The order Annexure P6, reads as follow:-

2. The petitioners claim that they had been employed by respondent No. 4, Managing Committee of Vidya Mandir Senior Secondary School, Sector 15-A, Faridabad, Haryana, having joined on 24.2.1979 and 19.5.1980 respectively but their services have been terminated w.e.f. 31.3.2006 after service of 23 years and 13 years respectively.

3. It is apt to refer to the judgment of this Court Annexure P7, passed in CWP No. 17710 of 2009, titled Smt. Raj Bala and others Vs. State of Haryana and others, decided on 18.11.2010. In the above petition, the office order Annexure P6, dated 19.3.2006, was challenged by the co-employees of the petitioners. In the said writ petition the termination of similarly circumstanced teachers was held to be valid w.e.f. 19.3.2009. They were deemed to be in service till then. It was held that they would be entitled to emoluments/salary at the admissible rates from the date of initial termination i.e., till the date of grant of approval i.e., 19.3.2009. It was directed that the claims of the said petitioners will be determined and paid within a period of three months. The LPA No. 938 of 2012 filed by Vidya Mandir Senior Secondary School was dismissed on 15.1.2013.

4. Mr. R.D. Sharma, learned State counsel has submitted that the State cannot be foisted with any liability with grant-in-aid as sanction has already been stayed w.e.f. 1.4.2006. The said fact has already been mentioned in Annexure P6 and stands decided vide judgment in case Smt. Raj Bala and others (supra).

5. The petitioners had earlier filed a writ petition in which a direction was issued that the case of the petitioners will be considered in the light of judgment in case Smt. Raj Bala and others (supra). The judgment in above case has not been followed by the respondents while passing order Annexure P8. The order Annexure P8 also deserves to be set aside.

6. In view of above said circumstances, this petition deserves to be disposed of in the same terms as in Smt. Raj Bala and others (supra). Following the judgment in above case, it is held that the services of the petitioners will be deemed to have been validly terminated w.e.f. 19.3.2009. They will be deemed to be in service till then. It is further held that the petitioners are entitled to the emoluments/salary at the permissible rates from the date of initial termination till the date of grant of approval i.e., 19.3.2009. It is directed that the claim of the petitioners will be determined by the respondents afresh within a period of three months. The order Annexure P8 is also quashed. Disposed of as stated above.
