SHORT NOTES Relevant date for determination of right.-Mere use of the word "Khudkasht" in the lease/sub-lease of 1931 does not mean that the plaintiffs were Zamindars. In any case in the revenue records since before 7-8 years of Zamindari Abolition till Zamindari abolition the plaintiffs were recorded as fixed rate tenant/tenants. Thus the Board of Revenue rightly held that the relevant date for determining the right of the plaintiffs was the date on which the zamindari was abolished.-Daya ShanKar v. Board of Revenue and others, 2008 (104) RD1.

Provided that where a declaration has been made under Section 143 in respect of any holding or part thereof, the provisions of Schedule II insofar as they relate to suits, applications or proceedings under Chapter VIII shall not apply to such holding or part thereof.

Explanation.- If the cause of action is one in respect of which relief may be granted by the revenue Court, it is immaterial that the relief asked for from the civil Court may not be incidental to that which the revenue Court would have granted.

(1-A) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), an objection, that a Court mentioned in Column 4 of Schedule II, or, as the case may be, a civil Court, which had no jurisdiction with respect to the suit, application or proceeding, exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by any appellate or revisional Court unless the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement, and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice.

SHORT NOTES Concurrent findings not to be interfered with.-It is evident that the two Courts were of consistent view that the revenue records clearly establish the right and possession of the defendants and unless and until the plaintiffs right or even possession is not established, injunction could not be granted,
