PREAMBLE

An Act to consolidate and amend the Abkari Law of the Presidency of Madras.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the import, export, transport, manufacture, sale and possession of intoxicating liquor and of intoxicating drugs in the Presidency of Madras ; It is enacted as follows :--

- 1. For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Fort St. George Gazette, Supplement, dated 14th October, 1884, p 13; for last report of the Select Committee, see ibid, Supplement, dated 9th December, 1885, p. 1; for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, dated 4th November, 1884, p. 3; ibid dated 21st August, 1885, p. 11; ibid, dated 23rd October, 1885, p. 15; ibid, dated 18th November 1885, p. 23; ibid, dated 6th January, 1886, p. 1.

CHAPTER 1 PRELIMINARY AND DEFINITIONS

1. Short title :-

This Act may be cited as "The Madras Abkari Act, 1886."
Extern.

It extends to the whole of the Presidency of Madras;

and it shall come into force in any local area¹ within the said Presidency to such extent and from such date as the ²[State Government] by notification shall direct.

1. The provisions of the Act shall cease to be in force in the local areas of the State in which the Madras Prohibition Act, 1937 (Madras Act X of 1937), has come into force. But they shall revive and come into force in such local area and on such date as may be specified in a Notification declaring that the provisions of the said Madras Act X of 1937 shall cease to be in force.

2. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

2. Repeal of enactments :-

From the date on which this Act comes into force in any local area the enactments mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent specified in the third column of the said schedule:

Provided that all licences granted under any of the said enactments in force on the date on which this Act comes into force in any local area shall continue in force for the periods for which the same have been respectively granted subject to the provisions of the enactments under which such licences were granted:

Provided further that the said repeal shall not affect any act done or any offence committed or any proceedings commenced or any claim which has arisen, or any penalty which has been incurred, before this Act comes into force.

3. Interpretation :-

In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context--

"Abkari-revenue."

CHAPTER 8 POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS, ETC

30. Magistrate may issue a search warrant on application :-

If any ¹[Collector or] Magistrate upon information ²[obtained] and after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, has reason to believe that an offence under section 55, or section 57 or section 58 of this Act has been committed, he may issue a warrant for the search for any liquor, intoxicating drug, materials, still, utensil, implement or apparatus in respect of which the alleged offence has been committed.

Before issuing such warrant, the ¹[Collector or] Magistrate shall examine the informant on oath or affirmation, and the examination shall be reduced into writing in a summary manner and be signed by the informant, and also by the ¹[Collector or] Magistrate.

1. These words were inserted by section 13 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

2. This word was substituted for the words "given by any Abkari or police officer or any other person" by ibid.

31. Power to certain Abkari and Police officers to search houses, etc., without warrant :-

Whenever the Commissioner, or a Collector, or any Abkari or Police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector or a police station officer, has reason to believe that an offence under section 55 or section 57 or section 58 of this Act has been committed and that the delay occasioned by obtaining a search warrant under the preceding section will prevent the execution thereof, he may, after recording his reasons and the grounds of his belief at any time by day or night enter and search any place and may seize anything found therein which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act; and may detain and search and, if he think proper, arrest any person found in such place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of any offence under this Act:

Provided that every person arrested under this section shall be admitted to bail by such officer as aforesaid if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance either before a Magistrate or before an Abkari-inspector as the case may be.

32. Power to enter and inspect places of manufacture and sale :-

The Commissioner, or a Collector, or any Abkari-officer not below the rank of sub-inspector, or any Police officer duly empowered in that behalf, may enter and inspect, at any time by day or by night, any place in which any licensed manufacturer carries on the manufacture of any liquor or intoxicating drug, or draws toddy, or stores any liquor or intoxicating drug or toddy; and may enter and inspect, at any time during which the same may be open, any place in which any liquor or intoxicating drug is kept for sale by any licensed person; and may examine, test, measure, or weigh any materials, stills, utensils, implements, apparatus, liquor, or intoxicating drugs found in such place.

33. In case of resistance, entry may be made by force, etc :-

If any officer empowered to make an entry under the provisions of the last two preceding sections cannot otherwise make such entry, it shall be lawful for him to break open any outer or inner door or window and to remove any other obstacle to his entry into any such place.

34. Offenders may be arrested, and contraband liquor and articles seized without warrant :-

Any officer of the Abkari, Salt, Police, Land-revenue or Customs Departments, and any other person duly empowered may arrest without warrant in any public thoroughfare or open place other than a dwelling house any person found committing an offence punishable under section 55 or section 57 or section 58 of this Act;

and in any such thoroughfare or place may seize and detain any liquor, drug or other article which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act or any other such law; and may search any person, vessel, vehicle, animal, package, receptacle or covering, upon whom, or in or upon which he may have reasonable cause to suspect any such liquor, drug or other such article to be, or to be concealed:

¹[(Provided that if the officer or person making the arrest under this section be not empowered under section 5-A to admit to bail, the person arrested shall be forthwith forwarded to an officer so empowered, if there be such an officer within a distance of five miles from the place where such arrest took place.

And it shall be the duty of such officer empowered as aforesaid to admit such person to bail if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance before an Abkari-officer having jurisdiction to inquire into the case.]

1. This proviso was added by section 3 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1905 (Madras Act I of 1905).

35. Arrest of persons refusing to give name or giving false name :-

Any person, who may be accused or reasonably suspected of committing an offence under this Act, and who on demand of any officer of the Abkari, Salt, Police, Land-revenue or Customs Departments or of any other person duly empowered, refuses to give his name and residence or who gives a name or residence which such officer or person has reason to believe to be false, may be arrested by such officer or person in order that his name and residence may be ascertained.

36. Searches how to be made :-

All searches under the provisions of this Act shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code (Central Act V of 1898) of Criminal Procedure:

¹[Provided that the persons called upon to attend and witness such searches shall include at least two persons neither of whom is an abkari, police or village officer.]

1. This proviso was added by section 3 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1929 (Madras Act XVIII of 1929).

37. Officers of certain departments bound to assist :-

All officers of the departments of Police, Custom, Salt and Land-revenue shall be legally bound to assist any Abkari-officer in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

38. Offences to be reported, etc :-

Every officer employed ¹[under the Government], other than an Abkari-officer, shall be bound to give immediate information to an Abkari-officer, and every Abkari-officer shall be bound to give immediate information either to his immediate official superior or to an Abkari-inspector, of all breaches of any of the provisions of this Act which may come to his knowledge; and all such officers shall be bound to take all reasonable measures in their power to prevent the commission of any such breaches which they may know or have reason to believe are about or likely to be committed.

1. The words "under the Crown" were substituted for the words "by Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "Government" was Substituted for "Crown" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

39. Landholders and others to give information :-

All zamindars, proprietors, tenants, under-tenants and cultivators who own or hold land on which there shall be any manufacture of liquor or intoxicating drugs not licensed under this Act shall in the absence of reasonable excuse be bound to give notice of the same to a Magistrate or to an officer of the Abkari, Salt, Police, Customs or Land-revenue Departments immediately the same shall have come to their knowledge.

40. Persons arrested, how to be dealt with :-

(1) When any person is arrested under the provisions of section 31, or section 34 or section 35 of this Act, the person arresting him shall, unless bail shall have been accepted under the provisions of section 31 ¹[or of section 34], forthwith forward him to an Abkari-inspector, or, if there be no such officer within a distance of ten miles from the place at which such arrest took place, to the nearest police station, with a report of the circumstances under which such arrest was made.

Procedure by police station officer.

(2) On any such person being brought to a police station as aforesaid, the officer in charge thereof shall either admit him to bail to appear when summoned before the Abkari-officer as aforesaid within the limits of whose jurisdiction the offence with which he is charged is suspected to have been committed, or, in default of bail, shall forward him in custody to such officer.

Procedure by Abkari-officer empowered to inquire.

(3) On any such person being brought in custody before such Abkari-officer as aforesaid or appearing before him on bail ²[or when such Abkari-officer as aforesaid has himself made the arrest] such officer shall hold such inquiry as he may think necessary and shall either release such person, or forward him in custody to, or admit him to bail to appear before the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the case.

³[Provided that if such inquiry is not commenced and completed on the day on which such person is arrested by or is brought or appears before such Abkari-officer, the said officer shall, if sufficient bail be tendered for the appearance of the person arrested, admit the said person to bail to appear on any subsequent day before himself or any other Abkari-officer having jurisdiction to inquire into the case.]

1. These words and figures were inserted by section 4 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1905 (Madras Act I of 1905).

2. These words were inserted by section 4 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1905 (Madras Act I of 1905).

3. This proviso was added by section 5 ibid.

41. Persons arrested to be admitted to bail :-

It shall be the duty of any officer arresting any person under the powers given by section 31 of this Act, and of any police station officer or Abkari-officer before whom a person arrested is brought or appears under the provisions of section 40 to release such person on bail if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance before an Abkari-inspector or before a Magistrate as the case may be.

42. Bond of accused and sureties :-

Before any person is released on bail, a bond in such sufficient but not excessive sum of money as the officer admitting him to bail thinks proper shall be executed by such person and by one or more sureties, conditioned that such person shall attend in accordance with the terms of the bond and shall continue to attend until otherwise directed by the Abkari-inspector before whom he was hailed to attend, or by the Magistrate, as the case may be:

Provided that the officer admitting any such person to bail may at his discretion dispense with the requirement of a surety or sureties to the bond executed by such person.

The ¹[State Government] shall from time to time determine the form of the bond to be used in any local area.

1. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

43. Procedure in case of default of person admitted to bail to appear before Abkari-inspector :-

When by reason of default of appearance of a person bailed to appear before an Abkari-inspector such officer is of opinion that proceedings should be had to compel payment of the penalty or penalties mentioned in the bond of the person bailed or of the surety or sureties, he shall forward the bond to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence of which the person bailed was accused, and the Magistrate shall proceed to compel payment of the penalty or penalties in the manner provided by the ¹Code of Criminal Procedure for the recovery of penalties in the like case of default of appearance by a person bailed to appear before his own court.

1 See now Central Act V of 1898.

44. Abkari-officers may summon witnesses :-

Any Abkari-officer holding an inquiry in the manner provided in section 40 may summon any person to appear before himself to give evidence on such inquiry or to produce any document relevant thereto which may be in his possession or under his control:

Provided that no such Abkari-officer shall summon any person to appear at a greater distance from the usual place of residence of such person than the ¹[State Government] may from time to time by rule direct.

1. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

45. Terms of summons :-

Every summons issued under the last preceding section shall state whether the person summoned is required to give evidence or to produce a document, or both, and shall require him to appear before the said officer at a stated time and place.

46. Examination of witnesses by Abkari-inspectors :-

Persons so summoned shall attend as required and shall answer all questions relating to such inquiry put to them by such officer. Such answers shall be reduced into writing and shall be signed by such officer.

47. When attendance of witnesses to be dispensed with, and procedure in such cases :-

It shall be lawful for an Abkari-inspector, instead of summoning to appear before him any person who, from sickness or other infirmity, may be unable so to do, or whom by reason of rank or sex it may not be proper to summon, to proceed to the residence of such person and there to require him to answer such questions as he may consider necessary with respect to such inquiry; and such person shall be bound so to answer accordingly, and the provisions of section 46 shall apply to such answers.

48. Abkari-inspector may summon persons suspected of offences against Abkari laws :-

Any Abkari-inspector may, after recording his reasons in writing, summon any person to appear before him whom he has good reason to suspect of having committed an offence under this Act. On such person appearing before such officer, the procedure prescribed by sections 40 to 47 inclusive of the Act shall become applicable.

¹[The officer may also, if he considers it necessary for the investigation of the case, exercise the powers conferred by sections 44 to 47 before summoning the person suspected.]

1. This paragraph was added by section 14 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

49. Law relating to criminal courts as to summoning of witnesses to apply :-

The law for the time being in force as to summonses and compelling the attendance of persons summoned in criminal courts shall, so far as the same may be applicable, apply to any summons issued by an Abkari-inspector and to any person summoned by him to appear under the provisions of this Act.

50. Report of Abkari-inspector gives Jurisdiction to a competent Magistrate :-

When an Abkari-inspector forwards in custody any person accused of an offence under this Act to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the case, or admits any such person to bail to appear before such Magistrate, such officer shall also forward to such Magistrate a report setting forth the name of the accused person and the nature of the offence with which he is charged and the names of the persons who appear to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case, and shall send to such Magistrate any article which it may be necessary to produce before him. Upon receipt of such report the Magistrate shall inquire into such offence and try the person accused thereof in like manner as if complaint had been made before him as prescribed in the ¹Code of Criminal Procedure.

1. See now Central Act V of 1898.

51. Powers of Abkari-inspector to cause attendance of witnesses before Magistrate :-

When an Abkari-inspector forwards in custody any person accused of an offence under this Act to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the case, or admits him to bail to appear before such Magistrate, such officer shall exercise all the powers conferred by the ¹Code of Criminal Procedure on an officer in charge of a police station in respect to causing the appearance before such Magistrate of such persons acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case as he considers it necessary that such Magistrate shall examine as witnesses for the prosecution of such case.

1. See now Central Act V of 1898.

52. Procedure after arrest :-

¹[Any person arrested for an offence under this Act shall be informed, as soon as may be, of the grounds for such arrest and shall be produced before the nearest Magistrate within a period of twenty-four hours of such arrest excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Court of the Magistrate; and 110 such person shall be detained in custody beyond the said period without the authority of a Magistrate.]

1 This section was substituted for the original section 52 by the Adaptation (Amendment) Order of 1950.

53. Police to take charge of articles seized :-

All officers in charge of police stations shall take charge of and keep in safe custody pending the orders of a Magistrate or of an Abkari-inspector, all articles seized under this Act which may be delivered to them; and shall allow any Abkari-officer who may accompany such articles to the police station, or who may be deputed for the purpose by his superior officer, to affix: his seal to such articles and to take samples of and from them. All samples so taken shall also be sealed with the seal of the officer in charge of the police station.

54. Closing of shop for the sake of public peace :-

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate of the district or, in the town of Madras, for the Commissioner of Police by notice in writing to the licensee to require that any shop in which liquor or any intoxicating drug is sold shall be closed at such times or for such period as he may think necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

If a riot or unlawful assembly is apprehended or occurs in the vicinity of any such shop, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, or for any police officer who is present, to require such shop to be kept closed for such period as may be necessary.

(a) mixes or permits to be mixed with the liquor or intoxicating drug sold or manufactured by him any noxious drug or any foreign ingredient likely to add to its actual or apparent intoxicating quality or strength, or any article prohibited by any rule made under section 29, clause (k), when such admixture shall not amount to the offence of adulteration under section 272 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860); or

(b) sells or keeps or exposes for sale as foreign liquor, liquor which he knows or has reason to believe to be country liquor; or

(c) marks the cork of any bottle or any bottle, case, package or other receptacle containing country liquor or uses any bottle, case, package or other receptacle containing country liquor, with any mark thereon or on the cork thereof with the intention of causing it to be believed that such bottle, case, package or other receptacle contains foreign liquor, when such act shall not amount to the offence of using a false trademark with intent to deceive or injure any person under section 482 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860); or

(d) sells or keeps or exposes for sale any country liquor in a bottle, case, package or other receptacle with any mark thereon or on the cork thereof with the intention of causing it to be believed that such bottle, case, package or other receptacle contains foreign liquor, when such act shall not amount to the offence of selling goods marked with a counterfeit trade mark under section 486 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860), shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished for each such offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with both.

58. For possession of illicit liquor :-

Whoever without lawful authority has in his possession any quantity of liquor or of any intoxicating drug knowing the same to have been unlawfully imported, transported or manufactured, or knowing the prescribed duty not to have been paid therefor, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

59. For vexatious search or arrest :-

Any Abkari-officer or other person who, without reasonable ground of suspicion, enters or searches, or causes to be searched, any closed place; or vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the property of any person on the pretence of seizing or searching for anything liable to confiscation under this Act; or vexatiously and unnecessarily detains, searches, or arrests any person; or in any other way vexatiously exceeds his lawful powers, shall on conviction before a Magistrate be punished for each such offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees" or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

60. For vexatious delay :-

Any officer or person exercising powers under this Act who vexatiously and unnecessarily delays forwarding to an Abkari-inspector or to the officer in charge of the nearest police station as required by section 40 of this Act, any person arrested or any article seized under this Act, shall on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

61. For abetment of escape of persons arrested, etc :-

Any officer or person who unlawfully releases or abets the escape of any person arrested under this Act, or abets the commission of any offence against this Act, or acts in any manner inconsistent with his duty for the purpose of enabling any person to do anything whereby any of the provisions of this Act, may be evaded or broken, or the abkari-revenue may be defrauded, and any officer of any other department referred to in section 37 who abets the commission of any offence against this Act in any place, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate for every such offence, be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with both.

62. [Omitted.] :-

¹[Omitted.]

1. This section was omitted by section 18 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

63. For offences not otherwise provided for :-

Whoever is guilty of any act or intentional omission in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, or of any rule or order made under this Act, and not otherwise provided for in this Act, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished for each such wilful act or omission with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

64. Presumption as to commission of offence in certain cases :-

In prosecutions under section 55 it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, that the accused person has committed an offence under that section in respect of any liquor or intoxicating drug, or any still, utensil, implement, or apparatus whatsoever for the manufacture of liquor other than toddy or of any intoxicating drug, or any such materials as are ordinarily used in the manufacture of liquor or of any intoxicating drug, for the possession of which he is unable to account satisfactorily; and the holder of a licence or permit under this Act shall be punishable, as well as the actual offender, for any offence committed by any person in his employ and acting on his behalf under section 55 or section 56 or section 57 or section 58 as if he had himself committed the same, unless he shall establish that all due and reasonable precautions were exercised by him to prevent the commission of such offence:

Provided that no person other than the actual offender shall be punished with imprisonment except in default of payment of fine.

65. What things liable to confiscation :-

In any case in which an offence has been committed under this Act, the liquor, drug, materials, still, utensil, implement, or apparatus in respect ¹[or by means,] of which an offence has been committed shall be liable to confiscation.

Any liquor or intoxicating drug lawfully imported, exported, transported, manufactured, had in possession or sold or toddy lawfully drawn or tapped along with, or in addition to, any liquor, intoxicating drug or toddy, liable to confiscation under this section, and the receptacles, packages and coverings in which any such liquor, intoxicating drug, materials, still, utensil, implement, or apparatus as aforesaid is or are found, and the other contents, if any, of the receptacles or packages in which the same is or are found, and the animals, carts, vessels, or other conveyances used in carrying the same, shall likewise be liable to confiscation.

1. These words were inserted by section 19 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

66. Confiscation how ordered :-

When the offender is convicted or when the person charged with an offence under this Act is acquitted, but the Magistrate decides that anything is liable to confiscation, such confiscation may be ordered by the Magistrate.

Whenever confiscation is authorized by this Act, the Magistrate ordering it may give the owner of the thing liable to be confiscated an option to pay, in lieu of confiscation, such fine as the officer thinks fit.

When an offence under this Act has been committed, but the offender is not known or cannot be found, or when anything liable to confiscation under this Act and not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, the case shall be inquired into and determined by the Commissioner, or by any other officer authorized by the ¹[State Government] in that behalf, who may order such confiscation:

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing the things intended to be confiscated or without hearing the persons, if any, claiming any right thereto, and evidence, if any, which they produce in support of their claims:

²[Provided further that if the thing in question is liable to speedy and natural decay or if the Commissioner or any other officer authorized by the ³[State Government] in that behalf is of opinion that the sale would be for the benefit of its owner, he may at any time direct it to be sold, and the provisions of this section shall, as nearly as may be practicable, apply to the net proceeds of such sale.]

1. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

2. This proviso was added by section 20 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

3. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

67. Power to compound offences :-

Any Abkari-officer specially empowered in that behalf may accept from any person whose licence or permit is liable to be cancelled or suspended under clauses (a) and (b) of section 26 or who is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence under ¹[section 55, 56, 57, 58 or 63], a sum of money not exceeding two hundred rupees in lieu of such cancelment or suspension or by way of compensation for the offence which may have been committed, as the case may be; and in all cases whatsoever in which any property has been seized (sic) liable to confiscation under this Act may release the same on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer.

On the payment of such sum of money, or such value, or both, as the case may be, to such officer, the accused person, if in custody, shall be discharged, the property seized shall be released, and no further proceedings shall be taken against such person or property.

1. These words and figures were substituted for the words and figures "section 56 or section 63" by section 21 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

68. Provisions of the Criminal Procedure and Indian Penal Codes applicable to offences committed under this Act :-

The provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code (Central Act XLV of 1860)* relating to execution so far as the same are applicable, and sections 67, 68 and 69 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860) shall apply to all offences committed and to all persons punished under the provisions of this Act.

*. See now Central Act V of 1898.

CHAPTER 10 MISCELLANEOUS

69. Publication of rules and notifications :-

All rules made and notifications issued under this Act shall be made and issued by publication in the ¹[Official Gazette], provided that all such rules and notifications whereby the doing or the not doing of anything is made punishable, shall be published in three successive issues of the ¹[Official Gazette] and for at least two months in the official gazettes of the districts to which, or to parts of or to places in which, it may be determined that they shall apply. All such rules and notifications shall thereupon have the force of law and be read as part of this Act and may in like manner be varied, suspended or annulled.

1. These words were substituted for the words "Fort St. George Gazette" by the Adaptation Order of 1937.

70. The conferring of powers and making of appointments :-

All notifications and orders conferring powers, imposing duties and making appointments under this Act, may respectively refer to the persons concerned specially by name or in virtue of their office or to classes of officials generally by their official titles; and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof.

71. Exception of articles :-

¹[The ²[State Government] may by notification either wholly or partially, subject to such conditions as ³[they] may think fit to prescribe, exempt any liquor or intoxicating drug from all or any of the provisions of this Act, either ⁴[generally] or in any specified area, or for any specified period or occasion or as regards any specified person or class of persons.]

1. This section was substituted for the original section by section 22 of the Madras Abkari (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Madras Act I of 1913).

2. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

3. This word was substituted for the word "he" by the Adaptation Order of 1937.

4. This word was substituted for the words "throughout the Presidency" by ibid.

72. Bar of actions :-

No action shall lie against the ¹[Government], or against any Abkari-officer, for damages in any civil court for any act bona fide done or ordered to be done in pursuance of this Act, or of any law for the time being in force relating to abkari-revenue; and all prosecutions of any Abkari-officer, and all actions which may be lawfully brought against the ¹[Government] or against any Abkari-officer, in respect of anything done, or alleged to have been done, in pursuance of this Act, shall be instituted within six months from the date of the act complained of and not afterwards.

In such action, if for damages, it shall be lawful for the court, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before the action was brought, in awarding the amount so tendered to refuse costs to the plaintiff and direct him to pay the costs of the defendant.

1. The word "Crown" was substituted for the words "Secretary of State for India in Council" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "Government" was substituted for "Crown" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
