Uttar Pradesh Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhithan Adhiniyam, 1962

26 of 1962

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the regulation of conditions of work and employment in Shops and Commercial Establishments It is hereby enacted in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows: Statement of Objects and Reasons.-- The following extract from the Statement of Objects and Reasons is given below: "The U.P. Shops and Commercial Establishment Act, 1947, was enacted in the year 1947 to provide for holidays and to regulate the hours of employment in shops and commercial establishments. Since then the Act has been enforced in more than 100 towns. During the 14 years of its administration in the State many shortcomings and deficiencies have been experienced. A number of suggestions from the employers' and the employees' unions have also been received for making amendment to certain provisions of the existing Act. In order to remove these difficulties and to provide some additional facilities to the employees of shops and commercial establishments, it has become necessary to amend the existing Act. As the proposed amendments are numerous it has been decided to repeal the existing Act and to bring in a comprehensive Bill incorporating the necessary provisions for regulating the conditions of work and employment of employees in the shops and commercial establishments." [Vide U.P. Gazette, Extraordinary, dated September 15, 1962.] The reason for the enactment of a new law about the shops and commercial establishments are widely contained in the Statement of Objects and Reasons of the U.P. Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962 which is reproduced above. Since then the U.P. Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1947 has been repealed by Section 41 of the U.P. Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962.

5. Hours Of Business :-

(1) No shop or commercial establishment, not being a shop or commercial establishment mentioned in Schedule II, shall, on any day, open earlier, or close later than such hours as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1), earlier opening, or later closing, hours may be prescribed for different classes of shops or commercial establishment, or for different areas, or for different periods of the year.

(3) The State Government may, at any time, by notification in the Gazette, add to or remove from Schedule II, any class of shops or commercial establishments.

6. Hours Of Work And Overtime :-

(1) No employer shall require or allow any employee to work on any day for more than--

(a) five hours in the case of a child,

(b) six hours in the case of a young person, and

(c) eight hours in the case of any other employee:

Provided that any employee, not being a young person or a child, may be required or allowed to work longer than the aforesaid hours of work, so however, that the total number of hours of work including overtime does not exceed ten on any one day except on a day of stock-taking or making of accounts:

Provided further that the total number of hours of overtime work shall not exceed fifty in any quarter.

Explanation.--"Quarter" means a period of three consecutive months beginning on the 1st of January, the 1st of April, the 1st of July or the 1st of October.

(2) An employee, who has worked in excess of the hours of work fixed under clause (c) of sub-section (1), shall be paid by his employer wages at twice the ordinary rate, for every hour of such overtime work.

Explanation 1.--For the purposes of this sub-section "ordinary rate" means the basic wages plus such allowances, including the each equivalent to the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to employees of foodings and other articles, as the employee is for the time being entitled to, but does not include bonus.

Explanation 2.-- In calculating the wages payable to an employee overtime work, a day shall be reckoned as consisting of eight working hours.

7. Intervals For Rest And Spread-Over Of Working Hours In A Day :-

The working hours in a shop or commercial establishment shall be so arranged that each employee gets an interval of not less than half an hour for rest after not more than five hours of continuous work, and the periods of work and intervals of rest of an employee do not spread over more than twelve hours in one day:

Provided that the State Government may, in public interest and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary or expedient, increase the said spread-over period either generally or for a class of shops or commercial establishments.

CHAPTER 3

HOLIDAYS AND LEAVE

8. Close Days :-

Every employer shall keep his shop or commercial establishment, not included in Schedule II, closed on--

(a) one day in a week, and

(b) such public holidays in a year as may be prescribed, to be hereinafter referred to, as close days.

(2) The choice of a close day not being a close day which is a public holiday shall, subject to the approval of the authority appointed by the State Government in this behalf, rest with the employer. A notice specifying all close days shall be prominently displayed by the employer in a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment.

(3) The close day shall not be altered by the employer except once in a year and with the approval of the authority appointed under sub-section (2), to be obtained in the manner prescribed. Any such alteration shall take effect as from the first day of January of the year following:

Provided that where the employers in one locality do not observe the same day of the week as the close day, the authority appointed under sub-section (2) may, in the manner prescribed, fix a day as the close day for such locality;

Provided further that the authority may, on the written request of the majority of the employers in a locality, at any time after six months from the date on which a close day was earlier fixed, alter, with effect from a date to be specified by him, the close day, not being a close day which is a public holiday.

Explanation.--Locality means any compact area declared as such by public notice by the authority appointed under sub-section (2).

9. Holidays :-

Every employee not being a watchman or a caretaker, shall be allowed by the employer holiday on--

(i) every close day which is a public holiday; and

(ii) one whole day in each week:

Provided that nothing in clause (ii) shall apply to any employee whose total period of employment in the week, including any day spent on leave or any holiday, is less than six days.

10. Earned Leave, Sickness Leave And Casual Leave :-

Every employee, who has been in continuous employment of the same employer for a period of twelve months or over, shall, in addition to any holiday allowed under section 9, be entitled to earned leave for not less than fifteen days for every twelve month of such service:

Provided that a watchman or a caretaker who has been in continuous employment for a period of twelve months or over shall be entitled to not less than sixty days earned leave for every twelve months of such service.

(2) Every employee, who has been in continuous employment of the same employer for a period of six months or over shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be further entitled to sickness leave for not less than fifteen days in any one calendar year.

(3) Every employee shall subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be also entitled, in addition to earned leave and sickness leave, to casual leave for not less than ten days in any one calendar year.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the rules made under this Act, all leave shall be granted when applied for.

(5) Any earned leave not availed of in any year by an employee shall be added to such leave accruing to the employee in the year following:

Provided that the total period of earned leave admissible to an employee at any time shall not exceed 45 days.

(6) In computing the period of continuous employment of an employee within the meaning of sub-section (1) or (2), the period during which he has been on leave under this section shall be included.

(7) Where the services of an employee are terminated by his employer, or where the employee terminates the employment, the employer shall be liable to pay to the employee wages for the number of days for which the earned leave is due to him.

11. Payment For Leave Refused :-

(1) When earned leave is refused to an employee having to his credit such leave for 45 days, he shall be entitled, in respect of the period covered by the refusal, to an amount which would have been payable to him as wages for the period in case he had been on leave during that period.

(2) The amount payable under sub-section (1) shall be in addition to the wages payable for the period.

(3) On an employee receiving the said amount, the earned leave to his credit shall be reduced by the number of days in respect of which such amount is received.

12. Wages For Holidays And Leave :-

For every holiday, and for each day for leave allowed under this Act, the employees shall be entitled to wages at a rate not less than that rate to which the employee was entitled for the day immediately preceding the holiday or the day of leave availed by him, anything to the contrary contained in any other law, contract, custom or usage notwithstanding.

WAGE DEDUCTIONS AND NOTICES OF DISCHARGE

13. Wage Period :-

(1) Every employer shall fix a period, hereinafter referred to as the wage period, at the expiry, and in respect to which wages shall be payable to his employees.

(2) No wage period shall exceed one month.

(3) The wages of every employee shall be paid within such period as may be prescribed.

(4) The remuneration due to an employee in lieu of unavailed period of leave, and the wages earned by him shall be paid--

(a) where the termination of his employment is by or on behalf of employer, before the expiry of the second working day after such termination; and

(b) where the termination of his employment is by the employee, on or before the next pay day.

14. Payment Of Wages For Period Of Earned Leave :-

(1) An employee proceeding on earned leave shall, on demand, be given advance payment of the wages for half the period of the leave, and the wages for the wage period immediately preceding such leave. The wages for the remaining half period of such leave shall be payable to him along with the wages for the first wage period after he resumes duty.

(2) The wages for the period of sickness leave shall be payable to the employee along with his wages for the first wage period after he resumes duty.

15. Deductions From Wages :-

No deductions from the wages of an employee shall be made except to such extent, and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

16. Fines On Employees :-

No fines in excess of three per cent of the wages payable to an employee for any wage period shall be imposed on him by the employer.

17. Register Of Fines :-

(1) The employer shall maintain a register in the prescribed form, wherein shall be entered all fines imposed and recovery thereof.

(2) Fines recovered from employees shall be applied only to such purposes as may be beneficial to them and approved by the authority empowered in this behalf by the State Government

18. Recovery Of Wages :-

The wages of an employee, if not paid as provided by or under this Act, shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, as if the same wages were payable under that Act

19. Discharge Of Employee By His Employer :-

(1) No employee, other than an employee engaged for a specified period in a leave vacancy, shall be discharged from service by his employer except on the ground that--

(a) the post held by him has been retrenched; or

(b) he is unfit to perform his duties on the ground of physical infirmity or continued ill-health; and he has been served with a notice in writing containing the ground of discharge. The notice shall be for a period of not less than thirty days, or such longer period as may be required under the terms of employment:

Provided that the notice of discharge may be of a shorter period if the same is accompanied with payment of wages to the employee for the number of days the notice is short of the required period.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to dismissal for misconduct

20. Termination Of Employment By An Employee :-

(1) No employee, other than an employee engaged for a specified period or in a leave vacancy, shall terminate his employment, except after notice of thirty days, or of such longer period, as may be required under the terms of his employment.

(2) Where an employee fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), his unpaid wages for a period not exceeding fifteen days may be forfeited to his employer.

CHAPTER 5

EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN AND WOMEN

21. Prohibition Of Employment Of Children :-

(1) No child shall be required, or allowed, to work in any shop or commercial establishment except as an apprentice in such employment as may be notified by the State Government in the Gazette.

No woman or child shall be required, or allowed, to work, whether as an employee or otherwise in any shop or commercial establishment during night

23. Prohibition Of Employment Of Women During Certain Period :-

No employer shall knowingly required or allow a woman to work, and no woman shall work in any shop or commercial establishment during the period of six weeks following the day on which she is delivered of a child.

24. Right Of Absence During Pregnancy :-

(1) A pregnant woman employee may, by seven clear days notice in writing, require her employer to relieve her from duty for a period not exceeding six weeks preceding (he expected date of delivery.

(2) On receipt of the notice the employer shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), permit such employer to remain absent from duty for a period of six weeks ending with the expected date of her delivery.

(3) (a) On receipt of the notice, the employer may require such employee to be examined at his cost by a lady doctor, if she so desires, or, otherwise, by any qualified medical practitioner or a midwife.

(b) If the woman employee--

(i) refuses to submit herself to medical examination, or,

(ii) on such examination is found not pregnant, or not likely to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date from which permission for absence from duty is desired, the employer may refuse to relieve her from duty, so however that the employee, if found pregnant shall be allowed to remain absent from duty for a period of six weeks prior to the expected date of her delivery.

25. Maternity Leave :-

The periods of absence from duty in respect of which a woman employee is entitled to maternity benefits under section 26 of this Act, shall be treated as authorised absence from duty, and the woman employee shall be entitled to maternity benefits, but not to any wages, for any of these periods.

26. Maternity Benefit :-

Every woman employee who has been, for a period of not less than six months preceding the date of her delivery, in continuous employment of the same employer whether in the same or different shops or commercial establishments, shall be entitled to receive from her employer for the periods of--

(a) six weeks immediately preceding the day of delivery; and

(b) six weeks following the date of delivery;

such maternity benefits and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that no woman employee shall be entitled to receive such benefits for any day during any of the aforesaid periods, on which she attends work and receives wages therefor.

36. Limitation Of Prosecution :-

(1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder except on complaint in writing made within six months of the date which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

(2) Courts empowered to try offence under this Act.-- No court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the Second Class shall try any offence under this Act, or the rules made thereunder.

1[(3) The Chief Inspector may, subject to any general or special order of the State Government in this behalf, compound any offence punishable under this Act, either before or after the institution of the prosecution, on realisation of such amount of composition, fee as he thinks fit not exceeding the maximum amount of fine fixed for the offence; and where the offence is so compounded--

(i) before the institution of the prosecution, the offender shall not be liable to prosecution for such offence and shall, if in custody, be set at liberty;

(ii) after the institution of the prosecution, the composition shall amount to acquittal of the offender.]

1. Inserted by U.P. Act No. 35 of 1979.

CHAPTER 7

MISCELLANEOUS

37. Protection Of Action Taken Under This Act :-

No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or authority under this Act, for anything done, or intended to have been done, in good faith in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or the rules or orders made thereunder.

38. Presumption :-

Whenever a shop or commercial establishment is actually opened, it shall be presumed that it is opened for the service of any customer or for the business, trade or manufacture normally carried on in the shop or commercial establishment.

39. Application Of Workmens Compensation Act And Rules :-

The provisions of the Workmens Compensation Act, 1923, and of the Rules made thereunder, shall mutatis mutandis apply to every employee of a shop or commercial establishment.

40. Rule-Making Power :-

(1) The State Government 1[may by notification make rules] to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the State Government may make rules regarding all or any of the following matters, namely--

(a) the registers and records to be maintained by an employer;

(b) the notices to be displayed by an employer;

2[(b-1) the form of register of shops and commercial establishments under Chapter I-A;
