Provided that in the case of sub-clause (f), the disqualification shall cease as soon as the arrears are paid : Provided further that arrears of any tax or water charges due to the 14 [Municipal Council] or any other local authority exercising jurisdiction within the area which has since been 15 [notified] a City shall for the purposes of clause (f) be deemed to be arrears of tax or water charges payable to the Corporation. (2) 16 [* * ] (3) 17 [ * ] (4) Having been elected as 18 [ * ] a Corporator a person shall be disqualified for continuing as 19 [ * *] a Corporator if he -

(5) A person shall not be deemed to have incurred any disqualification under clause (c) of the sub-section (1) by reason only of his receiving -

(i) any pension

(ii) any allowance or facility for serving as the Mayor or [Deputy

Mayor] or as a Corporator 21 [* * *].

(6) A person shall not be deemed to have incurred disqualification under clause (e) of sub-section (1) by reason merely of his having any share or interest in -

(ii) the occasional sale to the Municipal Commissioner on behalf of the Corporation of any article in which he regularly trades to value not exceeding in the aggregate in any one calendar year to two thousand rupees.

[(7) Any person who, after being elected as Corporator, becomes disqualified under this section shall not remain a Corporator and his seat shall become vacant with effect from the date of incurring such disqualification.]

NOTES

1. Scope. - Section 25 lays down the disqualification for Corporators.

2 . "Shall be disqualified for being chosen". - Election is a continuous process consisting of several stages and embracing many steps of which nomination is one; nomination is the foundation of a candidates right to go to the polls and must be treated as an integral part of the election. If a person is disqualified on the date of nomination, he cannot be chosen as a candidate because the disqualification mentioned under this Act attach to him on that date. See Bhagwan Das Burnwal V. State of U.P., AIR 1957 All 375. Mangoo Singh V. Election Tribunal, Bareilly, 1958 ALJ 155 (SC) Per S.K. Das, J.; Chattrbhuji Vithaldas Jasani V. Moreshwar Parashram, 1954 SCR 817; N.P. Ponnuswami V. The Returning Officer, Salem Distt, 1952 SCR 218.

3. Meaning of "otherwise qualified". - It cannot be said that the question of disqualification is beyond the scope of the consideration of the question of qualification. When a person has to be stated to be qualified to be a member he must satisfy certain positive and negative requirements, that is to say, he must possess certain qualifications and he must at the same time be free from certain disqualifications. To be free from disqualifications may, thus, be stated to be a qualification within the meaning of the expression "otherwise qualified" in this section. Ahmed Husain V. State of Travancore-Cochin, 1953 Ker LJ 310. AIR 1953 Tra Co 386. In other words, the phrase "otherwise qualified" means also not disqualified.

4. Disqualification on date of nomination. - If a person is disqualified on the date of nomination, he cannot shake off his pre-existing disqualification by acquiring a new right between the date of nomination and the date of scrutiny. Ahmed Husain V. A.K. Paul, AIR 1953 Cal. 542. If the want of a qualification of a candidate does not appear on the face of the nomination paper or of the electoral roll, but is a matter which could be established only by evidence, an enquiry at the stage of scrutiny of the nomination papers is required only if there is any objection to the nomination. The Returning Officer is then bound to make such enquiry as he thinks proper on the result of which he can either accept or reject the nomination. But when the candidate appears to be properly qualified on the face of the electoral roll and the nomination paper and no objections is raised to the nomination, the Returning Officer has no other alternative but to accept the nomination. D.S. Mehta V. T.R. Singh, AIR 1954 SC 520.

5 . Applicability. - The provisions of this section apply also to Corporators incurring disqualification during the term of their office and are not confined in their application to the pre-election stage. Mool Chand Sharma V. State of U.P. AIR 1967 SC 112.

6. "Place of profit": Sub-section (1)(c) : Scope. - The words "place of profit" occurring in this sub-section have apparently been used in the sense of "office of profit". An insurance medical practitioner under the Employees State Insurance Scheme does not hold an office of profit under the Government. Madhukar G.E. Pankakar V. Jaswant Chobbildas Rajani, (1977) 1 SCC 70: AIR 1976 SC 2283. The test to find out whether or not a person held an office of profit was to enquire whether such person occupied a subsisting, permanent, substantive position which had an existence independent from the person who filled it, which went on and was filled in succession by successive holders. Ibid., Mahadeo V. Shantibhai, (1969) 2 SCR 422 : (1970) 2 SCJ 407; Kanta Kathuria V. Manak Chand Surana, (1969) 3 SCC 268: AIR 1970 SC 694, referred to. The following principles laid down in Shivamurthy Swami Inamdar V. Sagadi Sanganna Andanappa, (1971) 3 SCC 870, for determining whether an office was under the Government could be helpful in understanding the ambit of "a place of profit in the gift or disposal of the Mahapalika" -

(1) Whether the Government makes the appointment;

(2) Whether the Government has the right to remove or dismiss the holder;

- (3) Whether the Government pays the remuneration;
- (4) What are the functions of the holder- Does he perform them for the Government; and
- (5) Does the Government exercise any control over the performance of these functions-

The word profit connotes the idea of pecuniary gain. If there is really a gain, its quantum or amount would not be material, but the money so receivable may be material in deciding whether the office really carried any profit. Ibid., relying on Ravanna Subanna V. G.S. Kaggerappa; AIR 1954 SC 653. See also GuruGovinda Basu V. Shankari Prasad Ghosal; AIR 1964 SC 254 : (1964) ISCJ 259; Abdul Shakoor V. Rikhali Chand, AIR 1958 SC 52; Shivamurthy Swami Inamdar V. Agadi Sanganna Andanappa, (1971) 3 SCC 870. An MLCsex officio membership of a local body and receiving compensatory allowances therefrom did not amount to holding an office of profit, (1971) 3 SCC 870.

A dominant, though not always decisive, test to determine the holding of an office of profit under the Government is to find out the appointing and removing authority. Kona Prabhakara Rao V. Sheshagiri Rao, (1982) 1 SCC 442.

In order to determine whether a person holds an office of profit under the Government, though several tests are applied such as the power to appoint, remove or dismiss, the liability to pay remuneration, the nature of the work and control of the Government over the duties and functions of the person, no conclusive test to determine the question has so far been laid down. Biharilal Dobray V. Roshan Lal Dobray, (1984) 1 SCC 551. The question has to be determined on the basis of the features of the office involved in each particular case. Ibid. Notwithstanding the existence of the Board of Basic Education as a body corporate, in view of the degree of the control of the Government, the financial contribution of the Government towards the Boards expenditure, the functioning of the Boards employees being in connection with the affairs of the Government and the Governments control over the appointment and disciplinary proceedings in respect of the Boards employees, it has held that a teacher of a Basic Primary School run by the U.P. Board of Basic Education under the U.P. Basic Education Act, 1972, held an office of profit under the State Government. Biharilal Dobray V. Roshan Lal Dobrey, (1984) 1 SCC 551: AIR 1984 SCC 551 : 1984 ALJ 203. The majority of a Full Bench of the M.P. High Court has held that a lawyer engaged by a Municipal Council does not hold an office of profit under the Council. Girja Shankar Shukla V. S.D.O. Harda, AIR 1973 MP 104 (FB). However, S.M.N. Raina, J. held that the said lawyer being a standing counsel held an office of profit. Ibid.

A teacher of an institution, receiving Government aid and administered by a society, registered under the Societies Registration Act, does not hold an office of profit under a local authority or other authority under the control of the Government. Lalitha Bhai V. Returning Officer, AIR 1971 Mys. 35 (DB).

For holding an office of profit under the Government, one need not be in the service of the Government. Guru Govinda Basu V. Shankari Prasad Ghosal, AIR 1964 SC 254 : (1964) 1SCJ 259. See also Bihari Lal Dobray V. Roshan Lal, (1984) 1 SCC 551 : 1984 ALJ 203; AIR 1984 SC 385.

The following have been held to be holding offices of profit : A person on panel of lawyers for the Railways, Mahadeo V. Shantibhai, (1969) 2 SCR 422; (1970) 2 SCJ 407, an Auditor to Government Companies Guru Govinda Basu V. Shankari Prasad Ghosal, AIR 1964 SC 254 : (1964) 1 SCJ 259, Patels and Shanbhogs, M. Ramappa V. Sangappa, AIR 1958 SC 937 : 1959 SCJ 167.

The following have been held not to be holding an office of profit. A person appointed to an office but still not having entered upon that office. Chandulal V. Ramdas, 41 ELR 214, a special Government Pleader Kanta Kathuria V. Nanak Chand Surana, (1969) 3 SCC 268 : AIR 1970 SC 694. (But see the minority opinion in this case.), an employee of a Government owned company (such person does not hold an office of profit under the Government) D.R. Gurushantappa V. A.K. Anwar, (1969) 1 SCC 466 : AIR 1969 SC 744, the Chairman of a Panchayat Samiti being paid under Rules 3 to 7 of the Punjab Panchayat Samitis and Zila Parishads Non-Official Members (Payment of Allowances) Rules, 1965. Umrao Singh V. Darbara Singh, 34 AIR 1969 SC 262 : (1969) 1 SCJ 349 and the Chairman of Gubbi Taluk Development Committee, Ravanna Subanna V. G.S. Kaggeerappa, AIR 1954 SC 653.

7. "Interest in a Contract" : Sub-section (1)(e) : Scope. - Collecting rent from the Municipal Committee, on behalf of the owner of a building, did not create an interest in the contract of tenancy. Bhagwandas Ramcharandas V. President Municipal Committee, Achalpur City, AIR 1967 Bom 143 (Nag) (DB). Where a person and the Municipal Committee were tenants of different parts of the same building, merely this fact did not create an interest of the said person in the contract of tenancy of the other part with the Municipal Committee. Ibid. Even the fact that the said person had sought reduction in the tax on the said building did not lead to the inference of having an interest in the contract of tenancy with the Municipal Committee. Ibid.

"Contract" does not mean a mere agreement, hence, an agreement entered into in contravention of Article 299 of the Constitution of India and not ratified by the Government was not a contract within Section 7(d) of the Representation of Peoples Act, 1951. Laliteshwar Prasad Sahi V. Bateshwar Prasad, AIR 1966 SC 580; distinguishing Chatterbuj Vithaldas Jasani V. Moreshwar Parashram, 1954 SCR 817; AIR 1954 SC 236.

A contract for the purpose of this sub-section need not necessarily be a contract made in accordance with the provisions of this Act. Pyase Saheb V. Dashrath Wasudeo, AIR 1977 Bom 91 (Nag) (DB). Where there was intentional breach of contract or refusal to work with due notice, the contract ceased to subsist and could not constitute a disqualification. S. Munishamappa V. B. Venkatarayappa, (1981) 3 SCC 260 : AIR 1981 SC 1177.

A person could not be held to be disqualified on the ground that his son was employed under the Municipal Committee. Gulam Yasin Khan V. Sahebrao Yeshwantrao Walaskar, AIR 1966 SC 1339.

7-A. Sub-Section (1)(f) : Scope. - In view of sub-section (1) and (2) of Section 150 of Maharashtra Municipalities Act, 1965 (corresponding to Section 504 and 505 of this Act) it has been held that a bill not specifying the sum due and not mentioning the penal consequences of default in payment was not a valid bill, hence, non-payment thereof would not render a person disqualified for the membership of the Municipal Council under Section 16(1)(h) of the Maharashtra Act [Corresponding to Section 25(f) of this Act]. Kastureehand Kisanlal Chandak V. District Judge, Nagpur, AIR 1968 Bom 381 (Nag) (DB).

A candidate, though in arrears, was not disqualified under Section 49(2)(g) of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, if the payment thereof could not be demanded by the Municipality on account of a stay order of a Court. Returning Officer (Special Officer), Tiruchirapali Municipality V. S. Ramchandran, AIR 1972 Mad 17 (DB).

In view of the provisions of U.P. Municipal Account Code, it has been held that the date of presentation of the cheque in payment of tax, could not be taken to be the date of ceasing of the disqualification of being in arrears of the tax under the provisions of the U.P. Municipalities Act, 1916 ILR (1966) 1 All 126.

In view of Sections 115 and 2(32) of the Maharashtra Municipalities Act of 1965 [the former Section corresponding to Section 207 of this Act and the latter being identical to Section 2(52) of this Act], the Bombay High Court has held that joint owners of a house are jointly and severally liable to pay the municipal tax on the house. Hence, the payment of any portion of such tax by any one of them did not save him from the joint liability and each of them continued to be in arrears until the entire tax was paid. Sohinder Singh Gyanchand Kuckerja V. Kadu Babu Laxman, AIR 1975 BOM 303 (DB).

8. Sub-section (1)(f): Constitutionality.-Section 56(2)(ee) providing for disqualification. for election as a Councillor, of a person being in arrears of any kind due to the Corporation, has been held constitutional, V. Narayanachari v. Commissioner and Returning Officer, AIR 1971 Mys 186 (DB).

9. Demand. - The word "demand" as used in Section 25(1)(f) does not attract the operation of Section 506 of this Act. This contention finds support from a decision of the Allahabad High Court on Sections 13-D and 166 of U.P. Municipalities Act, 1916, where it was held that the word "demand" ordinarily means something more than what is due; it means something which has been demanded, called for and asked for. But the meaning of a word must take colour from the context in which it is used. The context in which the word "demand" is used has a very obvious and clear reference to the amount of arrears or dues on which the disqualification depends. The word "demand" in that context and in the collection of words in which it has been used can only mean "in excess of one years tax or other dues". Mangoo Singh v. Election Tribunal, Bareilly, 1957 AWR 722: AIR 1957 SC 871: 1958 SCJ 136:1958 ALJ 155.

10. Sub-section (4)(i): Validity and Scope.- The validity of Section 62(2)(f) of the Kerala Municipalities Act, 1961 disqualifies a candidate for being elected as a Councillor, if at the date of election such candidate was employed as a paid legal practitioner on behalf of the Councilor as a legal practitioner against the Council. Upholding the validity of the said section the Kerala High Court observed:-

"The disqualification prescribed in Section 62(2)(f) of the Act is not against an Advocates right to practise, on the other hand, it is against a persons right to contest the election to the Municipal Council based on salutary principles of public policy."

The Court further observed that the said Section did not violate

Section 30 of the Advocates Act, 1961 or Section 14 of the Bar Councils Act, 1926 or Article 14 or 19 of the Constitution of India. Thomas Rajan v. Philip John, AIR 1982 Ker 118; see also Sakhawat Ali v. State of Orissa, AIR 1955 SC 166. 36 During the supersession of a Municipal Council, when the functions of the Council were being discharged by the Administrator, a Councillor appearing as an Advocate in a suit against the Municipal Council did incur a disqualification. Laxmi Narain v. State of M.P., AIR 1975 MP 71 (DB).

11. Absence from meeting: Six consecutive months: Computation of: Subsection 4(ii).- The period of six months should be computed from the actual date on which the member remained absent in the meeting and not from the first day of the month in which such meeting was held. Abdul Latif Nomani v. Commissioner, Gorakhpur, AIR 1968 All 44 (DB); 1967 ALJ 431; see also Rama Shankar v. Commissioner, Rohilkhand Division, AIR 1966 All 1067.

12. "Absents himself: Scope: Sub-section 4(ii).- The expression "absents himself" can not be equated with mere absence. The said expression connotes deliberation. It means absence in spite of having an opportunity to attend the meeting. It contemplates that after due notice the Councillor was in a position to attend the meeting but did not do so because of his own conduct or volition. It implies some sort of willful act or at least a culpable negligence in remaining absent. Hence, a councillor detained under MISA, could not be said to have absented himself from meetings of the corporation during the period of detention. Bhaskar Atmaram Joshi v. State of Maharashtra, AIR 1976 Bom 206; approving Wamanrao v. The Corporation of the City of Nagpur, Petn. No. 322 of 1955, decided on 2-1- 1956 (Nag) (DB).

13. Ineligibility under Life Insurance Corporation of India (Staff) Regulation, 1960, Regulation 25(4): Effect. - The said provision prohibits the employees of the said Corporation from participating in elections to legislature or local authorities. Reversing the Bombay High Courts decision, the Supreme Court, by a majority (V.D. Tulzapurkar, J. dissenting) held that contravention of this provision could not render the election of the employee void. Such contravention could only affect his employment but the Regulation could not abrogate the right conferred by the election Law. Manohar Nathusao Samarth v. Marotrao, (1979) 4 SCC 93: AIR 1979 SC 1084; overruling G. Narayanaswamy Naidu v. C. Krishnamurthi, AIR 1958 Mad 343 (DB); approving Md. Sarafatulla Sarkar v. Surja Kumar Mondal, AIR 1955 Cal 382 (DB); Uttam

Singh v. S. Kripal Singh, AIR 1976 P&H 176 (FB).

14. Disqualification after being elected a member. - Under U.P. Municipalities Act, 1916, there was no specific provision dealing with the person who, after being elected as member, becomes disqualified and, therefore, in Madan Mohan Lal v. Om Prakash, AIR 1957 All 384, it was held that an elected member incurring disqualification subsequently would continue to be a member for the remaining life of the Board unless he has been removed under Section 30 by the State Government on the ground that he has incurred disqualification enumerated in Section 13-D or any other ground. But sub-section (7) of this Act clearly lays down that a person who after being elected as Corporator, becomes disqualified shall cease to be a Corporator.

25A. Bar To Legislators Becoming Or Continuing As Mayor, [Deputy Mayor] Or Corporator :- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, contained in any other provision of this Act,

(a) A person shall be disqualified for being elected at, and for being - a Mayor, [Deputy Mayor] or Corporator, if he is a Member of Parliament or of the State Legislature;

(b) if a person after his election as Mayor, [Deputy Mayor] or Corporator subsequently elected or nominated to any of the offices referred to in clause (a) he shall on the date of first publication in the Gazette of India or of the Uttar Pradesh of the declaration of his election or his nomination, cease and within a period of fourteen days from such notification intimate by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to any person authorised by the Government in this behalf, submit his option, in which office he wishes to serve and any choice so intimated shall be conclusive, failing which he shall upon expiry of said period, to hold, the office of Mayor, [Deputy Mayor] or Corporator and a casual vacancy shall thereupon occur in the office of the Mayor, [Deputy Mayor] or Corporator as the case may be.

26. Term Of Office Of Corporator :-

(1) The term of a Corporator 26 [* * ] other than Corporator 27 [ * *] chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall be coterminus with the term of the Corporation.

(2) The term of a Corporator 28 [* * *] chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall be the remainder of his predecessors term.

NOTES

Whether subject to Section 25(1). - This section lays down a general principle that the term of a Corporator shall be co-terminus with the term of the Mahapalika and the term of Corporator chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall be the remainder of his predecessors term. But it appears that the provisions of this section are subject to sub-section (7) of Section 25 which lays down that any person who, after being elected as Corporator, incurs any of the disqualifications mentioned in Section 25, shall not remain a Corporator and his seat shall become vacant. It means that he shall cease to be a member even though the term of Mahapalika shall not have ceased,

27. Election Of Corporators :-

(1) The Corporators shall be elected on the basis of adult suffrage in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules framed thereunder.

(2) An outgoing Corporator shall be eligible for re-election.

28. Causal Vacancy In The Office Of Corporator :-

Where before the expiration of the term of office of a Corporator his seat becomes vacant owing to death or resignation or any other cause a Corporator shall be elected as soon as may be after the occurrence of the vacancy in the same manner as far as may be, but subject to any other provisions of the Act in that behalf, as is provided for the election of Corporators at a general election by and under this Act: Provided that where the term of an outgoing Corporator would in the ordinary course expire within four months of the occurrence of the vacancy, the vacancy shall be left unfilled unless the Corporation resolves otherwise.

29. Resignation Of Corporators :-

A Corporator may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Mayor and his resignation shall take effect upon the receipt of the same by the Mayor.

NOTES

1. Receipt of resignation letter : Importance. - In this section as well the words used are "upon the receipt of the same" which means that acceptance is not necessary to constitute "resignation" in the eyes of this Act.

2. Delivery of resignation letter. - Section 33(1)(b) of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1966 reads: "If a councillor or an alderman resigns his seat by writing in his hand addressed to the Mayor and delivered to the Commissioner his seat shall thereupon become vacant." A councillor placed his resignation letter before the Deputy Commissioner, who had been asked by the Commissioner to preside over the meeting of the Standing Committee of the Municipal Corporation, The Commissioners Private Secretary collected the said resignation letter from the Deputy Commissioner and delivered the same to the Commissioner. It was held that such delivery satisfied the requirement of Section 33(I)(b) and that the resignation letter need not be submitted personally to the Commissioner. Y.K. Mathur v. The Commissioner, AIR 1974 Delhi 58 (DB).

3 . Resignation from a future date and withdrawal thereof. - A Councillor may resign his seat in the Municipal Council from a future date. Y.K. Mathur v. The Commissioner, AIR 1974 Delhi 58 (DB). He may withdraw the resignation before that date, Ibid.

4. Enquiry into genuineness of resignation. - A resignation, to be lawful, must be written by the member in his hand and it must be a bona fide and genuine resignation given by him with a free will. Rameshwar Das Mittal v. State of U.P. 1972 ALJ 990 (DB). The authority competent to entertain the resignation is under an implied duty to satisfy itself whether the resignation letters received by it fulfilled 39 these requirements. Ibid. If it is satisfied that the resignations were otherwise, it can ignore them and in such case the resignations would not be effective. Ibid. The Collector is the competent authority under the Maharashtra Municipalities Act, 1965 and the relevant rules to decide whether a vacancy has occurred on account of the resignation of a Councillor. A Councillor informed the Collector that her signature on the resignation was obtained by fraud. In such circumstances, it was held that the Collector ought to have held an inquiry into the allegation. Gangabai v. President, Municipal Council, Tumsar, AIR 1970 Bom 170 (DB).

30. Election Of Same Person For More Than One Ward :-

(1) If any person has been elected a Corporator from more than one ward, he shall within three days of the date of the last of such election intimate the Municipal Commissioner the ward for which he chooses to serve.

(2) In default of such intimation, the Municipal Commissioner shall determine by lot and notify the ward for which such person shall serve.

(3) The said person shall be deemed to have been elected only for the ward so chosen or notified and the vacancy or vacancies arising in the representation of the other ward or wards shall be filled by fresh election as if they were casual vacancies.

30A. Conveyance Allowance Or Facilities For Members :- The Corporators 30 [* * *] may be paid such conveyance allowance, or be given such facilities in lieu of conveyance allowance, for attendance at meetings of the Corporation and its committees as may be provided by rules.] Delimitation of Wards

31. Provision Of Wards :-

(1) For the purpose of the election of Corporators 31 [each municipal area] shall be divided into 32 [territorial constituencies to be known as] wards in the manner provided in Section 32 and there shall be a separate electoral roll for each ward.

[(2) Each ward shall be represented by one Corporator in the Corporation.] (3) [* * *]

32. Delimitation Order :-

35 [(1) The State Government shall by order- (a) divide a 36 [municipal area] into wards in such manner that the population in each ward shall, so far as practicable, be the same throughout the municipal area;

(b) determine the number of wards into which a 36 [municipal area] shall be divided;

(c) determine the extent of each ward;

(d) determine the number of seats to be reserved for the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, the backward classes or the women.]

(2) The draft of the Order under sub-section (1) shall be published in the Official Gazette for objections for a period of not less than 37 [seven] days.

(3) The State Government shall consider any objection filed under sub-section (2) and the draft Order shall, if necessary, be amended, altered or modified accordingly and thereupon it shall become final.

33. Alteration Or Amendment Of Delimitation Order And Its Effect :-

(1) The State Government may, by a subsequent Order, alter or amend any final Order under sub-section (3) of Section 32. 38 [(1-A) For the alteration or amendment of any order under sub-section (1) the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 32 shall mutatis mutandis apply.]

(2) Upon alteration or amendment of any final Order under this section the State Government shall apportion the existing Corporators to the altered or amended wards so as to provide so far as is reasonably practicable for their continuing to represent as large a number as possible of their former constituents.

(3) An existing Corporator shall hold his office in the ward to which he is assigned for the same period that he would have held it had the wards remained unaltered and unamended.

Electors and Electoral Rolls

34. Section 34 :-

35. Electoral Roll For Each Ward :-

There shall be an electoral roll for each ward which shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act, under the superintendence, direction and control of the State Election Commission.

36. Qualifications Of Electors :-

Subject to the provisions of Sections 37 and 38; every person who has attained the age of 18 years on the first day of January of the year in which the electoral roll is prepared or revised and who is ordinarily resident in the area of the ward shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for the ward.

Explanation.- (i) A person shall not be deemed to be ordinarily resident in the area of a ward on the ground only that he owns, or is in possession of, a dwelling house therein.

(ii) A person absenting himself temporarily from his place of ordinary residence shall not by reason thereof cease to be ordinarily resident therein.

(iii) A member of Parliament or of the Legislature of the State shall not, during the term of his office, cease to be ordinarily resident in the area of a ward merely by reason of his absence from that area in connection with the duties as such member.

(iv) Any other factors that may be prescribed shall be taken into consideration for deciding as to what persons may or may not be deemed to be ordinarily residents of a particular area at any relevant time.

(v) If in any case a question arises as to where a person is ordinarily resident at any relevant time, the question shall be determined, with reference to all the facts of the case.

37. Disqualification For Electors :-

(1) A person shall be disqualified for registration in an electoral roll, if he -

(i) is not a citizen of India, or

(ii) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court, or

NOTES

1. Disputes relating to elections. - The election of a member cannot be challenged on grounds other than those mentioned in Section 71. The omission or mistake in preparing the electoral roll does not provide a ground for challenging the election. This mistake, if any, would be an irregularity and not illegality so as to vitiate the election. Nawal Kishore v. Municipal Board, Gorakhpur, AIR 1937 All 765: 1937 ALJ 336. Section 62 does not envisage an election petition challenging an election to various committees of the Mahapalika. See Bhushanlal Sahu v. Jamunadas Sukhwani, AIR 1983 MP 168.

Where in an election there were only two candidates and one of them was not validly nominated, the other would get automatically elected. [Madhukar G.E. Pankakar v. Jaswant Chobbildas Rajani, (1977) 1 SCC 70: AIR 1976 SC 2283.] Where the parties agreed that a specified number of ballot papers had been rejected for irregular marking but there was a dispute as to whether the petitioner was entitled to the credit of such ballot papers, it was held that the petitioner's application for scrutiny of the said ballot papers should have been allowed. Mohanraj Boid v. Eshwar Charan Patnaik, AIR 1976 Ori 129 (DB).

It may not be possible to allow scrutiny of rejected votes for the purpose of unseating a successful candidate but in order to ascertain the effect of the presiding officer's failure to comply with a Rule, the totality of the votes discarded on account of his such failure can be taken into consideration for deciding whether the result of the election was materially affected. Hence, where the presiding officer failed to affix the distinguishing mark on the ballot papers resulting in invalidation of 700 votes, the election was set aside. Shiv Pershad v. Ganesh Singh, AIR 1968 AP 20 (DB).

In view of Section 30 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (corresponding to Section 49 of this Act), the Supreme Court has held that finality of the electoral roll cannot be challenged in a proceeding impeaching the validity of an election. Ramaswamy v. V.B. Krishnamurthy, AIR 1963 SC 458; Kabul Singh v. Kundan Singh, AIR 1970 SC 340.

2. "Presented to the District Judge": Scope. - The scope of these words as occurring in Section 40 of the Rajasthan Municipalities Act, 1959 was considered by a learned Single Judge of the Rajasthan High Court in Madan Gopal Gupta v. Leelaram, AIR 1972 Raj 177. It was held that there was no irregularity if the election petition was presented to the Munsarim of the District Judge and not to the District Judge himself. Ibid.

3. Transfer of election petition to Additional District Judge by District Judge. -See comments under Section 61.

4. Jurisdiction of High Court: Article 226. - A person not eligible to file an election petition under this section, can impugn the election under Article 226 of the Constitution. See Rama Devi v. S.D.O., Balaghat, AIR 1966 MP 151 (DB). Where the entire election was sought to be impugned on the ground of being held in a manner contrary to the provisions of the Act and that it had resulted in depriving the people of a part of the Municipal district of the right to vote at the election, the Gujarat High Court took the view that the remedy could be had by filing a writ petition instead of filing an election petition, Bhaichandbhai Maganlal Shah v. State of Gujarat, AIR 1967 Guj 105 (DB). But the Supreme Court has held that if an alternative remedy existed, resort should be had to it. However, if in view of the nature and the ground of the case the alternative remedy was no remedy in the eyes of the law or was not an adequate and efficacious remedy, a writ petition challenging the whole election was maintainable. Bar Council (!l India v. Surjeet Singh, (1980) 4 SCC 211: AIR 1980 SC 1612. See also K.K. Srivastava v. Bhupendra Kumar Jain, (1977) 2 SCC 494: AIR 1977 SC 1703: Mohinder Singh Gill v. Chief Election Commissioner, (1978) 1 SCC 405: AIR 1978 SC 851.

The Case law on the scope of Article 226 in respect of election disputes was considered in detail by a Division Bench of the Gujarat High Court. Dismissing two writ petitions which sought to challenge the municipal elections for contravention of the relevant act and rules, the Court observed:

(1) The extraordinary jurisdiction of the High Court, though wide, should not, ordinarily, be exercised where an alternative efficacious remedy is available, under the statute. However, if the impugned order is ultra vires or a nullity as being ex facie without jurisdiction, the question of exhausting the alternative remedy would not arise.

(2) Where a statute creates a right or liability and provides a special remedy for its enforcement, that remedy must be availed of.

(3) The right to vote or stand as a candidate is a statutory right and is subject to statutory limitations. Hence, the special jurisdiction conferred on the Tribunal, created by statute, must be invoked to enforce that right.

(4) In view of the existence of an alternative statutory remedy, the High Court should refuse to exercise jurisdiction under Article 226, in matters relating to election disputes.

(5) A writ petition would not be maintainable on the mere ground that it impugned the entire process of the election.

(6) Election dispute cannot be raised before completion of the election.

(7) Where an election is questioned on the ground of being held in accordance with an ultra vires provision, the High Court need not go into the question as to whether the result was materially affected thereby. But in other cases where an election is impugned for breach of a mandatory provision, the effect of the alleged breach would have to be examined.

Accordingly, the Court held that since Section 14 of the Gujarat Municipalities Act, 1963 provided for a special jurisdiction for adjudication of municipal election disputes and the same was an efficacious alternative remedy, the petitioners were not entitled to seek relief from the High Court under Article 226. Ravjibhai Bhikhabhai Patel v. Chief Officer, Bilimora Nagar Palika, AIR 1982 Guj 163 (DB). See also Pravin C. Soneji v. Ranjit Singh Dolasingh Dodia, AIR 1981 Guj 184.

However, the decision of the Election Tribunal is amenable to writ jurisdiction of the High Court. H. V. Kamath v. Ahmad Ishaque, AIR 1955 SC 233: 1955 SCJ 267. See also comments under Sections 49 and 61.

63. Forms And Contents Of Petitions :-

(1) An election petition shall specify the ground or grounds on which the election of respondent is questioned and shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies, and shall set forth full particulars of any corrupt practice which the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible as to the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practice and the date and place of the commission of each such practice.

(2) The petition and if there is any schedule or annexure to the petition, such schedule or annexure also, shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the verification of pleadings.

(3) A petitioner shall join as respondent to his petition - 58

(a) where the petitioner claims a declaration under [* * *] 93

Section 64, all the contesting candidates, other than the petitioner, and in any other case all the returned candidates; and
(b) any other candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in the petition.

NOTES

1. Scope. - This section lays down that the election petition should mention the ground or grounds on which the election is to be called in question as well as a summary of the circumstances which justify the election being challenged on such grounds. Besides, the petitioner must, in the election petition, claim to be declared as elected and not merely call in question the election of a successful candidate. Suraj v. Jang Bahadur, 45 All 687. It does not mean that express claim should be made. Tribunal can infer from plaint whether petitioner claims to be declared elected in place of returned candidate. AIR 1955 NUC (All) 3542.

An election petition has to contain allegations of three kinds. In the first place, it has to specify the ground or grounds on which the election is questioned. Secondly, it must give material facts on which the petitioner relies and lastly, if the petitioner relies upon some corrupt practices, then he has to state full particulars as to names of parties, date and place, etc. of such practices. Bohrey Ram Gopal v. Dr Ladi Prasad Tandon, FA Appeal No.6 of 1961 decided on March 26, 1962.

2. "Material facts" and material particulars: Distinction. - "Material facts" are those facts which are essential to vest the petitioner with a cause of action while "material particulars" are the details which are necessary to amplify, refine and embellish the material facts already pleaded in the petition. Udhav Singh v. Madhav Rao Scindia, (1977) 1 SCC 511: AIR 1976 SC 744; Roop Lal Sathi v. Nachhattar Singh Gill, (1982) 3 SCC 487: AIR 1982 SC 1559. The purpose of material particulars is to embellish the petitioner's cause of action with detailed information so as to enable the returned candidate to defend himself. Roop Lal Sathi v. Nachhattar Singh Gill, (1982) 3 SCC 487.

An election petition suffering from lack of material facts is liable to be summarily rejected. But in case of a petition deficient in material particulars, the court may at its discretion allow the required particulars to be supplied even after the expiry of limitation. Udhav Singh v. Madhav Rao Scindia, (1977) 1 SCC 511: AIR 1976 SC 744.

Under Section 90(5) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 the Election Tribunal is competent to allow the amending and amplifying the particulars of any corrupt practice alleged in the petition. However, if the parties have already led evidence on the allegation, the petition cannot be dismissed for lack of the particulars of the alleged corrupt practice. If the absence of such particulars results in material prejudice, the appellate court may set aside the Tribunal's decision. Balwant Singh v. Lakshmi Narain, AIR 1960 SC 770. In considering whether material prejudice has resulted, the failure to raise such objection before going to trial will be given due weight. Ibid.

3. "Contesting candidates": Meaning. - In respect of Section 38 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, it has been held that the words "contesting candidates" mean "candidates who were included in the list of validly nominated candidates and who have not withdrawn their candidatures within the period prescribed for such withdrawal". K. Kamraja Nadar v. Kunju Thevar, AIR 1958 SC 687.

4. Election petition: Who can be joined as respondent- - In an election petition only those persons may be joined as respondents who are mentioned in Sections 82 and 86(4) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and no others. Jyoti Basu v. Debi Goshal (1982) 1 SCC 691: AIR 1982 SC 983, Section 82 of that Act is similar to Section 63(3) of this Act and Section 86(4) of that Act runs as follows:

"Any candidate not already a respondent shall, upon application made by him to the High Court within fourteen days from the commencement of the trial and subject to any order as to security for costs which may be made by the High Court, be entitled to be joined as a respondent."

4-A. Non-joinder : Effect. - Non-compliance with Section 82 (b) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 [corresponding to sub-section (3)(b) of this Act] renders the election petition liable to dismissal. Udhav Singh v. Madhav Rao Scindia, (1977) 1 SCC 511: AIR 1976 SC 744. Non-joinder of another candidate against whom allegation of corrupt practice was made cannot be waived by the opposite party and plea of non-joinder can be raised even if not mentioned in the written statement. Ibid.

Where in an election petition, in respect of wrongful rejection of nomination, the petitioner neither sought himself to be declared elected nor made an allegation of corrupt practice against anyone, impleading of only the successful candidate was sufficient. Jugal Kishore Patnaik v. Ratnakar Mohanty, (1977) 1 SCC 567.

Considering a provision similar to Section 63. the Rajasthan High Court has held that in a petition seeking to declare the result of the election of the returned candidate void, the returned candidate alone was the necessary party. But, where a further relief was sought to the effect that the petitioner himself or any other candidate had been duly elected all the contesting candidates other than the petitioner should have been joined as respondents to the petition. Shrinivas v. Keshri Chand, AIR 1984 Raj 14.

5. Joinder of unnecessary party. - Joinder of unnecessary party does not vitiate the election petition. Murarka Radhey Shyam Ram Kumar v. Roop Singh, AIR 1964 SC 1545.

6. Defective verification. - Defect in verification due to inexperience of the Oaths Commissioner is not such a serious defect as to culminate in dismissal of the election petition. Murarka Radhey Shyam v. Roop Singh, AIR 1964 SC 1545. Such a defect can be removed in accordance with the principles of the Code of Civil Procedure. Ibid.

64. Relief That May Be Claimed By The Petitioner :-

A petitioner may, in addition to claiming a declaration that the election of all or any of the returned candidates is void, claim a further declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected.

65. Recrimination :-

(1) Where in an election petition a declaration that any candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected is claimed, the returned candidate or any other party may give evidence to prove that the election of such candidate would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented calling in question his election:

Provided that the returned candidate or such other party as aforesaid shall not be entitled to give such evidence unless he has, within 21 days of the service upon him of notice of the election petition in case the election questioned is as 94 [* * *] Corporator and three days in all other cases given a notice to the District Judge trying the election petition of his intention to do so and has also given the security, if any, prescribed under Section 79.

(2) Every notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by the specification, statement and particulars required by Section 63 in the case of an election petition and shall be signed and verified in like manner.

NOTES

1. Meaning of "Recriminatory proceedings". - The expression "recriminatory proceedings" connotes those type of proceedings in which one retorts accusation or indulges himself in mutual or counter-charges. At the time of trial the opposite party is entitled to produce evidence in order to prove that any person with respect to whom a claim is made that such person should be declared elected in his room or in priority to him, should not be proclaimed so elected. in the same manner as if he himself had presented an election petition calling in question the election of such person. In other words, where in an election petition a declaration that any candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected is claimed. the returned candidate or any other party may recriminate. that is to say, it may give evidence to prove that the election of such candidate would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented calling in question his election. See Section 97(1) of the Representation of People Act, 1951.

2. Object of Recrimination. - The object of recrimination is to prevent also the candidate for whom seat is claimed from being elected, so that, in case the election of the returned candidate is declared void, there may be a fresh election. Moreover, recrimination gives an opportunity to have the said candidate, and possibly his supporters, disqualified for voting and for membership. See page 257 of the Indian Election and Election Petitions by G.L. Srivastava.

Recrimination ensures the declaration of the properly qualified candidate as duly elected and the purity of the election. It further ensures that no person gets elected by flagrant breach of law or by resorting to corrupt practices. Inamati Mallappa Basappa v. Desai Basavaraj Byyappa, AIR 1958 SC 698.

A returned candidate, who failed to file a recrimination within time, could not claim the benefit of the votes cast in his favour which, though originally rejected, were found valid on recounting. Vasudeo v. Ram Kishan, AIR 1972 Raj 74; relying on Jabar Singh v. Genda Lal, AIR 1964 SC 1200. Nor can he dispute the validity of any vote cast in favour of the alternative candidate. Jabar Singh v. Genda Lal, AIR 1964 SC 1200. .

Since Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957, did not make a provision for recrimination, it was held that recrimination could not be allowed in connection with an election petition under that Act. Banwari Dass v. Sumer Chand, (1974) 4 SCC 817: AIR 1974 SC 1032.

66. Petition When To Be Dismissed :-

If an election petition has not been presented within the time allowed by this Act or it does not comply with any provisions made under Section 79 relating to deposit of security or the necessary court-fee payable thereon is not furnished within the time allowed therefor it shall forthwith be rejected by the District Judge.

67. Procedure Of Hearing Of Petition :-

(1) An election petition not rejected under Section 66 shall be heard by the District Judge.

(2) The District Judge hearing the petition shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed by rules under Section 79.

68. Transfer Of Petition :-

(1) On the application of any party to an election petition and after notice to the other parties thereto and after hearing such of them as desire to be heard, or of its own motion without such notice, the High Court may at any stage -

(a) transfer an election petition pending before a District Judge for trial to any other District Judge; or

(b) re-transfer the same for trial to the District Judge from whom it was withdrawn.

(2) Where any election petition has been transferred or re-transferred under subsection (1), the District Judge who thereafter tries such petition may, subject to any direction in the order of transfer to the contrary, proceed from the point at which it was transferred or re-transferred:

Provided that he may, if he thinks fit, re-call and re-examine any of the witnesses already examined.

69. Decision On The Petition :-

If the petition has not otherwise been dismissed in the course of hearing, the District Judge shall at the conclusion of the trial of an election petition make an order -

(a) dismissing the election petition; or

(b) declaring the election of all or any of the returned candidates to be void; or

(c) declaring the election of all or any of the returned candidates to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected.

70. Other Orders To Be Made While Disposing Of The Petition :-

At the time of making an order under Section 69 the District Judge shall also make an order -

(a) where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, recording -

(i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by, or with the consent of, any candidate or his agent at the election, and the nature of that corrupt practice; and

(ii) the names of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice; and

(b) fixing the total amount of costs payable, and specifying the persons by and to whom costs shall be paid:

Provided that no person shall be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) unless -

(a) he has been given notice to appear before the District Judge and to show cause why he should not be so named; and

(b) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness who has already been examined by the District Judge and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

71. Grounds For Declaring An Election To Be Void :-

If the District Judge is of opinion -

(a) that on the date of his election a returned candidate was not qualified, or was disqualified, to be chosen to fill the seat under this Act; or 63

(b) that any corrupt practice specified in Section 78 has been committed by a returned candidate or his election agent or by any other person with the consent of a returned candidate or his election agent; or

(c) that any nomination has been improperly rejected; or

(d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected

(i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination, or

(ii) by any corrupt practice committed in the interests of the returned candidate by a person other than that candidate or his election agent or a person acting with the consent of such candidate or election agent, or

(iii) by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void, or

- (iv) by any non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any rules or orders made thereunder, or
- (v) the District Judge shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

NOTES

1 . Jurisdiction of District Judge. - Section 30(b) of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 [corresponding to Section 49(b) of this Act] does not bar the High Courts jurisdiction to set aside an election on the grounds mentioned in Section 100(1)(a), of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 [corresponding to Section 71 (1) of this Act]. Ramji Prasad Singh v. Ram Bilas Jha, (1977) I SCC 260: AIR 1976 SC 2573.

If a successful candidate was disqualified at the date of election on account of conviction and sentence exceeding two years imprisonment, but was subsequently acquitted by the appellate court before the decision of the election petition pending against him, his disqualification became non est from the beginning and the petition challenging his election on the ground of said disqualification was not sustainable. Vidya Charan Shukla v. Parshottam Lal Kaushik, (1981) 2 SCC 84: AIR 1981 SC 547.

2. Corrupt practice with the consent of the candidate: Clause (b): Scope.- Where corrupt practice was committed in favour of a candidate on numerous occasions spread over a number of days within the knowledge of the candidate and the candidate failed to prohibit it, such failure on his part amounted to consent. Sheopat Singh v. Harish Chandra, AIR 1960 SC 1217. Consent implies conscious assent. Mohammad Koya v. Muthukoya, (1979) 2 SCC 8: AIR 1979 se 154. 64

3 . Improper rejection of a nomination paper: Clause (c). - An enquiry before the Election Tribunal into the question of improper rejection of a nomination paper as contemplated in Section 100(1) (C) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, must embrace all the matters regarding qualification and disqualification and should not remain confined to the ground of disqualification taken before the Returning Officer. N.T Veluswami Thevar v. V.G. Raja Nainar, AIR 1959 SC 422.

Unlike improper acceptance of, improper rejection of a nomination paper itself raises a presumption of the result of the election being materially affected. Surendra Nath Khosla v. S. Dalip Singh, AIR 1957 SC 242: 1957 SCJ 162.

Rejection of a nomination paper only on the ground of absence of the candidate is not sustainable under clause 10(2)(d) of the U.P.

Nagar Mahapalika (Mayoron Aur Deputy Mayoron Ke Nirvachan Ka Sanchalan) Agya, 1959 or clause 22(2)(d) of the U.P. Nagar Mahapalika (Corporatoron Ke Nirvachan Ka Sanchalan) Agya, 1959 or clause 22(2) (a) of U.P.Nagar Mahapalika (Corporation ke Nirvachan ka sanchalan) agya, 1959 Mohd. Yasin Shah v. Ali Akbar Khan, (1977) 2 SCC 23. However, if the rejection was based also on the additional ground of false signature of the candidate on the nomination paper, the rejection order would be upheld. Ibid.

4. Improper acceptance of nomination paper: Clause (d)(i). - Where after the acceptance of the nomination paper some disqualification of the candidate, which was neither apparent nor was brought to the notice of the Returning Officer. was discovered, the Election Tribunal could quash the election on the ground of his disqualification but not on the ground of improper acceptance of the nomination paper. Durga Shankar Mehta v. Raghuraj Singh, AIR 1954 SC 520: 1954 SCJ 723; see also S.M. Banerji v. Sri Krishna Agarwal, AIR 1960 SC 368.

5. Clause (d)(ii): Scope. - Every act of a person not working full time for the candidate can not be regarded as done with his consent so as to make the candidate liable. Samant N. Balkrishna v. George Fernandez, (1969) 3 SCC 238: AIR 1969 SC 1201.

6. Improper acceptance or rejection of vote: Clause (d)(iii). - Mere acceptance of an illegal vote did not vitiate the election unless such acceptance materially affected the result of the election. Parkash Chand v. State of Punjab, AIR 1977 P&H 26 (FB).

Improper reception or improper rejection of votes can result in invalidating an election only if such act materially affects the result of the election. Bashir Ahmad Magrey v. Ghulam Qadir Mir, (1977) 1 SCC 285: AIR 1977 SC 231.

The adjective "improper" in this clause, qualifies not only the word "reception" but also the word "refusal". The expression "refusal" implies "refuse to accept" and the expression "reception" implies "refuse to reject". S. Raghubir Singh v. S. Gurcharan Singh Tohra, 1980 Supp SCC 53.

Where a number of candidates were elected by proportional representation by a single transferable vote and an unsuccessful candidate filed an election petition seeking a composite relief of the election of a successful candidate being declared void and the petitioner being declared elected in his place, it has been held that it was not necessary for a successful candidate to file a recrimination against another successful candidate. Hence, a successful candidate could claim the first preference under a vote which had not the effect of challenging the validity of the votes received by the election petitioner or any election activity of the petitioner. Anirudh Prasad v. Rajeshwari Saroj Das, (1977) 1 SCC 105: AIR 1976 SC 2184.

In the system of proportional representation by a single transferable vote, the voter must cast the first preference vote clearly and unambiguously. But if he commits some error in indicating his subsequent preferences, the whole ballot paper can not be rejected as invalid and the error would affect only the preferences cast subsequent to the error. Shradha Devi v. Krishna Chandra Pant, (1982) 3 SCC 389: AIR 1982 SC 1569.

7. Clause (d)(iii): Objections can be raised without filing recrimination. - In an enquiry under Section 100(1)(d)(iii) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 [corresponding to Section 71 (d)(iii) of this Act], with regard to improper refusal of votes, objection in respect of the identity of the voters can be raised without filing a recrimination under Section 97 (corresponding to Section 65 of this Act) Shankar Balaji Savant v. Sakharan Vithoba Salunkhe, AIR 1965 SC 1424: (1965) 2 SCJ 684.

8. Clause (d)(iv): Scope. - Where an election is impugned for non-compliance with a rule, the Election Tribunal must consider the question as to whether the election was thereby materially affected. Nanhoo Mal v. Hira Mal, (1976) 3 SCC 211: AIR 1975 SC 2140. Moreover, very minor mistakes not affecting the substance can not be the basis of getting relief from a court. Prem Chand v. Sri O.P. Trivedi, 1967 ALJ 5 (DB). Hence, a minor error in the spelling of the name of a candidate as printed on the ballot paper did not amount to non-compliance with the relevant Rule. Ibid.

72. Grounds For Which Candidate Other Than The Returned Candidate May Be Declared Elected :-

If any person who has lodged a petition has, in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claimed a declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected and the District Judge is of opinion-

(a) that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes; or

(b) that but for the votes obtained by the returned candidate by corrupt practice the petitioner or such other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes;

(c) the District Judge shall after declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected

73. Procedure In Case Of Equality Of Votes :-

If during the trial of an election petition it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidates at the 66 election and that the addition of a vote would entitle any of these candidates to be declared elected, then -

(a) any decision made by the Nirvachan Adhikari (Returning Officer) under the provisions of this Act shall, in so far as it determines the question between those candidates, be effective also for the purposes of the petition; and

(b) in so far as that question is not determined by such a decision, the District Judge shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one on whom the lot then falls had received an additional vote.

74. Appeal Against Order Of District Judge :-

(1) An appeal shall lie from every order made by the District Judge under Section 69 or Section 70 to the High Court within thirty days from the date of the order:

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

(2) Every person who prefers an appeal under sub-section (1) shall enclose with the memorandum of appeal a Government Treasury receipt showing that a deposit of five hundred rupees has been made by him either in a Government Treasury or in the State Bank of India in favour of the High Court as security costs of the appeal.

(3) The High Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the same powers, jurisdiction and authority, and follow the same procedure, with respect to an appeal under this Chapter as if the appeal were an appeal from an original decree passed by a Civil Court situated within the local limits of its civil appellate jurisdiction:

Provided that every appeal under this section shall be heard by a bench of not less than two judges.

(4) Every appeal shall be decided as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to determine it finally within three months from the date on which the memorandum of appeal is presented to the High Court.

(5) A copy of the order of the High Court on appeal shall be sent by the Registrar of the High Court to the State Government for information.

(6) Where an appeal has been preferred against an order under clause (b) of Section 69, the High Court may, on sufficient cause being shown, stay operation of the order appealed from and in such a case the order shall be deemed never to have taken effect under Section 77 and shall not take effect until the dismissal of the appeal.

NOTES

1. Interlocutory orders not appealable. - Interlocutory orders of the Election Tribunal are not appealable under this Section. Hence, an order of the Tribunal for recounting the votes was not appealable during the pendency of the election petition. B.M. Munner v. Returning Officer, AIR 1982 Kant 313.

2. Interlocutory orders of Election Tribunal whether amenable to writ jurisdiction. - In view of the statutory provision for appeal against the Election Tribunal's decision, it would be a proper exercise of discretion under Article 226 to refuse to interfere with interlocutory orders of the Tribunal. N. T. Veluswami Thevar v. G. Raja Nainar, AIR 1959 SC 422.

75. Finality Of Orders And Decision :-

The decision of the High Court on appeal under Section 74 and subject only to such decision, the order of the District Judge under Section 69 or Section 70 shall be final and conclusive.

76. Communication Order :-

The District Judge shall after pronouncing his orders made under Sections 69 and 70 send a copy thereof to the State Government.

77. Taking Effect Of Order :-

An order of the District Judge under Section 69 or Section 70 shall take effect on the day next following the day on which the same is pronounced.

78. Corrupt Practices :-

The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act:

- (1) Bribery, that is to say, any gift, offer or promise by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, of any gratification to any person whosoever, with the object, directly or indirectly of inducing
 - (a) a person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw from being a candidate, or to retire from contest at an election;
 - (b) an elector to vote or refrain from voting at an election, or as a reward to -

- (i) a person for having so stood or not stood, or for having withdrawn his candidature, or for having retired from contest; or
- (ii) an elector for having voted or refrained from voting.

Explanation.-For the purposes of this clause the term "gratification" is not restricted to pecuniary gratification or gratifications estimable in money and it includes all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward. 68

(2) Undue influence, that is to say, and direct or indirect interference or attempt to interfere on the part of the candidate or his agent, or of any other person, with the free exercise of any electoral right at an election: Provided that -

(a) without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this clause any such person as is referred to therein who

(i) threatens any candidate, or any elector, or any person in whom a candidate or any elector is interested, with injury of any kind including social ostracism and excommunication or expulsion from any caste or community; or

(ii) induces or attempts to induce a candidate or an elector to believe that he, or any person in whom he is interested, will become or will be rendered an object of divine displeasure or spiritual censure, shall be deemed to interfere with the free exercise of the electoral right of such candidate or elector within the meaning of this clause;

(b) a declaration of public policy, or a promise of public action or the mere exercise of a legal right without intent to interfere with an electoral right, shall not be deemed to be interference within the meaning of this clause;

(3) The systematic appeal by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, to vote or refrain from voting on grounds of caste, race, community or religion or the use of, or appeal to, religious symbols or the use of, or appeal to, national symbols, such as the national flag or the national emblem for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidates election.

(4) The publication by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, of any statement of fact which is false, and which he either believes to be false or does not believe to be true, in relation to the candidature, or withdrawal, or retirement from contest, of any candidate, being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of that candidates election.

(5) The procuring or abetting or attempting to procure by a candidate or his agent, the application by a person whether for a ballot paper in the name of any other person, whether living or dead or in a fictitious name, or by a person for a ballot paper in his own name when by reason of the fact that he has already voted in the same or some other ward, he is not entitled to vote.

(6) The hiring or procuring, whether on payment or otherwise, of any vehicle or vessel by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, for the conveyance of any elector (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station provided under order issued in pursuance of Section 46:

Provided that the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by an elector or by several electors at their joint costs for the purpose of conveying him or them to and from any such polling station or place fixed for the poll shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power:

Provided further that the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any tramcar or railway carriage by any elector at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from any such polling station or place fixed for the poll shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause.

Explanation. - In this clause, the expression "vehicle" means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

(7) The obtaining or procuring or abetting or attempting to obtain or procure by a candidate or his agent, or, by any other person, any assistance (other than the giving of vote), for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidates election, from any person in the service of the Government and belonging to any of the following classes, namely:

- (a) gazetted officers;
- (b) stipendiary judges and magistrates;
- (c) members of the armed forces of the Union;
- (d) members of the police forces;
- (e) excise officers;
- (f) revenue officers including village accountants, such as patwaris, lekhpals, talatis karnams and the like but excluding other village officers; and
- (g) such other class of persons in the service of the Government as may be prescribed.

NOTES

1. Corrupt practices. - Gift, offer or a promise of any gratification in order to amount to corrupt practice must be proved to have been made with an express design of inducing (a) a person to stand or not to stand, or to withdraw from being a candidate, or to retire from contest, or (b) a voter to vote for the person who makes the gift. offer or promise of any gratification. Mere evidence to prove the making of gift, offer or promise of any gratification is not sufficient. Some other additional circumstances have got to be proved from which such an inference can legitimately be drawn. Mazharuddin v. Ram Shankar, AIR 1956 All 169.

Procuring the exercise of undue influence on the voters, impersonation of absent and dead voters and tampering with the Death Register in the interest of a 70 candidate amounted to corrupt practice under Rule 49 of the Rules framed under the U.P. Town Areas Act, 1914. Saiyid Alimuddin v. Saeed Ahmad, AIR 1955 SC 761. So is the act of canvassing to induce a voter to vote for or abstain from voting in favour of a candidate on the ground of sect, caste or sub-caste. Hari Ram v. Election Tribunal. AIR 1970 All 146 (FB): 1969 ALJ 550.

Appealing to the voters of a particular community to vote for a candidate on the ground of religion was not a corrupt practice under Section 28-F of the Bombay Municipal Corporation Act, 1888. Shaikh, Mohamed Arshad (Dr) v. Devidas Vithal Salsingikar, AIR 1976 Bom 281 (DB).

2. With the object of inducing an elector for having voted or refrained from voting. - The mere doing of an act which may be beneficial to a person does not necessarily lead to the inference that there was a design to induce voters to vote for him. There must be some further circumstances to prove corrupt practice besides merely proving the fact that something beneficial was done by the returned candidate. Ibid. The distribution of sweets to children of the constituency with the object of gaining popularity for the candidate did not amount to any corrupt practice. Braj Bhushan v. A.B. Shah, 1960 ALJ 369.

3. Sub-section (3). - Merely giving certain benefits to a community does not necessarily mean that the candidate canvassed on the ground of caste, community, sect or religion. Ibid.

4. Corrupt Practices, standard of proof. - The standard of proof in respect of corrupt practices alleged in the election petition is the standard applicable in criminal cases, i.e. corrupt practices must be proved beyond any reasonable doubt. Suspicion however strong is not sufficient to prove such a charge. The evidence whether it is direct or circumstantial must be conclusive and if there is any doubt the returned candidate should be given the benefit of that doubt. In the case of Harish Chandra v. Triloki Singh, AIR 1975 SC 444. [See also KM. Mani v. P.J. Antony, (1979) 2 SCC 221: (1979) 1 SCR 701] the Supreme Court observed as follows:

"It should not be forgotten that charges of corrupt practices are quasi-criminal in character and that the allegation relating thereto must be sufficiently clear and precise to bring home the charges to the candidates." The same view was taken in the case of Gokulnandi v. Jogesh Chandra, AIR 1959 Orissa 47 in which it was held that:

"Now as the standard of proof required for judging the evidence by the parties, it has been held in a long array of cases both under the old and new law that in the case of allegations of corrupt practices the burden of proof is on the petitioner. It never shifts and the standard of proof to discharge this burden is the same as in criminal cases, that is, the matter requiring proof should be established beyond any reasonable doubt and that in case of doubt the benefit should go to the respondent". Braj Bhushan v. AB. Shah, 1960 ALJ 369. See also Mohammad Koya v. Muthukoya, (1979) 2 SCC 8: AIR 1979 SC 154; Ramanbhai Rao v. G. Venkata Reddy, (1977) 1 SCC 771: AIR 1977 SC 208; Narendra Modivalappa Kheni v. Manik Rao Patil, (1977) 4 SCC 16: AIR 1977 SC 2171; Ramji Prasad Singh v. R.B. Jha, (1977) 1 SCC 260; Lakshmi Raman Acharya v. Chandan Singh, (1977) 1 SCC 423: AIR 1977 SC 587.

The burden of proof of commission of corrupt practice is primarily on the petitioner. Amolakchand Chhazad v. Bhagwandas Arya, (1977) 3 SCC 566: AIR 1977 SC 813. But on election petitioner proving various admissions made by the returned candidate, onus shifts from the petitioner to that candidate. Thiru John v. Returning Officer, (1977) 3 SCC 540: AIR 1977 SC 1724.

A charge of corrupt practice is easy to level but difficult to prove. M. Narayana Rao v. G. Venkata Reddy, (1977) 1 SCC 771: AIR 1977 SC 208. In absence of corroborating contemporaneous documents, the court should be very careful in scrutinizing oral evidence and should not lightly accept it unless the evidence is credible, trustworthy, natural and showing beyond doubt the commission of the alleged corrupt practice. Ibid. See also Lakshmi Ratan Acharya v. Chandan Singh, (1977) 1 SCC 423: AIR 1977 SC 587; Amolakchand Chhazad v. Bhagwandas Arya, (1977) 3 SCC 566: AIR 1977 SC 813; Mohd. Yasin Shah v. Akbar Ali Khan, (1977) 2 SCC 23.

5. Mens rea. - It is not an essential ingredient of corrupt practice. Y.S. Pasmer v. Hira Singh Paul, AIR 1959 SC 244: 1959 SCJ 483.

6. Pleadings. - Allegation in pleadings regarding corrupt practice must be clear and precise. Kona Prabhakara Rao v. M. Sheshagiri Rao, (1982) 1 SCC 442.

A plea not incorporated in the election petition cannot be raised at the time of arguments. Bashir Ahmad Magrey v. Ghulam Qadir Mir, (1977) 1 SCC 285: AIR 1977 SC 231.

7. Bribery. - The term "bribery" is defined under Section 171-B of the IPC as under: -

"(1) Whoever -

(i) gives a gratification to any person with the object of inducing him or any other person to exercise any electoral right or of rewarding any person for having exercised any such right; or

(ii) accepts either for himself or for any other person any gratification as a reward for exercising any such right or for inducing or attempting to induce any other person to exercise any such right; commits the offence of bribery:

Provided that a declaration of public policy or a promise of public action shall not be an offence under the section.

(2) A person who offers, or agrees to give, or offers or attempts to procure a gratification shall be deemed to give a gratification.

(3) A person who obtains or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain a gratification shall be deemed to accept a gratification and a person who accepts a gratification as a motive for doing what he does not intend to do or as a reward for doing what he has not done, shall be deemed to have accepted the gratification as a reward."

Where bribery is alleged then it is necessary for the petitioner before the Election Tribunal to prove and the Tribunal to give a distinct finding that the names of the persons to whom inducement was alleged to have been made, were entered in the electoral rolls of the constituency. However, every allegation of fact in the plaint if not denied specifically or by necessary implication, is taken to be admitted. And acting on this principle the Tribunal may be justified in taking it as admitted that the persons were electors in the constituency. Tirath Singh v. Bachitar Singh, AIR 1954 Pepsu 118.

8. Bribery: Sub-section (1): Scope. - Acceptance of a gift is not a corrupt practice, S.B. Adityan v. S. Kandaswami, AIR 1958 SC 857: 1958 SCJ 1072. An offer of bribery was a corrupt practice even if no specific amount had been mentioned. Rajendra Prasad Jain v.

Sheel Bhadra Yajee, AIR 1967 SC 1445. Ordinary courtesy and hospitality can not be equated with corrupt practice. T.N. Anganani v. Ravoluen, (1971) 2 SCC 592: AIR 1972 SC 2367. Making payment to a worker for his expenses in canvassing is not a corrupt practice. Onkar Singh v. Ghasiram Manjhi, 39 ELR 477.

An offer to help to secure employment does not constitute gratification, hence, not a corrupt practice. Withdrawal of ones own candidature, in order to induce another person to stand, is not covered by the word "gratification". S.B. Adityan v. S. Kandaswami, AIR 1958 SC 857. An announcement of increase in dearness allowance of Government employees was not a gift, offer or promise of gratification. H. V. Kamath v. Niraj Singh, (1969) 1 SCC 601: AIR 1970 SC 211.

Bribery by a person who was not yet a validly nominated candidate, did not amount to corrupt practice. Harjit Singh Mann v. S. Umrao Singh, (1980) 2 SCC 713: AIR 1980 SC 701. Mere delivery of a cheque by the candidate would not amount to bribery unless an element of bargain was there. Ibid.

9. Voting, what does it mean. - Voting means expressing ones opinion on a particular point and nobody can be said to have voted unless he has so indicated his opinion obviously, therefore. the process of voting cannot start until the voter has obtained the ballot paper and has at least started the act of expressing his opinion. Rajendra Pal v. H.N. Kapoor, 1960 ALJ 339.

10. Undue influence: Sub-section (2). - The definition of "undue influence" in sub-section (2) is more or less in the same language as in Section 123(2) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 or Section 171 of the Indian Penal Code. 73 However, in the Nagar Mahapalika Act and Representation of the People Act, the scope of the definition has been widened by adding the words "direct or indirect" to indicate the nature of interference. Babu Rao Patel v. Zakir Hussain, AIR 1968 SC 904: (1968) 2 SCJ 490. The pleadings in respect of undue influence must be specific and full particulars thereof should be given in the election petition. Lakhi Prasad Agarwal v. Nathmal Dakaria, AIR 1969 SC 583.

Exercising undue influence vitiates the election even if the result was not materially affected. M. Narayana Rao v. G. Venkata Reddy, (1977) 1 SCC 771: AIR 1977 SC 208.

Printing and distribution of handbills or posters making false allegations regarding the result of some alleged election in which one party routed another would not amount to undue influence unless direct or indirect interference or attempt to interfere with the free exercise of any electoral right was alleged and proved. Aad Lal v. Kanshi Ram, (1980) 2 SCC 350: AIR 1980 SC1358. Moreover, unless such material was prepared at the instance of the returned candidate, charge of exercising undue influence would fail. Ibid.

If the speech is calculated to interfere with the free exercise of electoral right and to leave no choice to the electors in the matters, a corrupt practice is committed irrespective of the actual effect of the speech. Manubhai Nandlal Amorsey v. Popatlal Manilal Joshi, (1969) 1 SCC 372: AIR 1969 SC734; Ram Dial v. Sant Lal, AIR 1969 SC 855: 1959 SCJ 196. A statement that those voting for the Congress Candidate would be guilty of the sin of gohatya is covered by Section 78 (2)(ii). Narbada Prasad v. Changa Lal, AIR 1969 SC 395: (1969) 1 SCJ 786; Manubhai Nandlal Amorsey v. Popatlal Manilal Joshi, AIR 1969 SC 734: (1969) 2 SCJ 138.

But an allegation that voting for Congress would be equal to slaughter of a cow, has been held not amounting to exercising undue influence. Pundit Shree Krishna Selot v. Ramcharan Pujari. (1969) 3 SCC 548: but see Mohan Lal Sethia v. Chiranjilal Harsola, Civil Appeal No. 272 of 1969 decided on 16-12-1969.

For more case law refer to "The Complete Digest of Supreme Court Cases, Volumes V and VI".

11. Appeal on grounds of caste: Sub-section (3). - Where the allegation was that canvassing on the ground of caste was widespread and at several places and the persons making such appeals had been specified in the petition and substantiated by witnesses, mere failure of the witnesses to mention the name of the voters to whom such appeal was made, did not justify the rejection of their evidence. Ambika Saran Singh v. Mahant Mahadeva, (1969) 3 SCC 492.

A letter written by a supporter of the returned candidate to the supporter of the petitioner did not amount to an appeal. Biswanath Rai v. Sachidanand Singh, AIR 1971 SC 1949.

12. Appeal on religious grounds: Sub-section (3). - Section 123(3) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 [corresponding to Section 78(3)] barred appeal on the ground of the candidates religion but not mere appeal in the name of religion. Kanti Prasad Jayashanker Yagnik v. Purushottamdas Ranchoddas Patel, (1969) 1 SCC 445: AIR 1969 SC 351.

Appeal on religious grounds can be committed even when the rival candidates belong to the same religion. Kultar Singh v. Mukhtiar Singh, (1965) 1 SCJ 565: 1964 CrLJ 268: 26 ELR 300.

Alleging that the activities of a candidate ran counter to the interest of his community was not a corrupt practice. J.K. Choudhary v. Birendra Chandra Dutt, 42 ELR 66.

13. Test of appeal to, or use of religious symbol. - An act not tending to arouse religious sentiments is not within the ambit of prohibition. Ramanbhai Ashabhai Patel v. Dobhi Ajitkumar Fulsinji, AIR 1965 SC 669.

A pendant with the word "Om" printed upon, was not a religious symbol. Jagdev Singh v. Pratap Singh, AIR 1965 SC 183: (1964) 2 SCJ 633.

14. Publishing false statement: Sub-section (4). - The onus to prove that a statement of the type prohibited by this sub-section was made, is on the election petitioner. This onus can be discharged by swearing to that effect. Once that is done, the burden shifts to the candidate making the statement to show either that the statement was true or that he did not believe the same to be false. Napal Chandra Roy v. Netai Chandra Das, (1971) 3 SCC 303. This sub-section places restriction on a statement "reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of the election of the candidate" against whom it is made. The word "calculated" means designed, it denotes more than likelihood and imports a design to affect the voters. Sheopal Singh v. Ram Pratap, AIR 1965 SC 677. The emphasis is on the calculated effect and not on the actual result, though the latter proves the former Ibid. See also Shrihari Baliram Jivatode v. Vithalrao, (1969) 1 SCC 82: AIR 1970 SC 1841: Om Prakash v. Lalchand, (1969) 2 SC 533: AIR 1970 SC 1889.

Circulating a pamphlet making a false allegation of a candidate having been ostracised from a particular religious community and also that he was running a brothel in the graveyard and trading in illicit liquor and on these grounds asking the members of that community to vote against the said candidate, has been held to be a corrupt practice under the provisions of the Maharashtra Municipalities Act. Shaikh Mohamad Umarsaheb v. Kadalaskar Hasham Karimsab, (1969) 1 SCC 741: AIR 1970 SC 61.

Failure to give particulars of printing of the offending pamphlet is not detrimental and does not render the election petition liable to be dismissed. Thakur Virendra Singh v. Vimal Kumar, (1977) 1 SCC 718: AIR 1976 SC 2169. The printer of such pamphlet is not an accomplice and his statement can be received in evidence. Ibid.

Publication means and includes distribution also. Lalraoukung v. Maokho Lal Thangiom, 41 ELR 35. Recitation of a poem at a public meeting is publication. Kumara Nand v. Brij Mohan Lal Sharma, AIR

1967 SC 808: (1967) 2 SCJ 889. Belief of the candidate, and not of the person reciting the statement as to the falsehood of the statement is material. Ibid. This sub-section does not accept in respect of the statement the doctrine of constructive knowledge. Sheopal Singh v. Ram Pratap, AIR 1965 SC 677. A statement prohibited under this sub-section can not be validated on the ground that it was published to counteract the rival statement of an opponent. T.K. Gangi Reddy v. M.C. Anjaneya Reddy, 22 ELR 261. For more case law refer to "The Complete Digest of Supreme Court Cases", Vols. V and VI.

15. Hiring a vehicle: Sub-section (6). - In Balwant Singh v. Lakshmi Narain, AIR 1960 SC 770. the Supreme Court by a majority decided that in considering whether a corrupt practice had been committed, conveying of electors could not be dissociated from the hiring of a vehicle. The minority opinion was that unless the contract of hiring the vehicle was established, mere conveying the electors to and from the polling station did not amount to corrupt practice. Balwant Singh v. Lakshmi Narain, AIR 1960 SC 770. However, the majority opinion was reaffirmed in a subsequent case. D.D. Pawar v. Pandurang Raoji Jagtap, (1978) 1 SCC 504: AIR 1978 SC 351.

16. Obtaining assistance of Government Servants: Sub-section (7). - The material facts to be alleged in an election petition, challenging an election on the ground of corrupt practice, are as to whether the candidate obtained or procured or abetted or attempted to obtain or procure any assistance other than the giving of vote. Hardwari Lal v. Kanwal Singh, (1972) 1 SCC 214: AIR 1972 SC 515. The petitioner must prove that while the assistance was obtained the person concerned was still in Government service and the respondent had at that time become a candidate. Raj Narain v. Indira Nehru Gandhi, (1972) 3 SCC 850: AIR 1972 SC 1302. The assistance, objected to, must be meant for furthering the election. Y.S. Parmar v. Hira Lal, AIR 1959 SC 244: 1959 SCJ 483.

A Gram Panchayat is not in the service of the Government. Kishore Chandra Deo Bhanj v. Raghunath Misra, AIR 1959 SC 589: 1959 SCJ 612. Nor is a Municipality, a District Board, a cooperative society or a company in Government service. Ibid.

17. Sub-section (7)(f): Revenue Officer: Meaning. - A revenue officer is one who is employed in the business of revenue, and the term includes all such revenue officers in the chain of hierarchy in the revenue administration of the State. Gurmej Singh v. Pratap

Singh Kairon, AIR 1960 SC 122: 1960 SCJ 386.

Extra departmental agents in branch Post Offices and Presidents of Chowkidari Unions are not Government servants. Dibandhu Sahu v. Jadumoni Mangaraj, AIR 1954 SC411: 1954 SCJ 605. The proposing or seconding of a candidate by a Government servant is not a corrupt practice. Raj Krishna Bose v. 76 Binod Kanungo, AIR 1954 SC 202: 1954 SCJ 286. Appointment of a Government servant, as polling agent was, in absence of proof of canvassing work, not a corrupt practice. Mahendra Kumar v. Vidyavati, AIR 1956 SC 315. But if his presence, on account of his rank and importance might prove to be a source of unfair election practice and such appointment was made with the object of furthering the candidates election prospects such appointment would be bad. Satya Deo Bushahri v. Padam Dev, AIR 1955 SC 5: AIR 1954 SC 587: 1954 SCJ 764: 1955 SCJ 21.
