Judgement

Sanjay K. Agrawal, J

1. In a civil suit filed by the petitioner/plaintiff on 25/08/2008, the petitioner herein filed an application under Order 14 Rule 5 of the CPC on 22/07/2019

for correction in the issues already framed which was rejected by learned 9th Civil Judge Class II, Bilaspur vide impugned order dated 02/08/2019 against which this writ petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been preferred by the petitioner.

2. Ms. Juhi Jaiswal, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner herein would submit that issues so framed by the trial Court are required to be amended in light of the report submitted by the Commissioner, therefore, learned trial Court is absolutely unjustified in rejecting petitioner's application under Order 14 Rule 5 of the CPC, as such, the impugned order is liable to be set aside.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner at length.

4. Learned trial Court has rejected petitioner's application under Order 14 Rule 5 of the CPC on the ground of delay holding that the suit is pending since 25/08/2008 and the matter is at the stage of final hearing in which I do not find any infirmity or perversity warranting interference under Article

227 of the Constitution of India. However, learned trial Court is directed to consider the prayer made by the petitioner/plaintiff by way of her application under Order 14 Rule 5 of the CPC and hear the parties at the time of final hearing without being prejudiced by the impugned order.

5. With the aforesaid direction/observation, this writ petition stands disposed of.

6. A copy of this order be sent to the concerned trial Court by e-mail/fax. Certified copy, as per rules.
