3. Levy and charge of tax :-

(1) subject to the provisions of article 276 of the Constitution of India and of this Act, there shall be levied and collected a tax on professions, trades, callings and employments for the benefit of the State.

(2) Every Person engaged [excluding firms (whether registered under the Indian Partnership Act, 1932, or not) and Hindu undivided family] [factively or otherwise] in any profession, trade, calling or employment and falling under one or the other of the classes mentioned in the second column of Schedule I shall be liable to pay to the State Government the tax at the rate mentioned against the class of such persons in the third column of the said Schedule:

Provided that the tax so payable in respect of any one person shall not exceed [two thousand and five hundred rupees] any year:

Provided further that, entry [23] in Schedule I shall apply only to such classes of person as may be specified by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette, from time to time.

4. Employers liability to deduct and pay tax on behalf of employees :-

The tax payable under this Act by any person earning a salary or wage, shall be deducted by his employer from the salary or wage payable to such person, before such salary or wage is paid to him, and such employer shall, irrespective of whether such deduction has been made or not, when the salary or wage is paid to such person, be liable to pay tax on behalf of all such persons: Provided that, if the employer is an officer of Government, the State Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, prescribe by rules the manner in which such employer shall discharge the said liability:

[Provided further that, where any person earning a salary or wage -

(a) is also covered by one or more entries other than entry 1 in Schedule 1 and the rate of tax under any such other entry is more than the rate of tax under entry 1 in that Schedule, or

(b) is simultaneously engaged in employment of more than one employer, and such person furnished to his employer or employers a certificate in the prescribed form declaring, inter alia that he shall get enrolled under sub-section (2) of Section 5 and pay the tax himself, then the employer or employers of such person shall not deduct the tax from the salary or wage payable to such person and such employer or employers, as the case may be, shall not be liable to pay tax on behalf of such person.]

5. Registration and enrolment :-

(1) Every employer (not being an officer of Government) liable to pay tax under Section 4 [or under sub-section (5) of Section 10 A] shall obtain a certificate of registration from the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner.

(2) Every person liable to pay tax under this Act (other than a person earning salary or wages, in respect of whom the tax is payable by his employer), shall obtain a certificate of enrolment from the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner.

(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section and the last preceding Section; where a person is a citizen of India and is in employment of any diplomatic or consular office or trade Commissioner of any foreign country situated in any part of the State, such person, if liable to pay tax, shall obtain a certificate of enrolment as provided in Sub-Section (2) and pay the tax himself.]

(3) Every employer or person required to obtain a certificate of registration or enrolment shall, within thirty days from the date of first publication of this Act in the Official Gazette, or, if he was not engaged in any profession, trade, calling or employment on that date [with in thirty days of his becoming liable to pay tax], or, in respect of a person referred to [in sub-section (2) or (2A)], within thirty days of his becoming liable to pay tax at a rate higher or lower than the one mentioned in his certificate of enrolment, apply for a certificate of registration or enrolment, or a revised certificate of enrolment, as the case may be, to the prescribed authority in the prescribed form, and the prescribed authority shall, after making such inquiry as may be necessary within thirty days of the receipt of the application (which period in the first year from the commencement of this Act shall be extended to ninety days), if the application is in order, grant him such certificate:

[Provided that, where on account of revision of rate of tax the person liable to pay tax is required to pay tax at a rate higher or lower than the one mentioned in the certificate of enrolment, the rate of tax mentioned in such certificate shall be deemed to have been revised accordingly on the date of such revision of rate of tax as aforesaid; and pending such person applying for a revised certificate of enrolment and grant of such certificate to him, such person shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, be liable to pay tax at such revised rate.]

(4) The prescribed authority shall mention in every certificate of enrolment the amount of tax payable by the holder according to Schedule I, and the date by which it shall be paid and such certificate shall [subject to the provisions of the proviso to sub-section (3)] serve as a notice of demand for purposes of Section 10 .

(5) Where an employer or a person liable to registration or enrolment has <sup>1</sup>[* * *] failed to apply for such certificate within the required time, the prescribed authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose <sup>2</sup>[penalty of rupees five for each day of delay in case of such employer and rupees two for each day of delay in case of such person].

(6) Where an employer or a person liable to registration or enrolment has <sup>3</sup>[* * *] given false information in any application submitted under this Section, the prescribed authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose a <sup>4</sup> [penalty equal to three times the tax payable under the Act].

4. These words were substituted for the words "a penalty not exceeding rupees five for each day of delay" by Mah.Act. 20 of 2002, s. 22

7. Assessment of employers :-

(1) If the prescribed authority is satisfied that the return filed by an employer is correct and complete, he shall accept the return.

(a) If the prescribed authority is not satisfied that the return filed is correct and complete, he Shall serve upon the employer, a notice requiring him, on a date specified in the notice, to attend in person, or through an authorised representative, and to produce accounts and papers in support of the return.

(b) The prescribed authority shall, on examination of accounts, and papers, assess the amount of tax payable by the employer.

(c) If the employer fails to comply with the terms of the notice, or if in the opinion of the prescribed authority the accounts and papers are incorrect or incomplete or unreliable, the said authority shall, after such inquiry as he deems fit, or otherwise, assess the tax due to the best of his I judgment.

<sup>1</sup> (2A) The amount of tax due from any employer shall be assessed separately for each year during which he was liable to pay tax:

Provided that, the prescribed authority may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed and for reasons to be recorded in writing, assess the tax due from any employer during any part of a year;

(3) If an employer has [* * *] failed to get himself registered or being registered has failed to file any return, the prescribed authority shall, after giving the employer a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding such inquiry as he deems fit, or otherwise, pass an order assessing the amount of tax due to the best of his judgment,

(4) The amount of a tax so assessed shall be paid within fifteen days of receipt of the notice of demand from the prescribed authority.

1. This sub-section was inserted by Mah. 21 of 1976,s. 6(a)

8. Payment of tax :-

(1) The tax payable under this Act shall be paid in the prescribed manner.

(2) The amount of tax due from enrolled persons for each year as specified in their enrolment certificates shall be paid -

(a) in respect of a person who stands enrolled before the commencement of a year or is enrolled on or before the [3 1st May] of a year. \[Before 30th June of that year or such later date as the Commissioner may by notification in the official Gazette, specify in respect of that year]

(b) in respect of a person who is enrolled after the [31st May]of a year. \Within one month of the date of enrolment.

[(c) in respect of a person who is enrolled and the rate of tax at which he is liable to pay tax is revised. \Within one month of the date of such revision.

(a) Subject to the rules, any person holding a certificate of enrolment and liable to pay tax at the rate of rupees [1700, 2200, or as the case may be 2500] per annum, may discharge his liability for payment of tax under this Act for a total continuous period of five years by making payment in advance of a lump sum amount equal to four times of such rate of tax, on or before the 30th June of the year.

(b) If any such lump sum payment is not made on or before such date, but is made on or before the end of the year, such person shall be liable to pay an additional lump sum amount for the period of delay at the rate of rupees [200] per month, in addition to the amount of lump sum payable under clause (a).

(c) Any increase or decrease in the rate of tax shall not vary the liability of tax payable by such person who has paid such lump sum amount in lieu of tax].

9. Consequences of failure to deduct or to pay tax :-

(1) If an employer (not being an officer of Government) [fails to pay the tax] as required by or under this Act, he shall, without prejudice to any other consequences and liabilities which he may incur, be deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of the tax.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), [an employer referred to in that subsection shall be liable] to pay simple interest at 2 per cent, of the amount of the tax [payable for each month] for the period for which the tax remains unpaid.

[(2 A) Where the amount of tax as assessed under Section 7 or as found payable in view of an order passed under Section 13 or 14 is more than the amount of tax paid by the employer, then such employer shall be liable to pay simple interest on the amount of difference of tax at the rate and in the manner laid down in sub-section (2)].

(3) If an enrolled person fails to pay the tax as required by or under this Act, he shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate and in the manner laid down in sub-section (2). [(4) The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed and for reasons to be recorded in writing, remit the whole or any part of the interest payable in respect of any period under this Section.]

10. Penalty for non-payment of tax :-

If an enrolled person or a registered employer fails, without reasonable cause, to make payment of any amount of tax within the required time or date as specified in the notice of demand,, the prescribed authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose upon him [a penalty equal to ten per cent of the amount of tax due]

10A. Special Provision regarding liability to pay tax in certain cases :-

(1) Where an employer liable to pay tax, under Section 4 of this Act

dies then, his legal representative shall be liable to pay tax (including any penalty and interest) due from such employer under this Act, in the like manner and to the same extent as the deceased employer, whether such tax (including any penalty and interest) has been assessed before the death of the employer but has remained unpaid, or is assessed after the death of the employer.

Explanation:- In this sub-section, the expression "legal representative" has the same meaning assigned to it in clause (11) of Section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908

12A. Determination of certain disputed questions :-

(1) If any question arises, otherwise than in proceedings before a Court or before the prescribed authority has commenced assessment of an employer under Section 7 , about the interpretation or the scope of any expression defined in Section 2 or of any entry in Schedule I, the Commissioner shall make an order determining such question. Explanation:- For the purposes of this Sub-Section the prescribed authority shall be deemed to have commenced assessment of an employer under Section 7 , when the employer is served with a notice under that Section.

(2) The Commissioner may direct that the determination shall not affect the liability of any person under this Act, as respects the period prior to the determination.

(3) If any such question arises from any order already passed under this Act no such question shall be entertained for determination under this Section; but such question may be raised in appeal against, or by way of revision of, such order].

13. Appeal :-

(1) Subject to rules as may be made by the State Government, any person or employer aggrieved by any order made under Section 5 Section 6 Section 7 Section 9 Section 10 Section 15 Section 16 may appeal against such order to,

(a) the Assistant Commissioner, if the order is passed by any prescribed authority or officer subordinate to him;

(b) the Deputy Commissioner, if the order is passed by the Assistant Commissioner; and

(c) the Tribunal, if the order is passed by any officer not below the rank of Deputy Commissioner.

(2) No appeal shall be entertained after the expiry of sixty days from the date of receipt of demand notice or receipt of the order- Provided that, the appellate authority may admit the appeal after the expiry of the above period, if he is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the delay.

[(3) No appeal against an order of assessment with or without penalty or interest, or against an order imposing penalty or interest shall ordinarily be entertained by an appellate authority, unless such appeal is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of tax with or without penalty interest or, as the case may be, of the payment of penalty or interest, in respect of which appeal has been preferred:

Provided that, an appellate authority may, if it thinks fit, for reason to be recorded in writing, entertain an appeal against such order on payment of not less than twenty-five per cent, of the amount of tax, penalty or interest, in respect of which appeal has been preferred, as it may direct.]

(4) The appellate authority in disposing of an appeal, may -

(i) confirm, annul, reduce, enhance, or otherwise modify the assessment or penalty or interest, or

(ii) set aside the assessment or penalty or interest and direct the authority which made the assessment or imposed the penalty or charged the interest to pass a fresh order after further inquiry on specified points.

(5) No order under this Section shall be passed without giving the appellant or his representative, and, where the appellate authority is the Tribunal, without giving the authority whose order or direction is the subject of the appeal or his representative, a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

14. Revision :-

(1) Any order passed in appeal under Section 13 may, on an application being made in this behalf, be revised by -

(a) the Deputy Commissioner, if the order is passed by the Assistant Commissioner;

(b) the Tribunal, if the order is passed by the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) Any order passed by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (1) or by the Commissioner under sub-section (4) of this Section, [or any order made by the Commissioner under Section 12A , may, on an application being made to the tribunal against such order, be revised by the Tribunal].

(3) No revision shall be entertained under sub-section (1) or (2) after the expiry of sixty days from the date of the receipt of the order.

(4) The Commissioner may, of his own motion, revise any order passed by any authority other than the Tribunal under this Act:

Provided that, no order shall be revised by the Commissioner under this sub-section after the expiry of three years from the passing of the impugned order.

(5) No order under this Section shall be passed without giving the applicant or the assessee a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

15. Rectification of mistakes :-

(1) Any authority under this Act may, of his own motion or on an application being made in this behalf, rectify any mistake apparent on the face of the record.

(2) Any authority under this Act may review his own order, if any employer has been under assessed for any period:

Provided that, if an order under this Section has an adverse effect on an employer or a person, no such order shall be passed unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been given to such employer or person:

Provided further that, no order under this Section shall be passed after the expiry of three years from the passing of the impugned order.

16. Accounts :-

(1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the books of account and other documents maintained by an employer in the normal course of his business are not adequate for verification of the returns filed by the employer under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to direct the employer to maintain the books of account or other documents in such manner as he may in writing direct, and thereupon the employer shall maintain such books of account or other documents accordingly.

(2) Where an employer willfully fails to maintain the books of accounts or other documents as directed under sub-section (1), the Commissioner may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose a penalty not exceeding rupees five for each day of delay.

17. Special mode of recovery :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract to the contrary, the Commissioner may, at any time, or from time to time, by notice in writing, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the assessee at his last address known to the Commissioner, require -

(a) any person from whom any amount of money is due, or may become due, to an assessee on whom notice of demand has been served under this Act, or

(b) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such assessee, to pay the Commissioner, either forth with upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (but not before the money becomes due or is held as aforesaid), so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the assessee in respect of the arrears of tax, penalty and interest under this Act, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.

Explanation:- For the purposes of this Section, the amount of money due to an assess form, or money held for or on account of an assessee by, any person shall be calculated after deducting therefrom such claims (if any) lawfully subsisting, as may have fallen due for payment by such assessee to such person.

(2) The Commissioner may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any such notice, or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of the notice.

(3) Any person making any payment in compliance with a notice under this Section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the assessee, and the receipt of the Commissioner shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person, to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt.

(4) Any person discharging any liability to the assessee after receipt of the notice referred to in this Section, shall be personally liable to the Commissioner to the extent of the liability discharged, or the extent of the liability of the assessee for tax, penalty and interest, whichever is less.

(5) Where a person to whom a notice under this Section is sent proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the assessee or that he does not hold any money for on account of the assessee, then nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to require such person to pay any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be, to the Commissioner.

(6) Any amount of money which a person is required to pay to the Commissioner or for which he is personally liable to the Commissioner under this Section, shall, if it remains unpaid be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

18. Production and inspection of accounts and documents and search of premises :-
