PREAMBLE

An Act to provide for uniformity in the provisions of the Identification of Prisoners Act, 1920, in its application to the State of Maharashtra and further to amend that Act in its application to the whole State.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to provide for uniformity in the provisions of the Identification of Prisoners Act, 1920, in its application to the State of Maharashtra, and for that purpose to extend to the rest of the State certain enactments which amend the said Act in its application to a part of the State;

AND WHEREAS, it is also expedient further to amend, for the purposes hereinafter appearing, the said Act in its application to the whole State; It is hereby enacted in the Twenty- first Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

NOTES

Object.-Under section 1(2) of the Identification of Prisoners Act,

1920, the Act extended to whole of India, except the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in Part-B States. Thus, the Central Act was in force in the Bombay area and in the Vidarbha region of the State of Maharashtra. So far as the Hyderabad area of the State was concerned the Central Act was extended to it from 4th September, 1956 by ' virtue of the Identification of Prisoners (application to Hyderabad) Act, 1956 (Hyd. XXVII of 1956).

The Identification of Prisoners Act, 1920, in its application to the Bombay area, had been amended from time to time to provide inter alia for the taking of measurements and photographs of persons coming within the ambit of certain local Acts, like the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949, the Bombay Police Act, 1951, the Bombay Prevention of Begging Act, 1959 and the Bombay Habitual Offenders Act, 1959. However, in its application to the Vidarbha region the Identification of Prisoners Act, 1920, had not been amended by any local Act. So far as the Hyderabad area was concerned, the Act was amended once and the only amendment was that a new extent clause was substituted to provide that it shall extend to the State of Hyderabad. It was therefore considered necessary to have uniformity in the provisions of the said Act, in its application to the whole State of Maharashtra.

It had also since been found necessary to provide for taking measurements and photographs to cover inter alia the cases of persons coming within the ambit of the Indian Passport (Entry in India) Act, 1920, the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930, the Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954, and the Suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Act, 1956 and some more provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Bombay Prohibition Act, the Bombay Police Act, etc. Hence the Act.- Vide Statement of Objects and Reasons.
