(2) The Regulations shall be prepared by the Academic Council and shall be submitted to the Syndicate which may approve them or withhold approval or refer them back to the Academic Council for reconsideration. A Regulation prepared by the Academic Council shall not be valid, unless it receives the approval of the Syndicate.

33. Amendment And Repeal Of Statutes And Regulations :-

The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing the Statutes and the Regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making Statutes and Regulations.

34. Rules :-

(1) The Authorities and other bodies of the University may make rules, consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the Regulations, to regulate the conduct of their business and the time and place of meetings and related matters:

Provided that the Syndicate may direct the amendment or the annulment of any rule made under this act by another Authority or body other than the Senate; and Provided further that if such other Authority or body is dissatisfied with such direction it may appeal to the Senate whose decision in the matter shall be final.

(2) The Syndicate may make rules to regulate any matter relating to the affairs of the University which, by this Act has not to be specifically provided for in the Statutes or Regulations.

35. Affiliation :-

(1) An educational institution applying for affiliation to the University shall make an application to the University and shall satisfy it:-

(a) that the educational institution is under the management of the Government or of a regularly constituted governing body;

(b) that the financial resources of the educational institution are sufficient to enable it to make due provision for its continued maintenance and efficient working;

(c) that the strength and qualifications of the teaching and other staff and the terms and conditions of their service, are adequate to make due provision for the courses of instruction, teaching or training to be undertaken by the educational institution;

(d) that the educational institution has framed proper rules regarding the efficiency and discipline of its staff and other employees;

(e) that the building in which the educational institution is to be located is suitable, and that provision will be made in conformity with the Statutes and the Regulations for-

(i) the residence of students, not residing with their parents or guardians, in the hostels established and maintained by the educational institution or in hostels or lodgings approved by it; and

(ii) the supervision and physical and general welfare of students;

(f) that provision has been made for a library and adequate library services;

(g) that where affiliation is sought in any branch of experimental sciences due arrangements have been made for imparting instruction in that branch of science in properly equipped laboratory, museum and other places of practical work;

(h) that due provision will, so far as circumstances may permit, be made for the residence of the principal and members of the teaching staff in or near the college or place provided for the residence of students or in lieu thereof adequate house rent be paid to the members of the teaching staff; and

(i) that the affiliation of an educational institution will not be injurious to the interests of education or discipline of educational institutions in its neighbourhood.

(2) The application shall further contain an undertaking that after the educational institution is affiliated any transference of and changes in the management and in the teaching staff save in the case of Government Colleges, shall be forthwith reported to the University and that the teaching staff shall possess such qualifications as are or may be prescribed.

(3) The procedure to be allowed in disposing of an application for the affiliation of an educational institution shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) The Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, grant or refuse affiliation to an educational institution: Provided that affiliation shall not be refused unless the educational institution has been given an opportunity of making a representation against the proposed decision.

36. Addition Of Courses By Affiliated Educational Institutions :-

Where an educational institution desires to add to the courses of institution in respect of which it is affiliated, the procedure prescribed under sub-section (3) of section 35 shall, so far as may be, be followed.

37. Reports From Affiliated Educational Institutions :-

(1) Every educational institution affiliated to the University shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the University may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the educational institution.

(2) The University may call upon any educational institution affiliated to it to take within a specified period, such action as may appear to the University to be necessary in respect of any of the matters referred to in sub-section (1) of section 35.

38. Withdrawal Of Affiliation :-

(1) If an educational institution affiliated to the University fails at any time to fulfil any of the requirements mentioned in this Act or if an educational institution has failed to observe any of the conditions of its affiliation, or its affairs are conducted in a manner which is prejudicial to the interest of education, the Syndicate may on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, and after considering such representation as the educational institution may wish to make, withdraw, either in whole or in part, the rights conferred on the educational institution by affiliation or modify such rights.

(2) The procedure to be followed for the withdrawal of affiliation shall be such as may be prescribed.

39. Appeal Against Refusal Or Withdrawal Of Affiliation :-

An appeal shall lie to the Senate against the decision of the Syndicate refusing to affiliate an institution, or withdrawing in whole or in part the rights conferred on an institution by affiliation, or modifying such rights.

[29][Provided that no order under this section shall be passed without affording an opportunity of being heard to the institution to be affected thereby].

(b) a bill for its payment has been audited in conformity with the Statutes, the Regulations and the Rules by the Auditor appointed by the Government.]

(3) The annual statement of the accounts of the University signed by the Treasurer and the Auditor shall be submitted to the Government within six months of closing of the financial year.

(4) The accounts of the University shall be audited once a year in conformity with the Statutes and Regulations and the Rules by the Auditor appointed by the Government for this purpose.

(5) The observations of Government Auditor, together with such annotations as the Treasurer may make, shall be presented to the Syndicate.

CHAPTER 8

GENERAL PROVISIONS

42. Retirement From Service :-

An officer, teacher or other employee of the University shall retire from service-

(i) on such date, after he has completed twenty-five years of service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits, as the competent authority may, in the public interest, direct; or

[33][(ii) where no direction is given under clause (i), on the completion of the sixtieth year of his age.]

Explanation- In this section "competent authority" means the appointing authority or a person duly authorised by the appointing authority in that behalf, not being a person lower in rank to the officer, teacher or other employee concerned].

43. Appeal To And Review By The Syndicate :-

Where an order is passed, punishing any officer, other than the Vice-Chancellor, teacher or other employee of the University or altering or interpreting to his disadvantage the prescribed terms or conditions of his service, he shall, where the order is passed by the Vice-Chancellor or any other officer or teacher of the University, have the right to appeal to the Syndicate against the order and where the order is made by the Syndicate, have the right to apply to the Chancellor for review of that order. The appeal or application for review shall be submitted to the Vice-Chancellor and he shall present it to the Chancellor with his views.

[34][Provided that no order under this section shall be passed unless an opportunity of being heard is afforded to the person to be affected thereby.]

44. Pension, Insurance, Gratuity, Provident Fund, And Benevolent Fund :-

(1) The University shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, such pension, insurance, gratuity, provident fund and benevolent fund schemes as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any provident fund has been constituted under this Act the provisions of the Provident Fund Act, 1925, (Act XIX of 1925) shall apply to such fund as if it were the Government Provident Fund.

44A. Transfer And Postings :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any agreement or contract or in any other law for the time being in force, but subject to the provisions of the Act, an officer, teacher or other employee, shall, if the Chancellor so directs in the public interest, serve for such period as may be fixed or extended from time to time by the Chancellor, in any post in a Government Department or an educational or research institution set up or established by Government or by a University in the Province of the Punjab and on terms and conditions not less favourable than those admissible to him in the University and with full benefits of his previous service:

Provided that in the case of a teacher, such a direction shall not be made without consulting the Syndicate.

(2) The Chancellor may fill any post in the University by appointing a person in the service of Government, or an officer, teacher or other employee of any other University or educational or research institution set up or established by Government or by a University in the Province of the Punjab:

Provided that in the case of a teaching post in the University the appointment shall not be made without consulting the Selection Board of the University].

45. Commencement Of Term Of Members Of Authorities :-

(1) When a member of a newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under this Act, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect the provisions of section 48.

46. Filling Of Casual Vacancies In Authorities :-

(1) Any casual vacancy among the elected, appointed or nominated members of any Authority shall be filled, as soon as may be, by the person or persons, or the body who elected, appointed or nominated the member whose place has become vacant and the persons elected, appointed or nominated to the vacancy shall be member of such Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

(2) Whenever there occurs a vacancy in the constitution of an Authority, as constituted by the Act, because of the abolition of a specified office under the Government or because an organization, institution or other body outside the University has been dissolved or has ceased to function or because of some other similar reason, it shall be filled in such manner as the Chancellor may direct.

47. Disputes About Membership Of Authorities :-

If a question arises whether any person is entitled to be a member of any Authority, the matter shall be referred to a committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and the Secretary Education and the senior most Dean who are members of the Syndicate and the decision of this committee shall be final and binding.

48. Proceedings Of Authorities Not Invalidated By Vacancies :-

No act, proceeding, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy on the Authority doing, passing, or making it or by reason of any want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment, or nomination of any de factomember of the Authority, whether present or absent.

49. First Statutes :-

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the Statutes set out in the Schedule appended to this Act shall be deemed to be the Statutes framed under section 31 of this Act and shall continue to remain in force until amended or repealed.

50. Removal Of Difficulties At The Commencement Of The Act :-

If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution of any Authority after the commencement of this Act or otherwise in first giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Chancellor may, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, give appropriate directions to remove such difficulty.

51. Transitional Provisions :-

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, a Chancellors Committee may be constituted by the Chancellor on the recommendations of the Vice-Chancellor to exercise the powers assigned to the Senate and the Syndicate under this Act till such time the Syndicate, or as the case may be, the Senate is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

52. Saving :-

Until provision is made under this Act, the Statutes, the University ordinances, Rules and Regulations made or deemed to have been made under the University of the Punjab Act, 1973, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall, so far as consistent with this Act and so far as applicable, have effect as if they were made under this Act as Statutes, Rules or Regulations by the appropriate Authority].
