Statement of Objects and Reasons The Uttar Pradesh Co-operative Societies 9Second Amendment) Act, 2007 (U.P. Act No. 46 of 2007) was enacted to amend the Uttar Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1965 (U.P. Act No. 11 of 1966) to provide inter alia for reducing the term of Committees of Management and the members thereof from five years two years, empowering the registrar to postpone any election whenever he is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it difficult for him to hold the elections on the fixed date and to appoint an administrator or Committee of Administrators after the expiry of the term of such Committee of Management and arranging for re-constitution of the Committee of Management by the Administrator or Committee of Administrations in accordance with the provisions of the said Act of 1965 within a period of six months from the date of their appointment, Thereafter the said period was extended from six months to one year and six months by U.P. Act No. 3 of 2008. The election of most of the primary Co-operative societies was completed but the elections of the most of the central and apex societies could not be completed. Completion of the elections of all the Co-operative Societies was to take time. It was, therefore, decided to amend the said Act of 1965 to extend the said period from one year and six months to two years and six months. Since the State Legislature was not in session and immediate legislative action was necessary to implement the aforesaid decision. The Uttar Pradesh Co-operative Societies (Amendment) ordinance, 2009 (U.P. Ordinance No. 8 of 2009) was promulgated by the governor on September 20, 2009 This Bill is introduced to replace the aforesaid Ordinance. By order, P. V. Kushwaha Sachiv
