It is hereby enacted in the Twenty-five Year of the Republic of India as follows : 1. Received the assent of the President on December 17, 1974, and published in U.P. Gazette (Extra.), dated 19th December, 1974.

CHAPTER 1 PRELIMINARY

1. Short Title And Extent :-

(1) This Act may be called the Electricity Laws (Uttar Pradesh Amendment) Act, 1974.

(2) It extends to the whole of Uttar Pradesh.

CHAPTER 2 AMENDMENT OF THE INDIAN ELECTRICITY ACT, 1910

2. Amendment Of Section 6 Of Act IX Of 1910 :-

In Section 6 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the principal Act, after sub-section (6), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :

"(6-A). After the service upon the licensee under this section of a notice by the State Electricity Board exercising the option of purchasing the undertaking--

(a) the licensee shall prepare and furnish to the Board within a period of three months from the date of service of such notice an inventory of all lands, buildings, works materials and plant belonging to the undertaking at the time of the service of such notice and shall be bound to allow the Board or its agents or the Electrical Inspector to the State Government or any officer subordinate to him authorised by him in that behalf, at all reasonable times during the pendency of the said notice and until delivery of the undertaking to the Board under sub-section (6), to enter upon such lands, buildings, works, materials and plant and prepare an inventory thereof or to check the correctness of the inventory furnished by the licensee;

(b) the licensee shall be bound to keep all his lands, buildings, works, materials and plant belonging to the undertaking in as good conditions as they were at the time of the service of such notice, subject only to changes caused by reasonable wear and tear or by irresistible force and to allow the said Board and its agents or the Electrical Inspector to the State Government or any officer subordinate to him authorised by him in that behalf, at all reasonable time during the pendency of the said notice and until delivery of the undertaking to the Board under sub-section (6) to enter upon such lands, buildings, and works and inspect the condition thereof and the condition of the said materials and plant;

(c) the licensee may use the said lands, buildings, works, materials and plant as a person of ordinary prudence would use them if no such notice as aforesaid were served, but he shall not pull down or damage any such buildings, works, materials or plant or commit any other act which is destructive thereof or permanently injurious thereto or remove any such materials or plant from the undertaking;

(d) the licensee shall be liable to account the Board for all such lands, buildings, works, materials and plant, as existed at the time of the service of such notice."

3. Amendment Of Section 7 :-

Section 7 of the principal Act, shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof, and after sub-section (1) as so renumbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :--

(2) Where an undertaking is purchased by the State Electricity Board, and--

(i) any amount of wages, bonus, gratuity, provident fund or other payment due on the date of purchase or of the delivery of the undertaking, as the case may be, to persons employed as workmen (within the meaning of the U.P. Industrial Disputes Act, 1947) in connection with the undertaking remains unpaid by the licensee to such workmen; or

(ii) the licensee had failed to pay any amount due on the said date in respect of either the licensee's contribution or the employees' contribution realised by the licensee or any other dues recoverable from the licensee under the Employees Provident Funds Act, 1952, or the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948, in respect of persons employed in connection with the undertaking;

the Board may pay the said amounts to the employees or to the Board of Trustees under the first mentioned Act, or to the Employees State Insurance Corporation, under the second mentioned Act, as the case may be, and deduct the same from the purchase money to be paid to the licensee and if the amounts so paid exceed the purchase money available, recover the excess from the licensee as arrears of revenue.

(3) All security deposits made by the consumers on the said date shall be transferred by the licensee to the Board, and if they are not so transferred the Board shall deduct the amount of the said deposits from the purchase money to be paid to the licensee, and if the said amount exceeds the purchase money available, recover the excess from the licensee as arrears of revenue.

(4) The liability of the licensee towards his employees or consumers, as the case may be, to the extent of deductions and recoveries made by the Board under sub-sections (2) and (3) shall stand discharged.

(5) The provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) shall apply in respect of all undertakings purchased before or after the commencement of the Electricity Laws (Uttar Pradesh Amendment) Act, 1974, in respect of which the purchase money remains to be paid to the licensee."
