Rajasthan Divisional Commissioner (Office Abolition) Act, 1962

8 of 1962

[21 April 1962]

An Act to provide for the abolition of the office of Divisional Commissioner in the State of Rajasthan and for other matters consequent on such abolition. Be it enacted by the Rajasthan State Legislature in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

1. Short Title And Extent :-

- (1) This Act may be called the Rajasthan Divisional Commissioner (Office Abolition) Act, 1962.
- (2) It extends to the whole of the State of Rajasthan.

2. Definition :-

In this Act, unless the subject or context otherwise requires-

- (a) "appointed day" means the sixteenth day of November, 1961.
- (b) "Board" means the Board of Revenue for the State of Rajasthan;
- (c) "Division" means a division under the administrative charge of a Commissioner, constituted or deemed to be constituted under section 15 of the Rajasthan Land Revenue Act, 1956 (Rajasthan Act 15 of 1956);
- (d) "Divisional Commissioner" means the Commissioner of a division and includes an Additional Commissioner, and
- (e) "existing law" means any law, act, ordinance, regulation, rule, notification, order, bye-law, scheme or instrument having the force of law, pertaining to matters specified in Lists II and III of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India, in force in the whole or any part of the State of Rajasthan immediately before the appointed day.

3. Abolition Of Office Of Divisional Commissioner :-

As from the appointed day-

- (a) the office of the Divisional Commissioner shall stand abolished, and
- (b) the various divisions in the State of Rajasthan shall cease to exist.

4. Amendment Of Certain Laws :-

As from the appointed day-

- (a) every existing law mentioned in the Schedule annexed hereto shall have effect as if such law were amended in the manner and to the extent specified in that Schedule, and
- (b) all rules, regulations, bye-laws, orders and notifications made or issued under such existing law shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

5. Reference To Divisional Commissioner In Other Laws :-

In all existing laws, other than the existing laws for which provision has been made in section 4, as from the appointed day-

- (a) references to division shall be deemed to be omitted and
- (b) references to Divisional Commissioner shall, unless the State

Government in any case directs otherwise, be construed as being references to Collector.

Provided that, where in any such existing law, a reference to a Divisional Commissioner shall have occurred as being the officer competent to hear appeals, revisions or references against the orders of a Collector under that law, such reference shall, unless the State Government in any case directs otherwise, be construed, as from the appointed day, as being a reference to, and the powers of appeal, revision or reference thereby conferred shall, as from that day, vest in, and be exercised by, the revenue appellate authority.

6. Provision As To Delegated Powers Of Divisional Commissioner :-

(1) Any powers conferred upon or delegated to a Divisional Commissioner under or in pursuance of any existing law or any rule, regulation, bye-law, order or notification thereunder shall, subject to the provision contained in the proviso to section 5, be deemed, as from the appointed day, to have been conferred upon, or delegated to, the Collector or the revenue appellate authority, as the case may be :

Provided that any such power may be conferred or delegated by the State Government upon or to any other officer or authority.

(2) If, under or in pursuance of any existing law or any rule, regulation, bye-law, order or notification made or issued thereunder, a Divisional Commissioner shall have been appointed for the purpose thereof to be a competent authority or a prescribed authority or any other authority, then, subject to the provision contained in the proviso to section 5 and forth subject to the provision contained in the proviso to sub-section (1) of this section the Collector or the revenue appellate authority, as the case may be shall, as from the appointed day, be deemed to have been appointed as such competent, prescribed or other authority.

7. Pending Proceedings :-

All proceedings under any existing law, whether by way of appeal, revision, review, reference or otherwise, pending before a Divisional Commissioner immediately before the appointed day shall on that day stand transferred to the officer or authority in whom the powers of such commissioner, under such existing law, have been vested by the provisions of this Act and shall be disposed of by such officer or authority in accordance with law.

8. References In Documents Etc. :-

All instruments or documents executed or made before the appointed day under or with reference to any existing law shall, unless the subject or context otherwise requires, be construed as if references therein to the Divisional Commissioner were, as from the appointed day, references to the Collector or to such officer or authority as the State Government may in any particular case direct.

9. Legal Proceedings :-

If, on the appointed day, any legal proceedings are pending to which a Divisional Commissioner is a party, the Collector or such other officer or authority as the State Government may direct shall as from the appointed day, be deemed to be substituted for such Commissioner in the said proceedings.

10. Savings :-

Any appointment, notification, order, rule, regulation, bye-law, form, instrument or document made, prescribed, issued or executed before the appointed day by a Divisional Commissioner under or with reference to the provisions of any existing law shall as from that day be deemed to have been made, prescribed, issued or executed by the officer or authority in whom the powers of such Commissioner under such existing law have been vested by the provisions of this Act and shall be valid and in operation unless and until superseded or modified by any appointment, notification, order, rule, regulation, bye-law, form, instrument or document made, prescribed, issued or executed by the officer or authority competent to do so after the appointed day in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

11. Rule Of Construction :-

Notwithstanding the fact that this Act makes no provision or makes insufficient provision in any respect for the application of any existing law as modified by this Act, any court, tribunal, authority or officer, when required to administer the provisions of such existing law, may construe the same mutatis mutandis, with such further modifications, not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

12. Power To Remove Difficulties :-

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act or of any existing law with reference to the modifications made therein, by virtue of the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order notified in the official Gazette, make such provisions or give such directions as may appear to it to be necessary for the removal of the difficulty.

13. Repeal :-

The following enactments are hereby repealed, namely-

- (1) The Rajasthan City Municipal Appeals (Regulation) Act, 1950 (Rajasthan Act 3 of 1950)
- (2) The Rajasthan Divisional Commissioner (Office Abolition) Ordinance, 1961 (Rajasthan Ordinance No. 6 of 1961).
