Madhya Bharat Dissolution Of Muslim Marriages Act, 1956

14 of 1956

An Act to consolidate and clarify the provisions of Muslim Law relating to suits for dissolution of marriage by women married under Muslim Law and to remove doubts as to the effect of the renunciation of Islam by a married Muslim woman on her marriage tie Be it enacted in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follow: 1. The Act came into force from 22-6-1956 which was published in M.B. Gazette 22-6-1956.

1. Short Title And Extent :-

(1) This Act may be called "The Madhya Bharat Dissolution of Muslim Marriages Act, 1956".

(2) It extends to the whole of 1[Madhya Bharat region].

1. Substituted for "Madhya Bharat" by the words "Madhya Bharat region" by M.P. A.O., 1956; Published in M.P. Gazette (Ext.), dated 1st November, 1956.

2. Grounds For Decree For Dissolution Of Marriage :-

A woman married under Muslim Law shall be entitled to obtain a decree for the dissolution of her marriage on any one or more of the following grounds, namely--

- (i) that the whereabouts of the husband have not been known for a period of four years;
- (ii) that the husband has neglected or has failed to provide for her maintenance for a period of two years;

(iii) that the husband has been sentenced to imprisonment for a period of seven years or upwards;

(iv) that the husband has failed to perform, without reasonable cause, his marital obligations for a period of three years;

(v) that the husband was impotent at the time of the marriage and continues to be so;

(vi) that the husband has been insane for a period of two years or is suffering from leprosy or a virulent venereal disease;

(vii) that she, having been given in marriage by her father or other guardian before she attained the age of fifteen years, repudiated the marriage before attaining the age of eighteen years:

Provided that the marriage has not been consummated;

(viii) that the husband treats her with cruelty, that is to say--

(a) habitually assaults her or makes her life miserable by cruelty of conduct even if such conduct does not amount to physical ill-treatment, or

(b) associates with women of evil repute or leads an infamous life, or

(c) attempts to force her to lead an immoral life, or

(d) disposes of her property or prevents her exercising her legal rights over it, or

(e) obstructs her in the observance of her religious profession or practice, or

(f) if he has more wives than one does not treat her equitably in accordance with the injunctions of the Qoran;

(ix) on any other ground which is recognised as valid for the dissolution of marriages under Muslim law:

Provided that--

(a) no decree shall be passed on ground (iii) until the sentence has become final;

(b) a decree passed on ground (i) shall not take effect for a period of six months from the date of such decree, and if the husband appears either in person or through an authorised agent within that period and satisfies the Court that he is prepared to perform his conjugal duties, the competent Court shall set aside the said decree; and

(c) before passing a decree on ground (v) the Court shall, on application by the husband, make an order requiring the husband to satisfy the Court within a period of one year from the date of such order that he has ceased to be impotent, and if the husband so satisfies the Court within such period, a decree shall be passed on the said ground.

Dissolution of Marriage--A marriage can be, in most systems (except Muslim Law) dissolved by a decree of the Court of Law, a contract of marriage cannot be discharged by breach, agreement, frustration or novation. [Adams v. Palmer, (1863) 51 Maine 480]

3. Notice To Be Served On Heirs Of The Husband When The Husbands Whereabouts Are Not Known :-

In a suit to which clause (i) of Section 2 applies--

(a) the names and addresses of the persons who would have been the heirs of the husband under Muslim Law if he had died on the date of the filing of the plaint shall be stated in the plaint;

(b) notice of the suit shall be served on such persons; and

(c) such persons shall have the right to be heard in the suit:

Provided that paternal uncle and brother of the husband, if any, shall be cited as party even if he or they are not heirs.

4. Effect Of Conversion To Another Faith :-

The renunciation of Islam by a married Muslim woman or her conversion to a faith other than Islam shall not by itself operate to dissolve her marriage:

Provided that after such renunciation, or conversion, the woman shall be entitled to obtain a decree for the dissolution of her marriage on any of the grounds mentioned in Section 2:

Provided further that the provisions of this section shall not apply to a woman converted to Islam from some other faith who re-embraces her former faith.

5. Rights To Dower Not To Be Affected :-

Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any right which a married woman may have under Muslim Law to her dower or any part thereof on the dissolution of her marriage.
