Punjab Ministers (Salaries, Allowances And Privileges) Act, 1975

41 of 1975

[05 July 1975]

An Act to provide for the salaries, allowances and privileges of the Ministers of the Punjab Preamble.- WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the salaries, allowances and privileges of the Ministers of the Punjab; It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1. Short Title And Commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the Punjab Ministers (Salaries, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1975.

(2) It shall come into force at once but shall be deemed to have taken effect on and from the first day of March, 1975.

2. Definitions :-

(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:-

(a) "Constitution" means the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan;

(b) "family" means the wife and children residing with and wholly dependent upon a Minister;

(c) "Government" means the Government of the Punjab;

(d) "maintenance" in relation to a residence includes the payment of local rates, taxes, the provision of electricity, water and gas;

(e) "Minister" means a Minister appointed under the Constitution and includes the Chief Minister;

(f) "official residence" means the house reserved from time to time for residence by a Minister and includes out-houses and gardens appurtenant thereto; and

(g) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules framed under this Act.

(2) Words and expressions used but not defined in this Act shall have the same meanings as are assigned to them in the Constitution.

3. Salary :-

(1) The salary of the Chief Minister and that of a Minister shall respectively be thirty nine thousand rupees and thirty five thousand rupees per month.

(2) The salary mentioned in sub-section (1) shall automatically be increased by the Government in proportion to the increase in the salary of the civil servants.

4. Equipment Allowance :-

The Chief Minister and a Minister may draw a sum of [4][thirty thousand] rupees and [5][ten thousand] rupees, respectively as equipment allowance on their appointment as such:

Provided that no such allowance was received by him during the lifetime of the Assembly on appointment to a diplomatic post, or as a Governor, a Speaker, a Chief Minister or a Minister.

5. Allowance On Taking Up And Laying Down The Office :-

(1) A Minister shall be entitled to claim actual expenses to the extent mentioned below from his ordinary place of residence to the seat of Government and from the seat of Government to his ordinary place of residence on taking up or laying down office, as the case may be-

- (a) actual travelling expenses for himself and his family;
- (b) cost of transporting personal servants not exceeding two, by the lowest class of accommodation; and
- (c) cost of transporting house-hold effects, not exceeding one hundred and twenty maunds, by goods train, steamer or other craft, excluding aircraft, and his personal car, if any-

(2) No claim shall lie for any travel or transportation not performed within six months of the date of taking up or laying down office, as the case may be.

6. Sumptuary Allowance :-

(1) The Chief Minister shall be entitled to receive sumptuary allowance at the rate of [6][twenty thousand] rupees per mensem.

(2) A Minister shall be entitled to receive sumptuary allowance at the rate of [7][ten thousand] rupees per mensem.

7. Transport :-

A Minister shall be entitled to use of [8][one] official [9][car] maintained at Government expense throughout his term of office and for a period of 15 days immediately thereafter, provided that the Chief Minister may withhold this facility to a Minister who is removed from his office on the ground of misconduct or misbehaviour.

7A. Duty Free Car :-

The Chief Minister, during his tenure as such, may import or purchase out of bond one motor car with engine capacity upto 3200 CC for his personal use, without payment of custom duty and sales tax if exemption in respect of the same is granted by the Federal Government.

8. Official Residence :-

(1) A Minister shall be entitled, without payment of rent, to the use of an official residence including accommodation on tour throughout his term of office, and for a period of fifteen days immediately thereafter, and the charges for its maintenance including the electricity and gas charges shall be borne by Government. [11][The residence shall reasonably be furnished by the Government in the manner as may be prescribed.]

[12][* * *]

(2) If at the time of entering upon office, an official residence is not available, a Minister shall, until such residence is provided by Government, be paid the actual expenditure incurred by him on furnished accommodation for himself and his family, subject to a maximum of [13][twenty thousand] rupees per mensem.

[14][(3) Where a Minister chooses to reside in his own house, he shall be paid a monthly sum of twenty five thousand rupees in lieu of the official furnished accommodation and to cover all expenses on its maintenance except the charges for consumption of electricity and gas which shall be borne by the Government.

(4) Where a Minister has not been provided with an official residence or he does not own any house at Lahore, he shall be entitled to requisition at the Government expense a reasonably furnished house and the Government shall bear the electricity and gas charges of the said house.

9. Travelling Allowance For Touring In Pakistan :-

(1) Subject to the provisions made hereafter, a Minister travelling on official duty shall be treated as a first grade officer.

(2) A Minister may, if the public interest so demands, travel by air, in which case he shall be entitled to:-

(a) [15][Business Class] air fare paid for himself;

(b) cost of transporting personal luggage upto one hundred pounds, inclusive of the free allowance given by the air company;

(c) requisition, at the cost of Government, if he considers it necessary in the public interest, a Pakistan Air Force aeroplane or an aeroplane belonging to Government subject to availability; and in accordance with the rules made by the Federal Government or the Provincial Government, as the case may be;

(d) take with himself his wife whether travelling by a commercial aeroplane or by a requisitioned aeroplane; provided that no non-official shall be allowed to travel in a Pakistan Air Force aeroplane without the authority of the Ministry of Defence;
