Ravindra Maithani, J

1. Applicant is in judicial custody in FIR No. 69 of 2024, under Sections 420, 417, 120B, 467, 468, 471 IPC, Police Station Haldwani, District Nainital.

He has sought his release on bail.

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

3. According to the FIR, the Government land in the Company Bagh, Haldwani (the property) was sold on multiple occasions by illegal plotting, illegal construction etc. The FIR makes allegations against the co-accused Safia Malik as to how did she claim the property of her own by filing affidavits in some petitions before the Court.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant would submit that the co-accused Safia Malik has already been granted bail. The role of the applicant is not dissimilar. In fact, it is lighter than co-accused Safia Malik. Therefore, it is a case fit for bail.

5. Learned State counsel would submit that the co-accused Safia Malik did file false affidavits in legal proceedings and those affidavits have been prepared by the applicant. It is argued that the property was sold on multiple occasions by forging documents by the applicant and the co-accused. She would also submit that unauthorised constructions were raised in the Government area by the applicant.

6. It is the stage of bail. Much of the discussion is not expected of. Arguments are being appreciated with the caveat that any observation made in this order shall have no bearing at any subsequent stage of the trial or in any other proceedings.

7. There are allegations against the co-accused Safia Malik in the FIR as to how did she claim the property of her own. There are allegations against the co-accused Safia Malik as to how she filed a false affidavit in a legal proceedings before this Court. The FIR records that the applicant and the co-accused did illegal plotting, illegal constructions and unauthorised transfer of the property.

8. Having considered the fact that co-accused Safia Malik has already been granted bail and other attending factors, this Court is of the view that the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail.

9. The bail application is allowed.

10. Let the applicant be released on bail, on his executing a personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties, each of the like amount, to the satisfaction of the Court concerned.
