(5) Where any proposals for development of any land are approved by the State Government under section 115, the provisions of the proposals approved by the State Government shall be final, and shall prevail, and be deemed to be in force, in such notified area; and to that extent the provisions of any such plan or scheme applicable to and in force in the notified area or any part thereof shall stand modified by the proposals approved by the State Government.] Expenses of Special Planning Authority to be met by contribution by local authorities.

41. . :-

(1) The State Government shall by an order in writing determine the amount which a local authority or each of the local authorities in respect of whose area the Special Planning Authority has been constituted shall pay as contribution either in one lump sum or in such installments as may be specified in the order, for meeting the expenses of the Special Planning Authority for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Not later than thirty days from the date of receipt of the order under sub-section (1) the local authority or local authorities shall pay to the Special Planning Authority the amount of contribution specified in the order in the manner indicated therein:

Provided that, where the local authority or local authorities fail to pay such amount of contribution the State Government shall, on receipt of the necessary intimation from the Special Planning Authority, recover it from the local authority or authorities and pay it to the Special Planning Authority. [If any [local authority] fails to pay any sum under sub-section (1), the State Government may make an order directing any person who for the time being has custody of any money on behalf of the [local authority] as its officer, treasurer, banker or otherwise to make the payment from such money as he may have in his hands or may from time to time receive either in one installment or in such number of installments as may be specified in the order; and such person shall be bound to obey the order. Every payment made pursuant to such order shall be a sufficient discharge to such person from all liability to local authority in respect of any sum or sums so paid by him out of the money of the [local authority] held or received by him.]

42. Implementation of plans :-

On the coming into operation of any plan or plans referred to in this Chapter, it shall be the duty of every Planning Authority to take steps as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of such plan or plans.

CHAPTER 4

Control of Development and Use of Land included in Development plan

43. Restrictions on development of land :-

After the date on which the declaration of intention to prepare a Development plan for any area published in the Official Gazette [or after the date on which a notification specifying any undeveloped area as a notified area, or any area designated as a site for a new town, is published in the Official Gazette] no person shall institute or change the use of any land or carry out any development of land without the permission in writing of the Planning Authority:

Provided that, no such permission shall be necessary-

(i) for carrying out works for the maintenance, improvement or other alteration of any building, being works which affect only the interior of the building or which do not materially affect the external appearance thereof; [except in case of heritage building and heritage precinct;]

(ii) the carrying out works in compliance with any order or direction made by any authority under any law for the time being in force;

(iii) the carrying out works by any authority in exercise of its powers under any law for the time being in force;

(iv) for carrying out by the Central or State Government or any local authority of any works-

(a) required for maintenance or improvement of a highway, road or public street, being works carried out on land within the boundaries of such highway, road or public street;

(b) for the purpose of inspecting, repairing or renewing any drains, sewers, mains, pipes, cable, telephone or other apparatus including the breaking open of any street or other land for that purpose;

(v) for the excavation (including wells) made in the ordinary course of agricultural operation;

(vi) for the construction of a road intended to give access to land solely for agricultural purposes;

(vii) for the normal use of land which has been used temporarily for other purposes;

(viii) in case of land, normally used for one purpose and occasionally used for any other purpose, for the use of land for that purpose on occasions;

(ix) for use, for any other purpose incidental to the use of a building for human habitation of any other building or land attached to such building.

44. . :-

Application for permission for development Except as otherwise provided by rules made in this behalf, any person not being Central or State Government or any local authority intending to carry out any development on any land shall make an application in writing to the Planning Authority for permission in such form and containing such particulars and accompanied by such documents, as may be prescribed:

Provided that, save as otherwise provided in any law or any rules, regulations or bye-laws made under any law for the time being in force, no such permission shall be necessary for demolition of an existing structure, erection or building or part thereof, in compliance of a statutory notice from the Planning Authority or a Housing and Area Development Board, the Bombay Repairs and Reconstruction Board Or the Bombay Slum Improvement Board established under the Maharashtra Housing and Area Development Act, 1976 .]

45. Grant or refusal or permission :-

(1) On receipt of an application under section 44 the Planning Authority may subject to the provisions of this Act by order in writing-

(i) grant the permission unconditionally;

(ii) grant the permission, subject to such general or special conditions as it may impose with the previous approval of the State Government; or

(iii) refuse the permission.

(2) Any permission granted under sub-section (1) with or without conditions shall be contained in a commencement certificate in the prescribed form.

(3) Every order granting permission subject to conditions, or refusing permission shall state the grounds for imposing such conditions or for such refusal.

(4) Every order under sub-section (1) shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(5) If the Planning Authority does not communicate its decision whether to grant or refuse permission to the applicant within sixty days from the date of receipt of reply from the applicant in respect of any requisition made by the Planning Authority, whichever is later, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted to the applicant on the date immediately following the date of expiry of sixty days;

[Provided that, the development proposal, for which the permission was applied for, is strictly in conformity with the requirements of all the relevant Development Control Regulations framed under this Act or bye- laws or regulations framed in this behalf under any law for the time being in force and the same in no way violates either the provisions of any draft or final plan or proposals published by means of notice, submitted for sanction under this Act:

Provided further that, any development carried out in pursuance of such deemed permission which is in contravention of the provisions of the first proviso, shall be deemed to be an unauthorised development for the purposed of section 52 to section 53 , section 54 , section 55 , section 56 , section 57 .]

[(6) The Planning Authority shall, within one month from the date of issue of commencement certificate, forward duly authenticated copies of such certificate and the sanctioned building or development plans to the Collector concerned.]

Provision for Development plan to be considered before grunting permission.

46. . :-

The Planning Authority in considering application for permission shall have due regard to the provisions of any draft or final plan [or proposals] [published by means of notice] [submitted] or sanctioned under this Act.

47. . :-

(1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order granting permission on conditions, or refusing permission under section 45 may, within forty days of the date of communication of the order to him, prefer an appeal to the State Government or to an officer appointed by the State Government in this behalf, being an officer not below the rank of a Deputy Secretary to the Government; and such appeal shall be made in such manner and accompanied by such fees (if any) as may be prescribed.

(2) The State Government or the officer so appointed may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant and the Planning Authority to be heard, by order dismiss the appeal, or allow the appeal by granting permission unconditionally or subject to the conditions as modified. further empowering the State Government to entertain the appeal filed beyond the period of 40 days the State Government would not be justified in entertaining the appeal. - Sangli Miraj and Kupwad City Municipal Corporation Petitioner v Balkrishna Haribhau Sawant and others Respondents AIR 1999 SC Bom 390, 1999 (4) ALL MR 188 per Mr.D.K.Deshmukh, J.

48. . :-

Lapse of permission Every permission for development granted or deemed to be granted under section 45 or granted under section 47 shall remain in force for a period of one year [from the date of receipt of such grant], and thereafter it shall lapse:

Provided that, the Planning Authority may, on application made to it extend such period from year to year; but such extended period shall in no case exceed three years:

Provided further that, such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act. Obligation to acquire land on refusal of permission or on grant of permission in certain cases.

49. . :-

(1)Where-

(a) any land is designated by a plan as subject to compulsory acquisition, or

(b) any land is allotted by a plan for the purpose of any functions of a Government or local authority or statutory body, or is land designated in such plan as a site proposed to be developed for the purposes of any functions of any such Government, authority or body, or

(c) any land is indicated in any plan as land on which highway is proposed to be constructed or included, or

[(d) any land for the development of which permission is refused or is granted subject to conditions, and any owner of land referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) claims-

(i) that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state, or

(ii) (where planning permission is given subject to conditions) that the land cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of the permitted development in accordance with the conditions; or]

(e) the owner of land because of its designation or allocation in any plan claims that he is unable to sell it except at a lower price than that at which he might reasonably have been expected to sell if it were not so designated or allocated, the owner or person affected may serve on the State Government within such time and in such manner as is prescribed by regulations, a notice (hereinafter referred to as "the purchase notice") requiring the Appropriate Authority to purchase the interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The purchase notice shall be accompanied by a copy of any application made by the applicant to the Planning Authority and of any order or decision of that Authority and of the State Government, if any, in respect of which the notice is given.

(3) On receipt of a purchase notice, the State Government shall forthwith call from the Planning Authority and Appropriate Authority such report or records or both, as may be necessary, which those authorities shall forward to the State Government as soon as possible but not later than thirty days from the date of their requisition.

(4) On receiving such records or reports, if the State Government is satisfied that the conditions specified sub-section (1) are fulfilled, and that the order or decision for permission was not duly made on the ground that the applicant did not comply with any of the provisions of this Act or rules or regulations, it may confirm the purchase notice, or direct that planning permission be granted without condition or subject to such conditions as will make the land capable of reasonably beneficial use. In any other case, it may refuse to confirm the purchase notice, but in that case, it shall give the applicant a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(5) If within a period of six months from the date on which a purchase notice is served the State Government does not pass any final order thereon, the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed at the expiration of that period. [* * *] [(7) If within one year from the date of confirmation of the notice, the Appropriate Authority fails to make an application to acquire the land in respect of which the purchase notice has been confirmed as required under section 126 , the reservation, designation, allotment, indication or restriction on development of the land shall be deemed to have lapsed; and thereupon, the land shall be deemed to be released from the reservation,

50. Deletion of reservation of designated land for interim, draft or final Development plan :-

(1) The Appropriate Authority, [other than the Planning Authority] if it is satisfied that the land is not or no longer required for the public purpose for which it is designated or reserved or allocated in the interim or the draft Development plan or plan for the area of Comprehensive development or the final Development plan, may request-

(a) the Planning Authority to sanction the deletion of such designation or reservation or allocation from the interim or the draft Development plan or plan for the area of Comprehensive development or

(b) the State Government to sanction the deletion of such designation or reservation or allocation from the final Development plan.

(2) On receipt of such request from the Appropriate Authority, the Planning Authority or as the case may be, the State Government may make an order sanctioning the deletion of such designation or reservation or allocation from the relevant plan:

Provided that, the Planning Authority or as the case may be, the State Government may before making an order, make such enquiry as it may consider necessary and satisfy itself that such designation or reservation or allocation is no longer necessary in the public interest.

(3) Upon an order under sub-section (2) being made, the land shall be deemed to be released from such designation or reservation or as the case may be allocation and shall become available to the owner for the purpose of development as otherwise permissible in the case of adjacent land, under the relevant plan.

51. Power of revocation and modification of permission to development :-

(1) If it appears to the Planning Authority that it is expedient, having regard to the Development plan prepared or under preparation that any permission to develop land granted [or deemed to be granted] under this Act or any other law. Should be revoked or modified, the Planning Authority may, after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard against such revocation or modification, by order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary:

Provided that, -

(a) where the development relates to the carrying out of any building or other operation, no such order shall affect such of the operations as have been previously carried out; or shall be passed after these operations have substantially progressed or have been completed;

(b) where the development relates to a change of use of land, no such order shall be passed at any time after the change has taken place.

(2) Where permission is revoked or modified by an order made under sub-section (1) and any owner claims within the time and in the manner prescribed, compensation for the expenditure incurred in carrying out the development in accordance with such permission which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the Planning Authority shall, after giving the owner reasonable opportunity of being heard by the Town Planning Officer, and after considering his report, assess and offer, subject to the provisions of section 19 , such compensation to the owner as it thinks fit.

(3) If the owner does not accept the compensation and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of his refusal to accept, the Planning Authority shall, refer the matter of adjudication of the court; and the decision of the court shall be final and binding on the owner and the Planning Authority.

52. Penalty for unauthorised development or for use otherwise than in conformity with Development plan :-

(1) Any person who, whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person commences, undertake or carries out development or institutes, or changes the use of any land-

(a) without permission required under this Act; or

(b) which is not in accordance with any permission granted or in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted;

(c) after the permission for development has been duly revoked; or

(d) in contravention of any permission which has been duly modified, shall, on conviction, [be punished with imprisonment for a term [which shall not be less than one month but which may extend to three years and with fine which shall not be less than two thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further daily fine which may extend to two hundred rupees] for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

(2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of a Development plan without being allowed to do so under section 45 or section 47 , or where the continuance of such use has been allowed under that section continues such use after the period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

53. Power to require removal or unauthorised development

(1) Where any development of land has been carried out as indicated in sub-section (1) of section 52, the Planning Authority may, subject to the provisions of this section, [* *] serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein after the service of the notice, to take such steps as may be specified in the notice,

(a) in cases specified in clause (a) or (c) of sub-section (1) of section 52, to restore the land to its condition existing before the said development took place,

(b) in cases specified in clause (b) or (d) of sub-section (1) of section 52, to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified:

Provided that, where the notice requires the discontinuance of any use of land, the Planning Authority shall serve a notice on the occupier also.

(2) In particular such notice may, for purposes of sub-section (1), require-

(a) the demolition or alteration of any building or works;

(b) the carrying out on land of any building or other operations; or

(c) the discontinuance of any use of land.

(3) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the period specified in the notice and in the manner prescribed, apply for permission under section 44 for retention on the land of any buildings or works or for continuance of any use of land, to which the notice relates, and pending the final determination or withdrawal of the application, the mere notice itself

(4) The foregoing provisions of the Chapter shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to an application made under sub-section (3).

(5) If the permission applied for is granted, the notice shall stand withdrawn; but if the permission applied for is not granted, the notice shall stand; or if such permission is granted for the retention only of some buildings or works, or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall stand withdrawn as respects such buildings or works or such part of the land, but shall stand as respects other buildings or works or other parts of the land, as the case may be, and thereupon the owner shall be required to take steps specified in the notice under sub-section (1) as respects such other buildings, works or other part of the land.

(6) If within the period specified in the notice or within the same period after the disposal of the application under sub-section (4), the notice or so much of it as stands is not complied with, the Planning Authority may-

(a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice; and where the notice requires the discontinuance of any use of land by any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice; and

(b) where the notice requires the demolition or alteration of any buildings or works or carrying out of any buildings or other operations, itself cause the restoration of the land to its condition before the development took place and secure compliance with the conditions of the permission or with the permission as modified by taking steps as the Planning Authority may consider necessary including demolition or alteration of any buildings or works or carrying out of any building or other operations; and recover the amount of any expenses incurred by it in this behalf from the owners as arrears of land revenue.

(7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) of sub-section (6) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term [which shall not be less than one month but which may extend to three years and with fine which shall not be less than two thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further daily fine which may extend to two hundred rupees] for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

54. Power to stop unauthorised development :-

(1) Where any development of land as indicated in sub-section (1) of section 52 is being carried out but has not been completed, the Planning Authority may serve on the owner and the person carrying out the development a notice requiring the development of land to be discontinued from the time of service of the notice; and thereupon the provisions of sub-sections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 53 shall, so far as may be applicable, apply in relation to such notice, as they apply in relation to notice under section 53 .

(2) Any person, who continues to carry out the development of land, whether for himself or on the behalf of the owner or any other person, after such notice has been served shall on conviction, [be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both]; and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day after the date of the service of the notice during which the non-compliance has continued or continues.

55. Removal or discontinuance of unauthorised temporary development summarily :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained in this Chapter, where any person has carried out any development of a temporary nature unauthorisedly as indicated in sub-section (1) of section 52 , the Planning Authority may by an order in writing direct that person to remove any structure or work erected, or discontinue the use of land made, unauthorisedly as aforesaid, within fifteen days of the receipt of the order; and if thereafter, the person does not comply with the order within the said period, the Planning Authority may request the District Magistrate or the Commissioner of Police, as the case may be, [or authorise any of its officers or servants], to have such work summarily removed or such use summarily discontinued without any notice as directed in the order; and any development unauthorisedly made again, shall be similarly removed or discontinued summarily without making any order as aforesaid.

(2) The decision of the Planning Authority on the question of what is development of a temporary nature shall be final.

56. Power to require removal of unauthorised development or :-

(1) If it appears to a Planning Authority that it is expedient in the interest of proper planning of its areas (including the interest of amenities) having regard to the Development plan prepared,-

(a) that any use of land should be discontinued, or

(b) that any conditions should be imposed on the continuance thereof, or

(c) that any buildings or works should be altered or removed, the Planning Authority may by notice served on the owner,-

(i) require the discontinuance of that use; or.

(ii) impose such conditions as may be specified in the notice on the continuance thereof; or

(iii) require such steps as may be specified in the notice to be taken for the alteration or removal of any buildings or works, as the case may be; within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the said period and in the manner prescribed, appeal to the State Government.

(3) On receipt of an appeal under sub-section (2), the State Government or any other person appointed by it in this behalf may, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the Planning Authority, dismiss the appeal or allow the appeal by quashing or varying the notice as it may think fit.

(4) If any person,-

(i) who has suffered damage in consequence of the compliance with the notice by the depreciation of any interest in the land to which he is entitled or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land or otherwise; or

(ii) who has carried out any works in compliance with the notice, claims, from the Planning Authority, within the time and manner prescribed compensation in respect of that damage, or of any expenses reasonably incurred by him for complying with the notice, then the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 51 shall apply in relation to such claim as those provisions apply to claims for compensation under those provisions.

(5) If any person having interest in land in respect of which a notice is issued under this section claims that by the reason of the compliance with the notice, the land will become incapable of reasonably beneficial use may, within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal of the appeal, if any, filed under sub-section (2) and in the manner prescribed, serve on the State Government a purchase notice requiring his interest in the land to be acquired; and thereupon the provisions of section 49 for dealing with a purchase notice shall, so far as can be made applicable, apply as they apply to a purchase notice under that section.

57. . :-

Recovery of expenses incurred Any expenses incurred by a Planning Authority under section 53 , section 54 , section 55 and section 56 shall be a sum due to the Planning Authority under this Act from the person in default or the owner of the plot. Development undertaken on behalf of Government.

58. . :-

(1) When any Government intends to carry out the development of any land for the purpose of any of its departments or offices or authorities, the officer-in-charge thereof shall inform in writing the Planning Authority the intention of Government to do so, giving full particulars thereof, and accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed at least thirty days before undertaking such development.

(2) Where a Planning Authority raises any objection to the proposed development on the ground that the development is not in conformity with the provision either of any Development plan under preparation, or of any building bye-laws in force for the time being, or for any other material consideration, the officer shall-

(i) either make necessary modifications in the proposals for development to meet the objections raised by the Planning Authority; or

(ii) submit the proposal for development together with the objections raised by the Planning Authority to the State Government for decision.

(3) The State Government, on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections of the Planning Authority shall, in consultation with the Director of Town Planning, either approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the officer to make such modifications in the proposals as it considers necessary in the circumstances.

[(3A) the development proposal approved by the State Government under sub-section (3) shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date grant of such approval, and thereafter it shall lapse: Provided that, the officer-in-charge of the development may apply under intimation to the Planning Authority, to the State Government for extension of such period; and thereupon the State Government may extend such period from year to year; but such extended period shall in no case exceed three years:

Provided further that, such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application by the officer-in-charge of the development, for fresh approval to the development under the preceding sub-section.]

(4) The provisions of sections [and 47 shall not, and section 46 shall, mutatis mutandis and section 48 shall, as modified by sub-section 3A] apply to developments carried out under this section.

CHAPTER 5

Town Planning Schemes

59. . :-

[(1)] Subject to the provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force

(a) a Planning Authority may for the purpose of implementing the proposals in the final Development plan, prepare one or more town planning schemes for the area within its jurisdiction, or any part thereof;

(b) a town planning scheme may make provision for any of the following matters, that is to say-

(i) any of the matters specified in section 22 ;

(ii) the laying out or re-laying out of land, either vacant or already built upon, including areas of Comprehensive development;

(iii) the suspension, as far as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the scheme, of any rule, bye-law, regulation, notification or order made or issued under any law for the time being in force which the Legislature of the State is competent to make;

(iv) such other matter not inconsistent with the object of this Act as may be directed by the State Government.

[(2) In making provisions in a draft town planning scheme for any

(2) The Tribunal of Appeal shall send a copy of its decision in appeal to the Arbitrator who shall then, where necessary, make variation in the scheme in accordance with such decision and may also rectify such errors or omissions, if any, as may have been brought to his notice after publication of the final scheme as drawn up by him under clause (xviii) of sub-section (3) of section 72 ; and the Arbitrator shall forward such final scheme together with a copy of his decisions under section 72 and a copy of the decision of the Tribunal of Appeal in appeal to the State Government for the sanction of the final scheme.

83. Possession of land in advance of town planning scheme :-

(1) Where a Planning Authority thinks that, in the interest of the public, it is necessary to undertake forthwith any of the works included in a draft scheme for a public purpose, the Planning Authority shall make an application through the Arbitrator to the State Government to vest in it the land (without any building) shown in the draft scheme.

(2) The State Government may, if satisfied that it is urgently necessary in the public interest to empower the Planning Authority to enter on such land for the purpose of executing any of such works, direct the Arbitrator, by notification in the Official Gazette to take possession of the land, or may, after recording its reasons, refuse to make any such direction:

Provided that, no such direction shall be made without the Arbitrator giving a hearing to any person or Planning Authority affected by such direction, and considering the report of the Arbitrator in that behalf.

(3) The Arbitrator shall then give a notice in the prescribed manner to the person interested in the land the possession of which is to be taken by Arbitrator requiring him to give possession of his land to the Arbitrator or any person authorised by him in this behalf within a period of one month from the date of service of notice; and if no possession is delivered within the period specified in the notice, the Arbitrator shall take possession of the land and shall hand over the land to the Planning Authority. Such land shall thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, vest absolutely in the Planning Authority free from all encumbrances.

84. Commissioner of Police or Magistrate to enforce delivery of possession of land :-

(1) If the Arbitrator is opposed or impeded in taking possession of the land under section 83 , he shall request the Commissioner of Police, or as the case may be, the District Magistrate to enforce the delivery of possession of land to the Arbitrator. The Commissioner or the District Magistrate, as the case may be, shall take or cause to be taken such steps and use or cause to be used such force as may be reasonably necessary for securing the delivery of possession of the land to the Arbitrator.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the power to take steps under sub-section (1) includes the power to enter upon any land or property whatsoever.

85. Owner of land of which possession is taken entitled to interest :-

(1) Where possession of land is taken by the Arbitrator under section 83 or section 84 , the persons interested in such land shall be entitled to interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum on the amount of compensation payable to him under the final scheme in respect of the said land from the date on which such possession is taken till the date on which amount of compensation is paid to him by the Planning Authority.

(2) The Planning Authority may, at the request of the person interested, pay after consulting the Arbitrator, an advance as provided in sub-section (3) of section 129 .

86. Sanction by State Government to final scheme :-

(1) The State Government may, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of the final scheme under section 82 from the Arbitrator or within such further period as the State Government may extend, by notification in the Official Gazette, sanction the scheme or refuse to give such sanction, provided that, in sanctioning the scheme the State Government may make such modifications as may in its opinion be necessary for the purposes of correcting an error, irregularity or informality.

(2) If the State Government sanctions such scheme, it shall in the notification-

(a) the place at which the final scheme is kept open to inspection by the public [and also state therein that copies of the scheme or extracts therefrom certified to be correct shall, on application for sale to the public at a reasonable price,]

(1) On and after the day on which a final scheme comes into force, any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the final scheme may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, summarily evicted by the Planning Authority or any of its officer authorised in that behalf by that Authority.

(2) If the Planning Authority is opposed or impeded in evicting such person or taking possession of the land from such person, the Commissioner of Police, or as the case may be, the District Magistrate shall at the request of the Planning Authority enforce the eviction of such person or secure delivery of possession of land to the Planning Authority as may be necessary.

90. Power to enforce scheme :-

(1) On and after the day on which a final scheme comes into force, the Planning Authority may, after giving the prescribed notice and in accordance with the provisions of the scheme-

(a) remove, pull down or alter any building or other work in the area included in the scheme in which is such as to contravene the scheme or in the erection of which or carrying out of which, any provision of the scheme has not been complied with;

(b) execute any work which it is the duty of any person to execute under the scheme, in any case where it appears to the Planning Authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by a Planning Authority under this section may be recovered from the person in default or the owner of the original plot in the manner provided for the recovery of sums due to the Planning Authority under the provisions of this Act.

(3) If any action taken by the Planning Authority is questioned, the matter shall be referred to the State Government or any officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf; and the decision of the State Government or of the officer, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons.

91. Power to vary scheme on ground of error, irregularity or informality :-

(1) If after the final scheme has come into force, the Planning Authority considers that the scheme is defective on account of error, irregularity or informality or that the scheme needs variation or modification of a minor nature, the Planning Authority may apply in writing to the State Government for variation of the scheme.

(2) If, on receiving such application or otherwise, the State Government is satisfied that the variation required is not substantial, the State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorise or direct the Planning Authority to prepare [a draft of such variation and publish a notice in the Official Gazette and in such other manner as may be prescribed, stating that the draft variation has been prepared.]

(3) [The notice of preparation of draft variation published] under sub-section (2) shall state every amendment proposed to be made in the scheme, and if any such amendment relates to a matter specified in any of the sub-clauses (i) to (iii) of clause (b) of section 59 , the draft variation shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) The draft variation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Planning Authority during office hours [and copies of such draft variation or any extract therefrom certified to be correct shall be available for sale to the public at a reasonable price.]

(5) Not later than one month from the date of the [publication of notice regarding the preparation of draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing any objections to such draft variation to the State Government, and send a copy thereof to the Planning Authority.

(6) After receiving the objections under sub-section (5), the State Government may after consulting the Planning Authority and after making such enquiry as it may think fit, by notification in the Official Gazette, -

(a) appoint an Arbitrator, and thereupon the provisions of this Chapter shall, so far as may be, apply to such draft variation, as if it were a draft variation submitted to the State Government for sanction.

(b) sanction the variation with or without modifications; or

(c) refuse to sanction the variation.

(7) From the date of the notification sanctioning the variation, with or without modifications such variations shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the scheme.

92. Power to vary town planning scheme :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 86 , a town planning scheme may at any time be varied by a subsequent scheme made, [published by means of notice] and sanctioned in accordance with this Act:

Provided that, when the scheme is so varied, the provisions of this Chapter shall spirituous preparations far as may be applicable, apply to such variation and making of subsequent scheme shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to such variation and making subsequent scheme and the date of the declaration of intention of the Planning Authority to vary the section 69 , section 70 , section 97 , section 98 and section 100 , be deemed to be the date of declaration of intention to make a scheme referred to in those sections.

93. Apportionment of cost of scheme withdrawn or not sanctioned :-

In the event of a town planning scheme being withdrawn or sanction to a final scheme being refused by the State Government, the State Government may direct that the costs of the scheme shall be borne by the Planning Authority or be paid to the Planning Authority by the owners concerned, in such proposition as the State Government may in each case determine.

94. Right to appear by recognised agent :-

Every party to any proceeding before an Arbitrator or the Tribunal of Appeal shall be entitled to appear either in person or by his agent authorised in writing in that behalf.

95. Power to compel attendance of witnesses :-

V of 1908 For the purposes of this Act, an officer appointed under sub- section (1) of section 71 or an Arbitrator or the Tribunal of Appeal may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses including the parties interested or any of them and compel them to give evidence and compel the production of documents by the same means and as far as possible, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a civil court by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 . Joint Development plans and joint town planning schemes. (J) Joint Development plans and joint town planning schemes.

96. . :-

(1) When the State Government or two or more Planning Authorities are of opinion that the interests of contiguous areas within its jurisdiction of such Planning Authorities can best be served by the making of a joint development plan or a joint town planning scheme, the State Government shall after necessary enquiry constitute a Special Planning Authority as provided in section 40 .

(2) Such Special Planning Authority, when duly constituted, shall make a declaration of the intention to make a joint development plan or a joint town planning scheme in respect of the contiguous areas in the manner provided in section 23 or section 60 , as the case may be, and thereafter, the Special Planning Authority under this Act and all forgoing provisions of this Act in respect of the procedure to be followed in preparing, publishing and submitting a Development plan, or, as the case may be, a town planning scheme for sanction of the State Government shall apply so far as may be applicable.

(3) The joint Development plan or the joint town planning scheme shall specify the parts of the joint Development plan or the joint town planning scheme to be executed by the several Planning Authorities in the several contiguous areas, and the several parts of the joint Development plan or joint town planning scheme is sanctioned by the State Government under section 31 or section 86 , as the case may be, have effect in the several contiguous areas as if they are separate Development plans or town planning schemes:

Provided that, a joint Development plan, or a joint town planning scheme may be executed partly or wholly by the two or more Planning Authorities concerned jointly as they may decide in this behalf. Cost of scheme.

97. Finance of schemes :-

(1) The cost of a town planning scheme shall include-

(a) all sums payable by a Planning Authority under the provisions of this Act which are not specifically excluded from the costs of the scheme;

(b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by a Planning Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme, the estimates for works included in the scheme being made on the date the final scheme is drawn up by the Arbitrator under clause (xviii) of sub-section (3) of section 72 ;

(c) all sums payable as compensation for land reserved or allotted for any public purpose or purposes of the Planning Authority which is solely beneficial to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme;

(d) such portion of the sums payable as compensation for land reserved or allotted for any public purpose or purposes of the Planning Authority which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public, as is attributable to the benefit accruing to the allotment.

(e) all legal expenses incurred by the Planning Authority in making and in the execution of the scheme;

(f) the amount by which the total of the values of the original plots exceeds the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme, each of such plots being estimated at its market value at the date of declaration to make a scheme, with all the buildings and works thereon at that date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

(2) If in any case the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme exceeds the total of the values of the original plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (f) of sub-section (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the scheme as defined in sub-section (1).

98. Calculation of increment :-

For the purposes of this Act, the increment shall be deemed to be the amount by which at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme, the market value of the plot with reference to the improvements contemplated in the scheme on the assumption that the scheme has been completed would exceed on the same date the market value of the same plot estimated without reference to such improvements: Provided that, in estimating such values, the value of buildings and works erected or in the course of erection on such plot shall not be taken into consideration.

99. Contribution towards cost of scheme :-

(1) The cost of the scheme be met wholly or in part by a contribution to be levied by the Planning Authority on each final plot included in the final scheme calculated in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of such plot by the Arbitrator:

Provided that, -

(i) no such contribution shall exceed half the increment estimated by the Arbitrator to accrue in respect of such final plot subject to the condition that where the total cost of a scheme exceeded half the total amount of increments, the proportion of such contribution shall not be less than half the increment;

(ii) no such contribution shall be levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for the public purpose or purposes of the Planning Authority, such plot being solely for the benefit of the owners or residents within the area of the scheme;

(iii) the contribution levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for the public purpose or purposes of the Planning Authority which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public shall be calculated in the proportion to the benefit estimated to accrue to the general public from such use, allotment or reservation.

(2) The owner of each final plot included in a final scheme shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.

100. Certain amount to be added to or deducted from contribution leviable from persons :-

The amount by which the total value of final plots included in a final scheme with all buildings and other works thereon allotted to the person falls short of or exceeds the total value of the original plots with all buildings and other works thereon to such person shall be deducted from or added to, as the case may be, the contribution leviable from such person, each of such plots being estimated at its market value at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

101. Transfer of right from original to reconstituted plot or extinction of such right :-

Any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Arbitrator is capable of being transferred wholly or in part, without prejudice to the making of a town planning scheme to a final plot shall be so transferred and any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Arbitrator is not capable of being transferred shall be extinguished: Provided that, an agricultural lessee shall not be transferred from an original plot to a final plot without the consent of all the parties to such lease.

102. Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by scheme. (h) Compensation :-

The owner of any property or right injuriously affected by the making of a town planning scheme shall, subject to provisions of section 101, if he makes a claim before the Arbitrator within sixty days of the receipt of the notice from the Arbitrator, be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the Planning Authority or from any person benefited or partly from the Planning Authority and partly from such person as the Arbitrator may in each case determine.

103. Exclusion of limitation of compensation in certain cases :-

(1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right or any sort which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of the provisions contained in the town planning scheme, if under any other law for the time being in force applicable to the area for which such scheme is made, no compensation is payable for such injuriously affection.

(2) Property or private right or any sort shall not be deemed to injuriously affected by reason of any provisions inserted in the town planning scheme which with a view to securing the amenities of the area included in such scheme or any part thereof, imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (b) of section 64 .

104. Provision for cases in which amount payable to owner exceeds amount due from him If the owner of an original plot is not provided with a final plot :-

in the final scheme or if the contribution to be levied from him under section 100 is less than the total amount to be deducted therefrom under any of the provisions of this Act, the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the Planning Authority in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

105. Provision for case in which value of developed plot is less then amount payable by owner :-

(1) If from any cause the total amount which would be due to a Planning Authority under the provisions of this Act from the owner of a final plot to be included in a final scheme exceeds the value of such plot estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed, the Arbitrator shall, at the request of the Planning Authority, direct the owner of such plot to make payment to the Planning Authority of the amount of such excess.

(2) If such owner fails to make such payment within the prescribed period, the Arbitrator shall, if the Planning Authority so requests acquire the original plot of such defaulter and apportion the compensation among the owner and other persons interested in the plot on payment by the Planning Authority of the value of such estimated at its market value at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme; and thereupon, the plot included in the final scheme shall vest absolutely in the Planning Authority free from all encumbrances, but subject to the provisions of this Act: Provided that, the payment made by the Planning Authority on account of the value of the original plot shall not be included in the costs of the scheme.

106. Payment by adjustment of account :-

All payment due to be made to any person by a Planning Authority under this Act shall, as far as possible, be made by an adjustment in such person's account with the Planning Authority in respect of the final plot concerned or of any other plot in which he has an interest, and failing such adjustment shall be paid in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

107. Payment of net amount due to Planning Authority :-

The net amount payable under the provisions of this Act by the power of a final plot included in a final scheme may at the option of the contributor be paid in one sum or annual installments not exceeding ten. If the owner elects to pay the amount by installments, interest at 6 per cent per annum shall be charged on the net amount payable. If the owner of the plot fails to elect the option on or before the date specified in a notice issued to him in that behalf by the Planning Authority, he shall be deemed to have elected the option of paying contributions by installments and the interest on the contributions shall be calculated from the date specified in the notice being the date before which he was required to make an election as aforesaid:

Provided that, where an owner elects to pay the amount in one sum but fails to do so, interest at 6 per cent per annum shall be payable by him to the Planning Authority from the date specified in the notice to the date of payment.

(2) Where two or more final plots included in a final scheme are in the same ownership, the net amount payable by such owner under the provisions of this Act shall be distributed over his several plots in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of each final plot unless the owner and the Planning Authority agree to a different method of distribution.

108. Power of Planning Authority to make agreement :-

(1) A Planning Authority shall be competent to make any agreement with any person in respect of any matter which is to be provided for in a town planning scheme subject to the power of the State Government to modify or disallow such agreement and unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein such agreement shall take effect on and after the day on which the town planning scheme comes into force.

(2) Such agreement shall not in any way affect the duties of the Arbitrator as stated in section 72 or the rights of the third parties, but it shall be binding on the parties to the agreement, notwithstanding any decision that may be passed by the Arbitrator: Provided that, if any agreement contains any provisions which are inconsistent with the final scheme as drawn up by the Arbitrator under section 72 or the final scheme as sanctioned by the State Government under section 86 such an agreement shall be void: Provided further that, if the agreement is modified by the State Government either party shall have the option of avoiding it if so elects.

109. Recovery of arrears :-

(1) Any sum due to the Planning Authority under this Act, rule or regulation made thereunder shall be a first charge on the day on which it is due, subject to the prior payment of land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon.

(2) Any sum due to the Planning Authority under this Act, rule or regulation made thereunder which is not paid on demand on the day on which it becomes due or on the day fixed by the Planning Authority, shall be recoverable by the Planning Authority from the defaulter as if they were arrears of land revenue.

(3) If any question arises whether a sum is due to the Planning Authority within the meaning of sub-section (2), it shall be referred to a Tribunal constituted by the State Government consisting of one or more persons not connected with the Planning Authority or any authority subordinate to it or with the person by whom the sum is alleged to be payable which the Tribunal shall, after making such inquiry as it may deem fit and after giving to the person by whom the sum is alleged to be payable, an opportunity to being heard, decide the question; and the decision of the Tribunal thereon shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court or before any other authority. (4) The procedure to be followed by the Tribunal in deciding questions referred to it under sub-section (2) shall be such as may be prescribed by the State Government.

110. Disposal of surplus amount :-

Where after completing and meeting all the costs of a scheme as provided in this Act, any amount from the sums paid to the Planning Authority under this Act remains surplus, the Planning Authority shall, in consultation with the owners of the plots, spend such surplus amount for providing further amenities within the area of the scheme.

111. Execution of works in final scheme by Planning Authority :-

(1) A Planning Authority shall complete all the works provided in the final scheme within the period prescribed in the final scheme by the Arbitrator under clause (xviii) of sub-section (3) of section 72 :

Provided that, in exceptional circumstances on application by the Planning Authority, the State Government may by an order in writing specifying those circumstances grant to the Planning Authority in this behalf further extension of time as it may think fit.

(2) If the Planning Authority fails to complete the work within the prescribed period or within the period extended under sub-section (1), the State Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), require the Planning Authority to complete the works within the further period as it may consider reasonable or appoint an officer to complete such works at the cost of the Planning Authority and recover the cost from the Planning Authority in the manner provided by sub-section (2) of section 162 of this Act.

112. Penalty for removal o boundary stones :-

Whoever willfully destroys or injures or without lawful authority removes, a boundary stone or mark lawfully fixed or constructed, the Collector, on receipt of the intimation from the Arbitrator or the Planning Authority, may order such person to pay a fine, not exceeding twenty rupees for each stone or mark so destroyed, injured or removed as may in his opinion be necessary to defray the expenses of restoring the same.

CHAPTER 6

New Towns

113. . :-

(1) If the State Government is satisfied that it is expedient in the public interest that any area should be developed as a site for a new town as reserved or designated [in any draft or final Regional plan] it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, designate that area as the site for the proposed new town. The new town shall be known by the name specified in the notification.

(2) After publication of the notification under sub-section (1), for the purpose of acquiring, developing and disposing of land in the area of a new town, the State Government shall, by another notification in the Official Gazette, constitute a New Town Development Authority. The New Town Development Authority shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice- Chairman

[two members representing the local authorities functioning in the Region and such number of other members not exceeding seven] as in the opinion of the State Government have special knowledge or practical experience in matters relating to town and country planning, an officer to be called the Town Planning Officer and a Chief Executive Officer. The Chairman and the Vice- Chairman and all other members shall be appointed by the State Government.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall be the Secretary of the Development Authority [constituted under sub-section (2)].

[(3A) Having regard to the complexity and magnitude of the work involved in developing any area as a site for new town, the time required for setting up new machinery for undertaking and completing such work of development, and the comparative speed with which such work can undertaken and completed in the public interest, if the work is done through the agency of a Corporation including a Company owned or controlled by the State or a subsidiary Company thereof, set up with the object of developing an area as a new town, the State Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), require the work of developing and disposing of land in the area of a new town to be done by any such corporation, company or subsidiary Company aforesaid, as an agent of the State Government; and thereupon, such corporation or company shall, in relation to such area, be declared by the State Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, to be the New Town Development Authority for that area.]

(4) Every Development Authority shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal with power to acquire, hold or dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to contract and sue or be sued by such name as may be specified in the notification under [sub-section (2)].

S.113 of the principal Act, as amended by sub-section (7) of this section."

(5) [On the constitution of, or on the declaration of any corporation or company as,] a Development Authority for any new town, the local authority or authorities functioning, within the area designated under this Act as a site for new town, immediately [before such constitution or declaration] shall cease to exercise the powers and perform the functions and duties which the said Development Authority is competent to exercise and perform under this Act.

(6) The provisions of section 5 , section 6 , section 7 , section 8 , section 9 , section 10 and section 11 shall mutatis mutandis, apply to a [Development Authority constituted under sub- section (2)] as they apply in relation to a Regional Board.

(7) The Development Authority shall have its office at such place as the State Government may appoint in this behalf.

(8) A Development Authority shall have all powers and shall carry out all the duties of a Planning Authority under this Act, [(including all powers and duties under Chapter III and IV and also under other provisions of this Act)] as may be relevant for carrying out its objects and all the provisions in respect of procedure under this Act shall apply so far as may be necessary in this behalf.

113A. Power of State Government to acquire land for Corporation or Company declared to be New Town Development Authority :-

1 of 1894 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or in any law for the time being in force, where any corporation or company is declared to be the New Town Development Authority under sub-section(3A) of S.113 of the Bombay Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974, the State Government shall acquire either by agreement or under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (and such acquisition may have commenced before the coming into force of this section) and land within the area designated under this Act, as site of a new town, any land adjacent to that area which is required for the purposes connected with the development of a new town, and any land whether adjacent to that area or not, which is required for the provision of services or amenities for the purposes of the new town; and vest such land in such Authority for the purposes of this Chapter] [by an order duly made in that behalf]. Objects of Development Authority.

114. . :-

(1) The objects of a Development Authority shall be to secure the laying out and development of the new town in accordance with [provisions] of this Act, and for that purpose every such Authority shall [subject to the provisions of section 113A] have power to acquire, hold, manage and dispose of land and other property to carry out building and other operations, to provide water, electricity, gas, sewerage, and other services and amenities and facilities and generally to do anything necessary or expedient for the purpose of the new town or for purposes incidental thereto. [* * *]

(2) Without prejudice to any provision of this Act requiring the consent of the State Government to be obtained for anything to be done by a Development Authority, the State Government may give directions to any such Development Authority for restricting the exercise by it of any of its powers under this Act, or for requiring it to exercise those powers in any manner specified in the directions:

Provided that,-

(a) before giving any such directions, the State Government [shall consult with the Chairman, or if the Chairman is not available, with the Vice- Chairman, of the Development Authority constituted under sub- section (2) of section 113 , or as the case may be, with the officer or officers of the Development Authority declared under sub-section (3A) of that section who is or are duly authorised by such authority unless the State Government is satisfied that, on account of urgency, such consultation is impracticable; and

(b) any transaction between any person and such Development Authority acting in the purported exercise of their powers under this Act shall not be void by reason only that it was carried out in contravention of such directions, unless that person had actual notice of the directions.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the provisions of sub-section (1) with respect to the powers of Development Authorities relate only to their capacity as statutory corporations; and nothing in this section shall be construed as authorising the disregard by a Development Authority of any enactment of law.

115. Planning and control of development in new towns :-

Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (8) of section 113 , the Development Authority] shall from time to time submit to the State Government in accordance with any directions that may be given by the State Government in that behalf, its proposals for the development of land within the area designated under this Act as a site of a new town, and the State Government [after consultation with the Director of Town Planning], may approve any such proposals either with or without modification.

116. Acquisition of land by Development Authority constituted under section 113(2). 1 of 1894 :-

A Development Authority [constituted under sub-section (2) of section 113], shall have all the power of a Planning Authority under this Act as provided in Chapter VII for the purpose of acquisition either by agreement or under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 of-

- (a) any land within the area designated under this Act as the site of a new town;
- (b) any land adjacent to that area which is required for the purposes connected with the development of a new town; and
- (c) any land whether adjacent to that area or not, which is required for the provision of services or amenities for the purposes of the new town.

117. Obligation to purchase designated land :-

Where any land within the area designated by a notification under section 113 of this Act as the site of a new town has not been [acquired by the State Government or a Development Authority constituted under sub-section (2) of section 113], within a period of ten years from the date of the notification, any owner of the land may by notice in writing [served on the State Government or the Development Authority] require it to acquire his interest therein; and thereupon, the provisions of section 127 providing for lapsing of reservations shall apply in relation to such land as they apply in relation to land reserved under any plan under this Act.

118. Disposal of land by Development Authority :-

(1) Subject to any directions given by the State Government under this Act, a Development Authority may dispose of any land acquired by it [or vesting in it] to such persons, in such manner, and subject to such terms and conditions as they consider expedient for securing the development of the new town in accordance with proposals approved by the State Government under this Act:

Provided that, a Development Authority shall not have power, except with the consent of the State Government to sell any land or to grant a lease of any land for a term of more than ninety-nine years, and the State Government shall not consent to any such disposal of land unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances which render the disposal of land in that manner expedient.

(2) The powers of a Development Authority with respect to the disposal of [land acquired for it for the purposes of this Act] shall be so exercised as to secure, so far as practicable, that persons who were living or carrying on business or other activities on land so acquired shall, if they desire to obtain a plot or accommodation [on land belonging to, or vesting in,] the Development Authority and are willing to comply with any requirements of the Development Authority as to its development and use, have an opportunity to obtain a plot or accommodation suitable to their reasonable requirements on terms settled with due regard to the price at which any such land has been acquired from them.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling a Development Authority to dispose of land by way of gift, mortgage or charge, but subject as aforesaid, references in this Act to the disposal of land shall be construed as references to the disposal thereof in any manner, whether by way of sale, exchange or lease by the creation of any easement, right or privilege or otherwise.

119. Directions by State Government for disposal of land :-

The State Government may give to any Development Authority such directions with respect to the disposal of land acquired by the Authority [or vested in it] under this Act and with respect to the development by that Authority of such land, as appear to the State Government to be necessary or expedient for securing so far as practicable, the preservation of any features or objects of special architectural or historic interest.

120. Power to make agreement for provision of services :-

A Development Authority may make any agreement or enter into any contract with any local authority, Planning Authority or statutory body in order to secure the provisions of services, such as water supply, drainage, including sewerage, electricity, gas within the area of the new town, subject to the power of the State Government to modify or disallow such agreement or contract.

121. . :-

Contributions by Development Authority towards expenditure of local authorities and statutory authority Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred on a Development Authority under this Chapter, any Development Authority may, with the consent of the State Government, contribute such sums as the State Government may determine towards expenditure incurred or to be incurred by any local authority, Planning Authority or statutory body in the performance, in relation to the new town, of any of their statutory functions, including expenditure so incurred in the acquisition of land.

122. Advances and payments by State Government to Development Authority :-

(1) For the purposes of enabling a Development Authority [constituted under sub-section (2) of section 113], to defray expenditure properly chargeable to capital account including the provision of working capital, the State Government may, after due appropriation made by the State Legislature by law in this behalf, make advances to the Development Authority repayable over such periods and on such terms as may be approved by the State Government.

(2) For the purposes of enabling [such Development Authority] to defray any other expenditure, the State Government may, after due appropriation made by the State Legislature by law in this behalf, make grants to the Development Authority of such amounts it may decide in this behalf.

(3) All sums received by the State Government by way of interest on an advance made to a Development Authority under sub-section (1) and all sums received by way of repayment of the principal of such an advance shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund of the State; and the State

(4) It shall be a condition of the making of advances to a Development Authority under this section that [the plans or proposals] for development submitted to the State Government [under this Act] shall be approved by the State Government as being likely to secure for the Development Authority an overall return which is reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances, when compared with the cost of carrying out those proposals.

(5) The provisions of Chapter VIII in regard to budget, accounts and audit shall [except as provided in that Chapter] apply to every Development Authority.

(6) Every Development Authority shall provide the State Government with such information relating to the undertaking of the Authority as the State Government may from time to time require, and for that purpose shall permit any person authorised by the State Government in that behalf to inspect and make copies of the accounts, books, documents or papers of the Development Authority and shall afford such explanation thereof as that person or the State Government may reasonably require.

122A. Power of Development Authority to borrow and to accept deposits :-

(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 122 , a Development Authority constituted under sub-section (2) of section 113 may,-

(a) subject to such conditions as may be determined in this behalf by the State Government borrow money in open market or otherwise with a view to provide itself with adequate resources;

(b) accept deposits on such conditions as it deems fit from persons to whom allotment or sale of land or building or any structure is made, or is likely to be made in furtherance of the objects of the Chapter.

(2) all money borrowed under sub-section (1) may be guaranteed by the State Government as to the repayment of principal amount and interest at such rates and on such conditions as the State Government may determine at the time, the money is borrowed.

123. Transfer of undertaking of Development Authority :-

(1) Without prejudice to the power of a Development Authority under this Act to dispose of any of their property, a Development Authority may by an agreement made with any local authority, or Planning Authority and approved by the State Government transfer to that local authority or Planning Authority any part of the property of the Development Authority upon such terms as may be prescribed by the agreement:

Provided that, before approving such agreement, the State Government shall, publish in the Official Gazette, and in one or more local newspapers a notice stating that the agreement has been submitted for approval, and describing the general effect of the agreement.

(2) If the State Government is satisfied that it is expedient, having regard to any agreement made or proposed to be made under subsection (1) that the liability of the Development Authority in respect of advances made to it under this Act should be reduced, the State Government may, by order, reduce that liability to such extent as may be specified in the order.

(3) The payment of any sum payable by a local authority or Planning Authority for the purposes of an agreement under this section shall be a purpose for which that authority may, notwithstanding anything contained in any law constituting such authority, borrow money.

124. Combination and transfers of Development Authorities :-

(1) If it appears to the State Government in the case of any area designated under this Act as the site of a new town, that there are exceptional circumstances which render it expedient that the functions of a Development Authority under this Act should be performed by the Development Authority established for the purpose of any other new town instead of by a separate Development Authority established for the purpose, it may, in lieu of establishing such a separate Development Authority by order, direct that the said functions shall be performed by the Development Authority established for the said other new town.

(2) If it appears to the State Government that there are exceptional circumstances which render it expedient that the functions of a Development Authority for the purposes of a new town should be transferred to the Development Authority to be established for the purposes of any other new town, or to a new Development Authority to be established for the purposes of the first mentioned new town, it may by order provide for the dissolution of the first mentioned Development Authority and for the transfer of its functions, property, rights and liabilities to the Development Authority established for the purpose of the said other new town or , as the case may be to a new Development Authority established for the purposes of the first mentioned new town by order.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act with respect to the variation of orders made thereunder, an order under this section, providing for the exercise of functions in relation to purposes of another new town, or for the transfer of such functions to such a Development Authority, may modify the name and constitution of that Development Authority in such a manner as appears to the State Government to be expedient, and for the purposes of this Act that Development Authority shall be deemed to have been established for the purposes of each of those new towns.

(4) Before making an order under this section providing for the transfer of functions from or to a Development Authority or for the exercise of any functions to such a Development Authority, the State Government shall consult with that Development Authority.

CHAPTER 6A

Levy, Assessment and Recovery of Development Charge Levy of development charge

124A. . :-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority (hereinafter in this Chapter collectively referred to as "the Authority"), shall levy within the area of its jurisdiction development charge on the institution of use or change of use of any land or building, or development of any land or building, for which permission is required under this Act, at the rates specified by or under the provisions of this Chapter: Provided that, where land appurtenant to a building is used for any purpose independent of the building, development charge may be levied separately for the building and the land.

(2) The development charge shall be leviable on any person who institutes or changes the use of any land or undertakes or carries out any development:

[Provided that,-

(i) no such development charge shall be leviable under the provisions of this Chapter in respect of use or change of use of any land or building, or development of any land or building, or both, for which a development permission has had already been granted or deemed to have been granted by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority either by way of commencement certificate or by way of any other mode of permission for development granted under this Act or any other law for the time being in force or by way of approval subject to condition in the S.346 of the

Bombay Provincial Municipal Corporation Act, before the 10th day of August 1992, being the date of commencement of the Maharashtra Regional Town Planning (Amendment) Act, 1992 (hereinafter in this section, referred to as "the said date"), irrespective of whether or not the institution or use or change of use of actual development work, of land or building or both, has been effected or commenced or completed, as the case may be, and whether or not the completion certificate for any such use, change of use or development is granted by the Planning Authority or Development Authority, before the said date;

(ii) where the development permission for land development, including permission, sub-division of a land, land development or land reclamation not involving any building or construction operations has had already been granted by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority before the said date, no development charge in respect of such charge shall be leviable for the land development activities, irrespective of whether or not development of such land (not involving any building or construction operations) has actually been commenced or completed, before the said date. However, if at a later date, permission for construction operations is granted, the development charge in respect of such land shall be leviable only for building or construction activities: Provided further that, nothing in this Chapter shall apply to demolition of any existing building, structure or erection, or part of such building, structure or erection.
