An Act for regulating the establishment [and the closure] of markets and fairs. WHEREAS the establishment of newmarkets or fairs in the neighbourhood of places where markets or fairs have been previously established leads to disputes between the owners of the lands on which such new and previously established markets or fairs are held, and such disputes not unfrequently occasion breaches of peace and serious inconvenience to the frequenters of [such markets or fairs; AND WHEREAS it is expedient to provide also for the closure of existing markets or fairs in the interests of the general public;] It is enacted as follows:-

1. No new market or fair to be established without permission. :-

<sup>12</sup>NO person shall establish a new market or fair without permission, in writing, from the Magistrate of the district. Panelty for attempt to attempt to establish without license. If any person shall attempt to establish a new market or fair without such license he shall, on conviction by <sup>3</sup> [a Magistrate of the first class], be subject to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or, in default of payment, to simple imprisonment for any period not exceeding two months.

1. The words "After the passing of this Act" were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1873 (12 of 1873)

2. These words were substituted for the words "the Magistrate" by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. 3 of 1886), Schedule B. This Schedule is printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. 1 of 1904)

3. The word "Calendar" was repealed by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. 3 of 1886).

2. Person desiring to establish to apply to Magistrate :-

When any person desires to establish a new market or fair, he shall make application, in writing , to the Magistrate of the district. Contents of application The application shall specify- the name of the place at which it is proposed to establish such new market or fair; the days on which it is to be held; the name of the place where the nearest market or fair is held; the days on which it is held; the distance, in English miles, between the two places; and the reasons of the applicant for desiring to establish a new market or fair;

3. Procedure on application :-

<sup>1</sup>[On receipt of the application the Magistrate, subject to the provisions of this section and of section 5A, may] issue a proclamation stating the desire of the applicant to establish a market or fair at the place named by him and the days on which it is proposed to be held and calling upon any person who may have any objection to the establishment of the market or fair to state his objection, in writing within six weeks from the date of the proclamation.

<sup>2</sup>[Provided that the Magistrate instead of issuing a proclamation may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, dismiss the application summarily

<sup>3</sup>Publication of proclamation.[If a proclamation is issued, it shall be fixed ] in a conspicuous place in the village or town in or near to which it is proposed that the new market or fair shall be held, and a copy of the same shall be affixed at the police station within the jurisdiction of which the village or town is situated, and in the Court of the Magistrate. If it shall appear that any existing market or fair is held within a distance of <sup>4</sup>[six miles] from the place where it is proposed that the new market or fair shall be established, the Magistrate shall cause a notice, to the effect of the proclamation to be served upon the owner of the land where such existing market or fair is held. The proclamation and notice (if any) shall be issued and served <sup>5</sup> [at the expense of the Government]

1. The words, figure and letter were substituted for the words "On receipt of the application, the Magistrate shall" by Bom. 6 of 1956, s. 2(1)

No order under section 3,4 <sup>1</sup>[5, 5C or 5D] shall be made by the Magistrate of the District except in consultation with the Director of Agricultural Marketing and Rural Finance [4* * * * referred to in the Bombay Agricultural Produce Markets Act, 1939, (Bom XXII of 1939), or any officer authorised by the Director in this behalf 15[or in consultation with any other officer specified by the State Government]].

5B. Refusal of permission if within 5 miles a market or fair is already established. If there be a market or fair within a distance of five miles from the place where it is proposed that the new market or fair shall be established, the Magistrate shall refuse permission to establish such market or fair. ]

5C.<sup>2</sup> Power to close existing market or fair in public interest. The District Magistrate, on an application made to him under this Act for the closure of an existing market or fair, if he is satisfied that it is necessary so to do-

(a) for the prevention of breaches of the peace or serious inconvenience to the frequenters of such market or fair, or

(b) because of the vicinity of any place of public religious worship, educational institution, hostel, hospital, nursing home, or other public place to the market or fair and the consequent nuisance caused to such public place by the holding of the market or fair, or

(c) on grounds of public health, public convenience or safety, or the proper regulation of traffic, may, by order in writing, direct that, from such date as is stated therein, either permanently or for a period specified in the order such market or fair shall be closed and shall not be held at such place:

Provided that no order shall be made by the Magistrate, unless he has followed the procedure set out in section 5D.

5D. Procedure for closure of existing market or fair. (1) An application for the closure of the existing market or fair under the last preceding section shall specify-

(2) On receipt of such application, the District Magistrate shall issue a proclamation, stating therein that an application has been made to him for the closure of the existing market or fair and the reasons urged therefor, and calling upon all persons who may be interested in the holding of the market or fair, or who may have any objection to such closure, to submit their objections in writing to the Magistrate, within six weeks from the date of the proclamation. The District Magistrate shall also cause a notice, setting out the matter contained in the proclamation, to be served upon the owner of the land upon which the market or fair to be closed is held, and also upon the owner of such market or fair, calling upon them to show cause, within six weeks from the date of the notice, why such market or fair should not be closed:

Provided that the District Magistrate, instead of issuing a proclamation and notice as aforesaid, may for reasons to be recorded in writing, dismiss the application summarily.

(3) If a proclamation is issued, it shall be fixed in a conspicuous place in the village or town in or near to which the market or fair to be closed is held, and a copy of the same shall be affixed at the police station within the jurisdiction of which the village or town is situated.

(4) The proclamation and notice (if any) shall be issued and served at the expense of Government.

(5) If, within the time specified in the proclamation and notice, no objection is preferred to the closure of the market or fair, the District Magistrate may forthwith, and if within such time any objection is preferred, the District Magistrate shall enquire into the objection, and pass such order as may appear proper under the circumstances of the case.]
