Judgement

Nandita Dubey, J

Heard on I.A. No.54/2023, which is an application for grant of ad-interim bail to the applicant.

The applicant apprehends his arrest in connection with Crime No.399/2022 registered at Police Station- Station Road Pipariya, District

Narmadapuram, for the offences punishable under Sections 376-D, 376(2)(n), 506 of IPC.

The applicant is posted in Indian Army and an FIR has been lodged against him by the prosecutrix/complainant that on the pretext of marriage the applicant has committed sexual intercourse with her.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the prosecutrix is major and having an affair with the applicant. He is ready to marry the prosecutrix and even as per the allegation the relation between the prosecutrix and himself is consensual. It is submitted that a false complaint has been lodged under the threat and force of the family members of the prosecutrix. It is stated that in case if the applicant is arrested his career will be jeopardized.

Learned counsel for the complainant prays for a week's time to verify as to whether the prosecutrix is ready to marry the present applicant or not.

Considering the aforesaid, list this matter in the next week.

In the meanwhile, as an interim protection, it is directed that in the event of arrest, applicant shall be released on ad-interim bail on his furnishing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand only) with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer.

Accordingly, this application for ad-interim bail (I.A. No.54/2023) is allowed.
