Company; or

(d) if before or after the commencement of this Act, he has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude and sentenced to transportation or imprisonment unless a period of ten years or such less period as the Government may allow in any particular case, has elapsed after his release.

7. Offices of the Corporation :-

The Corporation may with the approval of the Government and subject to such conditions of service as may be prescribed, appoint officers of the Corporation to posts whose maximum monthly salary is five hundred rupees and above.

8. Staff of the Corporation :-

(1) The Corporation may employ such other staff of officers and servants as may be necessary for the efficient transaction of its work, provided that the sanction of the Government shall be obtained for the creation of any post with a maximum monthly salary of two hundred rupees and above.

(2) The Corporation shall, with the approval of the Government, make regulations regarding the method of recruitment pay and allowances, discipline, superannuation benefits and other conditions of service of the members of its staff.

(3) Every appointment to posts carrying a maximum monthly pay of two hundred rupees and above shall be made in consultation with the Public Service Commission:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply to an officiating or temporary appointment for an aggregate period not exceeding six months.

9. Meetings of the Corporation :-

Subject to any rules made under this Act, the Corporation shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to transaction of business at their meetings as may be specified by regulations made in this behalf.

10. Additional measures which the Corporation may promote :-

The Corporation may, in addition to preparing and carrying out schemes for the provision of suitable housing accommodation for employees, promote measures directed towards.-

- (1) The provision of gardens, playgrounds, recreational and educational facilities;
- (ii) the improvement of public health and sanitation;
- (iii) provision of water supplies and facilities for washing;
- (iv) the provision of transport to and from work: and may incur in respect of such measures expenditure from the funds of the Corporation within such limits as may be prescribed by the Government.

11. Supersession of the Corporation :-

(1) If in the opinion of the Government the Corporation persistently makes default in performing the duties imposed on it by or under this Act or abuses its powers, the Government may, by notification in the Jarida, supersede the Corporation:

Provided that before issuing a notification under this sub-section the Government shall give a reasonable opportunity to the Corporation to show cause why it should not be superseded and shall consider the explanation and objections, if any, of the Corporation.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification under sub-section (1) superseding the Corporation, all the members of the Corporation shall, as from the date of such publication be deemed to have vacated their offices.

(3) When the Corporation has been superseded, the Government may,-

(a) immediately nominate or cause to be nominated new members to the Corporation in accordance with sub-section (2) of Section 4.

(b) in its discretion appoint such agency for such period as it may think fit to exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Corporation and such agency shall be competent to exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Corporation.

(4) The Government shall cause a full report of any action taken under this section and the circumstances leading to such action to be laid before the Hyderabad State Legislature, at the earliest opportunity.

12. Duties of officers of the Corporation :-

The Officers appointed in accordance with Section 7 shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as may be prescribed. They shall also perform such other functions as may be specified in the regulations.

13. Acts of the Corporation not invalid by reason of informality, etc. :-

No act of the Corporation shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of any defect in the constitution of the Corporation or on the ground that any member thereof was not entitled to hold or continue in office by reason of any disqualification or of any irregularity in his nomination, or by reason of such act having been done during the period of any vacancy in the office of any member of the Corporation.
