

(2001) 05 P&H CK 0192

High Court Of Punjab And Haryana At Chandigarh

Case No: C.W.P. 13270 of 1999

Joginder Singh

APPELLANT

Vs

State of Punjab

RESPONDENT

Date of Decision: May 18, 2001Acts Referred:

- Constitution of India, 1950 - Article 226

Hon'ble Judges: S.S. Sudhalkar, JBench: Single BenchAdvocate: Harinder Sharma, for the Appellant; S.K. Bhatia, DAG, for the RespondentFinal Decision: Dismissed

Judgement

S.S. Sudhalkar, J.

The petitioner was working as a Driver when his services were terminated by the respondents. He raised an industrial dispute which was referred to the Labour Court and the Labour Court, by its award dated 9.2.1989, ordered his reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages. After this order, the respondents by order dated 13.9.1989, copy Annexure P6, instead of appointing the petitioner as a Driver, appointed him as Assistant Foreman (Work Charge) in his own pay scale of Driver. Subsequently, on 6.2.1996 by order, Annexure P7, the petitioner was appointed as Assistant Foreman against vacant post. It is mentioned that he was appointed on promotion and in the pay scale of Rs. 950-1800. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that though the word "promotion" was mentioned, the pay scale given to him was lower than the pay scale he was earlier having as that of a Driver. Subsequently, on 23.6.1998 the post of Driver was sanctioned and respondent No. 5 was appointed as a regular Driver.

2. But this writ petition, the petitioner prays that the award of the Labour Court dated 9.2.1989 has not been implemented as he was not appointed as Driver and now he should be appointed as Driver. It is noteworthy that no representation before 23.6.1998 is available for perusal which goes to show that till the regular post of Driver was sanctioned and filled up, the petitioner did not find it proper to make any move for being reinstated as a Driver instead of as a Foreman. The post sanctioned on 23.6.1998, as per the statement of the learned counsel or the petitioner, is a permanent post of Driver. Learned counsel has, on query, stated that before the termination of his services as Driver, the post which the petitioner was holding was of workcharged Driver in the pay scale of Rs. 950-1200. It is too late for the petitioner now to raise a dispute after about ten years that the award is not implemented. He did not raise any dispute when he was asked to join as a Foreman. He did not raise any dispute when in the years 1989, according to him, he was appointed on a lower pay scale. It is not shown as to how the petitioner can get a right on the post of a permanent Driver when he was earlier working on 89 days basis.

This writ petition is filed at a belated stage when the post of permanent Drivers was sanctioned.

In view of all the above reasons, this writ petition is dismissed.

3. Petition dismissed.