Tamil Nadu Buildings (Lease And Rent Control) Act, 1960

An Act to amend & consolidate the law relating to the regulation of the letting of residential and non-residential buildings & the control of rents of such buildings & the prevention of unreasonable eviction of tenants therefrom in the State of Tamil Nadu WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to the regulation of the letting of residential and non-residential buildings and the control of rents of such buildings and the prevention of unreasonable eviction of tenants therefrom in the State of Tamil Nadu. BE it enacted in the Eleventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

1. Short Title, Application And Commencement :-

(1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu Buildings (Lease and Rent Control) Act, 1960.

(2)2[(a) (i)] This Act,3[except sub-section (2) of Section 3] shall apply to the City of Madras4[and to the City of Madurai] and to all municipalities constituted or deemed to have been constituted under the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920) in the State:

Provided that the Government may, by notification, direct that this Act shall cease to apply to any municipality specified therein or to the City of Madras4[or to the City of Madurai] from such date as may be mentioned in the notification.

4[(ii) Where this Act had, under the proviso to sub-clause (i), ceased to apply to any such municipality or City as is mentioned in that proviso, the Government may, by notification, apply this Act, except sub-section (2) of Section 3, to any such municipality or city with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification.]

(b)5[Sub-section (2) of Section 3] shall apply to the City of Madras4[or to the City of Madurai] or any municipality constituted or deemed to have been constituted under the Tamil Nadu District

Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920), in the State only from such date as the Government may, by notification, appoint⁶[and the Government may, cancel or modify any such notification].

(c) The Government may, by notification, apply all or any of the provisions of this Act except sub-section (2) of Section 3, to any other area in the State with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, and may cancel or modify any such notification.

7[(d) Upon the issue of a notification under the proviso to sub-clause (i) of clause (a) or of a notification of cancellation under clause (b) or clause (c), this Act, or as the case may be, the provision thereof, shall cease to apply, except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such cesser; and Section 8 of the Tamil Nadu General Clauses Act, 1891 (Tamil Nadu Act I of 1891), shall apply upon such cesser as if this Act or such provision had then been repealed by a Tamil Nadu Act; but such cesser shall not be deemed to affect the power of the Government under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) or under clause (b) or clause (c) again to apply this Act or any such provision to any area mentioned in that sub-clause or clause].

5. Substituted by Section 3 of Act 23.

3. Notice Of Vacancy :-

(1) (a) (i) Every landlord shall, within seven days after the building becomes vacant,--

(A) by his ceasing to occupy it, or

(B) by the termination of a tenancy, or

(C) by the eviction of the tenant, or

(D) where any such building has been requisitioned under any law for the time being in force other than this Act, by release from such requisition, give notice of the vacancy in writing to the officer authorised in that behalf by the Government.

(ii) Every tenant shall, within seven days after the building becomes vacant, by his ceasing to occupy it or by the termination of his tenancy, give notice of the vacancy in writing to the officer authorized in that behalf by the Government.

Explanation I-A landlord who, having obtained possession --

(i) of a residential building under sub-section (3) of Section 10 lets the1[whole or part] of it to a tenant; or

(ii) of a non-residential building Under sub-section (3) of Section 10 lets the1[whole or part] of it to a tenant, shall be deemed to have failed to give notice under this Section.

Explanation II A buyer--

(i) who having obtained vacant possession of a building in pursuance of a sale of such building, lets the 1[whole or part] of it to a tenant, or allows the1[whole or part] of it to be occupied by any person; or

(ii) who, without obtaining such vacant possession, allows the seller to occupy the 1[whole or part] of the building, shall be deemed to have failed to give notice under this Section.

(b) Every notice given under clause (a) shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

2[(1-A) No landlord, whose building has become vacant consequent on,--(a) the termination of a tenancy, or (b) the eviction of the tenant, or

(c) the release from requisition, where any building has been requisitioned under any law for the time being in force other than this Act, whether or not notice of vacancy under sub-section (i) was given by him, shall occupy himself the whole or part of it, or let the whole or part of it, to a tenant, or allow the whole or part of it to be occupied by any person and any officer empowered by the Government in this behalf may summarily dispossess--

(i) any landlord occupying such building, and

(ii) any tenant or other person to whom the building was let out or allowed by the landlord for occupation, in contravention of the provisions of this sub-section and the said officer may take possession of the building including any portion thereof which may have been occupied or let, as the case may be. The Government shall be deemed to be the tenant of such building with effect from the date of taking such possession.]

(2)3[In the City of Madras or in the City of Madurai or in any municipality] to which this sub-section has been applied under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 1, where the tenant of a building puts another person in occupation thereof and does not re-occupy it within a period of three months, then, on the expiry of such period, the tenancy shall be deemed to have been terminated and it shall be the duty of the tenant, and also of the landlord if he is aware of such termination, to give notice thereof in writing to the authorized officer within seven days of such termination:

Provided that where the tenant obtains written permission from the authorized officer to re-occupy the building within a period of six months, this sub-section shall have effect as if for the period of three months specified therein a period of six months were substituted.

Explanation.--This sub-section shall not apply where the building has been sub-let by a tenant entitled to do so, after giving due notice to the authorized officer under sub-section (1) and in conformity with the provisions of this Section.

(3)4[If, within ten days of the receipt by the authorized officer of a notice from the landlord under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the Government or the authorized officer do or does not intimate to the landlord in writing that the building is required for the purposes of the State or Central Government or of any local authority or of any public institution under the control of any such Government or for the occupation of any officer of such Government, the landlord shall be at liberty to let the building to any tenant or to occupy it himself.

5[(3-A) The Government, may on an application made by the landlord, within fifteen days from the date of the communication of the intimation by the authorised officer under sub-section (3), rectify any error apparent on the face of the record.]

(4) Where intimation is given under sub-section (1), the landlord shall not let the building to a tenant or occupy it himself, or use or permit the use of the building in any manner by any other person before the expiry of the period of 6[ten days] specified in sub-section (3), unless in the meantime he has received intimation from the authorized officer that the building is not required for the purposes, or for occupation by any of the officers, specified in that sub-section.

(5) If the building is required for any of the purposes, or for occupation by any of the officers specified in sub-section (3), the landlord shall deliver possession of the building and the fixtures and fittings in or on the buildings, in good tenantable repairs and condition, to the authorized officer, or to the allottee named by the authorized officer, as the case may be, and the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant of the landlord, with retrospective effect from the date on which the authorized officer received notice under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the terms of the tenancy being such as may be agreed upon between the landlord and the tenant and in default of an agreement, as may be determined by the Controller :

Provided that where the landlord fails to deliver possession of the building to the authorized officer within forty-eight hours of the receipt of the intimation that the buildings is required for any of the purposes, or for occupation by any of the officers specified in sub-section (3), or within such further time as the authorized officer may by order in writing allow, the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant of the landlord only from the date on which he delivers possession :

Provided further that where owing to any omission of act or obstructive or preventive tactics on the part of the landlord there has been delay in coming to a decision whether or not the building is required for any of the purposes, or for occupation by any of the officers specified in sub-section (3), the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant of the landlord only from such later date as may be fixed by the authorized officer having regard to the circumstances of each case:

Provided also that the rent payable shall be the fair rent, if any, fixed for the building under the provisions of this Act; and if no fair rent has been so fixed, such reasonable rent as the authorized officer may determine, in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided also that the reasonable rent fixed by authorized officer under the foregoing proviso shall be subject to such fair rent as may be fixed by the Controller.

Explanation.--Where before the fixation of fair rent, rent has been paid in excess thereof, the refund or adjustment shall have retrospective effect from the date on which the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant of the landlord, provided the application for fixation of fair rent, is made within a period of ninety days from such date; where such application is made after the said period of ninety days, the refund or adjustment shall be limited to the amount paid in excess for the period commencing on the date of application by the tenant or landlord for the fixation of fair rent and ending with the date of such fixation:

Provided also that on the delivery of possession of the building, the allottee shall pay rent to the landlord proportionately for any part of the calendar month of his occupation, and in advance on or before the 5th day of each calendar month:

Provided also that no structural alterations shall be made in the building, unless the consent of the landlord is obtained therefor.

(6) If, in the case of a residential building the possession of which has been delivered to the authorised officer under sub-section (5) and in the occupation of an officer of the State or Central Government, the fair rent is subsequently fixed at an amount not exceeding twenty-five rupees per month, the said officer shall be deemed to have become the tenant of the landlord on the date on which such fair rent is fixed on the same terms, except as to rent, as obtained between the landlord and the Government on the said date.

(7) In cases not falling under sub-section (5), where the landlord lets the building to any tenant after giving notice to the authorised officer under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) and without having occupied the building himself, or used or permitted the use of the building in any manner by any other person, the tenancy shall be deemed to have been ante-dated by the number of days during which the landlord was prohibited from letting the building to any tenant by virtue of sub-section (4), and the tenant shall be liable to pay rent for those days also.

7[**]

(9) (a) (i) Any officer empowered by the Government in this behalf may summarily dispossess any landlord, tenant or other person occupying any building in contravention of the provisions of this Section or any landlord who fails to deliver to the Government possession of any building in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (5) and may take possession of the building including any portion thereof which may have been sub-let. The Government shall be deemed to be the tenant of such building with effect from the date of taking such possession.

(ii) Any such officer as is referred to in sub-clause (i) 2[or under sub-section (1-A)] may summarily dispossess any officer, local authority or public institution continuing to occupy or failing to deliver possession of, any building in respect of which the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant by virtue of this Section after the termination of his or its licence to occupy such building and take possession of the building including any portion thereof which may have been sub-let.

(b) If free access to the building is not afforded to the officer empowered under sub-clause (i) of clause (a), 9[or under sub-section (1 -A)] he may, at any time after sunrise and before sunset, and after giving reasonable warning and facility to withdraw to any woman not appearing in public according to the customs of the country remove or open any lock or bolt or break open any door or do any other act necessary for effecting such dispossession.

(c) Any landlord, tenant or other person or any officer, local authority or public institution, liable to be summarily dispossessed under clause (a), 2[or under sub-section (1-A)] shall pay to the Government--

(i) the fair rent payable for the building under the provisions of this Act for the period of his or its occupation or possession thereof as j described in that clause, whether such period was before or after the date of the commencement of this Act; and

(ii) the expenses, if any, incurred by the Government in effecting such summary dispossession, as determined by them (which determination shall be final).

10[(d) (i) If the11[] officer who takes possession of the building under clause (a),8[or under sub-section (1-A)] is of the opinion that the building is not in a tenantable condition, he may prepare or cause to be prepared an estimate of the repairs necessary to make the building tenantable and give notice to the landlord to carry out the repairs within a reasonable time.

(ii) If the landlord fails to make necessary repairs to the building within such reasonable time, the12[said officer] may make such repairs, or allot the building subject to the condition that the allottee shall carry out the repairs according to the aforesaid estimate and deduct the cost of such repairs from the rent payable to the landlord in such monthly instalments as may be specified by the 5[said officer] :

Provided that in no case such monthly instalment shall exceed one-half of the monthly rent payable by the tenant.]

(10) Nothing contained in this Section shall apply--

(a) to a residential building the monthly rent of which does not exceed twenty-five rupees; or

(b) to a non-residential building, the monthly rent of which does not exceed fifty rupees; or

(c) to a residential building, a part only of which is occupied by the full owner and the whole or any portion of the remaining part of such building is let to any tenant; or

13[Provided that this clause shall not apply to any building, if--

(i) the portions occupied by the full owner and the tenant are self-contained and separate units;

(ii) the full owner does not actually occupy the building for residential purposes; or

(iii) the full owner is in actual occupation of another residential building; or]

(d) to any building or buildings in the same city, town or village, owned by any company, association or firm whether incorporated or not, and bona fide intended solely for the occupation of its officers, servants or agents.

Explanation.--In clause (c), "full owner" -- means a person entitled to the absolute proprietorship of the building.

3A. Release Of Building :-

(1) A landlord may apply to the authorized officer for the release of a building in respect of which a notice has been given under sub-section (1) of Section 3 or in respect of which, the Government are, under sub-section (5) of Section 3, deemed to be the tenant if--

(a) in the case of residential building, the landlord requires it for his own occupation or for the occupation of any member of his family and the landlord or the member of his family is not occupying any residential building of his own in the city, town or village concerned;

(b) in the case of non-residential building which is used for the purpose of keeping a vehicle or adapted for such use, the landlord, requires it for his own use or for the use of any member of his family and the landlord or the member of his family is not using any such building of his own in the city, town or village concerned;

(c) in the case of any non-residential building other than the non-residential building mentioned in clause (b), the landlord or any other member of his family requires it for the purpose of his business and the landlord or the member of his family does not occupy any such non-residential building of his own for the purpose of his business in the city, town or village concerned; or

(d) the building, whether residential or non-residential, whose landlord is a religious, charitable, educational or other public institution, is required for the purposes of such institution.

(2) The authorized officer may, if he is satisfied that the claim of the landlord is bona fide and reasonable, make an order releasing the building subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may think fit and if he is not so satisfied, make an order rejecting the application made under sub-section (1).

(3) Any person who is aggrieved by an order passed by the authorized officer under sub-section (2) may, within fifteen days from the date of receipt of such order, prefer an appeal to the Government and the Government shall pass such order as they deem fit and on such appeal being preferred, the Government may order stay of further proceedings in the matter pending decision on the appeal.

(4) A building released in pursuance of an order made under sub-section (2) shall, within thirty days of the date of the receipt of the order or such further period as may be allowed by the authorized officer, be occupied by the landlord or by the member of his family for whose occupation the building was required to be released or shall be put to such use for which the release was obtained.

(5) Where a building released under sub-section (2) has not been occupied by the landlord or by the member of his family or has not been put to such use for which the release was obtained within the period specified in sub-section (4), but is either let out or kept vacant the whole or any part of the building, or put to use other than the one for which the release was obtained, such building shall be deemed to have become vacant from the date of the expiry of the period specified in subsection (4) and the provisions of sub-sections (1), 2[1A], (3), (4), (5), (7) and (9) of Section 3 shall apply to such building].

1. Inserted by Section 5 of Act 23 of 1973.

2. Substituted by Section 3 of Act 1 of 1980.

4. Fixation Of Fair Rent :-

4. 1 [Fixation of fair rent

(1) The Controller shall on application made by the tenant or the landlord of a building and after holding such enquiry as he thinks fit, fix the fair rent for such building in accordance with the principles set out in the following sub-sections.

(2) The fair rent for any residential building shall be nine per cent gross return per annum on the total cost of such building.

(3) The fair rent for any non-residential building shall be twelve per cent gross return per annum on the total cost of such building.

(4) The total cost referred to in sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) shall consist of the market value of the site in which the building is constructed, the cost of construction of the building and the cost of provision of any one or more of the amenities specified in Schedule I as on the date of application for fixation of fair rent :

Provided that while calculating the market value of the site in which the building is constructed, the Controller shall take into account only that portion of the site on which the building is constructed and of a portion upto fifty per cent, thereof of the vacant land, if any, appurtenant to such building the excess portion of the vacant land, being treated as amenity :

Provided further that the cost of provision of amenities specified in Schedule I shall not exceed --

(i) in the case of any residential building, fifteen per cent ; and

(ii) in the case of any non-residential building, twenty-five per cent, of the cost of site in which the building is constructed, and the cost of construction of the building as determined under this Section.

(5) (a) The cost of construction of the building including cost of internal water-supply, sanitary and electrical installations shall be determined with due regard to the rates adopted for the purpose of estimation by the Public Works Department of the Government for the area concerned. The Controller may, in appropriate cases, allow or disallow an amount not exceeding thirty per cent, of construction having regard to the nature of construction of the building.

(b) The Controller shall deduct from the cost of construction determined in the manner specified in clause (a), depreciation, calculated at the rates specified in Schedule II].

1. Substituted by Section 6 of Act 23 of 1973.

5. Change In Fair Rent In What Cases Admissible :-

(1) When the fair rent of a building has been fixed¹[or refixed] under this Act, no further increase in such fair rent shall be permissible except in cases where some addition, improvement or alteration has been carried out at the landlords expense and if the building is then in the occupation of a tenant, at his request :

Provided that the fair rent as increased under this sub-section shall not exceed the fair rent payable under this Act for a similar building in the same locality with such addition, improvement or alteration and it shall not be chargeable until such addition, improvement or alteration has been completed :

Provided further that any dispute between the landlord and the tenant in regard to any increase claimed under this sub-section shall be decided by the Controller.

(2) Where, after the fair rent of a building has been fixed under this Act, there is a decrease or diminution in the accommodation or amenities provided, the tenant may claim a reduction in the fair rent as so fixed :

Provided that any dispute between the landlord and the tenant in regard to any reduction so claimed shall be decided by the Controller.

²[(3) Where the fair rent of any building has been fixed before the date of the commencement of Tamil Nadu Buildings (Lease and Rent Control) Amendment Act, 1973. The landlord or the tenant may apply to the Controller to refix the fair rent in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 and on such application, the Controller may refix the fair rent.].

1. Inserted by Section 7 of Act 23 of 1973.

2. Added by Section 7 of Act 23 of 1973.

6. Increase Over Rent In Certain Cases :-

(1) Where the amount of the taxes and cesses payable (including any new tax or cess which has become payable) by the landlord in respect of any building to a local authority for any half-year commencing on the 1st April, 1950, or on any later date exceeds the amount of the taxes and cesses payable in respect thereof the same or any other local authority for the half-year ending on the 30th day of September 1946, or for the first complete half-year after the date on which the building was first let, whichever is later, the landlord shall be entitled to claim such excess from the tenant in addition to the rent payable for the building under this Act :

Provided that such excess shall not be recoverable in so far as it has resulted from an increase of rent in respect of the building.

(2) Any dispute between the landlord and the tenant in regard to any increase claimed under sub-section (1) shall be decided by the Controller.

7. Landlord Not To Claim Or Receive Anything In Excess Of Fair Rent Or Agreed Rent :-

(1) Where the Controller has fixed,¹[or refixed] the fair rent of a building --

(a) the landlord shall not claim, receive or stipulate for the payment of (i) any premium or other like sum in addition to such fair rent, or (ii) save as provided in Section 5 or Section 6, anything in excess of such fair rent:

Provided that the landlord may receive, or stipulate for the payment of, an amount not exceeding one months rent by way of advance ;

(b) save as provided in clause (a) any premium or other like sum or any rent paid in addition to, or in excess of, such fair rent, whether before or after the date of the commencement of this Act, in consideration of the grant, continuance or renewal of the tenancy of the building after the date of such commencement, shall be refunded by the landlord to the person by whom it was paid or at the option of such person, shall be otherwise adjusted by the landlord :

²[Provided that where before the fixation or refixation of the fair rent, rent has been paid in excess thereof, the refund or adjustment shall be limited to the amount paid in excess for the period commencing on the date of the application by the tenant or landlord under sub-section (1) of Section 4 or sub-section (3) of Section 5, as the case may be, and ending with the date of such fixation or refixation].

(2) Where the fair rent of a building has not been so fixed --

(a) the landlord shall not claim, receive or stipulate for the payment of, any premium or other like sum in addition to the agreed rent :

Provided that the landlord may receive, or stipulate for the payment of, an amount not exceeding one months rent, by way of advance ;

(b) Save as provided in clause (a), any sum paid in excess of the agreed rent, whether before or after the date of the commencement of this Act in consideration of the grant, continuance or renewal of the tenancy of the building after the date of such commencement, shall be refunded by the landlord to the person by whom it was paid or, at the option of such person, shall be otherwise adjusted by the landlord.

(3) Any stipulation in contravention of sub-section (1) or sub-Section (2) shall be null and void.

1. Inserted by Section 8 of Act 23 of 1973.

2. Substituted by Section 8 of Act 23 of 1973.

8. Landlord Liable To Give Receipt For Rent Or Advance :-

8.1[Landlord liable to give receipt for rent or advance]

1[(1) Every landlord who receives any payment towards rent or advance, shall issue a receipt duly signed by him for the actual amount of rent or advance received by him.]

(2) Where a landlord refuses to accept, or evades the receipt of, any rent lawfully payable to him by a tenant in respect of any building, the tenant may, by notice in writing, require the landlord to specify within ten days from the date of receipt of the notice by him, a bank into which the rent may be deposited by the tenant to the credit of the landlord:

Provided that such bank shall be one situated in the city, town or village in which the building is situated or if there is no such bank in such city, town or village, within²[five kilometres] of the limits thereof.

Explanation.--It shall be open to the landlord to specify from time to time by a written notice to the tenant and subject to the proviso aforesaid, a bank different from the one already specified by him under this sub-section.

(3) If the landlord specifies a bank as aforesaid, the tenant shall deposit the rent in the bank and shall continue to deposit in it any rent which may subsequently become due in respect of the building.

(4) If the landlord does not specify a bank as aforesaid, the tenant shall remit the rent to the landlord by Money Order, after deducting the money order commission.

(5) If the landlord refuses to receive the rent remitted by Money Order under sub-section (4), the tenant may deposit the rent before the Controller and continue to deposit with him any rent which may subsequently become due in respect of the building.

1. Substituted by Section 9 of Act 23 of 1973.
2. Substituted for "three miles" by Section 9 of Act 23.

9. Right Of Tenant To Deposit Rent In Certain Cases :-

(1) Where the address of the landlord or his authorized agent is not known to the tenant, he may deposit the rent lawfully payable to the landlord in respect of the building, before the Controller in such manner as may be prescribed, and continue to deposit any rent which may subsequently become due in respect of the building, before the Controller and in the same manner until the address of the landlord or his authorized agent becomes known to the tenant.

(2) The amount deposited under sub-section (3) or under sub-section (5) of Section 8, or under sub-section (1) of this Section may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be withdrawn by the person held by the Controller to be entitled to the amount on application made by such person to the Controller in that behalf.

(3) Where any bona fide doubt or dispute arises as to the person who is entitled to receive the rent for any building, the tenant may deposit such rent before such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed and shall report to the Controller the circumstances under which such deposit was made by him, and may continue to deposit any rent which may subsequently become due in respect of the building before the same authority and in the same manner until the doubt is removed or the dispute is settled by the decision of a competent Court or by a settlement between the parties or until the Controller makes an order under clause (b) of sub-section (4), as the case may be.

(4) (a) The Controller to whom a report is made under sub-Section (3) shall, if satisfied that a bona fide doubt or dispute exists in the matter, direct that, pending removal of the doubt or settlement of the dispute as aforesaid, the deposit be held by the authority concerned.

(b) If the Controller is not so satisfied, he shall forthwith order payment of the amount deposited to the landlord.

(5) Where the Controller passes an order under clause (a) of subsection (4), any amount deposited under sub-section (3) may be withdrawn only by the person who is declared by a competent Court to be entitled thereto, or in case the doubt or dispute is removed by a settlement between the parties, only by the person who is held by the Controller to be entitled to the amount or amounts in accordance with such settlement.

10. Eviction Of Tenants :-

(1) A tenant shall not be evicted whether in execution of a decree or otherwise except in accordance with the provisions of this Section or Sections 14 to 16 :

Provided that nothing contained in the said Sections, shall apply to a tenant whose landlord is the Government :

Provided further that where the tenant denies the title of the landlord or claims right of permanent tenancy, the Controller shall decide whether the denial or claim is bona fide and if he records a finding to that effect, the landlord shall be entitled to sue for eviction of the tenant in a Civil Court and the Court may pass a decree for eviction on any of the grounds mentioned in the said Sections, notwithstanding that the Court finds that such denial does not involve forfeiture of the lease or that the claim is unfounded.

(2) A landlord who seeks to evict his tenant shall apply to the Controller for a direction in that behalf. If the Controller, after giving the tenant a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the application, is satisfied--

(i) that the tenant has not paid or tendered the rent due by him in respect of the building, within fifteen days after the expiry of the time fixed in the agreement of tenancy with his landlord or in the absence of any such agreement, by the last day of the month next following that for which the rent is payable, or

(ii) that the tenant has after the 23rd October, 1945 without the written consent of the landlord --

(a) transferred his right under the lease or sub-let the entire building or any portion thereof, if the lease does not confer on him any right to do so, or

(b) used the building for a purpose other than that for which it was leased, or

(iii) that the tenant has committed or caused to be committed such acts of waste as are likely to impair materially the value or utility of the building, or

(iv) that the tenant has been convicted under any law for the time being in force of an offence of using the building or allowing the building to be used for immoral or illegal purposes, or

(v) that the tenant has been guilty of such acts and conduct which are a nuisance to the occupiers of other portions in the same building or of buildings in the neighbourhood, or

(vi) that where the building is situated in a place other than a hill-station, the tenant has ceased to occupy the building for a continuous period of four months without reasonable cause, or

(vii) that the tenant has denied the title of the landlord or claimed a right of permanent tenancy and that such denial or claim was not bona fide, the Controller shall make an order directing the tenant to put the landlord in possession of the building and if the Controller is not so satisfied, he shall make an order rejecting the application :

Provided that in any case falling under clause (i) if the Controller is satisfied that the tenants default to pay or tender rent was not wilful, he may, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 11, give the tenant a reasonable time, not exceeding fifteen days, to pay or tender the rent due by him to the landlord up to the date of such payment or tender and on such payment or tender, the application shall be rejected.

1[Explanation.-- For the purpose of this sub-section, default to pay or tender rent shall be construed as wilful, if the default by the tenant in the payment or tender of rent continues after the issue of two months notice by the landlord claiming the rent].

(3) (a) A landlord may, subject to the provisions of clause (d), apply to the Controller for an order directing the tenant to put the landlord in possession of the building --

(i) in case it is residential building, if the landlord requires it for his own occupation or for the occupation of 2[any member of his family] and if he or 2[any member of his family] is not occupying a residential building of his own in the city, town or village concerned;

(ii) in case it is a non-residential building which is used for the purpose of keeping a vehicle or adapted for such use, if the landlord requires it for his own use or for the use of 2[any member of his family] and if he or 2[any member of his family] is not occupying any such building in the city, town or village concerned which is his own;

(iii) in case it is any other non-residential building, if the landlord or 2[any member of his family] is not occupying for purposes of a business which he or 2[any member of his family] is carrying on, a non-residential building in the city, town or village concerned which is own :

Provided that a person who becomes a landlord after the commencement of the tenancy by an instrument inter vivos shall not be entitled to apply under this clause before the expiry of three months from the date on which the instrument was registered:

Provided further that where a landlord has obtained possession of a building under this clause, he shall not be entitled to apply again under this clause--

(i) in case he has obtained possession of a residential building, for possession of another residential building of his own;

(ii) in case he has obtained possession of a non-residential building, for possession of another non-residential building of his own.

(b) Where the landlord of a building, whether residential or non-residential, is a religious, charitable, educational or other public institution, it may, if the building is required for the purposes of the institution, apply to the Controller, subject to the provisions of clause (d), for an order directing the tenant to put the institution in possession of the building.

(c) A landlord who is occupying only a part of a building, whether residential or non-residential, may, notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), apply to the Controller for an order directing any tenant occupying the whole or any portion of the remaining part of the building to put the landlord in possession thereof, if he requires additional accommodation for residential purposes or for purposes of a business which he is carrying on, as the case may be.

(d) Where the tenancy is for a specified period agreed upon between the landlord and the tenant, the landlord shall not be entitled to apply under this sub-section before the expiry of such period.

(e) The Controller shall, if he is satisfied that the claim of the landlord is bona fide, make an order directing the tenant to put the landlord in possession of the building on such date as may be specified by the Controller and if the Controller is not so satisfied he shall make an order rejecting the application:

Provided that, in the case of an application under clause (c), the Controller shall reject the application if he is satisfied that the hardship which may be caused to the tenant by granting it will outweigh the advantage to the landlord:

Provided further that the Controller may give the tenant a reasonable time for putting the landlord in possession of the building and may extend such time so as not to exceed three months in the aggregate.

3[(3-A) (a) Where the landlord has been or is a member of the Armed Forces and--

(i) is released or has retired from service and the building is bona fide required for his residence ; or

(ii) is stationed at a place where on account of military exigencies, he cannot live with his family or dies on active duty and the building is bonafide required for the residence of his family, the Controller shall, on application made by the landlord or the member of his family, as the case may be, if he is satisfied that the claim of the landlord or the member of his family is bonafide, pass an order directing the tenant to put the landlord or the member of his family in possession of the building and if the Controller is not so satisfied, he shall make an order rejecting the application.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), where the landlord or the member of his family produces a certificate from the prescribed authority under the Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act, 1925 (Central Act IV of 1925), that the landlord is serving under special conditions within the meaning of Section 3 of that Act, the application referred to in clause (a) shall be disposed of, as far as may be, within a period of one month and if the claim of the landlord or the member of his family is accepted, the Controller shall pass an order directing the tenant to put the landlord or the member of his family in possession of the building on such date as may be specified in the order which shall not be later than one month from the date of such order.

Explanation.-- For the purpose of this sub-section, "member of the Armed Forces" means a person in the service of the Air Force, Army or Navy of the Union of India and includes a seaman and "seaman" means every person including a master, pilot or apprentice employed or engaged as a member of the crew of a ship or a sailing vessel to which the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (Central Act 44 of 1958), applies:

Provided that if a question arises whether any person is a member of the Armed Forces, such question shall be decided by the Controller and his decision shall be final.]

(4) No order for eviction shall be passed under sub-section (3)--

(i) against any tenant who is engaged in any employment or class of employment notified by the Government as an essential service for the purpose of this sub-section, unless the landlord is himself engaged in any employment or class of employment which has been so notified, or

(ii) in respect of any building which has been let for use as an educational institution and is actually being used as such, provided that the institution has been recognised by the Government or any authority empowered by them in this behalf so long as such recognition continues.

(5) (a) Where a landlord who has obtained possession of a building in pursuance of an order under sub-section (3)4[or sub-Section (3-A)] does not himself occupy it within one month of the date of obtaining possession or having so occupied it, vacates it without reasonable cause within six months of such date, the tenant who has been evicted may apply to the Controller for an order directing that he shall be restored to possession of the building and the Controller shall make an order accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 3.

(b) Where a tenant who is entitled to apply for possession under clause (a) fails to do so within one month from the date on which the right to make the application accrued to him, the Government or the authorized officer shall have power, if the building is required for any of the purposes, or for occupation by any of the officers specified in sub-section (3) of Section 3 to give intimation to the landlord that the building is so required and thereupon the provisions of sub-sections (5) and (9) of Section 3 shall apply to the building :

Provided that this clause shall not apply to a residential building the monthly rent of which does not exceed twenty-five rupees or to a non-residential building the monthly rent of which does not exceed fifty rupees.

(6) Where the Controller is satisfied that any application made by a landlord for the eviction of a tenant is frivolous or vexatious, the Controller may direct that compensation not exceeding fifty rupees be paid by such landlord to the tenant.

(7) Where an application under sub-section (2) or5[sub-Section (3) or sub-section (3-A)] or eviction of a tenant has been rejected by the Controller, the tenancy shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to continue on the same terms and conditions as before and shall not be terminable by the landlord except on any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (2) or5[sub-section (3) or sub-Section (3-A)] :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prevent a landlord who has made an application for evicting a tenant on any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (2) or5[sub-section (3) or subsection (3-A)] from applying again, when the previous application is pending, to the Controller for evicting the tenant on any of the other grounds mentioned in sub-section (2) or5[sub-section (3) or sub-section (3-A)] :

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section no person who is receiving or is entitled to receive the rent of a building merely as an agent of the landlord shall, except with the previous written consent of the landlord, be entitled to apply for the eviction of a tenant.

1. Explanation added by Section 10 of Act 23 of 1973.
2. Substituted by Section 10 of Act 23 of 1973 for "his son".
3. Inserted by Section 10 of Act 23 of 1973.
4. Inserted by Section 10 of Act 23 of 1973.
5. Substituted by Section 10 of Act 23 of 1973.

11. Payment Or Deposit Of Rent During The Pendency Of Proceedings For Eviction :-

No tenant against whom an application for eviction has been made by a landlord under Section 10 shall be entitled to contest the application before the Controller under that Section, or to prefer any appeal under Section 23 against any order made by the Controller on the application, unless he has paid or pays to the landlord, or deposits with the Controller or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, all arrears of rent due in respect of the building up to the date of payment or deposits, and continues to pay or to deposit any rent which may subsequently become due in respect of the building until the termination of the proceedings before the Controller or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be.

(2) The deposit of rent under sub-section (1) shall be made within the time and in the manner prescribed.

(3) Where there is any dispute as to the amount of rent to be paid or deposited under sub-section (1) the Controller or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall, on application made to him either by the tenant or by the landlord, and after making such inquiry as he deems necessary, determine summarily the rent to be so paid or deposited.

(4) If any tenant fails to pay or to deposit the rent as aforesaid, the Controller or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall, unless the tenant shows sufficient cause to the contrary, stop all further proceedings and make an order directing the tenant to put the landlord in possession of the building.

(5) The amount deposited under sub-section (1) may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be withdrawn by the landlord on application made by him in that behalf to the Controller or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be.

12. Recovery Of Possession By Landlord For Repairs Or For Reconstruction Of Building In Respect Of Which The Government Shall Be Deemed To Be The Tenant :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, on an application made by a landlord of a building in respect of which the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant, the authorized officer shall, if he is satisfied--

(a) that the building is bona fide required by the landlord for carrying out repairs which cannot be carried out without the building being vacated; or

(b) that the building is bona fide required by the landlord for the immediate purpose of demolishing it and such demolition is to be made for the purpose of erecting a new building on the site of the building sought to be demolished, pass an order directing the allottee to deliver possession of the building to the landlord before a specified date.

(2) An order passed by the authorized officer under sub-section (1) directing the allottee to deliver possession of the building to the landlord shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

(3) No order directing the allottee to deliver possession of the building shall be passed by the authorized officer under sub-section (1)--

(a) on the ground specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1), unless the landlord gives an undertaking that the building shall, on completion of the repairs, be offered to the authorized officer before the expiry of three months from the date of recovery of possession by the landlord or before the expiry of such further period as the authorised officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, allow for re-allotment to any person named by the authorized officer; or

(b) on the ground specified on clause (b) of sub-section (1) unless the landlord gives an undertaking that the work of demolishing any material portion of the building shall be substantially commenced by him not later than one month, and shall be completed before the expiry of three months from the date he recovers possession of the entire building or before the expiry of such further period as the authorized officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing allow.

1[(3-A) (a) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the authorized officer under sub-section (1) may, within fifteen days from the date of the receipt of such order, prefer an, appeal to the Government and the Government shall pass such order, including extension of time for vacating the building, as they deem fit.

(b) On such appeal being preferred, the Government may order stay of further proceedings pending decision on the appeal.]

(4) Notwithstanding an order passed by the authorized officer under clause (a) of sub-section (1) directing the allottee to deliver possession of the building, the Government shall be deemed to continue to be the tenant, but the landlord shall not be entitled to any rent for the period commencing on the date of delivery of possession of the building by the allottee to the landlord and ending with the date on which the building is offered to the authorized officer by the landlord in pursuance of the undertaking under clause (a) of sub-section (3).

(5) Nothing contained in this Section shall entitle the landlord who has recovered possession of the building for repairs to convert a residential building into a non-residential building or a non-residential building into a residential building unless such conversion is permitted by the authorized officer at the time of passing an order under clause (a) of sub-section (1).

(6) If, after the allottee has delivered possession, the landlord fails to commence the work of repairs within one month from the date of such delivery or fails to complete the work before the expiry of three months from the date of such delivery or before the expiry of the further period allowed under clause (a) of sub-section (3) or having completed the work fails to offer the building to the authorized officer, the authorized officer may suo motu or on application order the re-allotment of the building to any person named by him; and on such order being made, the landlord and any other person who may be in occupation shall put the allottee in possession of the building.

1. Inserted by Section 11 of Act 23 of 1973.

13. Authorised Officer To Give Notice To Landlord In Certain Cases :-

(1) Where an order directing delivery of possession has been passed by the authorized officer under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 12 and the work of demolishing any material portion of the building has not been substantially commenced by the landlord within the period of one month in accordance with his undertaking under clause (b) of sub-Section (3) of Section 12 the authorised officer may give the landlord notice of his intention to re-allot the building to any person named by him. If within fifteen days from the date of receipt such notice, the landlord does not offer the building to the authorised officer, the authorized officer may re-allot the building to any person named by him on the original terms and conditions and order the landlord to put such person in possession of the building.

1[(2) Where in pursuance of an order passed by the authorised officer under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 12, any building is totally demolished and a new building is erected in its place, all the provisions of this Act shall cease to apply to such new building for a period of five years from the date on which the construction of such new building is completed and notified to the local authority concerned.]

1. Substituted by Section 12 of Act 23 of 1973.

14. Recovery Of Possession By Landlord For Repairs Or For Reconstruction :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, but subject to the provisions of Sections 12 and 13, on an application made by a landlord, the Controller shall, if he is satisfied--

(a) that the building is bona fide required by the landlord for carrying out repairs which cannot be carried out without the building being vacated ; or

(b) that the building is bona fide required by the landlord for the immediate purpose of demolishing it and such demolition is to be made for the purpose of erecting a new building on the site of the building sought to be demolished, pass an order directing the tenant to deliver possession of the building to the landlord before a specified date.

(2) No order directing the tenant to deliver possession of the building under this Section shall be passed--

(a) on the ground specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1), unless the landlord gives an undertaking that the building shall, on completion of the repairs, be offered to the tenant, who delivered possession in pursuance of an order under sub-section (1) for his reoccupation before the expiry of three months from the date of recovery of possession by the landlord, or before the expiry of such further period as the Controller may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, allow; or

(b) on the ground specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1), unless the landlord gives an undertaking that the work of demolishing any material portion of the building shall be substantially commenced by him not later than one month and shall be completed before the expiry of three months from the date he recovers possession of the entire building or before the expiry of such further period as the Controller may, for reasons to be recorded in writing allow.

(3) Nothing contained in this Section shall entitle the landlord who has recovered possession of the building for repairs to convert a residential building into a non-residential building or a non-residential building into a residential building unless such conversion is permitted by the Controller at the time of passing an order under sub-section (1).

(4) Notwithstanding an order passed by the Controller under clause (a) of sub-section (1) directing the tenant to deliver possession of the building, such tenant shall be deemed to continue to be the tenant, but the landlord shall not be entitled to any rent for the period commencing on the date of delivery of possession of the building by the tenant to the landlord and ending with the date on which the building is offered to the tenant by the landlord in pursuance of the undertaking under clause (a) of sub-section (2).

(5) Nothing in this section shall entitle any landlord of a building in respect of which the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant to make any application under this section.

15. Tenant To Re-Occupy After Repairs :-

(1) Where the landlord recovers possession under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 14, he shall, within two months before the date on which the work of repairs is likely to be completed, give notice to the tenant of the date on which the said work will be completed. Within fifteen days from the date of receipt of such notice, the tenant shall intimate to the landlord his acceptance of the building offered for his re-occupation and if the tenant gives such intimation, the landlord shall within thirty days from the date of completion of the work of repairs put the tenant in possession of the building on the original terms and conditions. If the tenant fails to give such intimation, his right to re-occupy the building shall terminate.

(2) If after the tenant has delivered possession, the landlord fails to commence the work of repairs within one month from the date of such delivery, or fails to complete the work before the expiry of three months from the date of such delivery, or before the expiry of the further period allowed under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of Section 14 or having completed the work fails to put the tenant in possession of the building in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), the Controller may, on the application of the tenant made within thirty days from the date of such failure, order the landlord to put the tenant in possession of the building on the original terms and conditions; and on such order being made, the landlord and any person who may be in occupation shall put the tenant in possession of the building.

16. Tenants To Occupy If The Building Is Not Demolished :-

(1) Where an order directing delivery of possession has been passed by the Controller under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 14 and the work of demolishing any material portion of the building has not been substantially commenced by the landlord within the period of one month in accordance with his undertaking under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 14, the tenant may give the landlord notice of his intention to occupy the building the possession of which he delivered. If within fifteen days from the date of receipt of such notice, the landlord does not put him in possession of the buildings on the original terms and conditions, the tenant may make an application to the Controller within eight weeks of the date on which he put the landlord in possession of the building. The Controller shall order the landlord to put the tenant in possession of the building on the original terms and conditions.

1[(2) Where in a pursuance of an order passed by the Controller under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 14, any building is totally demolished and a new building is erected in its place, all the provisions of this Act shall cease to apply to such new building for a period of five years from the date on which the construction of such new building is completed and notified to the local authority concerned.]

1. Substituted by Section 13 of Act 23 of 1973.

17. Landlord Not To Interfere With Amenities Enjoyed By Tenant :-

1 [(1) No landlord shall, without just or sufficient cause, cut off or withhold or cause to be cut off or withheld any of the amenities enjoyed by the tenant or were in existence during the previous tenancy].

(2) A tenant in occupation of a building may, if the landlord has contravened the provisions of this Section, make an application to the Controller complaining of such contravention.

(3) If the tenant satisfies the Controller that the amenities were cut off or withheld, or caused to be cut off or withheld, 2 [] the Controller may pass an interim order, directing the landlord to restore the amenities immediately, pending the inquiry referred to in sub-section (4).

Explanation.--An interim order may be passed under this sub-section without giving notice to the landlord :

3 [Provided that if the amenities are not restored within seven days from the date of the interim order, the Controller may permit the tenant to restore the amenities at his own cost and recover the cost of the expenses incurred by the tenant in respect of restoration of such amenities from the rent payable to the landlord in such monthly instalments as may be specified by the Controller.]

(4) If the Controller or inquiry finds that the tenant has been in enjoyment of the amenities 4 [or that the amenities were in existence during the previous tenancy] and that they were cut off or withheld by the landlord without just or sufficient cause or if the landlord was in any way responsible for the amenities being cut off or withheld, he shall make an order directing the landlord to restore such amenities.

(5) The Controller may, in his discretion, direct that compensation not exceeding fifty rupees --

(a) be paid to the landlord by the tenant, if the application under sub-section (2) was made frivolously or vexatiously;

(b) be paid to the tenant by the landlord, if the landlord had cut off or withheld the amenities or was in any way responsible for the amenities being cut off or withheld frivolously or vexatiously.

Explanation.-- In this Section, the expression amenities includes supply of water, electricity, passages, staircases, light, lavatories, lifts and conservancy or sanitary services.

1. Substituted by Section 14 of Act 23 of 1973.

2. The words "with a view to compel him to vacate the building or to pay an enhanced rent or to harass him" omitted by Section 14 of the Act 23 of 1973.

3. Added by Section 14 of Act 23 of 1973.

4. Inserted by Section 14 of Act 23.

18. Execution Of Orders :-

1[(1) Every order made under Sections 10, 14, 15, 16 and 17 and every order passed on appeal under Section 23 or on revision under Section 25 shall be executed by the Controller, as if such order is an order of a Civil Court and for this purpose, the Controller shall have all the powers of a Civil Court.

(2) An order passed in execution under sub-section (1) shall not be subject to any appeal or revision.]

1. Substituted by Section 15 of Act 23 of 1973.

18A. Power Of Controller To Appoint Commissioner :-

1[18-A. Power of Controller to appoint Commissioner

The Controller shall have powers to appoint a Commissioner in any proceeding pending before him and for this purpose, he shall have all the powers of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908)].

1. Added by Section 15 of Act 23.

19. Decisions Which Have Become Final Not To Be Reopened :-

1[Any application under Section 3-A or Section 12, and any application under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) or sub-section (3-A) of Section 10 or under Sections 14, 15 or 16, shall be summarily rejected by the Authorized Officer or the Controller, as the case may be, if such application] raises between the same parties or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, substantially the same issues as have been finally decided or as purport to have been finally decided, in a former proceeding--

(i) under this Act, or

(ii) under any other law from time to time in force before the date of the commencement of this Act and relating to matters dealt with in this Act.

1. Substituted for "the Controller shall summarily reject any application under sub-Section (2) or under sub-Section (3) of Section 10 or under Section 14, 15, 16 which "by Section 15 of Act 23 of 1973.

20. Orders Of Controller To Be Pronounced In Open Court :-

Every order passed by a Controller under this Act shall be pronounced in open court on the day on which the case finally heard, or on some future day of which due notice shall be given to the parties.

21. Conversion Into Non-Residential Buildings :-

No residential building shall be converted into a non-residential building except with the permission in writing of the Controller.

22. Failure By Landlord To Make Necessary Repairs :-

1[(1)] If a landlord fails to make necessary repairs to the building within a reasonable time after notice is given--

(a) by the authorized officer in the case of a building in respect of which the Government shall be deemed to be the tenant under sub-section (5) of Section 3;

(b) by the tenant in the case of any other building; the authorized officer aforesaid may, in the case referred to in clause (a), make such repairs or have them made by the allottee and deduct the cost thereof from the rent payable for the building or ask the allottee to make such a deduction from the rent payable; and the Controller may, in the case referred to in clause (b), direct, on application by the tenant, that such repairs may be made by the tenant and that the cost thereof may be deducted by the tenant from the rent payable for the building :

Provided that the cost of repairs, and the deduction thereof which the authorized officer or the Controller, as the case may be, may authorize shall not exceed in any one year one-twelfth of the rent payable in respect of the building for that year.

2[(2) The landlord shall not, while making repairs, render the building uninhabitable by digging up the floor or by removing any door or window or by causing any other damage to any part of the building.]

1. Renumbered by Section 17 of the Act 23 of 1973.

2. Added by Section 17 of Act 23 of 1973.

23. Appeal :-

(1) (a) The Government may, by general or special order notified in the1[Tamil Nadu Government Gazette], confer on such officers and authorities as they think fit, the powers of Appellate Authorities for the purpose of this Act, in such areas and in such classes of cases as may be specified in the order.

(b) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the Controller may, within fifteen days from the date of such order, prefer an appeal in writing to the Appellate Authority having jurisdiction.

In computing the fifteen days aforesaid, the time taken to obtain a certified copy of the order appealed against shall be excluded.

(2) On such appeal being preferred, the Appellate Authority may order stay of further proceedings in the matter pending decision on the appeal.

(3) The Appellate Authority shall call for the records of the case from the Controller and after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard and, if necessary, after making such further inquiry as he thinks fit either personally or through the Controller, shall decide the appeal.

Explanation.--The Appellate Authority may, while confirming the order of eviction passed by the Controller, grant an extension of time to the tenant for putting the landlord in possession of the building.

(4) The decision of the Appellate Authority, and subject to such decision, an order of the Controller shall be final and shall not be liable to be called in question in any Court of Law, except as provided in Section 25.

1. Substituted for "Fort St. George Gazette" by Section 18 of Act 23 of 1973.

24. Costs :-

SCHEDULE II

(See Section 4)

RATE OF DEPRECIATION

Type of building	Rate of depreciation per annum
(1)	(2)
1. Buildings built in lime mortar and in which teak has been used through out.	1.0 per cent
2. Buildings built partly of brick in lime mortar and partly of brick in mud and in which teak has been used.	1.5 per cent
3. Buildings built in brick in mud and in which country wood has been used.	2.0 percent
4. Buildings which are inferior to those of class 3 with brick-in-mud unplastered walls and mud floors and in which cheap country wood has been used.	4.0 per cent

Explanation.-- (1) The depreciation shall be calculated for each year on the net value arrived at after deducting the amount of depreciation for the previous year.
(2) The amount of depreciation shall in no case be less than ten per cent of the cost of construction of the building.

(3) The actual depreciation of a building aged n years is calculated by using the formula --

$$P = A (100 - r/100)^n$$

Where A = Total cost of construction of the building.

r = Rate of depreciation per annum.

n = Age of the building (i.e. the number of years).

P = The final depreciated value of the building.

The amount of depreciation will be equal to (A - P) subject to a minimum of ten per cent of A.
