(h) the District Magistrate of every district any part of which is included in the development area, ex officio

(i) four Members to be elected by Sabhasads of the Nagar Mahapalika for the said city from amongst themselves:

Provided that any such member shall cease to hold office as such as soon he ceases to be Sabhasad of the Nagar Mahapalika;

(j) such other members not exceeding three as may be nominated by the State Government

(4) The appointment of the Vice-Chairman shall be whole-time.

(5) The Vice-Chairman shall be entitled to receive from the funds of the Authority such salaries and allowances and be governed by such conditions of service as may be determined by general or special order of the State Government in this behalf.

(6) A Member referred to in clause (c), clause (a), clause (e), or clause (f) of sub-section (3) may instead of attending a meeting of the Authority himself depute an officer, not below the rank of Deputy Secretary in the department, in the case of a member referred to in clause (c) or clause (d), and not below the rank of Town Planner in the case of a member referred to in clause (e) and not below the rank of Superintending Engineer in the case of a member referred to in clause (f), to attend the meeting. The officer so deputed shall have the right to take part in the proceedings of the meeting and shall also have the right to vote.

(7) The Authority in respect of a development area other than that mentioned in sub-section (3) shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman and not less than five and not more than eleven such other members, including at least one member each from the Municipal Boards and Notified Area Committees having jurisdiction in the development area, who shall hold office for such period and on such terms and conditions, as may be determined by general or special order of the State Government in this behalf:

Provided that the Vice-Chairman or a member other than an ex officio member of the Authority may at any time by writing under his hand addressed to the State Government resign his office and on such resignation being accepted shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

(8) No act or proceedings of the Authority shall be invalid by reason of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Authority.

5. Staff Of The Authority :-

(1) The State Government may appoint two suitable persons respectively as the Secretary and the Chief Accounts Officer of the Authority who shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by regulations or delegated to them by the Authority or its Vice-Chairman.

(2) Subject to such control and restrictions as may be determined by general or special order of the State Government, the Authority may appoint such number of other officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient performance of its functions and may determine their designations and grades

(3) The Secretary, the Chief Accounts Officer and other officers and employees of the Authority shall be entitled to receive from the funds of the Authority such salaries and allowances and shall be governed by such other conditions of service as may be determined by regulations made in that behalf.

5A. Creation Of Centralised Services :-

(1) (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 5 or in any other law for the time being in force, the State Government may at any time, by notification, create one or more 'Development Authorities Centralised Services for such posts, other than the posts mentioned in sub-section (4) of Section 59, as the State Government may deem fit, common to all the Development Authorities, and may prescribe the manner and conditions of recruitment to, and the terms and conditions of service of persons appointed to such service.

(2) Upon creation of a Development Authorities Centralised Service, a person serving on the posts included in such service immediately before such creation, not being a person governed by the U.P. Palika (Centralized) Services Rules, 1966, or serving on deputation, shall, unless he opts otherwise, be absorbed in such service, (a) finally, if he was already confirmed in his post, and

(a) Finally, if he was already confirmed in his and

(b) provisionally, if he was holding temporary or officiating appointment

(3) A person referred to in sub-section (2) may, within three months from the creation of such Development Authorities

Centralised Service communicate to the Government in the Housing Department, his option not to be absorbed in such Centralised Service, failing which he shall be deemed to have opted for final or provisional, as the case may be, absorption in such Centralised Service

(4) Suitability of a person absorbed provisionally, for final absorption in a Development Authorities Centralised Service, shall be examined in the manner prescribed and if found suitable he shall be absorbed finally

(5) The services of an employee who opts against absorption or who is not found suitable for final absorption, shall stand determined and he shall, without prejudice to his claim to any leave, pension, provident fund or gratuity which he would have been entitled to, be entitled to receive as compensation from the Development Authority concerned, an amount equal to

(a) three months salary, if he was a permanent employee

(b) one months salary, if he was a temporary employee.

Explanation: For the purposes of this sub-section the term "salary" includes dearness allowance, personal pay and special pay, if any.

(6) It shall be lawful for the State Government or any officer authorised by it in this behalf, to transfer any person holding any post in a Development Authorities Centralised Service from one Development Authority to another

6. Advisory Council :-

(1) The State Government may, if it thinks fit, constitute an Advisory Council for the purpose of advising the Authority on the preparation of the master plan and on such other matters relating to the planning of development or arising out of, or in connection with, the administration of this Act as may be referred to it by the Authority

(2) The Advisory Council in respect of a development area referred to in sub-section (3) of Section 4 shall consist of the following members, namely

(i) three members to be nominated by the State Government, one of whom shall represent the interest of labour and one the interest of industry and commerce in the development area.

(3) For the purpose of clause (h) of sub-section (2), the place of residence of a member of the Council of States or the State Legislative Council shall be deemed to be that mentioned in the notification of his election or nomination, as the case may be, as such member.

(4) An elected member under clause (d) of sub-section (2) shall hold office for a term of three years from the date of his election to the council and shall be eligible for re-election :

Provided that such term shall come to an end as soon as the member ceases to be a member of that local body from which he was elected.

(5) The Advisory Council, if any, in respect of a development area other than that mentioned in sub-section (2) shall consist of such members as may be determined by the State Government by general or special order in that behalf

(6) The [Advisory Council] shall meet as and when called by the Chairman: Provided that such meeting shall be held at least twice a year

7. Objects Of The Authority :-

The objects of the Authority shall be to promote and secure the development of the development area according to plan and for that purpose the Authority shall have the power to acquire, hold, manage and dispose of land and other property, to carry out building, engineering, mining and other operations, to execute works in connection with the supply of water and electricity, to dispose of sewage and to provide and maintain other services and amenities and generally to do anything necessary or expedient for purposes of such development and for purposes incidental thereto : Provided that save as provided in this Act nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as authorising the disregard by the Authority of any law for the time being in force

CHAPTER 3 THE MASTER PLAN AND ZONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN

8. Civil Survey Of, And Master Plan For The Development Area :-

- (1) The Authority shall, as soon as may be, prepare a master plan for the development area
- (2) The master plan shall -
 - (a) define the various zones into which the development area may be divided for the purposes of development and indicate the manner in which the land in each zone is proposed to be used (whether by the carrying out thereon of development or otherwise) and the stages by which any such development shall be carried out; and
 - (b) serve as a basic pattern of framework within which the zonal development plans of the various zones may be prepared
- (3) The master plan may provide for any other matter which may be necessary for the proper development of the development area

9. Zonal Development Plans :-

- (1) Simultaneously with the preparation of the master plan or as soon as may be thereafter, the Authority shall proceed with the preparation of a zonal development plan for each of the zones into which the development area may be divided
- (2) A zonal development plan may
 - (a) contain a site-plan and use-plan for the development of the zone and show the approximate locations and extents of land uses proposed in the zone for such things as public buildings and other public works and utilities, roads, housing, recreation, industry, business, markets, schools, hospitals and public and private open spaces and other categories of public and private uses

(b) specify the standards of population density and building density

(c) show every area in the zone which may, in the opinion of the Authority, be required declared for development or re-development ; and

(d) in particular, contain provisions regarding all or any of the following matters, namely

(i) the division of any site into plots for the erection of buildings

(ii) the allotment or reservation of land for roads, open spaces, gardens, recreation-grounds. schools, markets and other public purposes

(iii) the development of any area into a township or colony and the restrictions and conditions subject to which such development may be undertaken or carried out

(iv) the erection of buildings on any site and the restrictions and conditions in regard to the open spaces to be maintained in or around buildings and height and character of buildings

(v) the alignment of buildings of any site

(vi) the architectural features of the elevation or frontage of any building to be erected on any site

(vii) the number of residential buildings which may be erected on plot or site

(viii) the amenities to be provided in relation to any site or buildings on such site whether before or after the erection of buildings and the person or authority by whom or at whose expense such amenities are to be provided

(ix) the prohibitions or restrictions regarding erection of shops, work shops, warehouses or factories or buildings of a specified architectural feature or buildings designed for particular purposes in the locality; (x) the maintenance of walls, fences, hedges or any other structural or architectural construction and the height at which they shall be maintained

(xi) the restrictions regarding the use of any site for purposes other than erection of buildings

(xii) any other matter which is necessary for the proper development of the zone or any area thereof according to plan and for preventing buildings being erected haphazardly in such zone or area

10. Submission Of Plans To The State Government For Approval :-

(1) In this section and in Sections 11, 12, 14 and 16 the word "plan" means the master plan as well as the zonal development plan for a zone

(2) Every plan shall, as may be after its preparation, be submitted by the Authority to the State Government for approval and that Government may either approve the plan without modification or with such modifications as it may consider necessary or reject the plan with directions to the Authority to prepare a fresh plan according to such directions

11. Procedure To Be Followed In The Preparation And Approval Of Plan :-

(1) Before preparing any plan finally and submitting it to the State Government for approval, the Authority shall prepare a plan in draft and publish it by making a copy thereof available for inspection and publishing a notice in such form and manner as may be prescribed by regulations made in that behalf inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the draft plan before such date as may be specified in the notice

(2) The Authority shall also give reasonable opportunity to every local authority within whose local limits and land touched by the plan is situated, to make any representation with respect to the plan

(3) After considering all objections, suggestions and representations that may have been received by the Authority, the Authority shall finally prepare the plan and submit it to the State Government for its approval

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, the State Government may direct the Authority to furnish such information as that Government may require for the purpose of approving any plan submitted to it under this section

12. Date Of Commencement Of Plan :-

Immediately after a plan has been approved by the State Government, the authority shall publish in such manner as the State Government may specify, a notice stating that a plan has been approved and naming a place where a copy of the plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours, and upon the date of first publication of the aforesaid notice the plan shall come into operation.

Chapter IIIA ARTERIAL ROADS IN DEVELOPMENT AREA

12A. Maintenance And Improvement Of Facade Of Certain Buildings Abut Ting Arterial Roads :-

(1) Where in any development area, any building occupied wholly for non-residential purposes or partly for residential and partly for non residential purposes abuts an arterial road, the occupier of such building shall be bound to repair, whitewash, colour-wash or paint the facade of such building at his own cost in accordance with any bye-laws made in that behalf

(2) Where the authority, with a view to ensuring symmetry with any colour scheme or other specification made in that behalf considers it necessary or expedient so to do, or where any occupier fails to repair, whitewash, colour-wash or paint the facade of any building in accordance with sub-section (1), it may by order require that the said work shall be carried out by the Authority itself or under its direction, and may accordingly, also require the occupier to pay the cost of such work to the Authority

(3) The cost of any work referred to in sub-section (2) shall be calculated on a `no profit, no loss basis, and in case of any dispute about the reasonableness of the amount required to be deposited, the same shall be decided by the State Government, and subject thereto, the order of the Authority shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court

(4) In case of non-payment by an occupier of the whole or part of the cost of any work referred to in sub-section (2), it shall, on the certificate of the Vice-Chair man, be recoverable from the occupier as arrears of land revenue.

Explanation - In this section

(a) the expression "arterial road" shall have the meaning assigned to it in the bye-laws

(b) the expression "occupier", in relation to a building, means the person in actual occupation or use of the building, and includes

- (i) the owner (which expression shall include an agent or trustee or a receiver, sequestrator or manager appointed by a court, or a mortgagee with possession of the building) in occupation
- (ii) the tenant who for the time being is paying or is liable to pay rent in respect thereof to the owner
- (iii) the rent-free guarantee or licensee thereof
- (iv) the person who is liable to pay to the owner damages for unauthorized use and occupation thereof

CHAPTER 4 AMENDMENT OF THE MASTER PLAN AND THE ZONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN

13. Amendment Of Plan :-

(1) The Authority may make any amendments in the master plan or the zonal development plan as it thinks fit, being amendments which, in its opinion do not effect important alterations in the character of the plan and which do not relate to the extent of land uses or the standards of population density

(2) The State Government may make amendments in the master plan or the zonal development plan whether such amendments are of the nature specified in sub-section (1) or otherwise

(3) Before making any amendments in the plan, the Authority, or, as the case may be, the State Government shall publish a notice in at least one newspaper having circulation in the development area inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the proposed amendments before such date as may be specified in the notice and shall consider all objections and suggestions that may be received by the Authority or the State Government

(4) Every amendment made under this section shall be published in such manner as the Authority or the State Government, as the case may be, may specify, and the amendments shall come into operation either on the date of the first publication or on such other date as the Authority or the State Government, as the case may be, may fix

(5) When the Authority makes any amendment in the plan under sub-section (1) it shall report to the State Government the full particulars of such amendments within thirty days of the date on which such amendments come into operation

(6) If any question arises whether the amendments proposed to be made by the Authority are amendments which effect important alterations in the character of the plan or whether they relate to the extent of land uses or the standards of population density, it shall be referred to the State Government whose decision thereon shall be final

(7) Any reference in any other Chapter, except Chapter III, to the master plan or the zonal development plan shall be construed as a reference to the master plan or the zonal development plan as amended under this section

CHAPTER 5 DEVELOPMENT OF LANDS

14. Development Of Land In The Developed Area :-

(1) After the declaration of any area as development area under Section 3, no development of land shall be undertaken or carried out or continued in that area by any person or body (including a department of Government) unless permission for such development has been obtained in writing from the "[Vice-Chairman] in accordance with the provisions of this Act

(2) After the coming into operation of any of the plans in any development area no development shall be undertaken or carried out or continued in that area unless such development is also in accordance with such plans.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the following provisions shall apply in relation to development of land by any department of any State Government or the Central Government or any local authority

(a) when any such department or local authority intends to carry out any development of land it shall inform the t4[Vice-Chairman] in writing of its intention to do so, giving full particulars thereof, including any plans and documents, at least 30 days before undertaking such development;

(b) in the case of a department of any State Government or the Central Government, if the 14[Vice-Chairman] has no objection it should inform such department of the same within three weeks from the date of receipt by it under clause (a) of the departments intention, and if the 14[Vice Chairman] does not make any objection within the said period the department shall be free to carry out the proposed development;

(c) where the 14[Vice-Chairman] raises any objection to the proposed devel opment on the ground that the development is not in conformity with any Master Plan or zonal development plan prepared or intended to be prepared by it, or on any other ground, such department or the local authority, as the case may be, shall -

(i) either make necessary modifications in the proposal for development to meet the objections raised by the [Vice-Chairman];

submit the proposals for development together with the objections raised by the [Vice-Chairman] to the State Government for decision under clause (cl);

(d) the State Government, on receipt of proposals for development together with the objections of the [Vice-Chairman], may either approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the department or the local authority, as the case may be, to make such modifications as proposed by the Government and the decision of the State Government shall be final;

(e) the development of any land begun by any such department or subject to the provisions of Section 59 by any such local authority before the declaration referred to in sub-section (1) may be completed by that department or local authority with compliance with the requirements of sub-sections (1) and (2)

15. Application For Permission :-

(1) Every person or body (other than any department of Government or any local authority) desiring to obtain the permission referred to in Section 14 shall make an application in writing to the [Vice-Chairman] in such form and containing such particulars in respect of the development to which the application relates as may be prescribed by [by-laws]

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed by rules.

(2-A) The Authority shall be entitled to levy development fees, mutation charges, stacking fees and water fees in such manner and at such rates as may be prescribed

Provided that the amount of stacking fees levied in respect of an area which is not being developed or has not been developed, by the Authority, shall be transferred to the local authority within whose local limits such area is situated.]

(3) On the receipt of an application for permission under subsection (1), the [Vice-Chairman] after making such inquiry as it considers necessary in relation to any matter specified in clause (ci) of sub-section (2) of Section 9 or in relation to any other matter, shall, by order in writing either grant the permission, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order or refuse to grant such permission:

Provided that before making an order refusing such permission, the applicant shall be given a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the permission should not be refused:

Provided further that the [Vice-Chairman] may before passing any order on such application give an opportunity to the applicant to make any correction therein or to supply any further particulars of documents or to make good any deficiency in the requisite fee with a view to bringing it in conformity with the relevant rules or regulations:

[Provided also that before granting permission, referred to in Section 14, the Vice-Chairman may get the fees and the charges levied under sub-section (2-A) deposited;]

(4) Where permission is refused, the grounds of such refusal shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the applicant.

(5) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (4) may appeal to the [Chairman] against that order within thirty days from the communication thereof and may after giving an opportunity of hearing to the appellant and, if necessary, also to the representative of the [Vice-Chairman] either dismiss the appeal or direct the [Chairman] to grant the permission applied for with such modifications, or subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified

(6) The [Vice-Chairman] shall keep in such form as may be Prescribed by regulations a register of applications for permission under this section

(7) The said register shall contain such particulars, including information as to the manner in which applications for permission have been dealt with, as may be prescribed by regulations, and shall be available for inspection by any member of the public at all reasonable hours on payment of such fee not exceeding rupees five as may be prescribed by regulations.

(8) Where permission is refused under this section, the applicant or any person- claiming through him shall not be entitled to get refund of the fee paid on the application for permission but the "[Vice-Chairman] may, on an application for refund being made within three months of the communication of the grounds of the refusal under sub-section (4) direct refund of such portion of the fee as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

(9) If at any time after the permission has been granted under sub-section (3), the Vice-Chairman is satisfied that such permission was granted in consequence of any material misrepresentation made or any fraudulent statement or information furnished, he may cancel such permission, for reasons to be recorded in writing and any work done thereunder shall be deemed to have been done without such permission

Provided that a permission shall not be cancelled without affording to the person or body concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard.]

15A. Completion Certificate :-

(1) Every person or body having been granted permission under sub-section (3) of Section 15, shall complete the developments according to the approved plan and send a notice in writing of such completion to the Authority, and obtain a completion certificate from the Authority in the manner prescribed or provided in the bye-laws of the Authority:

Provided that if completion certificate is not granted and refusal to grant it is not intimated within three months after receipt of the notice of completion, it shall be deemed that the completion certificate has been granted by- the Authority

(2) No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any commercial building or use or permit to be used such building or part thereof affected by any work until

(a) completion certificate has been issued by the Authority, or

(b) Authority has failed for three months after the receipt of the notice of completion to intimate its refusal of grant of the said certificate.

Explanation- For the purposes of this section the expression 'commercial building shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Uttar Pradesh Municipal Corporations Act, 1959.

16. Uses Of Land And Buildings In Contravention Of Plans :-

After the coming into operation of any of the plans in a zone no person shall use or permit to be used any land or building in that zone otherwise than in conformity with such plan

CHAPTER 6 ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND

17. Compulsory Acquisiton Of Land :-

(1) If in the opinion of the State Govern ment, any land is required for the purpose of development, or for any other purpose, under this Act the State Government may acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894

Provided that any person from whom any land is so acquired may after the expiration of a period of five years from the date of such acquisition apply to the State Government for restoration of that land to him on the ground that the land has not been utilized within the period for the purpose for which it was acquired, and if the State Government is satisfied to that effect it shall order restoration of the land to him on re-payment of the charges which were incurred in connection with the acquisition together with interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum and such development charges, if any, as may have been incurred after acquisition.

(2) Where any land has been acquired by the State Government, that Govern ment may, after it has taken possession of the land transfer the land to the Authority or any local authority for the purpose for which the land has been acquired on payment by Authority or the local Authority of the compensation awarded under that Act and of the charges incurred by the Government in connection with the acquisition.

18. Disposal Of Land By The Authority Or The Local Authority Concerned :-

(1) Subject to any directions given by the State Government in this behalf, the Authority or, as the case may be, the local Authority concerned may dispose of -

(a) any land acquired by the State Government and transferred to it, without undertaking or carrying out any development thereon; or

(b) any such land after undertaking or carrying out such development as it thinks fit, to such persons, in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions as it considers expedient for securing the development of the development area according to plan

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling the Authority or the local Authority concerned to dispose of land by way of gift, but subject thereto, references in this Act, to the disposal of land shall be construed as references to the disposal thereof in any manner, whether by way of sale, exchange or lease or by the creation of any easement, right or privilege or otherwise.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the Authority or the local Authority concerned may create a mortgage or charge over such land (including any building thereon) in favour of the Life Insurance Corporation of India, the Housing and Urban Development Corporation, or a banking company as defined in the Uttar Pradesh Public Moneys (Recovery of Dues) Act, 1972 or any other financial institution approved by general or special order in this behalf by the State Government.

(4) Where vacant land has been disposed of under this section by way of lease for making constructions within the stipulated time with right of forfeiture of the lease and re-entry upon failure to make constructions within such time, and the lessee fails without sufficient reason, to make the constructions or a substantial portion thereof, within the stipulated time or such extended time as the lessor may grant, the lessor may, [subject to the provisions of sub-section (4-A),] forfeit the lease and re-enter upon the land:

Provided that no forfeiture and re-entry shall be made unless the lessee has been allowed reasonable opportunity to show cause against the proposed action.

(4-A) Where a lessee fails to make construction within the stipulated time, and the extended time, if any, under sub-section (4) so that the total period from the date of lease exceeds five years, a charge at the rate of two per cent of the prevailing market value of the concerned land shall be realised every year from him by the lessor and if from the date of imposition of the said charge a further period of five years elapses, the lease shall stand forfeited and the lessor shall re-enter upon the land:

Provided that where the period of five years has expired before the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Planning and Development (Amendment) Act, 1997, or where the period of five years expires within one year after such commencement, the charge shall be realizable after a period of one year from the date of such commencement.

(5) Upon such forfeiture and re-entry, the premium paid by the lessee for such land shall be refunded without any interest, after deducting

(a) the amount, if any, due to the lessor under that lease, and

(b) a sum equivalent to 5 per cent of the premium, for administrative expenses.

(6) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (4) may, within 30 days from the date of knowledge thereof, prefer an appeal to the District Judge whose decision shall be final

(7) The land so re-entered upon after forfeiture of lease may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions, of sub-sections (1) and (2).

19. Nazul Lands :-

(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Gazette and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between that Government and the Authority, place at the disposal of the Authority all or any developed and undeveloped lands in the development area vested in the State (known and hereinafter referred to as "nazul lands"), for the purpose of development in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) After any nazul land has been placed at the disposal of the Authority under sub-section (1), no development of any such land shall be undertaken or carried out except by or under the control and supervision of the Authority

(3) After any such nazul land has been developed by or under the control and supervision of the Authority it shall be dealt with by the Authority in accordance with the directions given by the State Government in that behalf

(4) If any nazul land placed at the disposal of the Authority under sub-section (1) is required at any time thereafter by the State Government, the Authority shall, by notification in the Gazette, replace it at the disposal of that Government upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between that Government and the Authority done by, with or for the Corporation in relation to such properties or in relation to the functions specified in Chapter XIV of the said Act, shall be deemed to relate to the performance of functions assigned to the Development Authority by this Act and clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) shall apply accordingly.

(7) If any dispute arises between any Local Authority or a Development Authority whether for purposes of clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (6) any debt, obligation or liability was incurred or any contract was entered into or anything was engaged to be done by, with or for any local Authority, or any property vested in any local authority, or any rent, fee or other sum was due to any local authority, in relation exclusively to the performance of functions assigned by this Act to the Development Authority it shall be referred to the State Government whose decision shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(8) If any question arises whether for the purpose of sub-section (3) any officer or other employee of the [Municipal Corporation] concerned was immediately before the date of constitution of the Development Authority employed exclusively in connection with the performance of functions under Chapter XIV of [the Uttar Pradesh Municipal Corporations Act, 1959] in the area for which the Development Authority is constituted it shall be referred to the State Government, whose decision shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(9) Nothing in sub-sections (3) and (4) shall apply to an officer or other employee of a [Municipal Corporation]³ or an Improvement Trust, as the case may be, who within one month from the date of the constitution of the Development Authority concerned intimates the Corporation, or Trust of his option not to become an employee of the Development Authority, and on receipt of such intimation by that body, his employment thereunder shall stand immediately determined, and his post under that body shall stand abolished, and he shall be entitled to receive from that body compensation

(a) if he was employed immediately before the date of the constitution of the Development Authority, in a permanent capacity, equivalent to three months salary

(b) if he was employed immediately before the date of the constitution of the Development Authority in a temporary capacity, equivalent to one months salary

Explanation :

In this sub-section, the expression "salary" includes Dearness Allowance, Special Pay or any other, allowance, like periodical allowance or pay.

(10) Notwithstanding anything contained in the U.P Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of services of any officer or the employee of the Development Authority under sub-section (3) or sub-section (5) shall not entitle him to any compensation under that Act or such other law, and no such claim shall be entertained by any court, tribunal or authority.

(11) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (3) and (5) no appointment made or promotion, increment in salary, pension, allowance or any other benefit granted to any person after the commencement of this Act and before the date of constitution of the Development Authority which in the opinion of the Development Authority would not ordinarily have been made or granted or would not ordinarily have been admissible under the terms and conditions of service in force prior to the commencement of this Act shall have effect or be payable or claimable from the Development Authority or from any Provident, Pension or other fund or from any authority administering the fund unless the State Government has, by general or special order, confirmed the appointment, promotion or increment or has directed the continued grant of the pension, allowance or other benefit, as the case may be.

(12) For the persons who immediately before the date of constitution of the Development Authority were trustees of any pension, provident, gratuity or other like fund constituted for the officers and other employees referred to in sub-section (3) or sub-section (5), other than trustees nominated by or under any law, there shall be substituted as trustees such persons as the State Government may by general or special order specify.

(13) For the purposes of clauses (b), (c), (d) and (e) of sub-section (6) all the functions of a [Municipal Corporation] under Chapter XIV of [the Uttar Pradesh Municipal Corporations Act, 1959]⁵ and all the functions of the Uttar Pradesh Avas Evam Vikas Parishad under the Uttar Pradesh Avas Evam Vikas Parishad Adhiniyam, 1965, other than those related to any ⁶[Special Avas Parishad Schemes] shall be deemed to be functions assigned to the Development Authority by this Act.

(14) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 365 of [the Uttar Pradesh Municipal Corporations Act, 1959]^g, all acquisition of land and interest in land for an improvement scheme the functions in respect of which are to be deemed as functions assigned to the Development Authority under sub-section (13) shall be completed at least up to the stage of making awards on or before December 31, 1982.

NOTES :

Section 6 of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Development Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976, amends Section 59 of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 to authorise the Avas and Vikas Parishad in exceptional cases to initiate new schemes also in areas falling within the jurisdiction of Development Authorities.

Clause (a) of sub-section (1) of this section suspends the operation of certain enactments and makes the provisions of Sections 6 and 24 of the U.P. General Clauses Act, 1904 applicable as if the suspension amounted to repeal of the said enactments. Sections 6 and 24 of the United Provinces General Clauses Act, 1904 (U.P. Act 1 of 1904) are reproduced below in full:

(6) Effect of repeal.-Where any Uttar Pradesh Act repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or

(e) affect any remedy, or any investigation or legal proceeding commenced before the repealing Act shall have come into operation in respect of any such right, privilege obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such remedy may be enforced and any such investigation or legal proceeding may be continued and concluded, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment imposed as if the repealing Act had not been passed."

(24) Continuation of appointments, notifications, orders, etc., issued under enactments repealed and re-enacted -

Where any enactment is repealed and re-enacted by an Uttar Pradesh Act with or without modification, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law, made or issued under the repealed enactment shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions re-enacted, continue in force, and be deemed to have been made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted, unless and until it is superseded by any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted."

In Section 59(1)(a), the expression "by this Ordinance" is wrong. The Uttar Pradesh Urban Planning and Development Ordinance, 1973, is repealed by Section 60 (1) of this Act and as such the reference to the said Ordinance should have been substituted by reference to the Act itself. It is hoped that in the next amendment of the Act, this mistake would be rectified with retrospective effect.

60. Repeal And Savings :-

(1) The Uttar Pradesh Urban Planning and Development Ordinance, 1973 (U.P Ordinance 7 of 1973), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall, be deemed to have been done or taken under this Act, as if this Act had commenced on the 12th day of June, 1973.
