6. Substitution of section 25-0, Central Act No. 14 of 1947

For Sec. 25-0 of the Principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely: -

"25-0. Procedure for closing down an undertaking. -

(1) An employer who intends to close down an undertaking of an industrial establishment to which this Chapter applies including an employer who has served a notice under Sub- sec. (1) of Sec. 25- FFA on the State Government of his intention to close down such an undertaking but the period of such a notice has not been expired at the commencement of the Industrial Disputes (Rajasthan Amendment) Ordinance, 1983 shall apply for prior permission at least ninety days before the date on which the intended closure is to become effective, to the State Government, stating clearly the reasons for the intended closure of the undertaking and a copy of such application shall also be served simultaneously on the representatives of the workmen by registered post with acknowledgment due.

(2) Where an application for permission has been made under Sub-sec. (1), the State Government, after making such enquiry as it, thinks fit and after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the employer, the workmen and the persons interested in such closure may, having regard to the genuineness and adequacy of the reasons stated by employer, the interests of the general public and all other relevant factors, by order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, grant or refuse to grant such permission and a copy of such order shall be communicated to the employer and the workmen.

(3) Where an application has been made under Sub-sec. (1), and the State Government does not communicate the order granting or refusing to grant permission to the employer within a period of sixty days from the date on which such application is made, the permission applied for shall be deemed to have been granted on the expiration of the said period of sixty days.

(4) An order of the State Government granting or refusing to grant permission shall subject to the provisions of Sub-sec. (5), be final and binding on all the parties and shall remain in force for one year from the date of such order.

(5) The State Government may, either on its own motion or on the

...), the State Government may, either on its own motion or on the application made by the employer or any workman, review its order granting or refusing to grant permission under Sub-sec. (2) or refer the matter to a Tribunal for adjudication;

Provided that where a reference has been made to a Tribunal under this sub-section, it shall pass an award within a period of thirty days from the date of such reference.

(6) Where no application for permission under Sub-sec. (1) is made within the period specified therein, or where the permission for closure has been refused the closure of the undertaking shall be deemed to be illegal from the date of closure and the workmen shall be entitled to all the benefits under any law for the time being in force as if the undertaking had not been closed down.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, the State Government may, if it is satisfied that owing to such exceptional circumstances as accident in the undertaking or death of the employer or the like it is necessary so to do, by order, direct that the provisions of Sub-sec. (1) shall not apply in relation to such undertaking for such period as may be specified in the order.

(8) Where an undertaking is permitted to be closed down under Sub-sec. (2) or where permission for closure is deemed to be granted under Sub-sec. (3), every workman who is employed in that undertaking immediately before the date of application for permission under this section, shall be entitled to receive compensation which shall be equivalent to fifteen days average pay for every completed year of continuous service or any part thereof in excess of six months."

7. Substitution of Sec. 25-P, Central Act No. 14 of 1947 :-

For Sec. 25-P of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted namely: -

"25-P. Special provision as to restarting of undertaking closed down before commencement of the Industrial Disputes (Rajasthan Amendment) Act, 1984. -

(1) Where the undertaking of an industrial establishment to which this Chapter applies had been closed down before the commencement of the Industrial Disputes (Rajasthan Amendment) Act, 1984 and the State Government, after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the employer, workmen and the office-bearer of the representative union of the concerned industrial establishment and after making such enquiry as it thinks fit, is satisfied that -

(a) such undertaking was closed down otherwise than on account of unavoidable circumstances beyond the control of the employer;

(b) there are possibilities of restarting the undertaking;

(c) it is necessary for the rehabilitation of the workmen employed in such undertaking before its closure or for the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community or both to restart the undertaking; and

(d) the restarting of the undertaking will not result in hardship to the employer in relation to the undertaking;

(e) it may direct, by order published in the Official Gazette, that the undertaking shall be restarted within such time (not being less than one month from the date of the order) as may be specified in the order.

(2) An order of the State Government directing the restarting of the undertaking under Sub-sec. (1) shall, subject to the provisions of Sub-sec. (3)), be final and binding on all the parties.

(3) The State Government may either on its own motion or on the application made by the employer and after giving to such employer, the workmen and the office-bearer of the representative union of the connected industrial establishment an opportunity of being heard, review its order directing the restarting of the undertaking under Sub-sec. (1) or refer the matter to a Tribunal for adjudication;

Provided that where a reference has been made to a Tribunal under this sub-section, it shall pass an award within a period of sixty days from the date of such reference and pending award by the Tribunal, the undertaking shall continue to remain restarted".

8. Insertion of new Sec. 2S-PP, Central Act No. 14 of 1947

After Sec. 25-P of the principal Act as to substituted, the following new Section shall be added, namely "2S-PP Special provision as to reinstatement of workmen retrenched before the commencement of the Industrial Disputes (Rajasthan Amendment) Act, 1984. -

(1) Notwithstanding any award or order of a Tribunal or any judgment, order or direction of any Court upholding the validity of retrenchment of any workman employed in any industrial establishment to which this Chapter applies who is retrenched at any time during six months immediately, before the commencement of the Industrial Disputes (Rajasthan Amendment) Act, 1984, the State Government shall, either on its own motion or on the application made by any such retrenched workman or by the office-bearer of the representative union of the concerned industrial establishment, examine the validity of retrenchment of such workman and if, after making such enquiry as it thinks fit and after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the employer, the retrenched workman, or, as the case may be to such office-bearer, it is satisfied that -

(a) the retrenchment of the workman was without genuine or adequate reasons;

(b) the retrenchment was by way of victimization and unfair labour practice; and

(c) the reinstatement of the workman is required for maintaining industrial peace in the industrial establishment, it shall, by order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct the employer to reinstate the retrenched workman within such time as may be specified in the order and if it is not so satisfied it shall by such reasoned order uphold the validity of retrenchment of the workman and shall communicate its order to the employer and the workman.

(2) An order of the State Government under Sub-sec. (1), subject to the order passed by it as a result of review under Sub-sec. (3) and where a reference has been made by it to a Tribunal under the said sub-section, subject to the award passed by the Tribunal, shall be final and binding on the employer and the workman.

(3) The State Government may, either on its own motion or on the application made by the employer or the retrenched workmen, review its order directing reinstatement of the retrenched workman or, as the case may be, the order up-holding the validity of retrenchment of the workman under Sub-sec. (1) or refer the matter to a Tribunal for adjudication;

Provided that where a reference has been made to a Tribunal under this sub-section it shall pass an award within a period of thirty days from the date of such reference."

9. Substitution of Sec 25-Q. Central Act No. 14 of 1947 :-

For Sec. 25-Q of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely: -

"25-Q. Penalties for lay-off and retrenchment without previous permission. -

Any employer who-

(a) lays off a workman without complying with the provisions of Sub-sec. (1) or Sub-sec. (2) of Sec. 25-M; or

(b) contravenes an order refusing to grant permission to lay-off or to continue the lay-off of a workman under Sub-sec. (4) of Sec. 25-M; or

(c) contravenes such an order as is referred to in clause (b) passed as a result to review under Sub-sec. (7) of Sec. 25-M; or

(d) contravenes the provisions of clause (c) of Sub-sec. (1) or Sub-sec. (4) of Sec. 25-N; or

(e) contravenes an order refusing to grant permission to retrench a workman under Sub-sec. (2) or an order under Sub-sec. (9) of Sec. 25-N; or

(f) contravenes such an order as is referred to in clause (e) passed as a result of review under Sub-sec. (7) or Sub-sec. (9) of Sec. 25-N; or

(g) contravenes the direction to reinstate a retrenched workman given under Sub-sec. (1) of Sec. 25-PP or such a direction given as a result of review under Sub-sec. (3) of the said section, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or with both."

10. Amendment of Sec. 25-R, Central Act No. 14 of 1947 :-

In Sec. 25-R of the principal Act, -

(a) for Sub-sec. (2), the following Sub-sec. shall be substituted, namely: -

"(2) Any employer, who contravenes an order refusing to grant permission to close down an undertaking under Sub-sec. (2) of Sec. 25-0 or a direction given under Sec. 25-P, shall be punishable with an imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both, and where the contravention is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to two thousand rupees for every day during which the contravention continues after the conviction"; and

(b) Sub-sec. (3) shall be omitted.

11. Amendment of Sec. 25-S. Central Act No. 14 of 1947 :-

In Sec. 25-S of the principal Act, after the expression "provisions of the Chapter apply" the expression "or are applied under Sub-sec. (1-A) of Sec. 25-K" shall be added.

12. Repeal and Savings :-

The Industrial Disputes (Rajasthan Amendment) Ordinance, 1983 (Ordinance No. 9 of 1983) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act as if Secs. 6 and 10 of this Act had come into force on the 21st day of October, 1983.
