work without permission :-

No person shall begin the construction or reconstruction of a hut without the permission under section 398.

400. Period within which Secretary is to grant or refuse, to grant permission to execute the work :-

Within fourteen days after the date of receipt of an application under section 398 or of any information or plan or further information or fresh plan required under the rules or bye-laws made under this Act, the Secretary shall, by written order, either grant or refuse permission on any of the grounds mentioned in section 402.

401. Reference to Council where Secretary delays passing orders :-

(1) Where within the period specified in section 400, the Secretary has neither granted nor refused to grant permission to construct or reconstruct a hut, the Council shall be bound on the written request of the applicant to determine whether such permission should be granted or not.

(2) Where the Council does not, within thirty days from the date of receipt of such written request, determine whether such permission should be granted or not, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted and the applicant may proceed to execute the work but not so as to contravene any of the provisions of this Act or any rules or bye-laws made thereunder.

402. Grounds on which permission to construct or reconstruct hut may be refused :-

(1) The grounds on which permission to construct or reconstruct a hut may be refused are the following, namely:-

(1) that the work or use of the site for the work would contravene the provisions of any law or any order, rule, bye-law or declaration made under such law;

(ii) that the application for permission does not contain the particulars or are not prepared in the manner required by any rule or bye-law made under this Act;

(iii) that any information or plan required by the Secretary under the rules or bye-laws made under this Act has not been duly furnished;

(iv) that streets or roads have not been made as required under Section 359; or

(v) that the proposed hut would be an encroachment upon a land belonging to the Government or the Municipality.

(2) No application for permission to construct or reconstruct a hut shall be refused without stating the reasons for such refusal.

403. Lapse of permission :-

Where the construction or reconstruction of a hut is not completed within the period specified in the permission, such permission shall lapse unless an application for extension of time is made before the expiry of the period specified.

EXTERNAL WALLS, ALTERATIONS AND ADDITIONS

404. Maintenance of external walls in repair :-

The owner or occupier of any building adjoining a public street shall keep the external part of the building in proper repair, with lime or cement plaster or any other material to the satisfaction of the Secretary.

405. Application of provisions to alterations and additions :-

The provisions of this Chapter and of any rule or bye-law made under this Act relating to construction and reconstruction of buildings shall also be applicable to any alteration thereof or addition thereto: Provided that works using materials of the same nature and value to keep the building as such without enhancing its value and without changing its occupancy and usage and which do not affect the position or dimension of a building or any room therein shall not be deemed an alteration or an addition for the purpose of this section. Changing of roof by using a different material, fitting of rolling shutters, building of walls using a different material and other similar works which enhance the value of the building to any extent will not be treated as repair but as a new construction.

POWERS OF THE SECRETARY

406. Demolition or alteration of building work unlawfully commenced, carried on or completed :-

(1) Where the Secretary is satisfied-

(i) that the construction, reconstruction or alteration of any building or digging of any well-

- (a) has been commenced without obtaining the permission of the Secretary or in contravention of the decision of the Council; or
- (b) is being carried on, or has been completed otherwise than in accordance with the plans or specifications on which such permission or decision was based; or
- (c) is being carried on, or has been completed in breach of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule or bye-law or order made or issued thereunder or any direction or requisition lawfully given or made under this Act, such rule, bye-law or order; or

(ii) that any alteration required by any notice issued under section 395 has not been duly made; or

(iii) that any alteration of or addition to any building or any other work made or done for any purpose in or upon any building has been commenced or is being carried on or has been completed in contravention of the provisions of section 405, he may make a provisional order requiring the owner or the person for whom the work is done to demolish the work done, or so much of it as, in the opinion of the Secretary, has been unlawfully executed or to make such alterations as may, in the opinion of the Secretary, be necessary to bring the work in conformity with the provisions of this Act, bye-laws, rules, direction, order or requisition as aforesaid, or with the plans and specifications on which such permission or decision was based, and may also direct that until the said order is complied with, the owner or such person shall refrain from proceeding with the work.

13[Provided that the Secretary may, on realisation of a compounding fees as may be fixed by the Government, regularise any constructions, reconstruction or alteration of any building or digging of any well, commenced, carried on or completed without getting a plan approved by the Secretary or in deviation of the approved plan, if such construction, reconstruction or alteration of the building or digging of the well does not contravene any of the provisions and specifications mentioned in this Act or the Building Rules made thereunder.]

(2) The Secretary shall serve a copy of the provisional order made under sub-section

(1) on the owner or the person for whom such work is done together with a notice requiring him to show cause within a reasonable time, to be specified in such notice why the order should not be confirmed.

(3) Where the owner or the person for whom the work is done fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Secretary, the Secretary may confirm the order or modify the same to such extent as he may think fit to make, and such order shall then be binding on the owner or the person for whom the work is done and on the failure to comply with the order, the Secretary may himself cause the building or part thereof, demolished or the well dismantled, as the case may be and the expenses therefor shall be recoverable from the owner or such person.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), prosecution proceedings against the owner or the person for whom the work is done may be initiated.

14[(5) Where the Government is satisfied that the construction, reconstruction or alteration of any building has been carried out in breach of any of the provisions of this Act or any rules made thereunder or any direction lawfully given by the Government, or Secretary, the Government may direct the Secretary of the Municipality to cause demolition of such construction, reconstruction or alteration unlawfully carried out and if such direction is not complied within the time limit specified in such direction, the Government may arrange the demolition and cost thereof shall be recovered from the Municipality.]

407. Power to regularise the unlawful building construction :-

15[407. Power to regularise the unlawful building construction

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if any person or institution unlawfully, developed any land or constructed any building on 15A[or before 15th October 1999], the Government may after consultation with the concerned Municipality on realisation of a compounding fee as prescribed, regularise such land development or building construction:

Provided that such regularisation shall not adversely affect any Town Planning scheme or master plan approved under the existing provisions of the Town Planning Act:

Provided further that no building construction shall be regularised, which is done in contravention of the provisions in respect of the Security arrangements provided in this Act, or the Building Rules made thereunder.

(2) Application for regularisation under sub-section (1) shall be submitted within such time and in such manner as prescribed.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this Act, unlawful construction means any construction for which the Secretary shall have no power to regularise under Section 406 of this Act or any construction or reconstruction done in contravention of the provision of this Act or the Building Rules made thereunder or in contravention of any approved plan or any construction done in deviation of any exemption order sanctioned by the Government or any condition specified therein.]

408. Order of stoppage of buildings or works in certain cases :-

(1) Where the erection of any building or the execution of any work has been commenced or is being carried on (but has not been completed) without obtaining the permission of the Secretary or in contravention of any decision of the Council or any of the provisions of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder or any lawful direction or requisition given or made under this Act, or the rules or bye-laws, the Secretary may, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under this Act, by order require the person at whose instance the building or the work has been commenced or it being carried on, to stop the same forthwith.

(2) Where such order is not complied with, the Secretary may require any police officer to remove such person and all his assistants and workmen from the premises within such time as may be specified in the requisition, and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

(3) After the requisition under sub-section (2) has been complied with, the Secretary may, if he thinks fit, require in writing the assistance of a police officer or depute by a written order an officer or employee of the Municipality to watch the premises in order to ensure that the erection of the building or the execution of the work is not continued and the cost thereof shall be paid by the person at whose instance such erection or execution was being continued or to whom notice under sub section (1) was given, and shall be recoverable from such person as an arrear of property tax under this Act.

491. Disposal of unclaimed dead bodies :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or direction for the time being in force the Secretary shall arrange for the disposal of unclaimed dead bodies found within his jurisdiction and may incur the expenditure therefore: Provided that before taking any action under this section clearance from the Police shall be obtained.

492. General provisions regarding licences and permissions :-

(1) Every licence and permission granted under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder shall specify the period, if any, for which, and the restrictions, limitations and conditions, subject to which, the same is granted and shall be signed by the Secretary.

(2) Every licence issued by the Secretary shall specify the person to whom, the premises in respect of which, and the trade or business or undertaking for which the licence is granted and for any change in the person, the premises or the business, trade, or undertaking, a fresh licence or permission shall be taken with or without payment of further fee as the Municipality may fix.

(3) Where any person intending to obtain a licence or permission for the first time and where the applicant is a person other than the owner of the premises in question, he shall, along with the application produce the written consent of the owner of the premises and the period of the licence shall not exceed the period, if any, specified in the consent.

(4) Where the applicant seeking renewal of a licence or permission in respect of the trade or business licensed in the premises mentioned in sub-section (3) is a person different from the original licensee or not the legal heir of the original licensee the consent of the owner shall be required.

(5) Save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, for every such licence or permission, fees may be charged on such units and at such rates as may be fixed by the Municipality with due regard to the expenditure to be incurred for rendering service to the trade and for regulation of the trade for which the licence or permission is granted.

(6) The Municipality may-

(a) place the collection of such fees under management of such person as may appear to it proper; or

(b) farm out such collection for any period not exceeding three years at a time and on such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

(7) Every order of a Municipality refusing to grant or suspending, revoking or modifying a licence or permission shall be published on the notice board of the Municipality.

(8) Every order of a Municipality refusing to grant, or suspending, cancelling or modifying a licence or permission shall be in writing and shall state the grounds on which it proceeds.

(9) Subject to the provisions in this Chapter and regarding buildings and private markets and subject to such sanction as may be required for the refusal of a licence or permission, any licence or permission granted under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder, may, at any time, be suspended or revoked by the Secretary if any of its restrictions, limitations or conditions is evaded or infringed by the grantee, or if the grantee is convicted of a breach of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or regulation made thereunder in any matter to which such licence or permission relates, or if the grantee has obtained the same by misrepresentation or fraud.

(10) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to inspect places in respect of which a licence or permission is required by or under this Act, and he may enter any such place between sunrise and sunset and also between sunset and sunrise if it is open to the public or any industry is being carried on in it at the time and if he has reason to believe that anything is being done in any place without a licence or permission where the same is required by or under this Act, or otherwise than in conformity with the same, he may, at any time, by day or night, without notice, enter such place for the purpose of satisfying himself whether any provision of law, rule, bye-law, regulations, any condition of a licence or permission or any lawful directions, regulations, or prohibition is being contravened, and no claim shall lie against any person for any damage or inconvenience caused by the exercise of powers under this sub-section by the Secretary or any person to whom he has lawfully delegated his power or by any force necessary for effecting an entrance under this sub-section.

(11) Where any licence or permission is suspended or revoked or where the period for which it was granted or within which application for renewal should be made, has expired, whichever expires later, the grantee shall for all purposes of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder be deemed to be without a licence or permission until the order suspending or revoking the licence or permission is cancelled or, subject to sub-section (15) until the licence or permission is renewed, as the case may be.

(12) Every grantee of any licence or permission shall, at all reasonable times, while such licence or permission remains in force, produce the same when demanded by the Secretary.

(13) Where any person is convicted of an offence in respect of the failure to obtain a licence or permission or make a registration required by the provisions of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder, the Magistrate shall, in addition to any fine which may be imposed, recover summarily and pay over to the Municipality the amount of the fee chargeable for the licence or permission or registration and, may in his discretion also recover summarily and pay over to the Municipality such amount, if any, as he may fix as the costs of the prosecution.

(14) Recovery of the fee under sub-section (13) shall not entitle the person convicted to a licence or permission or to registration under this Act.

(15) The acceptance by the Municipality of the prepayment of the fee for a licence or permission or for registration shall not entitle the person making such prepayment to the licence or permission or to registration, as the case may be, but only to refund of the fee in case of refusal of the licence or permission or of registration, but an applicant for the renewal of a licence or permission or registration shall until communication of orders on his application be entitled to act as if the licence or permission or registration had been renewed, and save as otherwise specially provided in this Act, if orders on an application for licence or permission or for registration are not communicated to the applicant within thirty days after the receipt of the application by the Secretary, the application shall be deemed to have been allowed for the year or for such less period as is mentioned in the application, and subject to the law, rules, bye-laws, regulations and all conditions ordinarily imposed.
