Provided that no tax shall be levied under this Act, on any such goods in respect of which such tax has already been paid.

4. Rate Of Tax :-

The tax payable by a dealer under this Act shall be levied at the rates specified in Schedules I and II :

Provided that the Government may, from time to time by notification and subject to such conditions as they may impose, fix any lower rate of tax payable under this Act in respect of any goods specified in such notification.

5. Exemption In Respect Of Goods Exported :-

If the Government are satisfied that circumstances exist for which it is necessary so to do, they may, by notification exempt the payment of tax, in whole or in part, in respect of any goods carried for the purpose of export to places outside the territory of India for such period as may be fixed from time to time.

6. Determination Of Weight And Quantity :-

In so far as it may be necessary the weight in respect of jute or Kendu leaves or minerals and mineral-ores and the quantity in respect of bamboos on which tax is payable shall be determined in the manner prescribed.

7. Taxing Authority :-

The Government may, for carrying out the purposes of this Act, appoint a Commissioner and such other officer or officers to assist him as they may think fit.

8. Returns :-

(1) Any person who may be required so to do by the Commissioner by notice served in the prescribed manner and every registered dealer shall furnish such returns in such form and to such authority as may be prescribed :

Provided that in respect of Kendu leaves the dealer shall have the option of furnishing return only in respect of his central godowns declared by him and recognised as such by the taxing authorities in accordance with the rules made in that behalf.

(2) The returns, during the first year of operation of his Act, shall be furnished for such period and within such time as may be notified by the Commissioner in this behalf and thereafter quarterly returns shall be furnished within thirty days of completion of the quarter in respect of which returns are to be filled.

(3) If any dealer discovers any omission or other error in any return furnished by him, he may furnish a revised return at any time before assessment is made on the original return.

9. Registration Of Dealers :-

(1) Every dealer shall get himself registered under this Act, and for the said purpose shall submit an application for registration, to such person, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed and every such application shall be accompanied by a fee of rupees ten.

(2) The registering authority may, for good and sufficient reasons, demand from a registered dealer or from a dealer who has applied for registration under this Act reasonable security to be paid in the prescribed manner for the proper payment of tax payable by him under this Act and if the security so demanded is not paid the said authority, may notwithstanding anything contained in this Act-

(i) if the defaulter happens to be a registered dealer, cancel the certificate of registration granted to him; or

(ii) if the defaulter is a dealer who has applied for registration, refuse to grant him a certificate of registration :

Provided that no such cancellation or refusal shall be made unless the dealer has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

10. Assessment :-

(1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the return furnished by a dealer under Section 8 in respect of any period is correct and complete, he shall, by an order in writing, assess the dealer and determine the tax payable by him on the basis of such return.

(2) If the Commissioner is not satisfied that the return furnished under Section 8 is correct and complete, he shall serve on the dealer a notice requiring him, on the date and hour and place mentioned therein either to attend in person or to produce or cause to be produced any evidence on which he may rely in support of his return.

(3) On the date mentioned in the notice under Sub-section (2) or as soon afterwards as may be, the Commissioner, after hearing such evidence as the dealer may produce and such other evidence as the Commissioner may require, shall, by an order in writing, assess the dealer and determine the tax payable by him on the basis of such assessment.

(4) If a dealer having furnished the return as required under Section 8 fails to comply with the terms of a notice issued under Sub-section (2), the Commissioner shall, by an order in writing, assess the dealer to the best of his judgment and determine the tax payable by him on the basis of such assessment :

Provided that before making assessment, the Commissioner may, allow the dealer such further time as he thinks fit to comply with the terms of the notice issued under Sub-section (2).

(5) If a dealer fails to make a return as required under Section 8, the Commissioner shall, after giving the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by an order in writing, assess the dealer to the best of his judgment and determine the tax payable by him on the basis of such assessment.

(6) (i) If the Commissioner in course of any proceedings under Subsections (3), (4) and (5) is satisfied that any dealer-

(a) has, without reasonable cause, failed to furnish the return which he was required to furnish under Section 8 or has without reasonable cause failed to furnish it within the time prescribed and in the manner required or has failed to pay the admitted tax before furnishing the return; or

(b) has, without reasonable cause, failed to comply with a notice under Sub-section (2) within the time specified therein or within the time extended under the proviso to Sub-section (4); or

(c) has, concealed the particulars of goods carried or furnished particulars of such goods which are inaccurate to his knowledge; or

(d) has, evaded in any way the liability to pay tax;

he may direct that such dealer shall pay by way of penalty, in addition to the tax payable by him, a sum not exceeding one and a half times of the tax payable by him.

(ii) No order under Clause (i) shall be made-unless the dealer has been heard or has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(7) Any assessment made under this section shall be without prejudice to any prosecution instituted for an offence under this Act :

Provided that when the Commissioner has imposed a penalty in addition to the amount assessed under this section, no further criminal proceedings for the same offence shall be taken against, the dealer under this Act :

Provided further that no order assessing the amount of tax due from a dealer in respect of any period shall be passed later than thirty-six months from the expiry of such period-

Provided also that the period of limitation fixed in the proviso immediately preceding shall not apply to assessment under Sub-section (8) or to enhancement of assessment or order of fresh assessment made or passed under Section 12.

(8) If for any reason the tax payable by a dealer for any period to which this Act applies has escaped assessment or has been underassessed, the Commissioner may, at any time, within thirty-six months from the expiry of that period, call for a return under Sub-section (1) of Section 8 and may proceed to assess the amount of tax due from the dealer in the manner laid down in this section and may also direct, in cases where such escape or under-assessment is due to the dealer having concealed particulars of goods carried or having furnished incorrect particulars thereof without sufficient cause, that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, in addition to the tax assessed under this sub-section, a sum not exceeding one and a half times of the tax so assessed.

11. Where Tax Is Payable By Representative :-

(1) Where a dealer dies after assessment but before payment of the tax, his executor, administrator or other legal representative shall be liable to pay, out of the estate of the deceased and to the extent to which it is capable meeting the charge, the tax assessed as payable by such dealer.

(2) Where a dealer dies with out having furnished the return required by Section 8 or after having furnished the return but before assessment, the Commissioner may proceed to make assessment and determine the tax payable by the deceased and for this purpose he may require the executor, administrator or other legal representative, as the case may be, of the deceased to perform all or any of the obligations which he might, under the provisions of this Act, have required the deceased to perform. The tax thus determined shall be payable by the executor, administrator or other legal representative of the deceased, to the extent to which the estate of the deceased is capable of meeting the charge.

12. Appeal, Revision And Review :-

(1) Within thirty days from the date of receipt of the copy of an order or assessment, with or without penalty, under Section 10, any dealer may, in the prescribed manner, appeal to the prescribed authority against such assessment or penalty or both :

Provided that no appeal shall be entertained by the said authority unless he is satisfied that such amount of tax as the appellant may admit to be due from him has been paid :

Provided further that the prescribed authority may admit the appeal after the period hereinbefore specified if the said authority is satisfied that the dealer has sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the said period.

(2) Subject to such rules or procedure as may be prescribed, the appellate authority, in disposing of any appeal under Sub-section (1) may-

(a) confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment or penalty, if any, or both; or

(b) set aside the assessment or penalty, if any, or both and direct the assessing authority to pass a fresh order after such further inquiry as may be directed.

(3) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Commissioner may, upon application or of his own motion, revise any order passed under this Act or the rules made thereunder by a person appointed under Section 7 to assist him :

Provided that before rejecting any application for the revision of any such order the Commissioner shall consider it and shall record reasons for such rejection.

(4) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, any order passed under this Act or the rules made thereunder by any person appointed under Section 7 may be reviewed by the person passing it.

(5) Before any order is passed under this section which is likely to affect any person adversely, such person shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(6) Any dealer while preferring an appeal or filing an application for revision under this section, shall deposit in the prescribed manner the prescribed fees or pay the same by way of affixing of Court-fee stamps on the memorandum of appeal or application for revision notwithstanding anything contained in the Court-fees Act, 1870 (7 of 1870).

13. Payment And Recovery Of Tax And Penalty :-

(1) Tax payable under this Act shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided at such intervals as may be prescribed.

(2) Before any dealer furnishes the returns required by Sub-section (1) of Section 8 he shall, in the prescribed manner, pay into a Government Treasury the full amount of tax due from him under this Act according to such returns and shall furnish, along with the returns, a receipt from such treasury showing the payment of such amount :

Provided that in respect of Kendu leaves the said amount may be so deposited in three equal monthly instalments, the receipt for the deposit of the first instalments being filed along with the returns.

(3) If any dealer submits a revised return in accordance with Subsection (3) of Section 8 and if the revised return shows a greater amount of tax to be due than was payable in accordance with the original return, it shall be accompanied by a receipt showing payment in the manner provided in Sub-section (2) of the excess amount.

(4) The amount of tax-

(a) due where the returns are furnished without receipt showing full payment thereof; or

(b) assessed under Sub-section (3), (4) and (5) of Section 10 less the sum, if any, already paid by the dealer in respect of the said period; or

(c) assessed under Sub-section (8) of Section 10 together with the penalty directed to be paid under the said sub-section, and the penalty, if any imposed under Sub-section (6) of Section 10, shall be paid by the dealer into a Government Treasury by such date as may be specified in a notice issued by the Commissioner for this purpose and the date to be so specified shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice.

(5) If any amount of tax together with penalty, if any, is not paid by the date fixed in the notice under Sub-section (4) the Commissioner may direct that the dealer shall, in addition, pay by way of penalty a sum not exceeding one-half of the total amount due within such date not being -less than thirty days from the date of service of notice upon the dealer in this behalf :

Provided that in the case of continuing default, the penalty may be levied in instalments from time to time so however as not to exceed one- half of the total amount due :

Provided further that when a dealer has presented an appeal under Section 12, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, treat the dealer as not being in default so long as the appeal remains pending.

(6) The amount of tax together with the penalty, if any, which remains unpaid after the date specified in the notice issued under Sub-section (4) or after the date specified in the notice under Sub-section (5) shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

14. Refund :-

The Commissioner shall, in the prescribed manner, refund to a dealer applying in this behalf, any sum paid or realised in excess of the sum due from him under this Act, either by cash payment or at the option of the dealer by set off against the sum due from him in respect of any other period. So much of the penalty paid by the dealer as is remitted by the Commissioner shall be refunded or adjusted in the like manner :

Provided that no claim to refund of any sum paid or realised under this Act shall be allowed unless it is made within twenty-four months from the date on which the order of assessment was passed or within twelve months of the final order passed on appeal, revision or review in respect of the order of assessment, whichever period is later.

15. Maintenance And Preservation Of Accounts :-

(1) Every dealer shall maintain such documents and keep a true account for goods carried, in such form and in such details as may be prescribed.

(2) Accounts referred to in Sub-section (1) together with all vouchers relating to stocks, deliveries and quantity of goods shall be preserved for at least three years.

16. Power To Order Production Of Accounts And Search Of Places :-

(1) Subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed, any officer appointed under Section 7, may for the purposes of this Act, require any dealer to produce before him any accounts or documents, and to furnish any information relating to stocks, deliveries and quantity of goods carried.

(2) If any officer appointed under Section 7 has reason to suspect that any dealer is attempting to evade assessment of any tax under this Act, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, seize in the manner prescribed such accounts, registers or documents of the dealer as may be necessary and shall grant a receipt for the same, and shall retain the same only for so long as may be necessary "for the purposes of this Act.

(3) For the purposes of Sub-section (2), the Commissioner may enter and search any place where the goods are kept before or after being carried or where accounts are kept.

17. Establishment Of Checkpost Or Barrier And Inspection Of Goods While In Transit :-

(1) The Government may, by notification direct the setting up of a checkpoint or the erection of a barrier or both, at any place in the State with a view to preventing evasion of tax.

(2) Every person carrying such goods as may be notified shall, at any checkpoint or barrier referred to in Sub-section (1), or at any other place when so required, stop and produce before such officer as may be authorised by Government in this behalf, a certificate of the goods carried in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed and shall also allow such officer to inspect such goods. A copy of the certificate shall also be handed over to the said officer at any checkpoint or barrier.

(3) The officer referred to in Sub-section (2) shall have the power to seize the goods carried if they are not covered by the aforesaid certificate or if the certificate is not complete in all respects.

(4) The goods seized in accordance with Sub-section (3) may be confiscated under the orders of the taxing authority having jurisdiction in the area in which the checkpoint or barrier is situated but before taking action for confiscation of the goods, the said authority shall give the person affected an opportunity of being heard.

(5) When it is proposed to confiscate any goods under this section, the officer concerned shall give the owner or person in charge of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such amount not exceeding four times the tax payable in respect of the said goods : Provided that the goods in respect of which such payment has been made shall not be liable to assessment under Section 10.

18. Inspection Of Vessels Or Vehicles With Goods In Transit

Without prejudice to the provisions contained in Sections 16 and 17 any officer empowered by Government by notification in this behalf may, if he has reasons to suspect that goods are being carried in any vessel or vehicle with a view to evade assessment of tax under this Act, after recording his reasons in writing, direct the person in charge of such vessel or vehicle to keep it stationary as long as may be reasonably necessary and examine the contents in the vessel or vehicle and inspect all records therein in respect of the goods carried and the person in charge of such vessel or vehicle and the goods shall, if so required, give his name and address and those of the owner of the vessel or vehicle as well as those of the
